Resolved, That it would be unreasonable longer to burden the General with matters for which this Congress ought to provide; and, therefore, that the said business be, and it is hereby, referred to the said Committee, and that they be, and hereby are, authorized and directed to execute the same; and further, that they carry into execution all such resolves of the Continental Congress, and comply with all such necessary requisitions of the General, as require so much despatch as to render an application to this Congress impracticable, or attended with dangerous delay.

Resolved, That the following persons, to wit, Mr. Hobart, Mr. Morris, Colonel L. Graham, Mr. Gansevort, Mr. Randall, and Colonel Remsen, or any three of them, constitute the aforesaid Committee. That Mr. Tredwell and Mr. Jay be, and they are hereby, discharged from the said Committee, and that the said Committee be, and they hereby are, authorized and empowered to administer to Colonel Remsen an oath similar to that taken by the other Members of the said Committee on their former appointment.

* EAST-HAMPTON, July 5, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: At a meeting of the joint Committees of South and East-Hampton, taking under our most serious consideration the situation of the stock now on Montock, at the east end of Long-Island, we look upon it that there is danger of said stock falling into the hands of our enemies, unless some speedy measures are taken to prevent the same. We, therefore, request that some effectual measures may be taken, which shall be thought most beneficial to the owners of said stock in particular, and America in general. We look upon it, that the stock at Montock might be of great service for the support of our armies, if they should be protected there. Gentlemen, we look upon it as a matter of great importance; therefore beg your speedy direction.

We are, gentlemen, your humble servants.

Signed by order of the meeting:

MALTBY GELSTON, Chairman.

To the Provincial Congress of New-York.

Resolved, That the same be postponed, and that next Thursday be appointed to take the same into consideration.

Mr. Morris, from the Committee to whom was recommended the Report on the Letters and Resolutions of Continental Congress relative to the raising another Regiment in this State, reported the draft of a Letter to be written to the Continental Congress; which being read, was unanimously taken into consideration, and the same being again read, paragraph by paragraph, and some amendments made therein, was unanimously agreed to, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York, }
White-Plains, Westchester County, July 11, 1776. }

"SIR: In pursuance of a Resolution of your honourable House, of the 17th of June last, we have passed a resolve to authorize the Commander-in-Chief to call out all or any part of our Militia whenever he might think it necessary; of which we enclose you a copy, marked No. 1.

"We have also taken into consideration the recommendation of the Congress relative to the providing of clothing for the troops, and passed the resolution of which we enclose you a copy, marked No. 2.

"As soon as we had received the resolution of Congress for raising a Regiment in this Colony, in order to provide for those officers who had served in Canada, we referred it to a Committee, expecting from them an arrangement which would preserve the rank of those officers, and thereby prevent all disgusts and just grounds of resignation, it being our opinion that inferior officers should not be raised over their superiors, unless in cases of extraordinary and distinguished merit. And although we could not forbear observing that the recommendation of Mr. Dubois tended in some measure to impair that liberty of nomination, without which the privilege would be ineffectual, yet, as we conceived that such instances were not frequent, we had determined to comply with the request.

"But, sir, we are much surprised and most deeply affected by the resolution of Congress of the 26th June, by which it appears that your honourable House had taken from us the right of nominating not only the Field-Officers, but also the Captains and Lieutenants of that Regiment—a measure so contrary to the common usage hitherto observed and practised upon in all similar cases, as to raise a discrimination highly invidious to this State; and it is our great misfortune not to perceive the force of those three reasons which your honourable House had thought fit to assign to us.

"The first, sir, is, that the Congress was furnished with a list of the officers who had served in Canada, and were therefore enabled to appoint without our interposition. We shall readily admit that the Congress may in this, and in other cases, have sufficient information to enable them to make such appointments; yet we submit it to their superior wisdom, whether the ability they may thence derive to perform an act, can constitute a right of doing it. And if we suppose those appointments did (by the common usages) appertain to us, then how far the mere capacity of making them, could vest the right in any other body whatsoever.

"The second reason, sir, is, that the Congress have appointed only such officers as were originally appointed and recommended by us, and that we should probably have fixed our choice on the same persons. We shall acknowledge it to be merely possible that in the course of human affairs, we might by some chance have fixed upon those persons which are agreeable to your honourable House, and it is strictly true, that the greater part of the officers were appointed and recommended by us the last year, although not to the same rank and commissions which your honourable body have thought fit to confer upon them; but it is equally true that several of them have never been recommended or appointed by us, and one of them, if not more, has never been in the service at all; and we are really at a loss to conceive that our nomination of officers in a Regiment disbanded after the term of its inlistment was expired, can, upon the raising of a new regiment, deprive us of that right of nomination, and vest it in the Congress; nor can we be of opinion that another body ought to claim the right of choosing for us, from the mere conjecture that their choice would be similar to ours, even if that conjecture should be well-founded; but we are sorry to observe, sir, that the arrangement made by your honourable House is materially different from that which we had prepared.

"The third reason for depriving us in this instance of the right of nomination is, the good of the service and the danger of delay.

"We are deeply impressed with the idea that your respectable body were actuated by the purest intentions of serving their country, and we entertain so well-founded an opinion of their wisdom and integrity, that we shall not presume to apologize for that plainness of speech which distinguishes free-men, and which can never give offence to those who, from the dignity of their private characters, impart lustre to the offices they hold. We shall observe, therefore, that although the necessity of the case has in all ages and nations been the fruitful source of extraordinary power, yet it has but too frequently sown with tares the fertile fields of liberty, and blasted the fair fruits of patriotism and publick spirit. The whole history of mankind bears testimony against the propriety of considering this principle as the parent of civil rights, and, therefore, a people jealous of their liberties must forever reprobate it. At the same time we take leave to assure you, sir, that, however we may be calumniated by individuals, whose censure we consider as praise, we shall ever continue ready, with our lives and fortunes, to support the cause and rights of America.

"We are extremely sorry to inform the Congress that the good of the service will not be promoted, nor the danger of delay prevented, by the measures which they have taken, as many spirited and good officers have been so disgusted that some have resigned; and we have but too much reason to apprehend that others will refuse to accept of their commissions. We beg, therefore, that your honourable House will excuse us from interfering in the further arrangement of this Regiment, and make out the few appointments which remain.

"We have received from William Goforth, a brave and good officer, who served the last campaign in Canada, a letter containing his reasons for quitting the service, of which we enclose you a copy, marked No. 3, and also the copy of a letter from Colonel Fleming, on the same subject, marked No. 4.

"We daily expect other resignations, and pray leave to observe, that we think the case of Lieutenant-Colonel Cortlandt is attended with singular hardships. He is a young gentleman of affluent circumstances, good family and extensive connections; he entered the service last year as a Lieutenant-Colonel, and served with spirit and fidelity, and has done the like this year; he is now inferior in rank to Mr. Dubois, who entered the service last year as a Captain. If by such neglect, many respectable inhabitants among us, with their numerous and extensive connections, be disgusted and remain inactive, we flatter ourselves that this Colony will not be censured for the ill consequences which may result from it.

"The day before yesterday we took into consideration the Declaration of your honourable House, proclaiming the United Colonies free and independent States, and thereupon came to a resolution, of which we enclose you a copy, marked No. 5.

"Governour Tryon has inlisted into the service of the King of Great Britain certain disaffected persons belonging to this Colony, New-Jersey, &c., some of whom are now in custody. We are really at a loss what to do with them, there being no laws according to which they can be tried and punished, and ex post facto laws are liable to many objections. We unanimously join in requesting the favour of your honourable House to advise us what would be proper to do in this case.

"We take the liberty of suggesting to your consideration also, the propriety of taking some measures for expunging from the Book of Common Prayer such parts, and discontinuing in the congregations of all other denominations all such prayers as interfere with the interest of the American cause. It is a subject we are afraid to meddle with, the enemies of America having taken great pains to insinuate into the minds of the Episcopalians that the Church was in danger. We would wish the Congress would pass some resolve to quiet their fears, and we are confident it would do essential service to the cause of America, at least in this State.

"We have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, sir, your most obedient and most humble servants.

"By order.

"To the Hon. John Hancock, Esq., President of the Continental Congress."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed and signed by the President, and, together with copies of the Letters and Resolutions therein referred to, be transmitted.

A Letter from Samuel Tucker, Esq., President of the New-Jersey Congress, enclosing a Resolution of the said Congress, dated July 3d, authorizing this State to apprehend any of the inhabitants thereof at present residing in New-Jersey, and ordering the inhabitants thereof to aid those at New-York in the premises; and that a Committee of Secrecy is appointed to correspond with the Committee of Secrecy of this State, was read and filed.

ORANGE.—Colonel Allison, Mr. Little.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Stephens, Mr. Sessions.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Webster.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. J. Townsend, Captain Lawrence, Colonel Blackwell, Mr. Van Wyck.

On motion, Resolved, That the General Committee of the County of Tryon be, and they hereby are, authorized and requested to employ proper persons to take the Leaden Weights out of all the windows in the said County, and apply so much thereof as may be immediately necessary to the use of the Militia of the said County; that an exact account be kept of the quantity taken from each house, to the end that payment may be hereafter made for the same; and that the said Committee do transmit an account thereof to this Convention, with all convenient speed.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius deliver to Major Webster, (one of the Deputies from Charlotte County,) or his order, 1,500 lbs. of Lead, for the use of the Militia of the County of Charlotte, and to Mr. John Sessions, one of the Deputies from Cumberland County, 3,000 lbs. for the use of the County of Gloucester, and 4,500 lbs. for the use of the County of Cumberland.

And Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius charge the same to the said Counties respectively, to the end that the same may be paid for by the said Counties respectively, when they shall be thereunto required.

Whereas it has been represented to this Convention that the Troop of Horse of the County of Westchester have refused to furnish their quota of men lately directed to be raised to reinforce the Continental Army of New-York:

Resolved, That Mr. Harper, Major Lockwood, Mr. Tompkins, and Mr. Lawrence, be a Committee to inquire into the truth of the said representation.

A Letter from the Hon. John Hancock, Esq., enclosing the Declaration of Independence, was read and filed, and is in the words following, that is to say:

Philadelphia, July 6, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: Although it is not possible to foresee the consequences of human actions, yet it is nevertheless a duty we owe ourselves and posterity in all our public councils to decide in the best manner we are able, and to trust the event to that Being who controls both causes and events so as to bring about his own determinations. Impressed with this sentiment, and at the same time fully convinced that our affairs may take a more favourable turn, the Congress have judged it necessary to dissolve all connection between Great Britain and the American Colonies, and to declare them free and independent States, as you will perceive by the enclosed Declaration, which I am directed to transmit to you, and to request you will have it proclaimed in your Colony in the way you shall think most proper.

"The important consequences to the American States from this Declaration of Independence, considered as the ground and foundation of a future Government, will naturally suggest the propriety of having it proclaimed in such a manner as that the people may be universally informed of it.

"I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your most obedient, and very humble servant,

"JOHN HANCOCK, President.

"To the Honourable Convention of New-York."

A draft of an Answer to the same was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

July 11, 1776.

"SIR: Your letter of the 6th July instant, enclosing a copy of the Declaration of Congress proclaiming the United Colonies free and independent States, and requesting us to proclaim and publish the same in this Colony, has been received.

"It gives us pleasure to inform you that, having been informed of that Declaration by our Delegates, we have anticipated the request of Congress, by our Resolutions of the 9th instant, a copy of which was enclosed in a letter we did ourselves the honour of writing you this morning.

"We have the honour to be, &c., &c. By order.

"To the Hon. John Hancock, Esq."

White-Plains, July 12, 1776.

A draft of a Letter to the Committees of East and South Hampton, in answer to theirs received on the afternoon of the 10th instant, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of }
New-York, White-Plains, July 12, 1776. }

"GENTLEMEN: Taking into consideration your letter of the 5th instant, applying to us for directions relative to the preservation of the stock at Montauk,—since the date of your letter you must have understood that Colonel Livingston, the commander in that quarter, has applied to the County Committee for their advice and assistance respecting the preservation of the stock and making necessary defence in your quarter. We also understand, from Messrs. Dearing and L'Hommedieu, that persons are appointed by the Commissary-General to lay up all the stock in those parts fit for use, and also boats to be provided to remove the rest in case of danger. Viewing things in this light, we hope your fears are subsided. In case they are not, from the measures already taken, we shall expect to hear from you, and shall not be wanting in supporting all the friends of the common cause of America. We are, &c.

"To the Committees of East and South Hampton."

A Memorial of several Officers, complaining of improper appointments by Congress, and that they have been superseded in rank by the late appointments in the Third Regiment to be commanded by Colonel Dubois, was read.*

* WHITE-PLAINS, July 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Whereas we have had the honour to serve in the Continental Army by your appointment last year, we beg leave to mention to you a state of facts, which we esteem as real grievances, and look up to you for direction or redress.

When first the dire alarm of war was sounded in our land we willingly stepped forth and offered our services to our bleeding country, and were much pleased with the appointments which you honoured us with. Urged on by the same motives which first induced us to engage, we endured all the hardships of a most severe campaign with a pleasing fortitude, not doubting but whilst we were doing our duty we should meet with the applause of our country, and that an equal distribution of honour would have been conferred on those who had not merited the reverse. But this has not been the case; a few have been promoted to high rank, while others of equal standing and merit are superseded or entirely neglected.

Among the many instances of this procedure that might be given, the most recent is the late arrangement of the officers of a regiment to be commanded by Levis Dubois, Esq., the injustice of which will, we hope, fully appear to your honourable House, if you will please to look over the copy of the arrangement itself, which we take the liberty of enclosing to you.

We humbly desire you, gentlemen, to take this matter into consideration; and are, with due respect, (in behalf of the disbanded officers that served in Canada), gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servants,

SAML. SACKET,
AARON AORSON,
RICHARD PLATT.

To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New-York.

The Resignation of Lieutenants Aorson, Pearsee, Plat, Gano, and Van Wagener, on account of younger Lieutenants being appointed to a Captaincy in Colonel Dubois's Regiment, was read.

Mr. Jay reported a draft of a Letter to the President of the Continental Congress on the subject of these Resignations, which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of }
New-York, White-Plains, July 12, 1776. }

"SIR: Nothing but regard to their duty could induce the Convention of New-York again to call your attention to a subject so disagreeable as complaints against the arrangements of the Canada Regiment formed by your honourable House.

"They this day received certain papers relative to that business from a number of officers who think themselves deeply affected by it, of which papers the enclosed are copies; from thence it appears that, besides other appointments out of the line of rank, three Sergeants, a Corporal, and a Lieutenant fire-worker have been raised over the heads of commissioned officers.

"We have the honour to be, &c.,

"NATHL. WOODHULL, President.

"The Hon. John Hancock, Esq., President of Continental Congress."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, together with copies of the Memorial and Resignation of the Officers.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius deliver to Nathaniel Sacket, Esq., or his order, six thousand pounds of Lead, for the use of the Militia of the County of Dutchess, and that he charge the same to the said County.

Mr. Sampson Duyckinck came from the City of New-York, and informed the Congress that three Ships-of-War had passed the Fort and Battery at New-York, and sailed up Hudson's River; that they were fired upon from all the Batteries along the banks of the river; that he believes they have already passed King's Bridge:

Thereupon, Ordered, That Mr. Jay, Major Lockwood, Mr. Mills, Colonel Drake, and Mr. Schenck, be a Committee to take such measures on this occasion as to calling out such parts of the Militia, sending Expresses to the Forts in the Highlands, and all such other measures as they shall think necessary.

Saturday morning, July 13, 1776.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: General Woodhull, President.

NEW-YORK.—Mr. Rutgers, Mr. Jay, Colonel Brasher.

ALBANY.—Mr. A. Yates, Mr. R. Yates, Mr. Adgate.

SUFFOLK.—General Woodhull, Mr. Miller, Mr. Smith.

ULSTER.—Mr. Wisner.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Platt, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. G. Livingston, Mr. Schenck.

ORANGE.—Colonel Allison, Mr. Little.

WESTCHESTER.—Major Lockwood, Captain Platt, Colonel G. Drake.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. James Townsend, Colonel Blackwell, Captain Lawrence.

TRYON.—Mr. Moore, Mr. Harper, Mr. Vader, Mr. Paris.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Stephens.

Mr. Gilbert Livingston and Mr. Wisner took the general oath of secrecy.

The Deputies for Queen's County represented to the Convention that the Militia of the said County are destitute of Ammunition, and therefore request that a supply may be immediately ordered for them.

Thereupon, Ordered, That Mr. Norwood, the Commissary of Military Stores, deliver to Captain Jonathan Lawrence, or his order, ten thousand Cartridges, of different sizes, filled with Powder and Ball, and one thousand Flints, for the use of the Militia of Queen's County, and charge the same to the said County.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius deliver to Captain J. Platt, or his order, fifteen hundred pounds of Lead—one half thereof in Ball; and if Colonel Curtenius has no Ball in store, that he call on Mr. Norwood, who in such case is ordered to deliver to Colonel Curtenius, or his order, seven hundred and fifty pounds of Ball, for the purpose aforesaid; and that Colonel Curtenius charge the same to the said County, for the use of the Militia thereof.

A draft of a Letter to Colonel Pierre Van Cortlandt was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"White-Plains, July 13, 1776.

"SIR: Be pleased to order such a number of your Regiment to guard the stores in which provision and other effects belonging to the publick are lodged, at and near Peekskill, as you may think necessary. Colonel Drake will afford them the necessary supplies of bread and pork.

"As it would not be prudent, on every little alarm, to call great numbers of the inhabitants from their farms, we hope the detachments you may order on service will not be greater than the exigency of affairs may require.

"We are, sir, your most obedient servants. By order.

"To Colonel Pierre Van Cortlandt."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted immediately.

A draft of a Letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Hammond was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"White-Plains, July 13, 1776.

"SIR: We last evening ordered Colonel Thomas to send you a reinforcement of forty or fifty men, together with one hundred pounds of lead and two quarter casks of gunpowder, all of which we hope you have received.

"There is no great reason to apprehend that any considerable incursions into the country will be made by parties from ships in the river, and therefore are of opinion it would not be expedient for great numbers of the Militia to leave their farms at this busy season of the year.

"Great attention should be paid to the conduct of the disaffected among us, and care taken to prevent any unusual gatherings of them; and let all such of them be apprehended and secured as may give any aid to the enemy, or threaten to give you any molestation.

"Colonel Drake will give the necessary orders for provisions, and we hope the Whigs of this County will distinguish themselves by their zeal and alacrity on this occasion.

"We are, sir, your very obedient servants.

"To Lieutenant-Colonel Hammond."

Ordered, That a copy be engrossed and signed by the President, and immediately transmitted.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"Saturday morning, July 13, 1776.

"SIR: On being informed yesterday afternoon that two ships-of-war had gone into the North-River and passed by all the fortifications on York-Island, the Convention immediately sent an express to the commanding officer of the fort at the Highlands, advising him thereof. Last evening, advice arrived that two frigates and two or three tenders were at anchor at Tarrytown; whereupon, the Convention sent the inhabitants a supply of powder and ball, and took immediate measures for reinforcing the inhabitants along that shore. This morning the Convention were informed that the frigates and tenders still lay there at anchor, and that several barges were busy in sounding the river. Another detachment of the Militia has been directed to guard the stores in that neighbourhood, in which are sundry effects belonging to the publick. The Convention will endeavour to prevent their making incursions into the country, and beg leave to suggest to your Excellency the propriety of keeping a strong guard at King's Bridge, the destruction of which they apprehend to be an object with the enemy.

"I have the honour to be, with esteem, your Excellency's most obedient servant. By order.

"To His Excellency General Washington."

A Letter from General Washington, dated yesterday, by express, was received and read, and is in the following words, to wit:

“New-York, Head-Quarters, July 14, 1776.

“GENTLEMEN: The passage of the enemy up the North River is an event big with many consequences to the publick interest. One particularly occurs to me, well deserving your attention, and to prevent which I shall gladly give every assistance in my power consistent with the safety of the Army.

“I am informed there are several passes on each side of the river, upon which the communication with Albany depends, of so commanding a nature, that an inconsiderable body of men may defend them against the largest numbers. It may be that on board these ships there may be troops for this purpose, who, expecting to be joined by the disaffected in that quarter, or confiding in their own strength, may endeavour to seize those defiles. In which case, the intercourse between the two Armies, both by land and water, will be wholly cut off, than which a greater misfortune could hardly befall the State and Army. I must entreat you to take the measure into consideration, and, if possible, provide against an evil so much to be apprehended. I should hope the Militia of these Counties might be used on such an emergence until further provision was made.

“I have also thought it very probable these ships may have carried up arms and ammunition to be dealt out to those who may favour their cause, and coöperate with them at a fixed time. I would, to guard against this, submit to your consideration the propriety of writing to the leading men on our side, in those Counties, to be very vigilant in observing any movement of that kind, in order that so dangerous a scheme may be nipped in the bud: for that purpose to keep the utmost attention to the conduct of the principal Tories in those parts; any attempts of intercourse with the ships; and all other circumstances which may lead to a discovery of their scheme and the destruction of their measures.

“I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, your obedient and humble servant,

Go. WASHINGTON.

“To the Hon. the President of the Provincial Congress of New-York.”

A draft of an Answer to the Letter just received from General Washington, was read and approved of, and a copy transmitted by the same express, and is in the words following, that is to say:

“White-Plains, July 15, 1776.

“SIR: Your letter of the 14th instant was read in Convention. They see the importance of securing the passes your Excellency mentions, and will immediately take the measures you are pleased to recommend, and every other which they conceive will tend most to the security of this State. Your Excellency was informed by our letter of the 13th, of the precautions we had used in order to prevent any intercourse between the disaffected people of our State and the ships of the enemy, and to repel any attempts they might make to land. They see the necessity of watching with the utmost vigilance the steps of the Tories in this and the neighbouring Counties, and shall give your Excellency the earliest notice of any resolutions that they may form for this purpose.

“We have the honour to be, &c.

“His Excellency General Washington.”

Ordered, That Peter Van B. Livingston, Esq., advance to Nathaniel Sacket, Esq., the sum of £40, to be by him disposed of in defraying the expenses of transporting a quantity of Lead to Dutchess County, Mr. Sacket to render an account of the expenditure thereof.

Two Letters from Colonel Hammond,* at Tarrytown, in-

* July 14, A. D. 1776.

These lines are to inform the honourable Congress that Captain William Dutcher is willing to raise a Company of forty men, to protect the inhabitants along the shore of the North River from the mischievous attempts of the Ministerial ships now lying in the river near Tarrytown, in compliance with the requisitions of Congress yesterday, on supposition that the honourable Congress will immediately put the men under pay, so that the multitude may return to their respective habitations to secure their harvests.

From your friend and servant in the common cause,

JAMES HAMMON, Lt. Col.

To the Hon. Provincial Congress, now sitting at the White-Plains.

P. S. We have taken one John Fowler returning from on board of one of the men-of-war, whom we are soon going to send under guard to the Plains.

N. B. Pray, sir, send an answer to the above as soon as is any ways consistent. Yours, as above,

J. HAMMON.

TARRYTOWN, July 15, 1776.

SIR: The men who came down with Captain Hunter from Bedford, for the sake of expedition came on horseback. Their horses have been kept here, as they expected to be immediately relieved. As they have been very serviceable to us, would beg that the Congress would be pleased to make them an allowance for the extraordinary expense they have been at in this emergency.

I much fear that without a reinforcement we shall be put to it for our complement of men to-night, as some are continually going away without leave, to take care of their harvests. From your most humble servant,

JAMES HAMMOND, Lt. Col.

forming the Convention that the men posted there are very desirous of being relieved, in order to attend their harvests, were read:

Thereupon, Ordered, That Colonel Thomas relieve, by detachments from his Regiment, such of the Militia stationed at Tarrytown as may incline to return home; and that the number of Militia to be stationed there be one hundred and fifty, exclusive of Captain Townsend's Company.

A Letter was wrote and sent to Colonel Hammond, informing him that one hundred and fifty men are sufficient to be stationed at Tarrytown, for the present, and that such further aid will be afforded them as the Convention may think necessary; and that they be relieved, so that the burden be equally borne by all the Militia.

A draft of a Letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Hammond was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention for the State of New-York, }
White-Plains, July 15, 1776. }

"SIR: We are surprised to find that any of the men under your command at Tarrytown have left their station without permission from the commanding officer. We flattered ourselves that no part of the Militia of this State would have forsaken their duty from pecuniary considerations, especially at a season when everything dear to a freeman is at stake. Assure such of the officers and men as have done their duty that they, and all others of the Militia who may be called into service, shall receive the like pay and rations as Continental troops, and that those now at Tarrytown shall speedily be relieved.

"We are, sir, your very humble servants. By order.

"To Lieutenant-Colonel Hammond."

Resolved and Ordered; That Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Haviland be a Committee to have the staircase of the room in which this Convention sits, closed; and also that they be a Committee to procure Guard to be stationed at the Jail.

Resolved, unanimously, That if his Excellency General Washington should think it expedient, for the preservation of this State and the general interest of America, to abandon the City of New-York, and withdraw the Troops to the north side of King's Bridge, that this Convention will cheerfully coöperate with him in every measure that may be necessary for that purpose.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, to enclose the above Resolution, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention, July 15, 1776.

"SIR: One or two pettiaguers have been observed going to and from the ships-of-war at Tarrytown. Had the detachment of Militia stationed there been supplied with boats, they would certainly have taken them. The Convention take the liberty, therefore, of requesting your Excellency to send them four whale boats, which they will take care to man.

"I am directed by the Convention to transmit the enclosed resolution to your Excellency; and have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, your Excellency's most obedient servant. By order.

"His Excellency General Washington."

Colonel DeWit, Major Christopher Tappen, Colonel Levi Pawling, and Major Garret Abeel, took the general oath of secrecy.

A Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Hammond,* with a Return of the men under his command, posted at Tarrytown, and requesting that some person be appointed to furnish them with Provisions:

Resolved, That George Coombe be, and he is hereby, appointed Commissary of Provisions, to such of the Militia as now are or may be stationed at and in the neighbourhood of Tarrytown; that he supply the said Militia with fresh Provisions one half of the time, and the other half with salt Provisions, out of the Provincial Store.

A draft of a Letter to Colonel Hammon, acknowledging the receipt of his, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"White-Plains, July 16, 1776.

"SIR: The Congress duly received your letter of this day, and, pursuant to your request, have come to the enclosed resolution, by which you will see they have appointed George Coombe Commissary, and that suitable measures are taken for the regulating of the supplies of provision for the Militia, both fresh and salt. Yours, &c. By order.

"Colonel Hammon."

Ordered, That the same be copied, and, together with the Resolution appointing Mr. Coombe Commissary of Provisions, be immediately transmitted.

A Letter from Joseph Travis,† dated at Peekskill, yesterday, in substance complaining that the harvest is great and the labourers few, they expect to be attacked every moment by the Regulars and Tories, and are obliged to keep something of a guard over the stores, was read and filed.

A Petition from Samuel Smith, as also the Petition of Cadwallader Colden,‡ Jun., Esq., both confined in Ulster

*HEAD-QUARTERS, TARRYTOWN, July 16, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We having no proper orders from you in what manner the Militia shall be found with provision, the men have eat nothing but salt provision as yet. They find much fault, as there has been no person appointed by you as Commissary. I desire that there may be a person appointed for that purpose. George Combe has done this business, but he is unwilling to buy cattle without proper orders.

I am, gentlemen, your humble servant,

JAMES HAMMOND, Lt. Col.

To the Honourable Provincial Congress.

TARRYTOWN, July 16, 1776.—Return of the state of the forces under Colonel Hammond's command. Upon mustering the Regiment, at five o'clock this morning, agreeable to the Colonel's orders—

JOHN G. GRAHAM, 2d Major.

†PEEKSKILL, July 15, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We, the inhabitants of Cortland's Manor, are very desirous to have your approbation what is best for us to do. The harvest is considerable great, and the labourers but few, and as we expect to be attacked every moment by the Regulars and Tories, we are obliged to keep something of a guard, on the account of the stores at our place, as well as our preservation. I should be very desirous to have a few lines from the honourable House, concerning matters of encouragement what is best to be done in these matters. I have written in haste, alone, because just had this immediate opportunity.

From your friend and well wisher,

JOSEPH TRAVIS.

To the Hon. the Congress of the Province of New-York.

‡ULSTER COUNTY JAIL, July 6, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: The enclosed copy of a letter which I wrote to the General Committee of this County, [dated Hanover Precinct, June 27, 1776,] I beg leave to refer you to, as it contains a true relation (to that time) of a most arbitrary, cruel treatment to me; and as, instead of meeting redress where I applied for it, I was most unexpectedly sent here, where I am now confined in the common jail with a criminal, &c., I shall now relate the truth of what passed in the County Committee when I appeared before them pursuant to their order, a copy of which I also enclose. No evidence or proof in any shape appeared to contradict what I had set forth in my letter to the Committee, nor did any new matter appear against me, only that the officers who had searched my house declared they could find no arms at all, which gave suspicion that I must have secreted them. When they searched my house, and asked me for arms, I told them that there were but two guns in the house, the one a left-handed one for my own use, which was broke in the stock, and at these times did not think worth while to have it mended: the other, a fowling-piece, belonging to Dr. Antill, which my youngest son appeared with at the training; that all the spare arms that had been in the house I had caused to be disposed of to the soldiery. I did not show them these guns, as I made no doubt they had seen them standing in the common room; likewise, my son's pistols and sword hung up in my best bedroom, where some of these officers lodged the remainder of the night; and if they did not see them, I could not help it. It is true, my own pistols I forgot to tell them of, as they lay on a shelf of a closet in my bedroom, where they had been out of sight for a year or two, and one of them has the cock broke. I have been the more particular about this trifling circumstance, as it seemed to be the only matter before the Committee that they hinged upon. They Jail, with copy of Mr. Colden's Letter to the Committee of Ulster County, and the Warrant for his commitment, were respectively read.

Ordered, That both Petitions and Papers be referred to the General Committee of Ulster County, and that a Letter be wrote to the Committee, enclosing the said Petitions.

A draft of a Letter to the Committee, informing them of this reference, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

New-York, White-Plains, July 16, 1776. }

"SIR: Enclosed you have a petition from Samuel Smith, a prisoner confined in Kingston Jail; also a letter and petition of Cadwallader Colden, Jun.

"This Convention have taken the petitions under consideration, and thought most expedient to refer the prayers thereof to your Committee, whom we doubt not will take such proper steps as the present times will admit of.

"We are, sir, your most obedient servants. By order.

"Robt. Boyd, Jun., Esq., Chairman of the General Committee of Ulster County."

A draft of a Letter to Mr. Colden, informing him of the same, was also read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

New-York, White-Plains, July 16, 1776. }

"SIR: The Congress received your letter to them respecting your confinement, and have directed me to inform you that they have transmitted all the papers relative to your case to the Committees of Ulster County, to whom it is referred.

"I am, sir, your most obedient servant. By order.

"To Cad. Colden, Jun., Esq."

Ordered, That copies of the foregoing Letters be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted immediately.

It being represented to the Convention that considerable quantities of salt Pork is stored in different places at and in the neighbourhood of Peekskill, where the same is much exposed to the enemy:

Resolved, That the Sub-Committee at Peekskill be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed immediately to cause all Provisions and other stores, as well private as publick property, which are stored in places within their district, and so situated as to be in danger of being taken by the enemy, to be removed to such places of safety as the said Committee shall think proper.

Ordered, That a Commission issue to Cornelius J. Du-bois, as Second Lieutenant in John L. De Wit's Company, in Colonel Humphrey's Regiment, of Dutchess County.

A Letter from Colonel Hammond,* at Tarrytown, was read. The Colonel therein informs the Convention that the ships-of-war have left that harbour, and are sailing up the river, with a fair wind, towards the Highlands:

Thereupon, Resolved, That Colonel Van Cortlandt and had indeed a letter, dated last January, said to be written by one Hamilton to his brother, in which my name was mentioned; but this letter was found to be the same that had been handed to several committees last winter, and which by them had been judged to be forged by some malicious person, on purpose to make mischief.

The Committee then asked me if I would sign the Association agreed upon in Provincial Congress, the 20th of June. I told them that I was willing to take the oath prescribed by the resolve of that day, relating to the secreting of arms; but as to signing the Association, I desired some days to consider of it. But that not being granted, I said, rather than go to jail, which I found was like to be the case, I would sign it. But then they were for adding another clause to it, of their own forming, upon which I positively refused to sign it; whereupon I was committed to this jail, as I have already said, and here to remain till discharged by them, or the Provincial Congress. Now, as the County Committee have adjourned not to meet till summoned, and as they are so dispersed that they cannot be soon called, if they inclined to take the matter of my discharge under consideration, but more especially as I have little reason to expect any favour or indulgence from men who have acted thus arbitrary, obliges me to appeal to your honourable House, where I doubt not I shall meet with that speedy relief my situation and the justice of my case merits at your hands; and am, gentlemen, your most humble servant,
CAD'R COLDEN, JUN.

To the Honourable the Provincial Congress of the Province of New-York.

*TARRYTOWN, July 16, 1776.

SIR: The shipping have all left this harbour, and are now sailing up the river, with a fair wind. I likewise have marched my men up the river. The number of my men one hundred and twenty.

I am your humble servant,
JAMES HAMMOND, Lt. Col.

To the Chairman of the Provincial Congress.

Mr. Z. Platt be directed to repair immediately to the Highlands, in order to call out such Militia as they may think necessary for the defence and security of this State; to direct their stations, to reinforce the garrisons of the Forts Montgomery and Constitution, if expedient, and to supply such forces as may be called out, or to appoint proper persons for that purpose.

And Resolved, That the Militia so employed shall receive Continental Pay and Rations.

Ordered, That Peter V. B. Livingston, Esq., advance to Colonel Van Cortlandt and Mr. Z. Platt the sum of five hundred Dollars, to be disposed of by them in procuring Provisions for the forces which may be called out to service in the Highlands.

Whereas this Convention have the greatest reason to believe that the British Armies in New-York and Canada will endeavour, by means of Hudson's River, to effect a junction, and thereby cut off all intercourse between the Eastern and Southern States; and whereas the country contiguous to the Sound and Hudson's River will be greatly exposed to the ravages and invasions of a cruel and unnatural enemy, which, if not prevented, will render them a scene of ruin and desolation; and whereas, from the situation of said country, intersected with defiles and narrow passes, it will be extremely practicable to repel the hostile attempts of the enemy, provided the inhabitants exert themselves in its defence with the union, spirit, and alacrity of men determined to defend their rights and transmit the blessings of freedom to posterity; and whereas it is the indispensable duty of this Convention, by every means in their power, to provide for the happiness and security of their constituents, reposing the highest confidence in their virtue and publick spirit:

Therefore, Resolved, That one-fourth part of the Militia of the Counties of Westchester, Dutchess, Ulster, and Orange, be forthwith drawn out for the defence of the liberties, property, wives and children, of the good people of this State.

And as at this busy season of the year the service may be inconvenient to many of them,

Resolved, That each man be allowed twenty dollars as a bounty, with Continental pay and subsistence, and be continued in the service until the last day of December next, unless sooner discharged.

Resolved, That it be recommended to such of the inhabitants who remain at home to give all possible assistance to the families of those spirited persons who step forth in defence of the rights and liberties of this invaded country, and that the Sub-Committees of the several Districts in those Counties pay particular attention to see that this recommendation be complied with.

Resolved, That the Brigadier-Generals and the Field-Officers of the Militia of each County be directed to adopt the most equitable and expeditious mode of raising the levies and of furnishing with Arms those who are not supplied, the price of the Arms to be deducted out of each man's pay, and that they be authorized to call on the Committee of each County for their assistance.

Resolved, That these levies be formed into Companies, to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, one Drummer, one Fifer, and fifty Privates, and that the Captains and Subalterns be appointed by the Field-Officers of each Regiment of Militia from which the quotas are to be raised out of the Militia Officers, having in such appointments a regard to their respective ranks and the dates of their commissions, if a sufficient number of such are willing to serve; if not, that they be at liberty to appoint such others as they may think properly qualified.

Resolved, That each Regiment shall consist of ten Captains and one Surgeon, under the command of one Colonel, one Lieutenant-Colonel, and one Major, and to have one Adjutant and one Quartermaster; that the Field-Officers and Surgeon be appointed by this Convention, and the Quartermaster and Adjutant in each Regiment by the Colonel thereof, and the Non-Commissioned Officers by the Captains of each Company under whom they go into service.

Resolved, That each man furnish himself with a Blanket and Knapsack, and every six men with a Pot or Camp-Kettle.

Resolved, That two Deputy Commissaries be appointed to provide four months' Provisions for six thousand men, to be deposited in two Magazines, one on each side of the river, at such places as his Excellency General Washington shall think proper to appoint.

Resolved, That all the men now raised in the Counties of Ulster and Orange be stationed in the Highlands, on the west side of the Hudson River, to guard those defiles the possession of which Brigadier-General Clinton shall think most conducive to the safety of the State.

Resolved, That the men raised in the Counties of Westchester and Dutchess repair immediately to Peekskill, and that General Washington be requested to appoint an Officer to take the command of all the levies, on both sides the river, to fix upon what station they shall occupy, and to nominate the two Deputy Commissaries for the Troops on each side the river.

Resolved, That all the Troops raised in the above Counties shall be subject to the Articles of War established by the Continental Congress.

Resolved, That the Brigadier-Generals and Committees of the respective Counties be immediately furnished with copies of those Resolutions.

Resolved, That the following gentlemen be, and they hereby are, appointed Field-Officers of the Regiments of the Militia to go into immediate service, viz: in Westchester County, Thomas Thomas, Colonel; , Lieutenant-Colonel; Ebenezer Purdy, Major.

A draft of a Letter to Colonel Van Cortlandt was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

New-York, White-Plains, July 16, 1776. }

"SIR: In our letter of the 13th instant you were requested to order a sufficient guard at the stores of publick provisions at or near Peekskill. We understand by a letter from Mr. Joseph Travis, of yesterday, and a person from Peekskill, that there are about fifty men who are very anxious to be relieved. We likewise understand that fifty men in that neighbourhood are willing to be engaged to continue in that service during the present necessity. We think this the most eligible method, and that they shall be engaged on the like terms that the Continental Troops are, with respect to pay and rations; and further, leave to you the appointment of a Commissary to supply the men on that station with provisions, half salt and half fresh, the salt to be taken out of the publick stores. If a sufficient number of men cannot be obtained to remain on the spot, we wish you would see that those on that service be frequently relieved. The Militia who have been or may be on that service to be allowed the like pay and rations.

"We are, sir, your very humble servants. By order.

"Colonel Pierre Van Cortlandt."

The Convention took into consideration the danger to which the Continental Ships building at Poughkeepsie, together with the stores belonging to them, will be exposed, should the enemy's ships pass the fortifications in the Highlands.

Resolved, That a Letter be immediately despatched to the Commissioners for superintending the building of those Ships.

Thereupon a draft of a Letter was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"GENTLEMEN: The enemy's ships have left Tarrytown, about ten o'clock this morning, with an intention, as we conceive, to destroy the Continental ships. We have therefore to request that you will exert your utmost abilities and attention to defend those ships from the hostile attempts of the enemy; but should you be of opinion that their preservation is not practicable, you will use your utmost endeavours to preserve the plank, rigging, and other stores, from falling into their power. We recommend particularly to your attention the security of the plank, which may hereafter be made a beneficial use of, for the safety of the State. Should you stand in need of assistance, you must apply to the nearest Field-Officer or Committee in your District.

"Yours, &c. By order.

"To Jacobus Van Zandt, Esq.; in his absence, to the Captains Lawrence and Tuder, or either of them, at Poughkeepsie."

Tuesday afternoon, July 16, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

*IN GENERAL COMMITTEE, DUTCHESS COUNTY, July 13, 1776.

Resolved, That five of the Representatives elected for this County be a quorum to represent the same in the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York.

An extract from the Minutes:

REUBEN HOPKINS, Secretary.

†DUTCHESS COUNTY, July 12, 1776.

SIR: I am now, by the direction of the Committee, to acquaint you with a dangerous insurrection that has happened in this County, but which, through the extraordinary exertions of our friends, is now happily suppressed. We have not been able as yet, with any tolerable degree of precision, to discover how many persons were engaged, though we have reason to believe that the number was great; and had they not been opposed with spirit and in season, they would in a few days have become formidable. There were about two hundred imbedded and actually in arms. They had furnished themselves with arms by previously going about in small parties the night before and disarming the friends of liberty. We have apprehended several. The rest are skulking in the woods; however, we shall endeavour to have them all taken. The number of delinquents in this affair is so great that we are at a loss how to proceed; and, for that reason, must entreat the advice of Congress respecting the matter as soon as possible. Our own jail, with safety, will not contain above twenty persons, considering the number of debtors already in confinement, and therefore we have sent those actually taken in arms to Connecticut; a few to be closely confined, and the others to be disposed of in the Towns till the pleasure of Congress can be known. About five hundred of the Militia of Connecticut, upon a report that the insurgents were very numerous, and were collecting fast, came to our assistance, and have left bills for subsistence unpaid to a considerable amount, and applications have already been made to the Committee for payment. You will please to lay this matter also before Congress, and that we may be directed how these bills are to be discharged. We would observe, that should they not be paid, our warmest friends will in many instances be sufferers, as the troops were obliged to quarter themselves wherever it was most convenient. Indeed, the Committee conceive this expense ought by all means to be borne by the country.

We are now confirmed in a sentiment I mentioned when I appeared last before Congress, namely; that it will be impossible to preserve peace in the County and effectually to carry into execution the Resolutions of Congress, without a standing military force equal to what we requested at that time; and therefore must beg that we may still be indulged in raising another company for the service of the County. We are confident that the Colony might rather have maintained a regiment for six months than have suffered the loss it will sustain by the Militia's being called out to quell this insurrection at this critical season of the year. A future call may be prevented by a sufficient military force to overawe the disaffected.

I have the pleasure to inform you that many inhabitants of the County, upon this alarming occasion, behaved with becoming resolution; and testified a spirit and zeal worthy of men engaged in the cause of freedom.

I have the honour to be (by order of the Committee) your most obedient servant,
EGBERT BENSON, Chairman.

To Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq.

are now present,) that he may be enabled to receive payment for the same.

Ordered, That Colonel Broome and Mr. Bancker be a Committee to examine and audit those Accounts, and that a Certificate of such examination, and their approbation of the said Accounts, be a sufficient voucher to the Treasurer for the payment thereof.

On motion of Mr. Duer,

Resolved, unanimously, That a Secret Committee be appointed to devise and carry into execution such measures as to them shall appear most effectual for obstructing the Channel of Hudson's River, or annoying the enemy's ships in their navigation up the said River; and that this Convention pledge themselves for defraying the charges incident thereto.

Resolved, That Mr. Jay, Mr. Robert Yates, Major Tappen, Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Mr. Gilbert Livingston, and Mr. Paulding, be the said Committee.

Ordered, That Mr. Duer and Colonel Broome be a Committee to wait upon Governour Trumbull for the purposes mentioned in the Resolutions of this Committee, of the instant.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"White-Plains, July 16, 1776.

"SIR: We cannot but express our satisfaction at the unremitted attention which your Excellency manifests to the interests of this State. We see the force of your observations, and have taken and shall continue to take every measure which we conceive most conducive to defeat the designs of our enemy. This will in part appear from the enclosed Resolutions.

"We are extremely sorry that the low state of our finances reduces us to the necessity of applying to your Excellency for a loan, which it may perhaps be inconvenient for you to make, but we shall take the earliest care to replace what nothing but urgent necessity would have induced us to borrow.

"As our Troops are but ill supplied with ammunition, we hope that your Excellency will order them an immediate supply, as part of them are already in motion, as well as direct the Commissary-General to take the necessary steps for their subsistence. New levies, who have never seen service, will, without doubt, require a commander of some experience; such a one we trust your Excellency will supply as soon as possible.

"Our apprehensions of an attempt on the part of our enemies to cut off the communication between the city and country, by landing above King's Bridge, makes us wish to have some force ready to hang on their rear, in case such a step should be taken; for which reason we have not only called out all the force we could possibly collect, (exclusive of that which may probably be wanted in the frontier Counties,) but would take the liberty, if it should meet your Excellency's approbation, to suggest the same idea to Governour Trumbull, who, by forming a camp at Byram River, of six thousand men, might render any designs which the enemy may have to land above King's Bridge extremely hazardous.

"We have just been informed that the ships which sailed this morning, have anchored about ten or twelve miles below Fort Montgomery; we have great reason to believe that they design to pass it, and burn our shipping at Poughkeepsie. We shall be happy to coöperate with your Excellency in every measure which may tend to secure the liberty of America, which we conceive to be nearly connected with the preservation of this State.

"We remain, with the greatest respect, your Excellency's most obedient servant. By order.

"To His Excellency General Washington."

"P. S. We have this moment heard that the Phoenix is aground in Haverstraw Bay, and have some reason to believe it."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, signed by the President, and, together with a copy of the Resolutions for calling out one-fourth of the Militia of the Counties of Westchester, Dutchess, Ulster, and Orange, be immediately transmitted.

Resolved, That Mr. Duer and Colonel Broome, or either of them, be authorized to receive the Money requested by this Convention on loan from his Excellency General Washington, and that they cause the same to be conveyed to this Convention with all possible safety and despatch.

Whereas the present dangerous situation of this State demands the unremitted attention of every Member of this Convention:

Resolved, unanimously, That the consideration of the necessity and propriety of establishing an independent civil Government be postponed until the 1st day of August next; and that in the mean time,

Resolved, unanimously, That all Magistrates and other officers of justice in this State, who are well affected to the liberties of America, be requested, until further orders, to exercise their respective offices: Provided, That all processes and other their proceedings be under the authority and in the name of the State of New-York.

Resolved, unanimously, That all persons abiding within the State of New-York, and deriving protection from the laws of the same, owe allegiance to the said laws, and are members of the State; and that all persons passing through, visiting, or making a temporary stay in the said State, being entitled to the protection of the laws during the time of such passage, visitation, or temporary stay, owe during the same time allegiance thereto.

That all persons members of, or owing allegiance to, this State, as before described, who shall levy war against the said State within the same, or be adherent to the King of Great Britain, or others, the enemies of the said State, within the same, giving to him or them aid and comfort, are guilty of treason against the State; and being thereof convicted, shall suffer the pains and penalties of DEATH.

Ordered, That the Chairman of the Central Committee of the City and County of New-York cause the foregoing Resolution to be publicly read at the City Hall of the said city as soon as possible, giving due notice, by ringing of the bells, to all the inhabitants, that none hereafter may plead ignorance.

And Ordered, That the same, together with the Resolution relative to Magistrates, &c., exercising their respective offices, be published in the newspapers.

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the General Committees of the Counties and the Sub-Committees in the Districts of the several Counties in this State immediately to apprehend and secure all such persons whose going at large at this critical time they shall deem dangerous to the liberties of this State: Provided, always, That the parties arrested by the Sub-Committees have a right of appeal to the General County Committee, who may recommit or discharge them as to them shall seem meet, and that the County Committees report the steps they have taken in consequence of this Resolution.

Mr. Dunscomb, Colonel Lott, Mr. Sands, and Mr. Lowdon, appeared and took the general oath of secrecy.

gade, was read and filed. The Colonel informs the Convention that many men in his Regiment are without Arms and Pouches, and requests an order on the Commissary for those articles.

Colonel Hoffman and Mr. Outwater took the general oath of secrecy.

Resolved, That the Commissioners who superintend the building of the Ships at Poughkeepsie would be justified in suspending that work, and suffering the Carpenters and others employed thereon to labour under the direction of the Secret Committee of this Convention on such vessels or works as they may think proper to build and erect for the defence of Hudson's River.

Resolved, That the Commissioners would be justified in suffering the materials intended for the purpose of building the Continental Ships to be employed by the Secret Committee in such a manner as to them shall seem best calculated for exercising the trust reposed in them.

Ordered, That Peter Van Brugh Livingston, Esq., advance to Messrs. Jay, Robert Yates, Tappen, *Robert R. * JOHN JAY TO NEW-YORK CONGRESS.

WHITE-PLAINS, July 13, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: The enclosed is a copy of an examination taken by the Committee of Safety of this County, of which you will be pleased to make the proper use. It appears to me expedient that Robert Sutton should be apprehended.

I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

JOHN JAY.

To John Sloss Hobart, Esq., and others, the Committee of the Convention of the State of New-York, now in the City of New-York.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 12, 1776.

Mr.

, being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeseth and says: That some time after William Sutton returned home from Governour Tryon's ship, he (this deponent) was informed by said Sutton as follows: That our people were to be cut off from New-York, and that the King's forces were to land about ten miles from Mamaroneck; that Hudson's River was to be occupied by them; that the fleet was to be drawn up in a line before New-York, with intent to keep the forces there in action, in order to give the transports a better opportunity of running up the North-River, with intent to cut off the communication between the country and city; that the King's standard was to be hoisted, and that then the Tories would have a chance. That said Sutton further informed this deponent that Robert Sutton, of Long-Island, would join the Regulars, with seven hundred men, well equipped; that a proclamation would be issued out by the King's party; that then the people would know what they had to expect; and that there would be forty-five thousand troops sent over to America this summer. And this deponent says that he heard John Sutton, son of the aforesaid William, declare that the Regulars would land between Mamaroneck and Horse-Neck, and that he would join them. And this deponent further says, that he heard James Horton say that he was sure the Ministerial Army would conquer us, and that matters would soon be settled. And further says not.

By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, Jun., Chairman.

The Committee is of opinion that the within deponent is a person whose evidence may be relied upon; they never hearing of anything that might give them a contrary opinion. By order of the Committee of Safety:

JOHN THOMAS, Jun., Chairman.

COMMITTEE CHAMBER, WHITE-PLAINS, July 12, 1776.

Mr.

, being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeseth and says: That some time after William Sutton returned home from Governour Tryon's ship, he (this deponent) was informed by said Sutton as follows: That our people were to be cut off from New-York, and that the King's troops were to land about ten miles from Mamaroneck; that Hudson's River was to be occupied by them; that the fleet was to be drawn up in a line before New-York, with intent to keep the forces there in action, in order to give the transports a better opportunity of running up the North-River, with intent to cut off the communication between the country and city; that the King's standard was to be hoisted, and that the Tories would then have a chance. And this deponent further says, that he heard James Horton say that he was sure the Ministerial Army would conquer, and that matters would soon be settled. And further says not.

By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, Jun., Chairman.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 13, 1776.

The within deponent came before this Committee, and made oath that he saw Joshua Gidney, of Dutchess County, have a long list of men's names who would join the Ministerial Army; that said list of names was delivered to Governour Tryon, by said Gidney, in the presence of this deponent. And this deponent further says, that he heard Caleb Fowler, Jun., of Northcastle, degrade the service he had been in, and that if he went again, he would go like a man and join the Ministerial Army.

By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, Jun., Chairman.

† NEW-YORK, July 16, 1776.

SIR: This will be delivered to you by Lieutenant Cole, of my brigade. He is from Queen's, and should have been under the command of the Richmond Captain, had he not proved a villain, and joined the enemy. I do not know what to do with him in the present situation of things. He has twelve men with him, now in camp; he expects, by the evening, to be made up to twenty-five. It would be a great pity to lose so stout and handsome a young fellow. I could provide him with a Second Lieutenantcy, but he has too much spirit to be degraded. I like him well, and wish something may be done for him by Congress.

Is it possible, sir, that the Congress can sustain the clamours of the Army and the murmuring of the inhabitants, occasioned by their retreat? For God's sake, for the honour of the State of New-York, and for their own honour, bring them back, if possible.

I am, sir, your most obedient servant,

JOHN MORIN SCOTT.

To the President of the Congress of the State of New-York.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius immediately deliver such Arms as are in store, fit for use, and not appraised at a higher value than £4 10s., to Colonel McDougall and Colonel Ritzema, for the use of their respective Regiments, until they are supplied with Arms for the men they now have; and that he deliver the residue of all Arms, now in store, fit for use, and not of a higher value than aforesaid, to Colonel Lasher and Colonel Malcom, for the use of such men in their respective Regiments as are destitute of Arms, and in proportion to the number of men in each of those last-mentioned Regiments who are destitute of Arms.

And Ordered, That Mr. Richard Norwood deliver to Colonel Malcom seventy Pouches and Belts, for the use of his Regiment, taking Colonel Malcom's receipt for the same.

Ordered, That Colonel Remsen and Major Abeel, together with Mr. Bancker, be a Committee to examine and audit all special Accounts which cannot be delayed until an Auditor-General is appointed; and that the Treasurer of the Convention of this State do pay, on such Accounts as they may audit, the sum or sums by them certified to be due thereon.

Resolved, That the following gentlemen be, and are hereby, appointed Field-Officers of the Regiments of Militia to go into immediate service, viz:

In Ulster County: Levi Pawling Colonel, Thomas Jan- sen, Jun., Lieutenant-Colonel, Samuel Logan Major.

In Dutchess County, First Regiment: Jacobus Swart- wout Colonel, Reuben Ferris Lieutenant-Colonel, Israel Thompson Major. Second Regiment: Morris Graham Colonel, Roswell Hopkins Lieutenant-Colonel, William Barker Major.

In Westchester County: Thomas Thomas Colonel, ——— Lieutenant-Colonel, Ebenezer Purdy Major.

In Orange County: Isaac Nicoll Colonel, Gilbert Cooper Lieutenant-Colonel, Hendrick Vande Linden Van Bruyck Major.

A Letter, or Report,* dated the 16th July instant, from John McDonald, Miner, was read and filed. He thereby informs the Convention that he has already cleared out two pits at the Lead Mine in Nine Partners; he informs the state or appearances of the said Mine, and he is to proceed to clear out other two pits, and will report thereon.

Ordered, That the said Report be filed.

A Letter from Egbert Benson, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Dutchess County, dated the 12th instant, was again read.

Mr. Gilbert Livingston, from the Committee appointed to report on the said Letter, brought in their Report;† which

*LITTLE NINE PARTNERS MINE, July 16, 1776.

HONOURABLE GENTLEMEN: In compliance with your directions have used the utmost of my endeavours in clearing two pits, or shafts, at the northeast end of the mine hill, and met with great difficulties in them, owing to the water; Jonathan Landon and Ezra Thompson, Esquires, being very punctual from time to time inspecting the same. This day Mr. Landon have with sincerity taken inspection of the appearances, and thereby he ordered me to make up a report of the circumstances thereof, as he was intending going to New-York. In the first pit discovered a small quantity of lead, in three different places, about two inches diameter, lying about five foot distant, not in a continued vein; the bottom is free from any prospect. The second pit is more likely, by the appearances of the spar, and found lead in four places, about two or three inches diameter, six foot distant, not containing in a continued vein; the bottom is entirely void of the appearances of mines. Both pits are not worthy of pursuing at present unless further promising discoveries be made. To-morrow am going to clear the pit of fifty foot deep, and another small pit, by order of Mr. Thompson, which I shall finish with all convenient speed, and immediately thereafter shall repair for New-York, and transmit the full account of my proceedings, unless I receive further instructions. The truth of this small report, &c., Landon will describe more at large to you. I am, honourable gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant,

JOHN McDONALD, Miner.

†Resolved, That the Committee of Dutchess County be directed to keep the disaffected persons that are or may be taken prisoners, in the County in some convenient place, under guard, (the most dangerous to be closely confined,) till the further direction of this Convention.

And in order to carry the same more effectually into execution:

Be it further Resolved, That an additional Company, consisting of one Captain, one Lieutenant, two Sergeants, two Corporals, one Drum, one Fife, and fifty Privates, be immediately raised in said County, on the same footing that the two Companies lately raised in said County are; and that the command of the Company be given to ——— as Captain, and ——— as Lieutenant; the Captain to appoint the Sergeants and Corporals; to be under the command and direction of Captain Commandant Melancthon Smith.

Resolved, That the Committee of Dutchess County, after carefully examining all and every account that may be brought to them by any person that has furnished provisions or other comfort to any of the Militia of the sister State of Connecticut, which so generously gave their assistance to the friends of liberty in said County, to quiet the dangerous insurrection lately existing there, certifies the same to be reasonable and just, and on being endorsed by the Auditors of Accounts, the Treasurer of this State is hereby directed to pay the same.

he read in his place, and delivered in to the Chair, when the same was again read.

Ordered, That the further consideration thereof be postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Abm. Yates, from the Committee appointed to report on the Letter from the Committee* who conferred with his Excellency General Washington, relative to the Horned Cattle and Sheep on Nassau-Island, brought in their Report, which he read in his place and delivered in at the table, where the same was again read.

Ordered, That the further consideration thereof be postponed till to-morrow.

A Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel James Hammond,† dated this day, was read and filed. He thereby informs the Convention that he had then mustered his Regiment and only forty-six men appeared; that his men are very much fatigued; that one of his Companies are gone off; that the Ministerial fleet is now in Haverstraw-Bay, and that he would be thankful for a speedy relief.

Thursday morning, July 18, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment, and opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lewis.

Present: General Woodhull, President.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Webster.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Stephens, Mr. Sessions.

Mr. Richard Norwood returns about twenty-three thousand Flints in store at New-York.

Ordered, That Mr. Richard Norwood, Commissary of Colony Stores, deliver to Henry Wisner, Jun., Esq., two thousand Flints for the use of the Militia of Ulster County, and one thousand Flints for the use of the Militia of Orange County, and that Mr. Norwood take Mr. Wisner's receipt for the same.

The President informed the Convention that two prisoners, said to be named George Day and William Tucker, have been apprehended by Major Graham, and are now in prison; that they produced some paper purporting to be a pass from John Dennis, Esq., Chairman of the Committee

*NEW-YORK, July 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We have conferred with the General concerning the removal of the stock back again to the pastures from whence they were driven. He was much chagrined at the proposal, and absolutely refused his consent, mentioning the unhappy consequences of not seasonably removing the stock from Staten-Island. He is of opinion that all means should be used with the utmost expedition to remove the stock from Long Island, for which promised to give all necessary assistance. We are of the same opinion, and hope your House will not lose a moment in giving peremptory orders concerning a matter of such vast importance.

We are just informed by General Putnam that one of Lord Howe's fleet arrived yesterday. The utmost despatch is necessary: we need use no arguments, the affair of Staten-Island being fresh in our minds.

We are, gentlemen, your humble servants,

ABM. KETeltas, JNO. BROOME.
SAML. TOWNSEND,

To the Provincial Congress.

†MANOR OF CORTLANDT, CROTON FERRY, July 17, 1776.

This morning mustered the Regiment, and upon parade appeared forty-six men. Our men are at present very much fatigued. Captain Ledue's company, in defiance of us all, waded through the ferry and are gone off. The Ministerial ships are still riding in Haverstraw-Bay. We have been very peaceable last night. We should be very thankful for a speedy relief. From your humble servant, JAMES HAMMOND, Lt. Col.

To the Hon. Gentlemen of the Provincial Congress.

I this minute received intelligence from a man on Cortlandt's Manor, that the Tories told him, before the shipping came up, when they would come; and that when they came the Tories were to collect to assist them.

Thereupon a draft of a Letter to the Committee of Rochester was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"GENTLEMEN: The Convention being informed that Captain Petrus Schoonmaker still declines taking the command of his Company, and as it may be necessary for the Commander-in-Chief to call out the whole Militia of this State, it is absolutely necessary that officers for that Company should be appointed.

"I am therefore directed by this Convention to acquaint you that they expect you will once more desire Captain Schoonmaker and his subalterns to take the charge of the Company; and if they should refuse, immediately to call the Company to a new election, and if the choice shall fall upon the same persons, and they still decline to accept, and the Company refuse to elect others, the Convention are of opinion that the Company, by such conduct, will forfeit their right of election, and in that case request you immediately to appoint proper officers for them, who have by their uniform conduct shown themselves friends to the interests of their invaded country.

"Blank commissions are enclosed, which you will please fill up as soon as the appointments are made. I am directed to urge you to use all possible despatch in the execution of this business.

"I am, very respectfully, gentlemen, your very humble servant. By order.

"To Committee of the Town of Rochester, Ulster County."

A Letter from David Mathews, Esq., a prisoner, now at the White-Plains, was read. He therein desires to be heard before this Convention. A Member informed the Convention that this request is made by Mr. Mathews with the design to exculpate himself from a charge of having supported some disaffected persons now in custody, and of having sent them on board of the ships-of-war.

Another Member informed the Convention that John L. C. Roome requests that he may be sent a prisoner on his parole to Shrewsbury.

Ordered, That the said Letter and Applications be referred to the Committee appointed to deal with dangerous and disaffected persons, and those of equivocal character.

Mr. Yates, from the Committee appointed to report of the number of Rangers proposed or necessary to be raised in and for the defence of the frontier Counties, delivered in their Report, which was read. The same being read a second time, Mr. De Wit moved, and was seconded, that Rangers be also raised and stationed in Ulster County, or that the Report be recommitted.

Thereupon, Ordered, That said Report be recommitted to Mr. De Wit, Mr. Little, and the Committee who brought in the said Report, and that they report with all convenient speed.

Whereas the navigation of Hudson's River is become obstructed so that the fifteen hundred pounds weight of Lead lately ordered to be sent from New-York to Charlotte County, cannot be transported up that river:

Therefore, Ordered, That the Committee of the County of Albany supply to Major Alexander Webster fifteen hundred pounds weight of Lead, if that quantity can be spared by the said Committee; and if so much cannot be spared from the City and County of Albany, that then the said Committee be, and hereby are, requested to cause so much Lead to be taken out of the windows of the houses in Albany as to supply that quantity of Lead to the Committee of Charlotte County; that a particular account be kept of any Lead taken or received from any person for the purpose above-mentioned, that a compensation may hereafter be made for the same, and that the said Lead be charged to Charlotte County, to the end that the same may be fully paid for by Charlotte County, when thereunto required. ~

These are to certify, that at the request of John Carpenter, of Goshen, Orange County, I have been to see his Powder-Mill, built in said County, and that she was set agoing while I was present, and, in my opinion, went exceeding well with eighteen stampers, a good stone house and yard, and many other things necessary for drying and securing the powder. Witness my hand.
WILLIAM ALLISON.

‡ GOSHEN, July 15, 1776.
These are to certify, that I was called on by John Carpenter some time before the tenth day of June last, to see that his Powder-Mill was built and finished. I went the same day and saw her agoing; and, as far as I am a judge, I think she went exceeding well, everything appearing to me to be in good order. Witness my hand.

Mr. Hobart moved, and was seconded, that a Bounty be allowed to the said Troops.

6 Albany.	4 Suffolk.
5 Dutchess.	3 Tryon.
8 New-York.	4 Queen's.

Mr. L'Hommedieu moved, and was seconded, that the Continental Troops now stationed in Suffolk County, which were raised out of the Militia of said County, be considered as part of the one-fourth of the Militia now ordered to be draughted from the Militia in Suffolk County.

Some debates arose thereon.

Ordered, That it be deferred till the afternoon.

The Committee for carrying into execution the Resolutions of the Congress of this Colony of the 5th of July, reported, that, agreeable to the order of yesterday, they had prepared a Letter, which was signed by the President, and transmitted with the Prisoners to Litchfield; the draft whereof was read, and is in the words following, that is to say :

“White-Plains, July 19, 1776.

“GENTLEMEN: As this State is now attacked by the common enemy, and our jails are in general so near to the sea-coast and the banks of Hudson's River as to render it extremely imprudent to continue prisoners of a certain cast any longer in them, the Convention have therefore come to a resolution to send thirteen prisoners, who are accused of notorious disaffection to the rights and liberties of the American States, of counterfeiting the currency of the States, of corresponding with the enemy, or of engaging in treasonable conspiracies, to be confined in your jail till we shall have formed a civil constitution and established courts of justice, that they may be brought to trial, which cannot be done while our whole attention is engaged about the means of resisting the enemy.

“The Convention have observed such a zeal in our brethren of Connecticut, upon every occasion, to give all assistance to their neighbours, that it is scarce necessary to mention to you that his Excellency General Washington has recommended them to send all our prisoners, whose remaining in this State would be attended with dangerous consequences, to Connecticut.

“I am directed to request that you will cause all the prisoners, except David Mathews, John L. C. Roome, Israel and Isaac Youngs, to be furnished with provisions, at the same rate that the Continental troops receive; but if you should judge it improper for them to cook their own provisions in jail, you will please to take such other methods as you shall judge best for supplying them, only observing to have it done at the cheapest rate, and the Convention will, with the utmost pleasure, repay the expense.

“It has given me great pain to observe that Mr. Mathews, the Mayor of the city of New-York, is among those accused of treasonable practices; but I must observe to you, that though the evidence against him renders it necessary that he should be confined till he can be tried, yet they are by no means of so black a dye as those against the other conspirators, and therefore I trust he will receive from you every indulgence consistent with his safe confinement.

“This will be handed to you by Abraham De Peyster, Esq., the Commissary who has the charge of subsisting the prisoners on the road; to him I beg leave to refer you for further particulars; and am, with great respect, gentlemen, your most obedient servant.

By order.

“To the Committee at Litchfield, Connecticut.”

Colonel Hammond informs Congress that a Member of this Convention has informed him that a complaint is exhibited against him to this Convention, charging him with deficiency of duty on the night the enemy's ships came up to Tarrytown, as also a charge relative to some pork. The Colonel requests an opportunity of vindicating himself before this Convention.

*CORTLANDT'S FERRY, July 19, 1776.

SIR: I am informed by a member of the Convention that a complaint is made against me by one of the House, that I was deficient in performing my duty on the night that the enemy's ships came to Tarrytown, and also that there is a charge exhibited against me relative to some pork sent by me to New-York for the use of the troops.

I confide, sir, in the justice of your honourable House, that no sentiments prejudicial to my reputation will be entertained until I have an opportunity of vindicating myself, when I doubt not I shall prove to the honourable Convention that the charges are entirely groundless. I should, sir, have immediately waited on the Convention upon receiving notice of the complaints, had I not been stationed here, and been fearful that my leaving this post without orders would be detrimental to the service and injurious to my reputation. But, sir, whenever the Convention will be pleased to order my attendance upon them, I shall gladly embrace the opportunity of showing that I have endeavoured to serve them to the utmost of my abilities. So no more at present, but remain, sir, your very humble servant,

"GENTLEMEN: By Messrs. Broome and Duer I was yesterday favoured with your several resolves of the 16th instant. The spirit of decision in which they are formed will, I doubt not, appear in their execution, and as far as I can coöperate, I shall most cheerfully contribute all my aid and assistance.

"The state of this Army would make it improper for me to send up any General officer in the Continental service to take the command of the levies proposed to be raised; and from the nature of the service, I should apprehend a knowledge of the country and its inhabitants would be very necessary. General Clinton, on all accounts, appears to me the most suitable person; and as the appointment is made dependent on me, I shall nominate him, unless some objection should be made or difficulty arise which I do not now know.

"The Deputy Commissaries I will take advice upon, and have them appointed as soon as possible.

* FREDERICKSBURG, July 19, 1776.

These may inform your Honours that I meet with some difficulty in furnishing my quota of men for the present emergency, for want of commissions in the regiment which I have the honour to command. We have a number of officers chosen already that have no commissions, and several more must be chosen in order to have the regiment properly officered. And whereas I have applied to the County Committee for blanks to be filled up, and there are none to be had, therefore I, in conjunction with the Committee of this precinct, would desire that there might be about twenty blank commissions sent up by Mr. Nyrick, the bearer hereof.

I would further acquaint your Honours that the regiment is destitute of Majors, and would be glad if your Honours would appoint two gentlemen to that office, and fill up commissions for them. There are two gentlemen that I do, with the advice of the Committee, nominate, viz: Mr. Gee—his Christian name I am not able to tell—of Philip's Precinct, and Captain Ebenezer Robinson, of this Precinct. These gentlemen are doubtless known by several of the members of the honourable House.

From your humble servant,
To the Hon. Provincial Congress.

HENRY LUDENTON, Colonel.

"The state of the Pay Office here did not admit a full compliance with your request of the loan of £20,000, there not being so much in the Paymaster's hands at this time. However, that so good a work might not be delayed, I immediately gave a warrant for $20,000, and as circumstances will admit shall make up the remainder.

"I have enclosed the resolution to Governour Trumbull on the subject of forming a camp at Byram River, for the security of the communication with New-York, but at the same time I very much doubt his ability to carry it into execution.

"The quota of troops to be furnished by Connecticut for the assistance of this Army is not half completed, notwithstanding the most urgent and pressing instances on the subject, which affords a very dull prospect of fixing a new camp adequate to the intended design; and I very much fear the attempt would obstruct the raising the levies now ordered, and in the end prove ineffectual; at the same time I most heartily approve the measure, and should rejoice to see it carried into execution in the completest manner.

"Since writing the above, your favour of the 18th instant, enclosing Colonel Cortlandt's and Captain Platt's report, is come to hand. The spirit and alacrity of the Militia in so readily turning out at this trying season is a very encouraging circumstance, and does them great honour.

"I observe Colonel Fellows, of Massachusetts-Bay, mentioned as having marched in. If his troops compose a part of those destined for this Army, it is my intention that all, under that circumstance, should come immediately down, and be properly arranged. And I observe there will be the less inconvenience, as Messrs. Cortlandt and Platt observe that they had such a surplus of men as to enable them to discharge a number.

"I am, gentlemen, with the greatest respect and esteem, your most obedient and very humble servant,

"GO. WASHINGTON.

"P. S. With respect to ammunition, I had flattered myself that the Provincial stock would not only have been sufficient for the purposes of its immediate defence, but in case of necessity have assisted us. I shall endeavour, under a late direction of Congress, to procure what is to be had from the adjoining mills."

An Order for Gunpowder from his Excellency General Washington was enclosed, in the words following, to wit:

"New-York, July 19, 1776.

"SIR: Please deliver to the order of the Convention of the State of New-York fifteen hundred weight of Powder, for which this shall be your sufficient warrant.

"GO. WASHINGTON.

"To John Livingston, Esq."

Mr. Miller, of Suffolk County, had leave of absence, and Certificate that he is a Member given to him, to prevent his being delayed or obstructed by Sentinels in his passage through the City.

A Certificate and Pass was given to Mr. John Franks, of Suffolk County, Merchant, at the request of the Members of this Convention from that County.

Ordered, That Sa. Dyckman proceed immediately, as Express, with General Washington's Letter to the Secret Committee, and that he take a private Letter for Colonel Cortlandt, which is now in this Hall.

Colonel Remsen produced a Letter from Daniel Tillinghast to Jacobus V. Zandt, Hen. Remsen, and Lewis Pintard, informing that he had received by Captain Jauncey, and stored, one hundred and forty-three casks of Gunpowder and eighty-one bales Merchandise for this Colony. Colonel Remsen informs the state of the Merchandise, and that he expects it to arrive at New-York, and desires the direction of Convention as to its disposition.

The Convention directed Colonel Remsen to store the said bales of Merchandise until the further order of this Convention.

The Resolutions formed on the Report of the Committee appointed to consider of General Washington's answer relating to Horned Cattle on Nassau-Island, and to devise means to preserve them from the enemy, were read; and being again read by paragraphs, and agreed to, and approved of, are in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of }
New-York, July 20, 1776. }

"This Convention having taken into consideration the expediency of removing the stock from Nassau-Island,

"Resolved, That it will not be for the publick good, provided it were practicable, to remove the Stock from the Island, except such Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs as are fit for the use of the Army.

"2d. That the common Stock in Suffolk, King's, and Queen's Counties, be put in such convenient and secure places in each County as may be most convenient to be guarded by a sufficient number of Troops, and to be drove off into the interior parts of Nassau-Island, whenever the Commanding Officer or Officers of the said Troops shall order, to prevent such Stock from falling into the enemy's hands; leaving, if he shall judge it safe and necessary, with each large family three milch Cows, two Cows to a middling family, and one to a small family: and if the said Commanding Officer finds that he cannot prevent the Stocks falling into the enemy's hands, he may order them to be killed or destroyed.

"3d. And to the intent that no person may be a loser by said Stock being so killed or destroyed,

"Resolved, That the oath or affirmation of the owner of Cattle, describing the number, age, and qualities, shall be a direction for the valuation of such Cattle drove from his possession: Provided, That no person who has joined, or shall go over to and join the enemy, or who has been, or shall be in anywise aiding or assisting to the enemy, shall, in consequence of this Resolve, be entitled to a compensation for any loss he shall or may sustain.

"4th. That the Commanding Officer of each Battalion of Minute-men and Militia in Suffolk, King's, and Queen's Counties, be ordered immediately to draught out one-fourth part of the Minute-men and Militia of said Counties to carry these Resolves into execution; and that the Field-Officers of the Minute and Militia Regiments in each County do appoint Captains and Subalterns to command such draughts out of the Minute and Militia Officers as they shall judge most proper; and that the draughts be formed into Companies, to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, one Drummer, one Fifer, and fifty Privates. And in case any draught shall be left after the Companies are completed, and not sufficient to form another Company, Officers shall be appointed for them in the following proportion: one Captain and one Lieutenant, two Sergeants and two Corporals for forty Privates; two Lieutenants, two Sergeants, and two Corporals for thirty Privates; and one Lieutenant, one Sergeant, and one Corporal for twenty Privates; each man to find his own arms and accoutrements. That the Field-Officers of the said Militia so to be draughted be appointed by this Convention; the Troops so raised to have Continental pay and rations; and to continue in service until the last day of December next, unless they shall be sooner discharged. That the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the said Troops who shall furnish themselves with a good and sufficient Musket or Firelock, Cartouch-Box and Belt, and Bayonet or Hatchet, shall be allowed ten dollars bounty to each man.

"5th. Resolved, That the Brigadier-General of Suffolk and Queen's Counties be directed to order the Militia of those Counties to hold themselves in readiness to march into either of the said Counties, or any other part of Nassau-Island, on the shortest notice, with five days' provisions: and that the President of this Convention be, and is hereby, directed to write a Letter to the Colonel of the Militia of King's County, ordering that he hold his Regiment in the like readiness to march to any part of Nassau-Island, with five days' provisions.

"6th. Resolved, That Colonel Josiah Smith, of Suffolk County, be First Colonel of the Troops to be raised by draughts from the Militia on Nassau-Island; that Colonel John Sands be Second Colonel of those Troops, with the rank of Colonel, but with the pay of a Lieutenant-Colonel, and that Abraham Remsen be Major; that Colonel Benj. Birdsall, at south side of Queen's County, take the command of one Company of those draughts, with Captain's pay, saving his rank.

"7th. Resolved, That the Rations of the said Troops be estimated at the rate of 10½d. each, which they are to receive in Money in lieu of Provisions.

"8th. And whereas the protection of Nassau-Island is of vast importance to these States, there being one hundred thousand Horned Cattle, a much larger number of Sheep, besides other Stock and Provisions, on the same; and if the Stock be all removed, the inhabitants, amounting to about thirty thousand, must remove or perish:

"Resolved, That the necessity of the protection and security of the said Island be stated in a Letter to the Congress, enclosing a copy of the foregoing Resolutions, and requesting their directions what further measures may be necessary for the security and protection of the said Island.

"9th. Resolved, That his Excellency General Washington be made acquainted with these Resolutions, and be informed that there are on Nassau-Island great numbers of Horned Cattle and Sheep fit for the use of the Army, and that it be submitted to his Excellency whether it would not be proper that the Commissary-General should be requested to give a preference in purchasing at present those Cattle and Sheep on account of their exposed situation."

Colonel Remsen (according to order) brought in the draft of a Letter to the Delegates of this Colony in Congress; which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"GENTLEMEN: The Convention, after the most mature deliberation, have agreed to sundry resolutions for the preservation of the stock on Nassau-Island and the protection of the inhabitants; a copy of them I am directed to enclose. These resolves are to be carried into execution without delay.

"The draughts, we expect, will compose a corps of between seven and nine hundred men, and is the only measure that promises (with such aid as his Excellency General Washington has already or may hereafter grant for the same purpose) to be effectual to prevent the enemy from procuring a supply of fresh provisions from that Island. We hope the same will be approved of by Congress.

"An attempt for a total removal of the stock, computed to be near one hundred thousand head of horned cattle, besides a much greater number of sheep and hogs, &c., would take up much time, and be attended with very great if not insurmountable difficulties. And were it possible to remove all the stock and to find pastures and provender for the same, it necessarily follows that the inhabitants, supposed to be from twenty-five to thirty thousand in number, must immediately abandon their habitations to find shelter and subsistence elsewhere, which cannot be procured in this and the nearest sister States, the inhabitants of New-York having removed their families into every part where they could find accommodations.

"These considerations have induced the Convention to relinquish the thoughts of removing the stock from the Island, and to the utmost of their power to protect them there, and to prevent their falling into the hands of the enemy. If Congress should be of opinion that any further steps are necessary for the defence of the Island, we beg their directions.

"I am, most respectfully, gentlemen, &c.

"To the Delegates in Congress for the State of New-York."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President and transmitted.

Mr. Hobart, according to order, brought in a draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, to attend the last foregoing Resolutions; which draft was read and approved of, and is in the words following, viz:

"SIR: I have the honour to enclose your Excellency, by order of the Convention, a copy of sundry resolves which were yesterday agreed to for the defence of the inhabitants and protection of the stock upon Nassau-Island, and beg leave to submit to your consideration a short statement of the situation and circumstances of that Island and its inhabitants, from which you will see the inutility of any attempts for a total removal of the stock from thence.

"It is supposed there are near one hundred thousand head of horned cattle, besides a much larger number of sheep and other stock, the removal of which would necessarily consume the greater part of the campaign. But supposing the same could be effected in a short time, vast numbers of the stock must inevitably perish for want of subsistence, as it could not be procured within any reasonable distance; besides, such a measure would reduce the inhabitants, computed from twenty-five to thirty thousand, to the most deplorable and insupportable difficulties and distresses.

"These considerations have induced the Convention to give over the thoughts of removing the stock from the Island as not only impracticable, but not advance of the publick service, especially as the waste and common lands in the eastern part of Queen's and in Suffolk Counties are so covered with thickets of wood as to render it too dangerous for foraging parties to attempt to penetrate.

"I trust that the Militia now to be raised, which is expected to form a corps of between seven and nine hundred men, with the troops already stationed at the east end of the Island, may be sufficient to remove the stock from those places which are most exposed, and prevent the depredations of small detachments; and should the enemy attempt, with their main army, to fix themselves on any part of the Island, I doubt not but your Excellency will give a good account of them.

"The Convention have received information that there are a considerable number of fatted cattle and sheep on the Island; they submit whether it would not be proper that the Commissary-General should be requested to give the preference in purchasing those cattle.

"I cannot conclude without expressing my wishes that the detachment under Lieutenant-Colonel Livingston may be continued at their present post, for that part of the Island is so much exposed to be insulted by the enemy's cruisers that I fear the inhabitants would totally abandon the country should those troops be drawn off.

"I have the honour to be, &c.,

"To His Excellency General Washington."

Colonel Remsen had leave of absence to go to New-York.

The Committee to whom was referred the consideration of the number of Rangers in and for the northern Counties, delivered in their Report, which was read; and being again read, much time was spent therein until night, and the further consideration thereof postponed till Monday.

Resolved, That the President and five or more Members be a Committee to receive and answer Letters, and do any other necessary business during the adjournment of the House, until their next meeting.

A Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Weisenfels, dated the 14th instant, was again read.* He thereby informs that

* NEW-YORK, July 14, 1776.

SIR: Mr. Jonathan Holmes not having been able to perform the condition of the resolves of the honourable House, dated June 27, and obtained another resolve of July 12, which certificate, required in said resolve, cannot be granted by Captain Riker, because he can produce but eleven able-bodied men and a little boy, which number has always, according to former resolves, entitled a person only to an Ensigny; and, inasmuch as Mr. Pelton can produce a certificate from his Captain for having enlisted nineteen men, I would humbly recommend him for a Lieutenant's commission. He is a good officer, and already experienced in military discipline.

Please to allow me to make another observation in Mr. Pelton's favour: that he has enlisted his men during the contest, and Mr. Holmes only during the term of six months and nine months; which, in my humble opinion, ought not to meet with the encouragement that the former deserves. Mr. Holmes, therefore, will be glad, I fancy, to accept of an Ensign's commission.

I leave these premises to your Honour's consideration, and humbly entreat the favour, that, for the good of the service, you will be pleased to grant my request.

I am, with much respect, sir, your most humble and obedient servant,

FRED. WEISENFELS.

To the President of the Honourable Provincial Congress of New-York.

Jonathan Holmes had not complied with either of the resolutions of the Congress of this State, of the 27th of June or 12th instant; that he had only brought to the Regiment eleven men, and a boy who would not pass muster; that his men were inlisted, some for the term of six, and others nine months; that P. Pelton had inlisted nineteen men, and during the present contest.

A Certificate of Captain *Riker was also read, certifying that Mr. Daniel Pelton had inlisted nineteen men.

Ordered, That the said Daniel Pelton be appointed Second Lieutenant, and Jonathan Holmes Ensign, of Captain Riker's Company, and that their Commissions issue accordingly.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Sessions, Mr. Stephens.

Captain Platt, from the Committee appointed to repair to the Highlands, and take measures for the protection of the country, informed Convention that a number of men from the neighbouring States are now doing duty on Hudson's River, and that many of them have left their affairs in such a situation at home that their continuance for any considerable time must be attended with very great inconveniences, asking the direction of Convention on the subject.

The President, with a number of Members, being thereunto authorized by Convention, are of opinion that it would be improper to give the Committee any direction in the premises, but do advise that the matter be considered by a Council of War, and conceive it would be advisable, if consistent with the good of the service, that at least a part of the men should be dismissed, and their places supplied by draughts from the neighbouring Militia of this State.

Captain Platt further informs that the men have generally come on horseback, and that many of them are without money to carry themselves home, and requesting directions in the premises.

Ordered, That the Committee do provide for the Horses, as well as the Men, and that when any of the Men are ordered home, the Committee, at their discretion, do appoint a Commissary to make provision for them on the road, or give them a reasonable allowance for their subsistence on their return.

Resolved, That whenever any Officers of the Militia of this State shall do duty with any Militia Officers from the neighbouring States, they submit themselves to the orders of all Officers of superior rank, in the same manner as if the whole belonged to this State.

CHARLOTTE.—Major Webster, Mr. Duer.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Sessions, Colonel Marsh, Mr. Stephens.

Resolved, unanimously, That the Colonels of each Regiment of Troops to be draughted from the Militia of the Counties of Dutchess, Westchester, Ulster, Orange, Suffolk, Queen's, and King's, be each of them respectively a Muster-master of the several Regiments draughted or inlisted in the said Counties; and that each of the said Colonels do return upon oath to this Convention a Muster-Roll of the Regiment by him so mustered as aforesaid; and that no person so draughted or inlisted receive his Bounty until he shall have passed muster.

Resolved, unanimously, That one-half of the Bounty to be given to the draughts from the Militia in the said Counties be sent to the Committee of each County, to be paid unto the said Troops immediately upon and after their passing muster as aforesaid, and that the remainder of the Bounty be paid when the said Troops shall be mustered by the Continental Mustermaster at their respective places of rendezvous; and that his Excellency General Washington be requested to cause the said musters to be completed with all possible despatch.

In King's	600
	$28,600

General Morris informed this Convention that Colonel *Joseph Drake is Colonel of the First Regiment of Westchester County; that as such he conceives it was his right, in a tour of duty, to have taken the command of the one-fourth part of the Militia now ordered on service, and that Colonel Drake and many other officers conceive themselves injured by the preference given to Colonel Thomas Thomas and the other Field-Officers nominated by this Convention for that service.

Ordered, That General Morris, Mr. Duer, and Mr. Gouverneur Morris, be a Committee to confer with Colonel Drake and Colonel Thomas, and endeavour to accommodate and settle this matter, so as to prevent inconveniences and the resignation of Colonel Drake, and that they report as soon as possible.

A Letter from John Alsop, Esq., dated the 16th instant, resigning his seat in the Continental Congress, which had been received and read some days ago, was again read, and is in the words following, to wit:

“ Philadelphia, July 16, 1776.

“ HONOURABLE GENTLEMEN: Yesterday our President read in Congress a resolve of your honourable body, dated the 9th instant, in which you declare New-York a free and

* WHITE-PLAINS, July 22, 1776.

SIR: I last Friday received orders from General Morris to call my Regiment together, in order to select every fourth man out for immediate service, according to a resolve of the Convention for the State of New-York. Have since understood that those men were to be commanded by the Field-Officers of the County Militia. And being further informed, by a resolve of Convention, that Colonel Thomas is appointed to the command, as I look upon myself slighted, or rather superseded, I beg the Convention will take the matter into consideration. If it should be my commission that is wanted, I am free and willing to give it up. The dilemma that I am now in, I cannot act and save my honour.

From, sir, your very humble servant,

JOSEPH DRAKE.

To the Honourable the President of the Representatives of the State of New-York.

independent State. I can't help saying that I was much surprised to find it come through that channel. The usual method hitherto practised has been for the Convention of each Colony to give their Delegates instructions to act and vote upon all and any important question. And from the last letter we were favoured with from your body, you told us that you were not competent or authorized to give us instructions on that grand question; nor have you been pleased to answer our letter of the 2d instant, any otherwise than by your said resolve transmitted to the President. I think we were entitled to an answer.

"I am compelled, therefore, to declare, that it is against my judgment and inclination. As long as a door was left open for a reconciliation with Great Britain upon honourable and just terms, I was willing and ready to render my country all the service in my power, and for which purpose I was appointed and sent to this Congress; but as you have, I presume, by that declaration, closed the door of reconciliation, I must beg leave to resign my seat as a Delegate from New-York, and that I may be favoured with an answer and my dismission.

"I have the honour to be, with esteem, gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant, JOHN ALSOP."

Resolved, unanimously, That the Convention do cheerfully accept of Mr. Alsop's resignation of his seat in the Continental Congress, and that Mr. Alsop be furnished with a copy of this resolution.

Ordered, That Mr. Duer and Mr. Morris be a Committee to prepare a draft of a Letter to the Delegates of this Colony, to cover a copy of the last above resolution or dismission of Mr. Alsop, and that they report with all convenient speed.

The Convention then proceeded to take into further consideration the Report of the Committee on the raising and appointment of Rangers in the northern Counties of this State.* The same was read, and being again read by para-

* Your Committee, to whom is referred the appointment of Rangers in the northern Counties of the State of New-York, report: That from the best information they can obtain, the inhabitants in the western and northern parts of the County of Albany, and the inhabitants of the Counties of Tryon, Charlotte, Cumberland, Gloucester, Orange, and Ulster, are more immediately exposed to the Indians, and that several families in some of the above-mentioned Counties, in consequence of the danger they apprehend, have moved, and others, it is probable, will move into the interior parts of this State, to the inevitable ruin of many, and the great distress of the publick.

Your Committee do further report, in order to induce those inhabitants to remain on their possessions, and to afford them a protection against the occasional inroads of the Indians:

Resolved, That five hundred and fifty men, officers included, be raised in the Counties aforesaid, and taken into the pay and service of this Convention, and confined to the service of these Counties, unless called forth to the defence of a neighbouring County or State, by the consent of the County Committees of the respective States.

That in like manner two hundred men be raised in the County of Tryon, to be employed as scouting parties to range the woods, as the Committee of the said County shall think proper.

That in like manner two hundred and fifty men be raised in the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland, to be under the command of a Major, to be appointed by this Convention.

That also in like manner one hundred and twenty men, to be divided into two Companies, be raised in the County of Charlotte.

That in like manner fifty-five men be raised in the County of Orange.

That the said Rangers be formed into Companies, each consisting of one Captain, one Lieutenant, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and forty-two Privates, except in the Counties of Charlotte, Orange, and Albany.

That the officers be nominated, for approbation and appointment, by the respective County Committees, and that they issue warrants for levying their troops, and that it be strongly recommended to them to nominate persons of sober and active dispositions for these appointments.

That the pay of the officers and privates be the same as the pay of the Continental troops.

That a bounty be allowed to each non-commissioned officer and private of twenty-five dollars, upon his passing muster.

That to each Captain there be allowed 16s., to each Lieutenant 12s., and to every non-commissioned officer and private 10s. per week, in lieu and in stead of all rations and provisions.

That the officers and privates furnish themselves each with a good musket or firelock, powder-horn, bullet-pouch, and tomahawk.

That the said Companies be under the order and direction of the authorities before-mentioned, or such other person or persons, as this or a future Convention or other Legislature of this State shall direct.

That each officer of the respective Companies of Rangers do, before he receives his commission, take an oath before the Chairman of the County Committee, where he shall receive his recommendation, that he will once in every month, or as soon after as possible, transmit to the Convention or Legislature of this State, a muster-roll of the names and rank of every officer or private under his command, and that any officer who shall return a false muster-roll of the officers or privates under his command, shall, on conviction thereof, be cashiered and lose his pay, and be forever thereafter rendered incapable of holding any office, civil or military, in this State.

That certified copies of the foregoing resolves be transmitted to the respective General Committees of the said Counties.

That the said Rangers continue in such service until they be discharged by this or some future Convention or other Legislature of this State.

graphs, on reading the paragraph ascertaining the number of Rangers for Albany County, Mr. Yates moved that it be obliterated, and the following inserted in its stead, viz:

"That there be raised in the City and County of Albany two hundred men, officers included, to be at the disposal of the Committee of the said County; one hundred and twenty-five to be employed as scouting parties to range the woods, and the remainder to guard the stores, provisions, ammunition, and vessels, in and about the said City, in conjunction with the Militia of that City."

Debates arose thereon, and the question being put on said motion, it was carried in the affirmative, in manner following, to wit:

5 Dutchess.
2 Charlotte.
3 Tryon.
4 Ulster.

Tryon and Charlotte equally divided.

Therefore the said motion was rejected.

Mr. Duer then moved a new amendment to the said paragraph, which was unanimously agreed to.

The whole of the said Report being read, amended, and agreed to, was delivered to Mr. Duer and the former Committee, to be converted into Resolutions.

Mr. Morris, from the Committee for that purpose, reported the draft of a Letter to the Delegates of this State at Congress, on the subject of the dismission of John Alsop, Esq.,

as a Delegate; which was read and approved, and is in the words following, viz:

"GENTLEMEN: I am directed by this Convention to enclose you the copy of a letter which they received from John Alsop, Esquire, together with two copies of their resolution on that subject, one of which they request you to deliver to him.

"The Convention are much surprised to learn that a measure which they conceived necessary in this State, to show their warm approbation of the measures of Congress and to strengthen the bands of Continental union, should disgust any gentleman; nor can they discover how their approbation of the Declaration of Independence can be construed an instruction to you to act or vote upon an occasion where every act was already performed, and every vote received. And they are equally astonished to find themselves censured for declaring at one time that they were not competent or authorized to give instructions on that grand question, when, in fact, they had no such authority; and for making such declaration at another time, when they had received from their constituents a full authority for the purpose.

"I am further directed, gentlemen, to assure you, that if the measure of Independency had originated with this Convention, they would gladly bear whatever measure of blame Mr. Alsop should in his wisdom think meet to confer upon them; as, on the other hand, they take care that all persons who avow sentiments inimical to the cause and rights of America shall be prevented from affording aid or assistance to the common enemy. But as this grand step in American affairs has been taken by that honourable body of which Mr. Alsop was once a member, the Convention are of opinion that it belongs to them, and to them only, to determine upon the little cavils of those who wish to keep open a door for their reconciliation.

"I am directed, therefore, to desire that you will lay this letter, together with the copy of that gentleman's favour, and the resolution of the Convention in consequence of it, before the Congress, since they will best be able to investigate the meaning of the writer, and determine how far his knowledge of the publick transactions may or may not be safely trusted in his custody.

"I have the honour to be, gentlemen, with great respect, your most obedient and humble servant.

"To the Delegates of the State of New-York at Congress."

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, with a copy of the Letter of John Alsop, Esq., of the 16th instant, and two certified copies of the Resolution of this Convention thereon, of the 22d instant, therein enclosed.

Resolved, unanimously, That a Letter be wrote to General Gates, requesting the favour of him to communicate to this Convention a candid state of our military operations in the Northern Department; particularly with respect to the number of our forces, the state of health in which they are, and the intelligence he has received of the strength and designs of General Burgoyne's Army; and assuring him of every possible exertion in this Convention to repel an invasion of the enemy in that quarter.

Resolved, That Leonard Gansevoort and Jacob Cuyler, Esqs., be a Committee from this Convention to wait on General Gates with the said Letter, and that they be directed to transmit to this Convention, as soon as possible, the General's answer; and to make every observation which they may think will give to this Convention a full insight into the state of our Northern Army.

Ordered, That Mr. Morris and Mr. Robert Harper be a Committee to prepare a draft of such Letter, as above mentioned, to General Gates, and also to prepare a draft of a Letter to Leonard Gansevoort and Jacob Cuyler, Esqs., on the subject mentioned in the above Resolutions.

Whereas this Convention, upon an opinion that Thomas Thomas, Esquire, was the first Colonel of the Militia of the County of Westchester, did tender unto him (the said Thomas Thomas) the command of the Regiment draughted from the said Militia, which he did accept of; and whereas this Convention are now assured that Colonel Joseph Drake is the first Colonel of the said County; and whereas it has been represented to this Convention, on the part of the said Joseph Drake, that his reputation may be materially injured, from a suggestion that the appointment of the said Thomas Thomas proceeded from an opinion that the said Joseph Drake was unfit to hold the said commission: In justice, therefore, to him, the said Joseph Drake,

Resolved, unanimously, That this Convention have a high opinion of the integrity, talents, and military virtue, of the said Joseph Drake; and that the preference given to him, the said Thomas Thomas, in the aforesaid appointment, was merely owing to the mistake above mentioned.

Ordered, That a certified copy hereof be sent to Colonel Drake, without delay.

Die Martis, 8 ho. A. M., July 23, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. Opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Duer informed the Convention that on the account of sundry matters now before the Convention, and yet to be considered, he desires to continue his attendance at present in the Convention; that he was appointed to wait on Governor Trumbull with Colonel Broome with the despatches from this Congress, and that they are intrusted with very important despatches from General Washington to Governor Trumbull; that Mr. Hobart has consented to go with Colonel Broome on that service, if agreeable to this Convention, instead of Mr. Duer:

Resolved, That Mr. Hobart and Colonel Broome be a Committee to wait on his Honour Governor Trumbull, of the State of Connecticut, for the purposes mentioned in the Resolutions of this Convention on the 16th instant.

The Convention were informed that Provisions are very scarce and dear in the City of New-York; that Provisions have notwithstanding been shipped for exportation, and fallen into the hands of the enemy:

Therefore, Resolved, That no Provisions whatever shall be laden for exportation on board of any Ship or Vessel at the Port of New-York, or from any other part of this State, unless for the use of the crew of such Ship or Vessel, or for the necessary supply of any of the United States of America, until further order; and that the City and County of New-York shall be first applied to for their permission to export any Provisions for the purposes aforesaid, which said Committee are hereby empowered to judge and determine upon the propriety of granting such supplies.

Resolved, That in all cases where a breach shall be made in the above Resolution, the Vessel and Cargo shall be forfeited to the use of this State, and the persons guilty of infringing it shall be held up as enemies to the United States of America.

Mr. Morris, from the Committee for that purpose, reported the draft of a Letter to Major-General Gates, which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"July 23.

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention of this State to make it their earnest request that you will do them the honour of communicating a full state of the military operations which you now superintend. It is by no means an idle curiosity which prompts the Convention to inquire into the number of forces under your command, and their situation as to arms, health, provisions, and other necessities, as also what intelligence your Honour may have obtained of the strength and design of General Burgoyne. But as the war is now brought to our doors, and this State invaded at each extremity, the utmost attention and strictest inquiry are necessary in the Legislature, that they may be enabled to give all the assistance in their power to the several armies employed in our defence.

"I am further directed to inform your Honour that this letter will be handed to you by Leonard Gansevort and Jacob Cuyler, Esquires, a Committee of this Convention, who are sent to receive such intelligence as you may think necessary to give a complete idea of the situation of our Northern Army, and to assure your Honour that the Convention will make the most strenuous exertions to repel any invasion which may be meditated against us in your department.

"I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, sir, your most obedient, humble servant.

"Major-General Gates."

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted to Messrs. Gansevort and Cuyler unsealed; that a copy of the Resolution of this Convention to write to General Gates be therein enclosed.

Mr. Morris, from the Committee for that purpose, reported the draft of a Letter to Messrs. Gansevort and Cuyler, which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"GENTLEMEN: I am directed by the Convention to enclose you a copy of two resolutions of this date, together with a letter to Brigadier-General Gates, at Ticonderoga, which we leave open for your perusal.

"It is the wish of the Convention that you should immediately wait on General Gates with his letter, and that you should likewise exert yourselves in obtaining every intelligence, from your own observation, which you think will tend to give this House a full insight into the state of our Northern Army.

"In the letter which this Convention has ordered to be wrote to General Gates, they have chiefly confined their inquiries to the number of our forces, the state of health they are in, and General Burgoyne's designs.

"From motives of delicacy, this Convention has not thought proper to inquire of General Gates whether proper harmony prevails amongst the officers, and subordination amongst the troops. These are objects of infinite consequence, and on which the fate of a battle has often depended. The Convention, therefore, wish you will pay particular attention to obtain proper information on these points. Your own prudence and knowledge of the world will lead you to obtain these inquiries in the most delicate manner possible.

"You will be pleased to transmit General Gates's answer by express, together with your own observations, in writing, in case you should be detained in joining the Convention.

"I am, &c.

"To Jacob Cuyler and Leonard Gansevort, Esqs., Albany.

"July 23."

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President and transmitted, with copies of the Resolutions relating to their going to the Northern Army therein enclosed.

Mr. Duer, according to order, brought in a set of Resolutions formed on the Report of the Committee for the raising and appointment of Rangers in the northern Counties; which, being read, were again read by paragraphs, and amended, and the same being read the third time, were unanimously agreed to, and are as follows, to wit:

Whereas, from the best information this Convention has obtained, the inhabitants in the western and northern parts of the County of Albany and the inhabitants of the Counties of Tryon, Charlotte, Gloucester, Cumberland, Ulster, and Orange, are greatly exposed to the Indians, and several families in some of the above-mentioned Counties, from the dangers they apprehend, have already removed, and it is probable others will remove into the interior parts of this State, to the inevitable destruction of many, and to the great distress of the publick: In order, therefore, to induce those inhabitants to remain in their possessions, and to afford them a protection against the inroads of the Indians,

Resolved, unanimously, That there be raised in the County of Albany one hundred and twenty-six men, officers included, to be employed as scouting parties to range the woods; and that the same be divided into two Companies, each Company to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and fifty-four Privates.

That in like manner, and for the same service, two hundred and one men be raised in the County of Tryon; to be divided into three Companies, each to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and fifty-eight Privates.

That in like manner, and for the same service, two hundred and fifty-two men be raised in the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland, for the joint defence of both Counties; and that those men be divided into four Companies, each Company to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and fifty-four Privates.

That in like manner, and for the same service, one hundred and twenty men be raised in the County of Charlotte, to be divided in the following manner, viz: two Companies, each to consist of one Captain, one Lieutenant, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and forty-two Privates; and one party to consist of one Lieutenant, one Sergeant, one Corporal, and seventeen Privates.

That in like manner, and for the same service, two hundred and one men be raised in the County of Ulster, to be divided into three Companies, similar to those of the County of Tryon.

That one Company be raised for the County of Orange, to consist of one Captain, one Lieutenant, three Sergeants, three Corporals, and forty-seven Privates.

That the Commissioned Officers of the Companies of the Counties of Albany, Tryon, Charlotte, Ulster, and Orange, be nominated, for approbation and appointment of this Convention, by the respective County Committees; and that the said County Committees issue Warrants for levying those Troops to such persons whom they propose to nominate for Companies; and it hereby is strongly recommended to them to nominate persons of sober and active dispositions for these appointments.

That the Commissioned Officers of the Counties of Cumberland and Gloucester be nominated by the mutual consent of the Committees of both Counties, and that Warrants issue to the Captains of each Company in the same manner as before directed.

That the Pay of the Officers and Privates be the same as the pay of the Continental Troops.

That a Bounty be allowed to each Non-Commissioned Officer and Private of twenty-five dollars upon his passing muster.

That to each Captain be allowed sixteen shillings; to each Lieutenant, fourteen shillings; and to each Non-Commissioned Officer and Private, ten shillings per week, in lieu of all rations.

That the Officers and Privates furnish themselves each with a good Musket or Firelock, Powder-Horn, Bullet-Pouch, and Tomahawk, Blanket, and Knapsack.

That the Companies in the Counties of Albany, Tryon, Charlotte, Ulster, and Orange, be confined to the service of those Counties, unless called forth to the defence of a neighbouring County or State by the mutual consent of the bordering County Committees of the respective Counties or States.

That the Companies in the Counties of Cumberland and Gloucester be under the command of a Major, to be appointed by this Convention.

That the Major commanding the Rangers in the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland shall march to the relief of any of the neighbouring Counties or States, upon a mutual application from the County Committees of such respective Counties or States, or upon an application from the Continental Officer commanding in the Northern Department, provided that such Continental Officer do not call these Companies out of the said three Counties of Cumberland, Gloucester, and Charlotte.

That each Officer of the respective Companies of Rangers shall, before he receives his Warrant, take an oath before the Chairman of the County Committee from whence he is to be recommended, that he will once in every month, or as soon after the expiration of any month as possible, transmit to the Convention or Legislature of this State a muster-roll of the names of every Officer or Private under his command, and their respective times of enlistment and service; and that any Officer who shall return a false muster-roll shall, on conviction thereof, lose his pay, and be cashiered, and forever thereafter rendered incapable of holding any office, civil or military, in this State.

That all the Companies of Rangers shall, at any future time, be under the direction and command of such person or persons, and be continued so long in the service, as this Convention or a future Legislature of this State shall please to appoint, not exceeding the duration of the present war, and that all these Troops be subject to the Continental Rules of War, till further orders from this Convention, or a future Legislature of this State.

Resolved, That one-half of the Bounty be paid by the Captain of each Company to every able-bodied man when he shall pass muster, and that so soon as the first muster-roll of every Company shall be received by this Convention, the other half shall be remitted by this Convention to the respective County Committees of Albany, Tryon, Orange, Ulster, and Charlotte Counties, and to the Major commanding the Gloucester and Cumberland Rangers, to be by them issued to the Captains of their respective Companies, and immediately disbursed to the men.

Ordered, That certified copies of the foregoing Resolutions be transmitted, with all despatch, to the respective Committees of the Counties afore-mentioned.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration the expediency of raising a Company of men to guard the Stores and Vessels with Provisions and Ammunition in the City of Albany, delivered in their Report, which was read; and the same being again read and amended, was unanimously agreed to, and is in the words following, to wit:

Resolved, That seventy-five men, officers included, be raised, to guard the Stores and Vessels with Provisions and Ammunition in and about the City of Albany; that they be under the pay of this State; that they be imbodyed into one Company, to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, four Sergeants, four Corporals, one Drummer, and one Fifer, and sixty-two Privates; that they furnish themselves each with a Gun or Musket, one Pouch or Cartouch-box, one Tomahawk or Cutlass; that they be allowed Continental pay, and be subject to the Continental Rules and Articles of War; and that instead of Rations, the Captain be allowed sixteen shillings, the Lieutenants twelve shillings, and the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates seven shillings per week. That they be under the direction of the Committee of the City and County of Albany, and in their absence the Sub-Committee of the City of Albany; that they be continued in the said service until the first day of December next, unless sooner discharged by this or a future Convention or Legislature of this State.

Colonel De Witt informed the Convention that there are a number of Indians in some parts of the County of Ulster to whom it would be good policy to distribute a small supply of Gunpowder. That there are also a few very indigent persons on the Delaware who are very hearty friends of the American cause, but that they are destitute of Gunpowder, and have applied to the Committee of Rochester, and to the County Committee of Ulster County, for a small supply of that article, which could not there be furnished to them.

Mr. Duer gave notice that he intended to-morrow to move this Convention that the order for furnishing two hundred weight of Gunpowder to the Indians at Onenoghkwaga and Tuscarora be reconsidered, if a majority of the Convention, pursuant to the sixth standing rule, consent to such motion; and he moved, seconded by Mr. Abraham Yates, that the sense of the Convention be taken, whether he shall be permitted to make such motion. The Committee appointed to examine into two charges against Lieutenant-Colonel James Hammon—the first, that he had not acted uprightly in the purchase of some pork, on account of this State; and the other, of a neglect of duty, in that evening when the enemy's ships lately proceeded up Hudson's River—reported that they had examined all the witnesses which appeared or were brought before them, as to each of the said charges, the substance of whose testimony they reported.

The said Committee further reported, that it appears to them that the charges exhibited against Lieutenant-Colonel Hamman are entirely groundless; and that, therefore, Lieutenant-Colonel James Hamman ought to be acquitted from all further trouble in the premises, that he may immediately return to his duty.

The Evidence given to that Committee, whereon they founded their Report, was read and filed.*

Several paragraphs were read and amended. The whole afternoon being spent, for want of light the further consideration thereof is deferred till to-morrow.

The Convention having this day appointed Joab Hoising-

*The Examination of the Evidences against Colonel HAMMAN, in respect to his behaviour as an officer on the evening of the day on which the enemy's ships came to anchor off TARRYTOWN, in this County, and as a buyer of pork for this State.

Lieutenant Daniel Martin, being sworn, deposeth and saith, That upon seeing the fleet drawing near Tarrytown, the 12th instant, ordered his Sergeant to warn the men—this was about seven o'clock; that said Sergeant afterwards told the deponent he had been with Colonel Hammond to warn him, and that thereupon the said Colonel mounted his horse and set out directly to warn Captain Vermilke; that the said Colonel and a brother of this deponent had some words, as the deponent heard from some of the men, but cannot recollect from whom; and that the said Colonel arrived at Tarrytown between twelve and one o'clock the next morning, as his said brother informed him. And further this deponent saith not.

Samuel Purdie, Jun., being sworn, deposeth, That Colonel Hammond agreed with him for four barrels pork at £4 5s. per barrel. That afterwards the said Colonel told him that Colonel Drake was dissatisfied with the bargain, and asked him, the said Colonel Hammond, if he did not think the people would take the pork again. That Hammond said he told the said Drake that he did not choose to go about to countermand what he had done, for that he knew that some of the people wanted the money; that he would sooner take it himself than do so. That he, the deponent, after this, delivered the said pork to the said Colonel Hammond. That either at that time, or some time before, the said Colonel told the deponent that the said Colonel Drake had wrote to him, the said Hammond, for a number of prime barrels of pork, which the deponent thinks he, the said Hammond, said were about eight in number. That the next day after the said Hammond had received the said four barrels pork from the deponent, he told the said deponent, it having been repacked, that he had made three barrels of prime pork out of the four barrels aforesaid, and that he did allow the deponent but £4 for the remaining barrel. That the deponent heard others call the said repacker of the said pork by the name of Thomas Hunt, and heard him say that he was authorized by the Congress to that employment. The deponent further saith, that he was present when the said repacker was repacking the pork of James Requa, and that he saw several pieces of the said pork rejected by the said repacker, and that afterwards he, the deponent, saw the said Requa carrying back several pieces of the said rejected pork in his cart. And the deponent saith that he heard the said Colonel Hammond say to the said Requa, that he would as soon see his pork repacked as any of his neighbours, if the repacker thought it would do. The deponent further saith, that he saw several prime pieces of pork taken by Joseph Leggett, while the said Hunt was repacking pork, which he, the said Leggett, had sold the said Hammond, and that the deponent did not hear the said Leggett, or any other person, desire the said packer to put in any pieces into the barrels but what he thought proper; nor doth he know that any pieces were taken out of any of the said barrels after having been repacked.

Jonathan G. Tompkins, Esq., being sworn, deposeth and saith, That near nine o'clock in the evening of the 12th instant, he called at Colonel Hammond's, and found a man advising him to warn his men to muster, for the enemy's ships were coming up the river. The said Colonel asked the deponent whether the report was a matter of fact; this deponent told him it was, and desired said Colonel to warn his officers immediately. That the Colonel turned to a certain Justice Deane, and borrowed his horse, and set off directly with the deponent, without so much as going into his own house first, to warn Captain Vermilke; and he, the said Colonel, also desired the aforesaid man to warn all he came across, and that they should influence others to do the same. That the said Colonel informed the deponent that he was under the necessity of ordering the people to meet at his house, as he had the ammunition there; that Captain Requa was sufficiently warned, being in a field from which he could see the vessels as they came up. That the deponent parted with the said Colonel about two miles from the river where the road strikes off to Captain Vermilke's. That the said Colonel went towards the said Captain's, and the deponent to the river at Tarrytown. That about ten ton, Esq., Major of the Rangers to be raised in the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland, a draft of a Commission for him was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York.

"To JOAB HOISINGTON, Esq., greeting:

"Whereas this Convention did, on the 23d day of July, instant, direct and order the raising and embodying two hundred and fifty-two men, officers included, in the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland, for the joint defence of both Counties and of the neighbouring Counties and States, to be divided into four Companies, to be under the command of a Major: Now, therefore, we, the Representatives of the State of New-York, reposing especial trust and confidence in your patriotism, martial valour, vigilance, conduct, and fidelity, do, by these presents, constitute and appoint you to be Major of the said four Companies of Rangers, so to be raised as aforesaid, for the defence of American liberty, and for repelling every hostile invasion thereof. You are, therefore, carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of Major, by doing and performing all manner of things thereunto belonging; and we do strictly charge and require all officers and soldiers under your command to be obedient to your orders as Major. And you are to observe and follow such orders and directions, from time to time, as you shall receive from this or a future Convention of the State of New-York, or the Congress of the United States of America, or Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Army of the United States of America, or any other your superior officer, according to the rules and discipline of war, in pursuance of the trust reposed in you. This commission to continue in force o'clock the deponent returned to the said Colonel's, and was told that he had not returned since he had set out with the said deponent; and the deponent believes that the said Colonel was active in collecting his men; and further saith not.

Captain Benjamin Vermilie being sworn, deposeth and saith, That on the evening of the 12th instant Colonel Hammond came to his house, early in the evening, and gave him orders to warn the men as fast as he could. After the said deponent had warned the Corporal to acquaint the Sergeants to come down to Tarrytown, this deponent went to Mr. Vantassel's, and found the Colonel there; that scarcely an hour after the deponent with the Colonel went down to the river; but the hour of the night he could not tell, as he had no watch.

Peter Allair, clerk to Colonel Hammond's Regiment, being sworn, deposeth and saith, That Colonel Hammond's son-in-law, about nine o'clock, warned him to turn out on the alarm; that he went to alarm some men, then returned to the Colonel and charged all the guns there; that he afterwards went to Vantassel's, and that the Colonel was there before him. And the deponent believes that the said Colonel made no unnecessary delay in going down to Tarrytown; the time of night he knew not.

Lieutenant Cornelius Vantassel being sworn, deposeth and saith, That on the aforesaid evening he went to the house of Lieutenant Martin, where he found Colonel Hammond, about one or two o'clock, and found him doing his best to prepare and forward the men to the shore; that he, the Colonel, got the deponent a hat-full of cartridges for his men, who had before but three or four rounds a man; and that said Colonel was busy in furnishing others with cartridges also.

Joseph Youngs being sworn, deposeth and saith, That William Paulding, Esq., told the Committee of this place, (Westchester), that Colonel Hammond had been warned at ten o'clock on the evening the enemy appeared off Tarrytown, and did not go to Tarrytown till ten o'clock the next day; but the deponent going down to the said town found, by the information of credible persons, that Colonel Hammond had been down at about one in the morning; and further saith not as to that matter. That he was present when Joseph Drake asked Hammond if he could purchase him some pork; the Colonel replied he could; that Hammond bought some by Drake's order, who told him he allowed him to give £4 and £4 5s. per barrel for prime pork. After he had bought it, Drake told Hammond the Congress would not allow so much, and asked him whether he could not return it to the people again. Hammond told him he could not, for that he would rather lose the five shillings. Young then advised Hammond to keep the pork, for that he would not lose by it.

Joseph Leggett doth affirm, That he was present when Requaw's pork was repacked by the aforesaid Hunt, and told the company, of which Colonel Hammond and the repacker Hunt were two, that the pork was very much moulded; and that he saw the said repacker put several pieces to his nose, and throw them aside; but did not see or learn that Colonel Hammond gave the repacker any orders or instructions about the said pork. The affirmant further saith, that in his opinion the said pork was not merchantable; that he, the affirmant, saw Colonel Hammond cull one barrel of pork out of four or five, but that the remaining three were good pork and merchantable.

Martinus Van Woort being sworn, deposeth and saith, That he sold Colonel Hammond five barrels pork; that he was present at repacking the same; that the said Colonel Hammond, upon a door which he had laid down, took and laid the prime pieces of the said five barrels; that four barrels were filled by the repacker Hunt; and that a barrel was filled with part of the prime pork, and marked by the repacker; the remainder of the said prime pieces of pork the deponent took back; and also that he, the deponent, heard the repacker commend the whole of the said pork as he was repacking it; and that he does not know whether Hammond took the said barrel prime pork to himself or not.

From the foregoing evidences it appears to this Committee that the charges exhibited against Colonel Hammond, both in regard to the affair of the pork and neglect of duty as an officer, are entirely groundless; and that therefore the said Colonel ought to be acquitted from all further trouble on these accounts, and returned to his Regiment immediately.

That the New-England forces will depart on Saturday next, and request that such of the new levies as are raised may be on the ground by that time. last campaign as an officer, with much fatigue and diligence; that he is ready to continue his services to his country, and requests to be further employed in some military department.

Ordered, That the said Letter be referred and delivered to the Committee appointed to report a method of employing the Officers who served with reputation last year and are now unemployed.

A Member informed the Convention that Balthazar De Hart could give useful information as to many disaffected persons at Shrewsbury, who keep up a communication with the enemy:

Ordered, That Mr. Wisner and Mr. L'Hommedieu be a Committee to examine Mr. Balthazar De Hart as to such disaffected persons and communication with the enemy as he knows or can give information of.

A Letter from Mr. Andrew Adams, Chairman of the Committee of Litchfield, dated the 22d instant, was read and filed, and is as follows:

"Litchfield, July 22, 1776.

"SIR: The Committee of this town have duly received, by the hand of Abraham Depeyster, Esq., your letter of 18th instant, together with twelve prisoners sent here to be confined in our jail. The Committee, sensible of the situation of the State of New-York, and grateful for the good opinion you express of our zeal in the common cause, are entirely willing to give all possible aid in our power to a neighbour State. But the situation of our jail in this town is such at present, having on hand near forty prisoners of war, a number of which we are obliged to keep confined, besides six other prisoners sent here from Fairfield and Dutchess Counties to close confinement, for disaffection to the rights and liberties of the United States of America, corresponding with the enemy, &c., together with a number of other criminals for various crimes, all to be confined in two very uncomfortable rooms—the whole jail consisting of but three, one of which is occupied by a woman, confined for murder,—that renders the confinement of those prisoners in this jail incompatible either with the publick safety, or even with the safety of the prisoners' lives, some of whom are now sick. We have, however, received them for the present, trusting that, upon the above information, your Convention would think their immediate removal absolutely necessary, to which their earliest attention is requested, as our jail is not sufficient for the prisoners we before had, besides others expected from within this County. For the above reasons, Mr. Depeyster has not committed to our care the Mayor of your city, but has taken for him private lodgings, under the care of a particular gentleman, for his safe custody, until he can know your pleasure in the premises. To him we beg leave to refer you for further particulars; and are, with great respect, your most obedient, humble servants.

"Signed by order. ANDREW ADAMS, Chairman."

Ordered, That Mr. Landon, Mr. L'Hommedieu, and Mr. Wisner, be a Committee to consider the state of the Prisoners lately sent to Litchfield, and to report what may be necessary to be done in their case.

Ordered, That Colonel Hoffman and Captain Rutgers proceed to Harlem, and make proper inquiry whether this Convention can be there properly accommodated with convenient lodgings.

On motion, Resolved, That Mr. Yates, Mr. William Harper, Mr. Wisner, and Mr. Contine, be a Committee to reconsider whether any and what quantity of Gunpowder shall be sent to the Indians at Onenoghkwaga and Tuscarora, and in what manner.

Ordered, That Mr. Gelston and Mr. Smith of Suffolk County, be added to the late Committee appointed to report the best method for encouraging the manufacture and importation of Salt.

Ordered, That Mr. Robert Harper and Colonel Brasher be a Committee to prepare and report a draft of a peremptory Resolution, that the Committee of Albany return to this Convention a copy of their Proceedings against Abraham Cuyler, Henry Cuyler, Stephen DeLancey, John Duncan, Benjamin Hilton, and John Monier, whom the said Committee have sent prisoners to Hartford, in Connecticut.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration and report the most proper mode for employing in the service of this State Mr. James Stewart, late Lieutenant in Colonel

Livingston's Regiment, delivered in their Report, which was read; and the same being read, paragraph by paragraph, and amended, was agreed to, and is in the words following, to wit:

Resolved, That the said James Stewart is deserving a Captain's Commission in the service of this State, and that a Warrant be immediately given to him to raise a Company with all possible despatch.

That the said Company ought to consist of Scotch Highlanders, or as many of them as possible, and that they serve during the war, unless sooner discharged by this Convention, or a future Legislature of this State.

That the said Company shall consist of one Captain, one Lieutenant, one Ensign, four Sergeants, four Corporals, one Drum, one Fife, and not less than sixty-two Privates.

That a Bounty of fifteen dollars be allowed to each Non-Commissioned Officer and Private.

That they be entitled to Continental Pay and Rations, and subject to the Continental Articles of War, till further orders from this Convention or a future Legislature of this State.

That the said James Stewart shall not receive pay as a Captain until he shall have returned to this Convention, or a future Legislature of this State, a regular muster-roll, upon oath, of thirty able-bodied men, duly inlisted.

That the Treasurer of this Convention be ordered to advance to the said James Stewart £144, in order to enable him to advance the bounty to those he may inlist, taking his receipt to account for the same to the Treasurer of this State.

That as soon as the said James Stewart shall have returned to this Convention, or a future Legislature of this State, a regular muster-roll of thirty able-bodied men, duly inlisted, certifying that the said men have been mustered, in the presence of a person to be appointed by the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of Albany, or of a person to be appointed by the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of New-York, that then, and not before, the said James Stewart shall be authorized to draw upon the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of Albany for the further sum of £100, in order that he may be enabled to proceed in his inlistment, giving his receipt to account for the same to the Treasurer of this State; and that when the said James Stewart shall have duly inlisted and mustered, in the presence of a person to be appointed by the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of Albany, the whole of his Company, or as many as he can inlist, that then he shall be entitled to receive of the said Chairman of the County Committee the remaining proportion of bounty due to the non-commissioned officers and privates which he shall have inlisted.

That if the said James Stewart shall not be able to complete the inlistment of this Company, that he shall make a report of the same, with all despatch, to the President of this Convention, or to a future Legislature, who will either order his Commission to issue, or make such further provision for his trouble in recruiting as the equity of the case shall require.

That the Treasurer of this Convention be ordered to remit into the hands of John Barclay, Esquire, of the City of Albany, the sum of £288, on or before the last day of December next, in order to enable him to make unto the said James Stewart the disbursements aforesaid.

That the said James Stewart shall be authorized to engage to each man the sum of 7s. per week, billeting money, till such time as further provision is made for the subsistence of his recruits.

That the said Company, when raised, shall be either employed as an independent Company, or incorporated into any Battalion as to this Convention, or to a future proper authority of this State, shall appear advisable.

NEW-YORK.—Colonel Brasher, Mr. Bancker.

SUFFOLK.—General Woodhull, Mr. Gelston, Mr. Smith, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. L'Hommedieu.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer, Major Webster.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Landon.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, Gen. Morris, Mr. Tomplins.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. Wat. Smith.

ORANGE.—Mr. Wisner, Mr. Outwater.

TRYON.—Mr. Moore, Mr. Harper.

Mr. Gouverneur Morris informed the Convention that sundry Pilots have lately gone off and disappeared.

Sundry Affidavits,* with respect to inimical declarations and threats used by William Sutton and his son John Sutton,

*IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 15, 1776.

Mr. Sutton came before this Committee, and made oath that William Sutton did, about fourteen days ago, at the house of Nicholas Morrell, at Mamaroneck, declare, in the presence of this deponent and James Reynolds, cabinet-maker, of New-York, and several others, whose names this deponent does not at present recollect, that, in case independency was declared by the Continental Congress, there were three Colonels in the service that would join the Ministerial Army; and further says not.

By order of the Committee: JOHN THOMAS, Chairman.

William Sutton, being examined by the Committee appointed for that purpose, says: That he was at first for choosing a Congress, &c., and afterwards opposed it, and protested against it; that his reasons for his change of conduct was, his hearing that the Assembly had taken, or was about to take, the matter into consideration. That he had received several letters from Judge Jones, but that there was not a word of politics in either of them; that he had never received any letter from any of the Delanceys, except one from James Delancey, enclosing the Protest against choosing Deputies. That several people went on board the Governor's ship, while he (the said Sutton) was there with his boat, amongst whom were James Horton, Esq., Captain Ebenezer Shield, one Holmes, of Cortlandt's Manor, Gabriel Purdy, Isaac Gidney, and several of the Haineses.

That Governor Tryon said, from what he heard, he expected that there would be friends of Government enough, with the forces that would come; that the friends of Government would be protected. That he never received any letter from Wilkins or Seabury; that none of the Delanceys have ever endeavoured to influence him to take the part he has done.

Captain Ritchie, being asked, says he never saw a letter from Wilkins and Seabury to William Sutton.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 23, 1776.

William Sutton, being examined before this Committee relative to the charge laid against him, (dated 12th instant,) utterly denies the same, excepting that Governor Tryon told him that when the fleet arrived there would be a proclamation published, declaring all those Rebels who would oppose their measures, and all those who would come into them should have a pardon; that the Governor further told him that there would be some shipping sent into the Sound.

In respect to the second charge, he says that he might have said that there would be three or four Colonels that would revolt and oppose independency in case it was declared, but does not know their names. But it appears to this Committee that said Sutton either knows who they are, or the person who gave him the information, but declines to discover them. By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 23, 1776.

Mr. Sutton appeared before this Committee, and maketh oath that William Sutton did, about fourteen days ago, at the house of Nicholas Morrell, declare, in the presence of this deponent, James Reynolds, and several others, whose names this deponent does not at present recollect, that in case independency was declared by the Continental Congress, there were three Colonels in the service who would join the Ministerial party. By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

The above deponent is a man of good character, and well known to this Committee; and if the Congress requests to have him before them, his name shall be given up to them. By order of the Committee of Safety:

JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 23, 1776.

John Sutton, being examined before this Committee, declares that the charge alleged against him is groundless; that he might have said the Regulars would land between Mamaroneck and Horseneck; but if he did say it, that was only an opinion of his own. By order of the Committee of Safety:

JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE-PLAINS, July 23, 1776.

James Horton, being called before this Committee, by order of the Convention of the State of New-York, and being examined respecting his saying "that he was sure that the Ministerial Army would conquer us, and that matters would soon be settled," says, that he might have made use of such words, but does not recollect that he did; that he had no design or reason for saying so, only that the fate of war was uncertain; and further says, that he never knew of any conspiracy whatever against the United States of America. And whereas it has been reported that he went on board of the Governor's ship and swore a new allegiance to the King: voluntarily declares, under oath, that he never swore allegiance since he was first qualified as a Justice of the Peace; and the only reason he had for going on board the Governor's ship was, that he heard William Sutton (who was then on board) was going to England, and that he had business of a private nature to settle with said Sutton. By order of the Committee:

JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

This Committee prays that the Congress would take Mr. Horton's case into consideration as soon as possible.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE COUNTY OF }
WESTCHESTER, July 24, 1776. }

Benjamin Lyons, of the White-Plain, being a man of repute, and a member of this Committee, being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposes and saith, that he was coming from New-York in a boat, some time last March, as near as the deponent can recollect the time, when Joseph Bull was in company at the same time; and a dispute arising between the deponent and said Bull respecting the propriety or impropriety of independency, when the said Bull declared to the deponent that when independency was set up, he (the said Bull) would meet the deponent in the field of death; and further the deponent saith not.

BENJN. LYON.

Sworn before this Committee the day and year as above.

By order of the Committee: JOHN THOMAS, JUN., Chairman.

ton, taken before the Committee of Safety of Westchester County, together with the Examinations of the said William Sutton and John Sutton, were received from the said Committee, and read and filed.

It thereby appearing to this Convention that the said William Sutton and John Sutton are both persons whose going at large might endanger the liberties of America:

Resolved, unanimously, That the Committee of Safety of Westchester County be requested to have them, respectively, confined in safe custody.

Major Webster mentioned to the Convention sundry circumstances relating to the forwarding of money for the raising of Rangers in Charlotte County, and other matters relating to the publick service, which require his going to that County; that he will return speedily, or send down another Member to this Convention, and requested leave of absence.

Ordered, That Major Webster have leave of absence, and that in the mean time Charlotte County be considered as represented by Mr. Duer, and have a voice in this Convention as usual.

The Convention were informed that a certain Henry Chase* has been committed to the Jail at White-Plains, by an order from the Mayor.

To the Honourable Congress.

† The Examination of BALTHAZAR DE HAERT, of the County of ORANGE, Attorney at Law, who has for some time past been in SHREWSBURY, in MONMOUTH County, in NEW-JERSEY.

He saith, that when he left Shrewsbury, as he conceives, far the greatest part of that place was inhabited, or rather infested, with Tories or persons disaffected to the common cause of America, and that he has understood, from information, that their disaffection has been greatly increased by a number of persons who have gone from the city of New-York there, and, as he has understood, secretly labour to deceive the lower set of people, the higher being almost all disaffected; that he knows that Joseph Wardell, John Corties, and George Allen, went the week before last, or last week, to General Howe's camp, on Staten-Island, after, as they pretended, two negroes who had run away from William Kipping and the said John Corties; that they staid some time there; that this examinant has been informed, and indeed believes, that those three persons are dis-

County, of New-Jersey, are disaffected; that sundry persons therein named have had some correspondence with the enemy as therein mentioned, and that several suspicious characters from New-York are in Monmouth County:

Ordered, That three copies thereof be prepared, one to be sent to General Washington, another to the Convention of New-Jersey, and a third to the Committee of Monmouth County, and that Mr. Duer and Mr. Morris report Letters to accompany the same.

The Committee to whom the Letter from the Ouenhoughkuaga and Tuscarora Indians to Mr. Wisner was referred, reported, that it is their opinion that Mr. Wisner be required to answer said Letter, and in his answer to inform them that he makes them a present of seventy pounds of Gunpowder, one hundred and fifty pounds of Lead, and one hundred and fifty Flints, and that he hopes it will not be long before we will be enabled to supply them in a way of trade with anything they may stand in need of; and that Mr. Wisner charge this Convention with the said Gunpowder, Lead, and Flints, and the expense of necessary transportation.

Resolved, unanimously, That this Convention agrees with their Committee in the said Report.

The President informed the Convention that Mr. Fredrick Jay, from the Committee of the White-Plains, has applied to him, and says that Captain Townshend's Company has always been considered as under the direction of the said Committee, and that they have speedy occasion for them.

The Convention took the same into consideration, and are of opinion that Captain Townshend should leave a Sergeant and six men to guard the Court-House, and the residue of the Company, on account of the present danger from the enemy in Hudson's River, proceed to Hudson's River.

The Committee appointed to consider the state of the Prisoners lately sent to Litchfield, and to report what may be necessary to be done in their case, brought in their Report, which consisted of a Letter of request to Governour Trumbull, which was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: I am directed to acquaint you that this Convention lately sent thirteen prisoners from New-York to Litchfield, in your Colony, with a request to the Committee of that County to secure them in close confinement. We were induced to take this measure, as we esteemed it unsafe to venture such persons in any parts of this State, now attacked by the enemy. The crimes alleged against those prisoners, and the disposition we requested to be made of them, you will see by the enclosed copy of our letter to the Committee of Litchfield.

"The Committee of Litchfield, by their letter of the 22d instant, the copy of which we enclose, informs us that, from the number of prisoners already confined in their Jail, it is incompatible with the publick safety, and with the safety of the lives of those prisoners, to keep them any time in that Jail where they are now confined, and desire measures may be taken for their immediate removal.

"We make no doubt of the readiness of the people of your Government to give this State all necessary assistance in securing those persons; but as we are unacquainted in what proper places they may be secured, take the liberty to request your Honour that you will be pleased to give orders affected, and heard that, for that very reason, the negroes were delivered to them by Howe's order; that he has heard that they had a long conversation with some of Howe's officers. And further, he saith, that he was informed by Captain Jacob Dennis, a Militia officer that had been ordered to guard Deal shore in that township, that he could scarce persuade a man to go there with him, and that the examinant knows that his brother, who is another Militia officer there, could by no means prevail on his men to go to defend that shore—the Whigs telling him they expected that, if they went there, they would be delivered by the Tories to the enemy on their landings; and that he was informed by the said Captain Dennis, that the inhabitants along Deal shore told him they did by no means thank him for guarding them, and that they would much rather have the Regulars than the Yankees there. And he (this examinant) was further informed by the said Captain Dennis, that there were some vessels of force lying off Shark River, which, he supposed, were landing some men there to get provisions, as he observed flat-bottomed boats with them. And further this examinant saith, that he saw some armed vessels off Deal shore last Saturday, and observed some boats which seemed to be going on board said vessels, and that he verily believes that the inhabitants along that shore have communication with the enemy. And that this examinant further saith, that Isaac Loro, William Walton, Anthony Van Dam, John Roome, William Kipping, Hidet, a dancing-master, with a number of other persons from New-York, are there, whose names this examinant does not recollect. And further, this examinant saith not.

for the removal of those prisoners to such secure and convenient places in your Government as you shall judge best.

"This will be handed to you by Abraham Depeyster, Esq., who will give you a particular account of the state of the prisoners, and will be ready to obey any orders you shall give respecting their removal.

"I have the honour to be, &c.

"His Honour Governour Trumbull."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and (together with the copies of the Letters therein mentioned) transmitted by Mr. Depeyster.

The same Committee, by order, prepared at the table a draft of a Letter to the Committee at Litchfield. Being read and approved of, is in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention, &c.

"GENTLEMEN: Your favour of the 22d day of this instant, informing us that the prisoners sent to your care cannot be confined in your Jail with any degree of safety to their lives, has been duly received.

"In order that they may be removed as soon as possible, this Convention have requested Governour Trumbull that he will give orders for their removal to such places in your Government as he shall judge safe and convenient.

"Mr. Depeyster will hand you this, who has orders to settle with your Committee for your charge of subsisting those prisoners while in your care.

"I am, most respectfully, &c.

"To Andrew Adams, Chairman, and the Members of the Committee of Litchfield."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted by Mr. Depeyster.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State advance to Abraham Depeyster, Esq., as Commissary for prisoners sent into Connecticut, the sum of £20, on his receipt; the said Abraham Depeyster to be accountable for the same.

Mr. Duer, according to order, reported the two following Letters, which were read and approved, viz:

"A. M., July 26, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention to transmit to your Excellency a copy of the Examination of Balthazar De Hardt, relative to the conduct of the Tories in Monmouth County, in New-Jersey, and to acquaint you that we have likewise sent duplicates to the President of the Convention of the State of New-Jersey, and to the Chairman of the Committee of Monmouth, in order that measures may be taken for preventing the pernicious practices of such paricides to their country. I have the honour to be, &c.

"His Excellency General Washington."

"A. M., July 26, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed, by the Convention of this State, to transmit to the Committee of your County the Examination of Balthazar De Hardt. It is with great concern that they find any inhabitants of the County of Monmouth so lost to every principle of virtue and patriotism as to aid and assist the forces of the tyrant of Great Britain, who is aiming to stab to the vitals the liberties of America. As yours is a maritime County, such practices will be peculiarly pernicious to the publick cause. We doubt not, from the character you bear, you will exert yourselves in putting a stop to all communication with the enemy, and in punishing such offenders. I am, sir.

"To the Chairman of the Committee of Monmouth County, New-Jersey."

Ordered, That a copy of each of the said Letters be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, with a copy of the Examination of Balthazar De Hart enclosed in each.

Mr. Duer, from the same Committee, further reported (according to order) a draft of a Letter to the President of the Convention of New-Jersey, to cover a copy of the Examination of Balthazar De Hart; which was read and approved, and is in the words following, viz:

"A. M., July 26, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed, by the Convention of this State, to transmit to the honourable body over which you preside, the Examination of Balthazar De Hart. We have sent duplicates to General Washington and the Chairman of the Committee of the County of Monmouth, in order that the most effectual measures may be passed for preventing any communication with our tyrannical enemy.

"The Convention are sorry to observe several inhabitants of this State hinted at in this examination. Unfortunately for the safety and reputation of this State, too many of its inhabitants have been seduced from that sacred duty which they owe to their country, by either giving countenance and aid to our enemies, or by deserting its defence at this dangerous crisis.

"The characters of these persons, we confess, are equivocal; but as we conceive them to owe allegiance to your State, during their temporary stay, we therefore submit to your Convention what measures it will be most proper to pursue, so as to ensure the publick safety. I am, &c.

"To the Hon. Samuel Tucker, Esq., President of the New-Jersey Convention."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, with a copy of the Examination of Balthazar De Hart therein enclosed.

Mr. Robert Harper, from the Committee appointed for that purpose, delivered in their Report* relating to the Troop of Horse of Westchester County, which was read.

Ordered, That the consideration thereof be postponed till the afternoon.

Mr. Robert Harper, from the Committee, also reported (according to order) the draft of a Resolution, to be sent to the Committee of Albany, relating to Henry Cuyler and others, by them sent prisoners to Connecticut, which was read and filed.† After sundry debates thereon, Ordered, That it be deferred till to-morrow se'nnight.

Mr. Harper also delivered in the Report of the Committee for preparing a plan for the emission of Bills of Credit of this Colony, to the amount of £200,000, which was read, and again read paragraph by paragraph.

Ordered, That it remain for further consideration.

* WHITE-PLAINS, July 26, 1776.

The Committee appointed to inquire into the present state of the Troop of Horse belonging to the County of Westchester, do report, that, according to the evidence they have had, Samuel Tredwell, Captain of the said Troop, by order of General Morris, was applied to by Colonel Thomas to furnish five men for reinforcing the Army at New-York, which number of men were, by order of Congress, the complement required from the said Troop, and the said Tredwell utterly refused to comply therewith, but said he was willing to march with his whole company when called upon:

Therefore, Resolved, That this Convention do forthwith cite the said Captain Tredwell to appear before them to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, in order to answer for his said conduct as aforesaid.

And Resolved secondly, That if the said Captain Tredwell doth not give full satisfaction to this Convention, with respect to his conduct as above, that the said Captain be immediately cashiered.

ROBERT HARPER, Chairman.

† Resolved, That the Chairman of the Committee of the County of Albany do, upon receipt hereof, send to this Convention a copy of their proceedings against Abm. Cuyler, Henry Cuyler, Stephen Delancy, John Duncan, Benjamin Hilton, and John Monier, and also of the misdemeanors with which those persons stand charged, agreeable to a resolve of this House bearing date the 26th of June last, of which an authentick copy was sent to the said Chairman, but to which no answer has yet been received by this Convention.

[This did not pass.]

‡ The Petition of WILLIAM SUTTON, now confined in Jail. To the honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK, most humbly sheweth:

That the intelligence or report spread abroad by him he received from the Governour at the time he was down with the shipping, some time last fall; that he has not, since that time, received any letter or any intelligence from the Governour, of any kind, on any subject whatever; that he has not corresponded with any person or persons belonging to the Ministerial Army, either before or since that time; that your petitioner did not convey to the honourable Committee his meaning, if he said, on the Declaration of Independency, three or four Colonels would revolt, as he only meant to be understood they would lay down their arms. Your petitioner begs leave to mention that his present situation is rendered very miserable by the ill state of body he labours under, having for some weeks past been severely handled with a very bad cough, and for the greatest part of the time attended with a fever; and as it produces something of the phthisical kind, the want of air is very distressing. Your petitioner, therefore, humbly prays that the honourable Convention would indulge him to return to his family and business, as the gentlemen of the Convention must be very sensible how inconvenient it must be for a farmer to be absent at this busy season. Your petitioner would be willing to give any security for his remaining on his own farm as well as that he will not hold any correspondence with the Ministerial Army, their aiders or abettors; that he will not influence, or endeavour to influence any person or persons to aid the Ministerial or discourage the American arms. Your petitioner humbly prays that he might not Ordered, That Doctor Graham be requested to visit him, and report his state of health to this Convention in the afternoon.*

Colonel De Witt, with consent of a majority of the votes of the Counties here represented, gave notice that he intended to move for a reconsideration of the order for draughting one-fourth part of the Militia of Ulster; and that the Rangers to be raised in that County may be considered as a part of the said one-fourth part of the Militia of the said County.

be farther removed from his family, as it would increase his anxiety of mind, and naturally retard his getting rid of a disorder which, if not speedily removed, will prove fatal. He further begs leave to request the honourable House would take into consideration the extreme youth of his son, now confined with him, as well as that the time when he is charged with making the expression, was when he saw his father's substance wantonly destroyed by flames, and grant such relief as they, in their wisdom, shall think fit. * WHITE-PLAINS, July 26, 1776.

SIR: According to the desire of the honourable Convention, I have duly examined with respect to the indisposition of Mr. William Sutton. I find that he labours under a violent harassing cough, phthisick, and disorder of his lungs, attended with universal decay; for the cure of which, or even to preserve him from imminent danger of a supervening consumption, I should judge it necessary that he have a free air, proper diet and exercise, which, in the present situation he is now in, cannot be exhibited. From, gentlemen, your obedient, humble servant,

JNO. AUGUSTUS GRAHAM, M. D.

To Brigadier-General Woodhull.

† To the honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK: The Memorial of ALEXANDER STEWART most humbly sheweth:

That your memorialist came to New-York in December, 1774, a passenger, recommended to Messrs. Mercer & Ramsay, to take charge of a ship in the Mediterranean trade. The disturbance then being so great between Great Britain and the Colonies, your memorialist could not accomplish his desires; he still continuing in expectation of a reconciliation, waited until an opportunity to leave the Continent and return to his country and friends was cut off, except by stealth. In this situation your memorialist remained, without pursuing or attempting to pursue any business, except an offer made by Mr. Grigg, of Horse-Neck, who was about to employ Ordered, That the said Memorial be referred to Mr. Duer, Mr. Bleecker, and Mr. Wisner, to report thereon.

Resolved, That Brigadier-General Morris be requested immediately to furnish this Convention with a report of the number of draughts made from his Brigade, together with the number and condition of their arms.

Ordered, That General Morris be immediately furnished with a copy of the foregoing Resolution.

John Thomas, a prisoner in Westchester Jail, who says he deserted from the ship-of-war named the Lively, was brought up into the Convention and examined, and the substance of his examination is as follows, viz:

John Thomas, born in Old England, came over two years ago; that he was pressed on board a ship-of-war, and turned over to the Lively; was at the battle of Bunker's Hill; that he deserted from the ship Lively, at the southeast side of Long-Island, opposite New-England, about eight weeks ago; that he has not been on board the ships in Hudson's River, or on board of the fleet at the Hook, or Staten-Island; that he has been at work on shore; that he was wounded at Bunker-Hill, and does not choose to fight again; that he will work on forts or batteries, but will not go in battle, for if taken he will die an ignominious death; that he landed at Killingsworth; that he worked with John Cromwell, three miles from hence.

Ordered, That John Thomas be recommitted.

William Sutton, Esq., examined, says he was on board Governour Tryon's ship in November last; that he was on board his boat, near the ship, six weeks; was on board Governour Tryon's ship several times; that he knew Governour Tryon was an enemy to his country; that he was obliged to go on board, to save his life; that Governour Tryon said there would be some ships in the Sound; that he thinks Governour Tryon said the King's standard should be erected, but he does not recollect that he fixed the place; that the Governour said there would be troops enough; that Kempe and Holland were on board, and the Council frequently on board.

Ordered, That William Sutton be recommitted.

Resolved, unanimously, That Lieutenant *Peter Graham be confined as a prisoner, upon his parole, to his own house and within a mile of the same, with permission to go to the City of New-York when the health or sustenance of his family may require; and that Mr. Morris be ordered to take his said parole.

him, but the vessel being purchased for a privateer, put a stop to that employ. This week, when a draught was made for troops to go into the Continental service your memorialist was among the number draughted in the company of Captain Bloomer, of Mamaroneck. Your memorialist being a North-Britoner, and having all his property there, and having a number of relations engaged in the regular Army, conceives it extremely hard that he should be called forth to the field, under these circumstances, to meet the near connexions he has there; although his sincere wishes are that the country may avoid the slavery with which they are threatened. Your memorialist therefore humbly prays that the honourable Convention would take his case into consideration, and give him such relief as they in their wisdom shall think fit, and, as in duty bound, he will ever pray, &c.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius deliver to Major Parks, Dirck Wynkoop, William Peek, and Andrus De Witt, Esqs., or either of them, or their or either of their order, two hundred and fifty pounds weight of Lead, to be by them distributed gratis to such Indians in Ulster County, and to such indigent friendly inhabitants of the said County, near the Delaware, as they may think proper.

Ordered, That Peter Van Brugh Livingston, Esq., as Treasurer, pay to Colonel De Witt twenty dollars, to be by him delivered to the Rev. William Lewis, for attending and praying with this Convention, and that Colonel De Witt return the thanks of this Convention to Mr. Lewis, for such attendance.

Ordered, That Peter Van Brugh Livingston, as Treasurer, pay to Colonel Joseph Marsh the sum of £61 1s. 8d., on account, for sundry disbursements by him made, in transporting a quantity of Gunpowder from Newport, in Rhode-Island, to Red-Hook, in Dutchess County, and take Colonel Marsh's receipt to account for the same.

A Letter from Dr. Samuel Cook‡ to Mr. Zeph. Platt, dated at Poughkeepsie, the 24th instant, was read and filed. He thereby highly recommends Dr. Forman as a proper person, and well qualified to be Surgeon to a Regiment.

† FISHKILL, July 25, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: In these times of distress and danger, when the lives and health of the soldiers are daily exposed, and, for want of good doctors, are often rendered incapable of doing the publick services, loudly calls upon every well-wisher to the cause now embarked in, to recommend such persons whose skill and abilities are known and can be depended upon; and as the bearer hereof, Dr. Osborn, hath for many years resided near me, and hath been respected as a person having skill and abilities in that profession, I humbly pray the honourable Convention of the State of New-York will take the matter into their consideration, and if they think Dr. Osborn capable, that they will appoint him Doctor to my Regiment.

I am, gentlemen, with great respect, your very humble servant,

JACOBUS SWARTWOUT.

To the Hon. Convention of the State of New-York.

‡ POUGHKEEPSIE, July 24, 1776.

SIR: I understand the Provincial Congress have ordered two regiments raised from the Militia of this County for our common defence, and I am informed that the Congress have the appointment of the Surgeons. Dr. Forman has a desire of serving in one of them, if the Congress would think proper to appoint him. He has served the last war as Surgeon's Mate, by which means he has had an opportunity of being acquainted with disorders incident to an Army; and as he has ever been engaged in the cause of his country, and is desirous to serve them in that capacity, would be glad of your assistance in a particular manner. I am informed that Colonel Graham has promised him his assistance to procure him a surgeoncy in his regiment.

I am, sir, your humble servant,

SAMUEL COOKE.

To Captain Zephaniah Platt, in Provincial Congress.

P. S. All your family and friends are well.

the stock from Nassau-Island, and the measures they have adopted for securing them there, and protecting the inhabitants, and sincerely wish they may prove adequate.

"I have long since and frequently requested the Commissary to purchase all the fatted cattle and sheep from the Island that he possibly could, in preference to any other. He informs me that he has had many from thence, and that he now has persons employed in different parts for that purpose. The expediency of the measure strikes me so forcibly, that you may depend every means in my power will be directed to its execution.

"Agreeable to your request, I shall continue Colonel Livingston at his present post, for the protection of the inhabitants against the insults of the enemy's cruisers, unless something should happen to make his removal necessary.

"When the several regiments are raised, and I am certified thereof, and of the places of rendezvous, I will direct the Mustermaster-General to attend and complete the musters.

"Governour Trumbull having informed me by letter yesterday, that since the arrival of the fleet at the Hook many of the enemy's frigates and ships have been stationed between Montauk-Point and Block-Island, to intercept the trade from the Sound, (and in which they had been but too successful in taking several provision vessels,) and of the impossibility that any should escape falling into their hands, he had ordered the armed vessels in the service of Connecticut to stop and detain all vessels going down the Sound, with provisions, till the Continental Congress or the Conventions of the States to which they belong could be apprized of the hazards attending their proceeding in their voyages, and give orders thereon,—I beg leave to recommend the matter to the consideration of your honourable body, and submit it to them, whether it may not be expedient to lay a general embargo or prohibition upon all exports of this kind from your State, except such as the Congress or yourselves may order. The propriety of keeping the enemy from supplies of this sort and providing a sufficiency for our own Army, is so evident, that words are unnecessary upon the subject. However, I cannot but observe, as my opinion, that the former will be impossible to effect unless some general restraining regulation is come into. No care, nor industry, nor honesty on the part of the exporters, will be able to elude the vigilance and activity of their almost innumerable cruisers. But when it is considered that as long as a free export of any articles of this nature is tolerated, disaffected persons may easily fall into their hands with impunity, nor any means be left us to ascertain their guilt; when there is strong reason to believe that some have designedly done so, and almost incontestable proof, from sundry depositions of deserters and others, that a ship that went from hence sailed with no other view and joined the enemy at the Hook,—I incline to think the measure not only advisable, but necessary, especially as the large consumption of provisions by our Army affords, and will afford, a ready cash market for all that individuals may have to dispose of, and take away every objection of injury on that head. Were it otherwise, private advantages and emoluments must always give place to the publick good, when they are incompatible.

"The last deserters from the enemy inform us, since they have heard of our forming a camp at Amboy, they have talked much of turning their views to Long-Island, and regaling themselves with large supplies of provisions they intend to get from thence. This is an additional circumstance to induce the Commissary to purchase the cattle there before any other.

"I have the honour to be, with great respect, sir, your most obedient servant,
Go. WASHINGTON.

"P. S. When the ships-of-war, &c., run up the river, I wrote Governours Trumbull and Cooke for some of their row-galleys, supposing they might be of service in attempting something against the ships. I expect three or four every hour, besides one I have. If the Secret Committee are forming any plan against the ships, in which they think they may be usefully employed, if they will let me know, I shall be glad to coöperate with them, and furnish every assistance the galleys can give, if not otherwise materially engaged.

"I am just now informed that the ship mentioned above to have gone to the enemy, was fitted out by the Congress, under the command of a Captain Hilton, who has acted this base part."

Ordered, That a copy of the postscript of the foregoing

Letter be immediately transmitted to the Secret Committee of this Convention now at Poughkeepsie.

The following Letter from Governour Trumbull was received and read:

"Lebanon, July 17, 1776.

"SIR: I have received credible information that there has lately been intercepted and taken several provision vessels bound to or from your Colony through the Sound; that there are three or four men-of-war, frigates, and cutters, cruising off Block-Island, and that it is scarcely possible for any vessel bound to sea to escape them. I have kept out the armed sloop the Spy, Captain Niles, cruising off Block-Island, to give notice of danger to vessels passing that way, and merely for the publick service have been obliged to give him orders to stop any provision vessels bound to sea when danger is apparent. In consequence whereof, he has detained a ship laden with wheat and flour from New-York, which, if she had proceeded, must undoubtedly have fallen into the hands of the enemy, and of which I understand the Captain is fully persuaded. I trust you will think that nothing but the common good would have induced me to have taken this step, and that you will readily approve the measure when you consider the reason and motives of my conduct therein. Whenever there is a fair prospect of the ship's sailing with safety and avoiding the enemy, no objection arises to her or any other vessel's sailing, if within the rules of the Continental Congress. I have acquainted the Congress and General Washington with my proceedings, and furnished them with a number of affidavits supporting the above information. The General, I dare say, will show you them, if desired.

"I am, with great truth and regard, sir, your obedient, humble servant,
JONATHAN TRUMBULL.

"Hon. President Woodhull."

A draft of an Answer to Governour Trumbull was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York, }
at the White-Plains, July 27, 1776. }

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention to return you their thanks for your prudent care and attention in preventing the enemy from making capture of vessels laden with provisions. The reasons which influenced your Honour's conduct have had their full weight upon the councils of this Convention, which you will perceive by the enclosed copy of a resolution, which I am also directed to send you.

"I am, sir, with great respect, your Honour's most obedient and humble servant.

"To the Hon. Jonathan Trumbull, Esq., Governour, &c."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, with a copy of the Resolution of this Convention of the 23d day of July, to prevent the exportation of Provisions, therein enclosed.

A Certificate signed by William Cross, Chairman of the Committee of Hanover Precinct, in Ulster County, was read and filed. It is thereby certified that on the 27th day of June last, at an election held in the presence of John Barkley and John Houston, two members of the Committee, James Monnel, Sen., was elected Second Lieutenant, and John Barber elected Ensign, of Captain Henry Van Keuren's Company of Militia, agreeable to the rules and orders of the late Provincial Congress of this State.

Ordered, That Commissions issue for the said two gentlemen.

A Letter from Colonel Henry Remsen,* one of the Mem-

*NEW-YORK, July 24, 1776.

SIR: I beg you will be pleased to represent to the honourable Convention the absolute necessity of instituting a Court of Admiralty for the State of New-York, as several cargoes that are perishable now wait a determination or decision of such a Court, viz:

A sloop retaken by Captain Rogers, in company with a Continental armed vessel, laden with flour and lumber, owned in Newport. The flour, if not disposed of soon, must perish.

Two vessels with oil, and one with molasses. The oil is wasting daily, and it is necessary the whole should be sold, in order that the original owners should have their proportion, as well as to prevent too great a loss that will arise from the goods lying in store.

I further beg leave, by your means, to apply to Convention in behalf of the poor and necessitous families in this city, who have not been able to procure lodgings and shelter in the country for want of money; and also for the poor of the city in our alms-house. I am confident the Convention will not suffer the real poor to perish for want of support, but cheerfully grant them a subsistence, in some way the least burdensome to the State—a maintenance it is our indispensable duty, as Christians, to grant them. No more is desired; and I trust the Representatives of the State will readily enter into measures necessary to feed the hungry and clothe the naked. I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient and humble servant,
HENRY REMSEN.

To General Woodhull.

bers for the City of New-York, was read and filed; it bears date the 24th instant. He thereby mentions that several cargoes that are perishable wait the determination or decision of a Court of Admiralty; that three vessels have been retaken; that the owners are delayed, and want their proportions.

Colonel Remsen further presses the necessity of the Convention making some provision for the Poor in the Alms-House at the City of New-York.

Ordered, That the institution of a Court of Admiralty in this State be taken up on Wednesday next.

A Letter from Henry Wilmot,* Deputy Chairman of the General Committee of New-York, dated the 26th instant, was read and filed. He therein mentions, that the Committee had taken separate Bonds of Henry Durland and Thomas Fleet to the President of this Convention, for their respective good behaviour to the State, and abiding by the determinations of Congress.

The said Bonds, viz: one of Henry Durland and the other of Thomas Fleet,† which were received in Mr. Wilmot's Letter, were also read and filed.

A Letter from Robert Yates, Esq., Chairman of the Committee for obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River, dated at Poughkeepsie, on the 22d instant, directed to the General Committee at New-York, and by them sent to this Convention, was read and filed.

They thereby inform, that they have determined to fit out two armed Vessels at Albany;‡ that they want Gunners and persons used to cannon on board of ships; they request such to be sent to them, and mention Alexander Dean and Wessels as having been recommended to them. They also request combustible materials, to make fire-arrows, and that money be advanced to such persons as may be sent to them, to defray their expenses.

* NEW-YORK, July 26, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I have it in charge from the General Committee of this City and County to enclose you Henry Durland and Thomas Fleet's separate bonds, for £100 each. On a close examination, it appeared to the Committee that Durland might at times have made some unfriendly expressions to some people, which he declared were only for argument's sake; and he readily complied with every requisition that has been taken from suspected persons.

Fleet also satisfied the Committee in that respect, but was unwilling to sign the bond, which he at last complied with, rather than go back to jail.

The Committee thought it better to let these men go to their families than to keep them any longer in confinement; and they make no doubt but their conduct will meet with your approbation.

I am, with due esteem, gentlemen, your most obedient and very humble servant,

HENRY WILMOT, Dep. Ch'n. of the Gen. Committee.

The Honourable Convention.

† Know all men by these presents, That I, Thomas Fleet, of Oyster-Bay, am held and firmly bound unto Nathaniel Woodhull, President of the Convention of the State of New-York, in the sum of five hundred Pounds, lawful money of New-York, to be paid to the said Nathaniel Woodhull, or to his executors, administrators, or assigns, for the payment of which sum I do bind myself, my heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with my seal, dated the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bounden Thomas Fleet shall, on reasonable notice to him given, or left at the usual place of his abode, attend the Convention of the said State for the time being, or a Committee thereof thereunto duly authorized and appointed, and answer such matters as may be alleged against him, and in the mean time, shall, neither directly or indirectly, contravene or oppose the measures of the Continental Congress, or of the said State of New-York, but, on the contrary, shall approve himself a good friend to the American cause, then the above obligation shall be void; otherwise, to remain in full force and virtue.

THOMAS FLEET.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of

‡ POUGHKEEPSIE, July 22, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: The Secret Committee appointed by the Convention of this State for the purpose of devising ways and means to protect the navigation of Hudson's River, have determined to fit out two armed vessels at Albany. In order to effect this matter, persons are wanting to act as gunners, or who are in anywise used to the management of cannon on board of ships. You will therefore please to procure as many men as possible qualified for this business, and let them proceed immediately to this place, and bring with them combustible materials for fire-arrows. You will advance the money necessary to defray the expense of the men on their journey and to purchase the materials; and by drawing on Mr. G. Livingston here, you will be immediately reimbursed. The necessity and importance of this business, we trust, will induce you to exert yourselves upon this occasion; and we conceive that it would conduce more to the publick cause if the fitting out of privateers was neglected, that we might have the service of the seamen on the river.

By order of the Committee:

ROBT. YATES, Chairman.

To the Committee of the City of New-York.

N. B. Two persons are mentioned to us, Alexander Dean, who may be found by applying to Captain Ten Wyck, in McDougall's Regiment, and Wessels.

A Letter from Henry Wilmot,* covering the above, and sent by express, to be paid by this Convention, was also read and filed; it is dated July 26, 1776.

Thereupon, a Letter to Captain Hazelwood was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention of the State of New-York to desire the favour of you immediately to repair to Poughkeepsie, with the combustible materials necessary for charging fire-ships and making fire-arrows.

"When you arrive at that place, you will inquire for Mr. Jay and Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Members of a Secret Committee, appointed by this House to annoy the enemy's ships in Hudson's River, and concert with them the most effectual measures for carrying their designs into execution. If these gentlemen are not at that place, you will be pleased to inquire of Captains Lawrence and Tudor, who live at that place, where they are, and make the utmost despatch in joining them.

"It will, however, be necessary that you should wait on General Washington, and obtain his permission for coming up; which, from Mr. Duer's representation, we doubt not you will effect.

"Should you stand in need of any money or assistance, in order to forward the materials, be pleased to apply to General Washington, who, we flatter ourselves, will give every necessary direction to the Quartermaster-General.

"I am directed by the Convention of this State to enjoin to you the most profound secrecy in conducting this matter.

"I am, most respectfully, &c.

"Captain Hazelwood."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted by the Messenger.

John Thomas, a Mariner, who says he deserted from the Ship Lively, into which he had enlisted as a Marine, now a prisoner in the Jail at this place, was brought before the Convention and examined. He gave no material intelligence. He was discharged, and a certificate given to him to permit him to go through the country to the eastward of Hudson's River, to acquire his living by labour and industry.

Die Sabbati, P. M., July 27, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: Brigadier-General Woodhull, President.

FOR NEW-YORK.—Mr. Harper, Mr. Dunscombe, Mr. Bancker, Colonel Brasher.

ALBANY.—Mr. Abm. Yates, Mr. Bleecker, Mr. Adgate.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. Samuel Townshend, Mr. James Townshend, Mr. Wat. Smith.

WESTCHESTER.—General Morris, Mr. Tompkins, Mr. Morris.

ULSTER.—Mr. Contine.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Landon, Mr. Sacket.

CUMBERLAND.—Colonel Marsh, Mr. Sessions.

TRYON.—Mr. Moore, Mr. Newkirk.

ORANGE.—Mr. Little, Mr. Outwater.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

SUFFOLK.—General Woodhull, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Gelston.

The Committee appointed to examine William Sutton reported, that they had carefully examined him, but cannot obtain any further intelligence, information, or satisfaction from him.

Thereupon, Resolved, That William Sutton be immediately sent, under safe and proper guard, at his own expense, to the Jail of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania; that he there subsist himself; and that a Letter be wrote to the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of Philadelphia, mentioning his state of health, and enclosing a copy of the evidence against him; and that General Morris be requested to see this resolution carried into execution.

* NEW-YORK, July 26, 1776.

SIR: This enclosed letter is conceived by Mr. John Ray, Jun., and myself to be of so much consequence to the State as to forward it by express, who has agreed to go at the same price you pay Mr. Dyckman, if he goes to the White-Plains, and he should not find your honourable House removed to Harlem. The other letters I have taken out of the post office, as they have lain there several days and no opportunity offered. I have told the express you would order him to be paid the customary charge.

I remain, with due esteem, sir, your most obedient and very humble servant,

HENRY WILMOT, Dep. Chairman of Gen. Com.

To the Hon. Nathaniel Woodhull, President of New-York Convention.

General Morris informed the Convention that he should direct the said William Sutton to be delivered into the care and charge of Lieutenant Alexander Hunt, to be conveyed to the Committee of the City of Philadelphia, at his own expense; and requested the Convention to determine what allowance shall be made to Lieutenant Hunt for his trouble in the premises.

Resolved, That the said William Sutton do pay to Alexander Hunt twelve shillings per day (exclusive of his necessary expenses) for every day he shall be employed in proceeding to Philadelphia with the said William Sutton, and returning.

Ordered, That the Jailer of the Jail of the County of Westchester do deliver the body of William Sutton to Lieutenant Alexander Hunt.

A draft of a Letter to the Chairman of the Committee of Philadelphia, to attend William Sutton, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention, &c., White-Plains, &c.

"SIR: From information, received upon oath, respecting the publick character of a certain William Sutton, of this County, of which we send you copies, we have reason to believe him an enemy to the rights and liberties of America, and therefore have some time past confined him to the Jail here; but on account of his infirm state of health, which he conceives to be under peculiar bad circumstances, and also the probability of his corresponding with the enemy, we have resolved to send him, at his own expense, to the Jail of your city, where he is to be maintained at his own charge. Of this, sir, I am ordered by the Convention of this State to acquaint you, and to request that you may give such assistance as may be required.

"I am, respectfully, &c.

"To the Chairman of the Committee of the City of Philadelphia."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and, with certified copies of the evidence against William Sutton, delivered to Lieutenant Alexander Hunt, to be delivered at Philadelphia.

The Committee appointed to consider the case of Alexander Stewart, and his Petition or Memorial, delivered in their Report; which was read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Your Committee appointed to examine into the case of Mr. Alexander Stewart, report:

"That, according to the best information they have been able to obtain, the said Alexander Stewart arrived at New-York in the latter end of December, 1774, with an intent to take the command of a vessel, in the employ of Mercer & Ramsey.

"That on account of the dispute between the United States of America and Great Britain, the owners of the vessel which he was intended to command, did not think proper to send the ship to sea.

"That on this account he retired into the County of Westchester, where he has since lived a private life at the house of his relative Mr. Charles Duncan, formerly a Lieutenant in the service of the King of Great Britain. That Mr. Charles Duncan has not signed the General Association, but that in other respects his conduct has been inoffensive.

"That Mr. Alexander Stewart refused to sign the General Association, assigning for reason that, as he had no interest to induce him to stay in the country, and, as he only waited for a passage to return to Scotland, his native country, such a measure might prove fatal to him.

"That the said Alexander Stewart was draughted on the 24th day of this present month as a private soldier to reinforce the Continental Army. That the Convention of the State of New-York, on the 16th instant, unanimously came to a resolution, in which it was enacted, that all persons abiding within the State of New-York, and all persons deriving protection from the laws of the same, owe allegiance to the said laws, and are members of the said State; and that all persons passing through, visiting, and making a temporary stay in the said State, being entitled to the protection of the said laws, during the time of such passage, visitation, or temporary stay, owe, during the same time, allegiance thereto.

"That under this description, the said Alexander Stewart is a member of this State; but how far it will apply to the making him subject to our military laws, the Committee leave it to the wisdom of your House to determine.

"That the said Alexander Stewart acknowledges himself a subject of the King of Great Britain, and claims the protection of the law of nations, by which the subject of one nation is not compelled, by the State in which he makes a temporary stay, to bear arms against the Sovereign to whom he owes allegiance.

"Your Committee have thought proper to confine themselves to a mere state of facts, thinking the case of Mr. Stewart so peculiarly nice, as to merit the mature consideration of the whole House.

W. DUER."

On reading and considering the said Report, the Convention came to a determination thereon, in the words following, to wit:

Whereas a certain Alexander Stewart, of Dundee, in North Britain, Mariner, having been draughted as one of the Militia of the County of Westchester, hath claimed an exemption from serving in the said draughts as a subject of the King of Great Britain, which he declareth himself to be:

Resolved, That the said Alexander Stewart is entitled to such exemption.

Resolved, That Alexander Stewart having declared himself to be a subject of the King of Great Britain, with whom this State is now at open war, therefore the said Alexander Stewart is to be treated according to the law of nations, of which he hath claimed the benefit.

Resolved, That the said Alexander Stewart ought to be taken prisoner, and kept in custody until such further order as this Convention may, upon examining more fully into the peculiar circumstances of his case, establish.

Thereupon, Ordered, That Alexander Stewart, late of Dundee, in North Britain, Mariner, at present of Rye, in Westchester County, in the State of New-York, who hath declared himself a subject of the King of Great Britain, with whom this State is now at open war, be immediately taken into custody, a prisoner, by Albert Ogden, the keeper of the Jail in Westchester County, who is hereby commanded to keep him safe in custody until the further order of this Convention.

A Certificate of Dr. Samuel Bard,* dated this day, was read and filed. He thereby certifies that he has examined Dr. Cornelius Osborne, respecting his knowledge in Physick and Surgery, and thinks him qualified for the office of Surgeon to a Regiment.

Resolved, That the said Cornelius Osborne be, and is hereby, appointed Surgeon to the Regiment of Militia now in Continental service under the command of Colonel Cornelius Swartwout, of Dutchess County.

Another Certificate of Dr. Samuel Bard,† dated this day, was read and filed. He thereby certifies that he has examined Dr. William Mead, respecting his knowledge in Physick and Surgery, and that he finds him qualified for the office of Surgeon to a Regiment.

Ordered, That the said William Mead be, and is hereby, appointed Surgeon to the Regiment of Militia now in Continental service under the command of Colonel Thomas Thomas, of Westchester County.

John Sutton, (son of William Sutton.) by order, was brought to the bar of the House to be discharged.

The President, by order, gave him an admonition in the words following, to wit:

"MR. SUTTON: You stand charged before the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York with being inimical to the rights and liberties of America. In pity to your youth and in hopes of your amendment, you are discharged. Learn to revere the lenity of that Government which hath dealt so kindly with their avowed enemy, and henceforth respect that attention to the rights and liberties of mankind which hath now befriended you.

"In the name of this Convention I admonish you to beware

* WHITE-PLAINS, July 27, 1776.

I hereby certify that I have examined Dr. Cornelius Osborne respecting his knowledge in Physick and Surgery, and that I think him qualified for the office of Surgeon to a Regiment.

† WHITE-PLAINS, July 27, 1776.

The Petition of Richard Cantillon,* of Amenia Precinct,

* To the Honourable the Convention of the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK:

The petition of Richard Cantillon and John Parkinson, of Dutchess County, humbly sheweth: That your petitioners conceive themselves acquainted with the various branches of the Linen Manufactory; that your petitioners find, from the great scarcity of linen, that it is exceedingly necessary to have some manufactories of that kind set up in this State to supply the necessities of the inhabitants thereof, and of the Army; that your petitioners intend to set up a very extensive Linen Manufactory in Dutchess County in this State, if they may be favoured with a resolution and order of this Convention, to exempt themselves and their labourers and manufacturers from being draughted into the Militia, when called out into actual service; that your petitioners will always cheerfully give a preference to the Convention of this State, by reserving for their use, on their order, such manufactures as they may from time to time have made, and may be fit for or wanted for the use of this State. Your petitioners, therefore, humbly pray that your petitioners and the manufacturers and labourers which they shall employ in the said business (not to exceed the number of twelve, exclusive of your petitioners) may, by order or resolution of the Convention of this State, be exempted from being subject to be draughted or called out into actual service in the Militia of the said County of Dutchess. And your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

RICHARD CANTILLON,
JOHN PARKINSON.

NEW-YORK, July 29, 1776.

FIFTH SERIES.—VOL. I.

and John Parkinson, of Charlotte Precinct, in Dutchess County, was read. They therein set forth their acquaintance with several branches of the Linen Manufactories in this State, the necessities of setting up such Manufactories in this State, their intentions to set up a Linen Manufactory, and they thereby offer a preference of their manufactures for the use of the State, and praying for such resolution of this Convention as may exempt their manufacturers (to the number of twelve) from being draughted into the publick service.

Resolved, That the said Richard Cantillon and John Parkinson, together with such manufacturers and labourers as they may stately employ in the business of the Linen Manufactory in that County, (not to exceed the number of twelve men, besides the said petitioners,) shall, while so employed in the said manufactory, be exempted from being subject to be draughted or called out into actual service in the Militia of the said County of Dutchess.

As the Doorkeeper is necessarily in such a situation as to hear many of the debates of this Convention, Ordered, That he be sworn to secrecy.

Thereupon he was sworn, in the words following: "I do solemnly swear, on the Holy Evangelists, that I will not divulge any matter or thing which I may hear agitated, moved, or debated, in this Convention, unless by leave of the President, or upon publication thereof in the newspapers. So help me God."

The Committee to whom was referred the reconsideration of ways and means for supplying the good people of this State with Salt, reported the following Resolutions, which were read; and the same being again read, paragraph by paragraph, and amended, were unanimously agreed to, and are as follows:

Resolved, unanimously, That this Convention will, upon good security, lend to the first five persons skilled in the process of extracting Salt from sea water, who shall apply for the same, a sum of money not exceeding £500 to each person, for the term of two years from this date, without interest, for the purpose of erecting Salt Works within this State.

Resolved, unanimously, That such Works be erected at such place or places as, in the opinion of the respective County Committees where such Works shall be erected, shall be most proper: Provided always, that the said Works be not erected within less than fifteen miles of each other, on the sea-coast.

Resolved, unanimously, That this Convention will receive Salt at 8s. per bushel, in payment of the respective sums advanced to the different adventurers: Provided, the said Salt be manufactured by the person who shall offer it in payment, and that the same be tendered for payment before the expiration of two years after the loan of the money.

Resolved, unanimously, That if any of the said Works should be destroyed by the enemy, this State will lose one-half of the money which has been appropriated for the purpose of erecting such Works, out of the money advanced on loan by this State to the proprietor.

Resolved, unanimously, That nothing in the foregoing Resolves shall extend to the loan of any sum of money to any person who shall not apply before the first day of October next, nor then, unless upon condition that the Works shall be completed within three months of the said loan.

On motion of Mr. Gouverneur Morris,

Resolved, That whereas Dr. Samuel Bard hath undertaken to erect a Salt Work in this State, and is about to go to Philadelphia for the completion thereof, it be recommended to the Committee of the City and County of New-York, that during the absence of the said Samuel Bard his house be not taken up for the use of the Troops which are or may be stationed in the said City.

A Letter or Certificate of Colonel Samuel Drake, dated the 26th instant, was read and filed.* He thereby certifies that Mr. Stephen Halsey, the Surgeon of his Regiment, has done the duty of Surgeon to that Regiment since the eighth day of July, instant.

The Certificate of Dr. John Jones, dated the fifteenth day

* CAMP AT GREENWICH, July 26, 1776.

I do hereby certify that Dr. Stephen Halsey has done the duty of a Surgeon for my Regiment since the 8th of instant; and I desire his warrant may be made out accordingly. SAMUEL DRAKE, Colonel.

To the Provincial Congress, at the White-Plains.

Ordered, That the said Dr. Stephen Halsey be, and he is hereby, appointed Surgeon to the Regiment whereof Samuel Drake, Esq., is Colonel, and that his pay commence from the eighth day of July, instant.

An Affidavit of Abraham Fort, taken before Johannes Sleght, Chairman of the Committee of Kingston, in Ulster County, on the 16th instant, was read and filed. Information is therein contained that a number of disaffected persons who had enlisted in the Continental service, and as such received the money of the Continent, have deserted from Lunenburg, and gone back of the mountains, behind Cocksackie; that Butler was at the Susquehonnah, with such number of Indians as he thought sufficient, and they intended to come through the woods and attack Hurley-Town.

A Letter from Johannes Sleght, Esq.,† Chairman of the said Committee at Kingston, dated the 23d day of July, instant, was received by Mr. Beekman, and read. They thereby acknowledge the receipt of sundry Prisoners on parole, with a Letter from this Convention dated the 19th June.

Another Letter, of the 24th of July, from the same Committee, was also read. They therein request an explanation of the parole of the said Prisoners, as to the limits within which they are to be circumscribed; and also therein declare that it will oblige them and the inhabitants to have those Prisoners removed.

Ordered, That those Letters and the Affidavit be referred to Colonel De Witt, Mr. Beekman, and Mr. Duer, to consider thereof, and report thereon with all convenient speed.

Die Martis, 4 ho. P. M., July 30, 1776.

† KINGSTON, July 23, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 19th June, together with the prisoners therein mentioned, we have received. We understand, by their parole, that the said prisoners are to reside in this town, or anywhere within six miles thereof, and that they are not at liberty to pass and repass, when and where they please, within six miles of said town. Understanding their parole in this sense, we have confined them to the town spot only, and to their respective lodgings after nine o'clock in the evening. The gentlemen officers understand that they are allowed by their parole to pass and repass, when and where they think proper, within the distance of six miles of this town; and that our confining them to any less space than that of six miles, is a breach of the parole; and that they, in point of honour, are not bound any longer by said parole. Notwithstanding, they have agreed and promised to abide by said parole in everything, strictly, until the sense of Congress can be had in this matter; but at the same time do request that (if the Congress should be of opinion that they cannot have the liberty of recreating themselves when and where they think proper, in the full extent of six miles round this town) their parole may be returned them, and themselves sent to some other part of the country, where, upon their parole, they can be admitted to more liberty.

Signed by order of the Committee. JOHANNIS SLEGHT, Chairman.

nicating the same; and to call to their assistance such person of chemical knowledge as they may think proper, in order to ascertain the utility of Mr. Gerreau's process.

A Letter from several Captains of the respective Companies of Militia in King's County was read.* They thereby request that the Militia of their respective Companies may be excused from being draughted, agreeable to the Resolutions of this Convention of the twentieth day of July instant, and mentioning that their whole Militia engage to turn out whenever necessary for the purposes mentioned in the said Resolutions.

The said Letter was taken into consideration, and the question put, whether this Convention will grant the request contained therein.

Resolved and Agreed, unanimously, That the request of the said Captains, by their said Letter, be not granted; and Ordered, That Colonel Covenhoven inform those gentlemen of this determination.

A Member informed the Convention that the Sloop Non-such and her cargo, which had been taken by the enemy, and afterwards retaken, is in a perishing condition—in a dangerous situation on the south side of Nassau-Island, for want of a proper Court of Admiralty in this State.

Resolved, unanimously, That Colonel Henry Remsen and Mr. Robert Ray, or either of them, be, and they hereby are, empowered by this Convention to treat with Mr. Isacher Poluck upon the sale of the Sloop Nonsuch and her cargo, William Hefferman Master, and to take from the said Isacher Poluck good and sufficient security to the President of this Convention for the payment of such moneys as may be decreed for the salvage of the said sloop and cargo to the captors, and for the fees upon the libelling and adjudication thereof, &c.

*NEW-ROCHELLE, July 24, 1776.

DEAR SIR: Your favour of yesterday I received, enclosing the resolutions of Convention. I met the south part of my Regiment yesterday, according to your request of last Friday. I first proceeded to the nomination of Captains (in the manner we did the last time we raised men) to turn out as volunteers to command the Companies now to be raised; but they as one man peremptorily denied going, at any rate at present. I then, as before, proposed to the Lieutenants, who also, with one voice, positively refused. They all as one man determined not to go under any person to degrade their Colonel, whose right it was. I must tell you that I never saw so much spirit of resentment as there seemed to be running through the Regiment, even from the Captains down to the lowest private. I am well persuaded that I cannot get five men out of this part of the Regiment, without dragging them along like criminals, which disagreeable task I hope you will excuse me from, their refusal being on my account, which makes it the worse for me to do. What will be done I cannot tell. This I can say, that I am sorry from my heart that the service should suffer on my account; but at the same time am happy in the thought of having a conscience void of offence in bringing about this matter.

From, sir, your very humble servant, JOSEPH DRAKE.
To Brigadier-General Morris, at White-Plains.

†NEW-YORK, July 26, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: The contract Mr. Curtenius made for supplying the Artillery Company with provisions in my behalf, I did by no means expect to deviate from; but Captain Hamilton demanding one and a half pound of beef, or eighteen ounces pork, which was half a pound of beef or six ounces pork more than my contract stipulated, therefore could not grant the extraordinary supply without the price being raised equivalent thereto. As I was confident what I had hitherto received would by no means compensate for what it cost, which is evident by the following accurate detail, what a ration stands me in agreeable to the allowance demanded, to wit: one and a half pound of beef, or eighteen ounces pork, 7d.; one pound of bread, 2½d.; one quart of beer, 1d.; peas, meal, candles, soap, &c., 2d.—12½d.; and which I granted upon Captain Hamilton's most sanguine assurances of my being recompensed for the same. Enclosed is, therefore, gentlemen, my account, with vouchers, agreeable to which I expect to be paid, and at that rate will continue supplying the said Company. For less, no person can, without sinking money, on account of the exorbitant price of beef, pork, and flour, is enhanced to. Should therefore be glad the honourable Convention would favour me with an answer per the first conveyance, in order that I might provide myself accordingly.

I am, in the interim, with the greatest respect, gentlemen, your most obedient and most humble servant,
CORN. C. ROOSEVELT.

time past acted as Commissary for Captain Hamilton's troops, dated the 26th instant, was read. He therein sets forth that he had been obliged to supply Captain Hamilton's Company with a much larger quantity of Provisions than the rations stipulated for, which has enhanced the prices so that each ration, as by him delivered, cost him 12½d. His Accounts were enclosed.

A Letter from Captain Hamilton,* of the same date, on the same subject, and a Certificate of John Pollard, Quartermaster of the Army, certifying the allowances of Provisions delivered to each man as a ration, were also read.

Ordered, That as Captain Hamilton's Company was formerly made a part of General Scott's Brigade, that they be henceforth supplied with Provisions as a part of that Brigade.

That Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Landon, and Colonel Graham, be a Committee to take the said Letters and Accounts into consideration, and report thereon. And the sense of the Convention was signified to that Committee that it is necessary to make compensation to Cornelius C. Roosevelt for the extraordinary quantity of Provisions which have issued to that Company beyond his contract.

The Convention were informed, that Thaddeus Noble, from King's District, is attending with thirty Muskets, pursuant to his contract made on the 26th day of April last with Jacobus Van Zandt, on behalf of the State; that he has not furnished them with steel ramrods, according to contract; and that Mr. Jacobus Van Zandt, with whom he had contracted on behalf of this State, is in Dutchess County.

Ordered, That the said Thaddeus Noble deliver the said Arms to Colonel Peter T. Curtenius, as Commissary. That Colonel Curtenius view and examine the said Arms, or cause them to be viewed and examined, so as to determine whether they are made according to contract, (the ramrods excepted,) and that Colonel Curtenius send to this Convention a certificate how far the said Arms are made according to contract, and how much should be deducted on each for the defect of steel ramrods.

A Letter from Joseph Robinson, Esq., Deputy Chairman of the Committee of Queen's County, and Noah Smith, was read and filed.† They thereby certify that William Ludlam, Jun., had been duly elected Captain of the Minute Company of the Township of Jamaica, in the stead of John J. Skidmore, Esq., promoted to a Majority.

Ordered, That a Commission issue to Captain William Ludlam as Captain of that Company.

Die Mercurii, 4 ho. P. M., July 31, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: Brigadier General Woodhull, President.

NEW-YORK.—Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Rutger, Mr. Beekman, Mr. Dunscomb, General Scott.

ALBANY.—Mr. Abraham Yates, Mr. Bleecker, Mr. Adgate.
SUFFOLK.—General Woodhull, Mr. Gelston, Mr. Smith.

*GENTLEMEN: I am obliged to trouble you to remove a difficulty which arises respecting the quantity of subsistence which is to be allowed my men. Enclosed you have the rate of rations which is the standard allowance of the whole Continental and even the Provincial Army; but it seems Mr. Curtenius cannot afford to supply us with more than his contract stipulates; which, by comparison, you will perceive is considerably less than the forementioned rate. My men, you are sensible, are, by their articles, entitled to the same subsistence with the Continental troops; and it would be to them an insupportable discrimination, as well as a breach of the terms of their enlistment, to give them almost a third less provisions than the whole Army besides receives. I doubt not you will speedily put this matter upon a proper footing. Hitherto we have drawn our full allowance from Mr. Curtenius, but he did it upon the supposition that he should have a further consideration for the extraordinary supply. At present, however, he scruples to proceed in the same way until it can be put upon a more certain foundation.

I am, gentlemen, with the utmost esteem and respect, your most obedient and most humble servant,

A. HAMILTON, Captain of New-York Artillery.

The Honourable the Provincial Congress.

July 26, 1776.

‡JAMAICA, July 26, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: By the appointment of John J. Skidmore to a Majority, the Captain's berth to our Minute Company became vacant. We therefore desire to inform you that the said Company have chosen (agreeable to the recommendation of the Congress before us, two of the members of the Committee for the Township of Jamaica) William Ludlam, Jun., for their Captain. We therefore pray you would send up as soon as possible a commission for the said William Ludlam, Jun., as Captain in our first Regiment.

We are, with great respect, gentlemen, your very humble servants,
JOSEPH ROBINSON, Dep. Chairman.
NOAH SMITH.

To the Honourable the Provincial Congress.

ULSTER.—Colonel De Witt, Mr. Contine.

DUTCHESS.—Colonel Hoffman, Mr. Landon.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, Colonel L. Graham, General Morris.

ORANGE.—Dr. Outwater, Mr. Little.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. Samuel Townsend, Mr. James Townsend, Mr. Benjamin Sands, Major Lawrence.

TRYON.—Mr. Moore, Mr. Harper, Mr. Newkirk.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer, Colonel Williams.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Sessions, Colonel Marsh.

GLOUCESTER.—Mr. Olcott.

A Memorial of Lieutenant-Colonel Stockholm and Major Livingston, in Colonel Lasher's Regiment, to General Scott, was read. They therein set forth that a Committee of the late Provincial Congress, who treated with them on the subject of going into service, had engaged that they should not be called out of the city, and assign that reason for the unwillingness of the Companies of that Regiment to encamp with the Brigade.

Ordered, That the Secretaries prepare a copy of the appointment of the Committee referred to in that Memorial, and such other entries as relate thereto; and that the said Committee endorse such certificate thereon as may prevent any apprehension of the assurances by them given to the officers of Colonel Lasher's Regiment, when they conversed on the subject of entering into the service of this State only.

On motion, Resolved and Ordered, That the General Committee of Dutchess County, or their Sub-Committee of Safety, be requested to cause the Powder Mill of Mr. John R. Livingston, (with the Stores and Magazines thereunto appertaining,) in the said County, to be guarded; and for that purpose that they order Captain Melancton Smith to detach a Sergeant and six Privates out of one of the two Companies under his command in the said County to guard the same.

A Letter wrote and handed to a Member by Mr. Richard Hetfield, signed William Dutcher, Captain, Daniel Martling, (by order,) First Lieutenant, George Monson, Second Lieutenant, was read. They thereby offer to raise a Company out of Colonel Joseph Drake's Regiment, to serve under Colonel Thomas.*

Mr. Morris moved, and was seconded by Mr. Duer, that, by a resolve of this Convention, the Officers whose names are subscribed to that Letter, be ordered to raise a Company out of Colonel Joseph Drake's Regiment, and immediately to join Colonel Thomas's Regiment:

Debates arose thereon. General Scott offered some reasons for deferring such resolution at present, lest it might injure the service, by placing Officers in service out of their proper tour of duty or rank.

Mr. Morris opposed Mr. Scott's being permitted to speak or interfere in the debates of this Convention, and assigned for reason, that as, by the resolution of the late Congress of the 15th June that no officer in the pay of this Colony or of the Continent should be elected, General Scott was ineligible, and therefore not entitled to a seat or voice. General Scott claimed his seat on behalf of his constituents. Debates ensued thereon.

Thereupon, on motion of Mr. Morris, seconded by Mr. Duer,

Resolved, That on next Tuesday this Convention will take into consideration the ease of General Scott's election, and the said resolution above-mentioned, and the propriety of his taking his seat as a Member of this Convention.

A Letter from George Townsend, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Queen's County, requesting the loan of money

*As an evidence of our inclination of raising a Company in the Regiment under Colonel Thomas Thomas, pursuant to a late resolve of Congress for the State of New-York, we hereby certify to the honourable Members of the said Congress, that we are willing to turn out as Militia officers for that purpose, and to go in the service under him, notwithstanding the Congress has omitted appointing Joseph Drake, Esq., Colonel of the above-mentioned Regiment, and that we are humbly of opinion, from the conversation we have had with the men in our Company, and others, that we can, without the least difficulty, raise a full Company for the purpose aforesaid; and we pray that some plan may be adopted for the purpose of completing the Regiment, in case Colonel Joseph Drake should refuse appointing Militia officers, pursuant to the resolve aforesaid.

WILLIAM DUTCHER, Captain.

DANIEL MARTLING, 1st Lieutenant, (by order.)

GEORGE MONSON, 2d Lieutenant.

for the necessary expenses of the County, was read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Committee, Queen's County, July 24, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: This County being under a necessity of an immediate sum of money for defraying the necessary expenses of the County, we desire that you will make application to Congress for the sum of £400, for the use of this County, and transmit the same to Joseph Robison, Esq., who is chosen our Treasurer.

"Signed by order of the Committee.

"Attested: GEORGE TOWNSEND, Chairman.

"JEROMS. REMSEN, JUN., Clerk.

"To Colonel Blackwell, Captain Jonathan Lawrence, Benjamin Sands, Samuel Townsend, James Townsend, Abraham Keteltas, Cornelius Van Wyck, Walter Smith, Esqs., or either of them."

Resolved, That this Convention, pursuant to the request of the County Committee of Queen's County, by their Letter of the 24th instant, subscribed, by their order, by George Townsend, their Chairman, will lend to the said Committee of Queen's County the sum of £400, for defraying the necessary expenses of the County, to be charged to and paid by the said County of Queen's County, in the like manner as the sums of money lent to other Counties in this State for the like purposes.

And Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State do pay the said sum of £400 to Samuel Townsend, Esq., one of the Members of this Convention from Queen's County, for the use of the said County Committee, to defray the necessary expenses of the said County, taking the said Samuel Townsend's receipt for the same.

Application was made to the Convention, on behalf of the Troop of Horse in Queen's County, that they conceive it hard to be draughted with the common Militia or Foot, on the late resolution of this Convention for draughting one-fourth part of the Militia into actual service, as they have been at the expense to equip themselves as Troopers under the authority of this State.

Ordered, That Brigadier-General Woodhull determine as he shall think proper on this application, and give his directions accordingly.

Ordered, That Sa. Dyckman, the Messenger, be called on to take the following oath, viz:

"I do swear on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that I will diligently and faithfully execute the office of an express to the Convention of the State of New-York; that I will keep all the secrets with which I am or shall be intrusted; and that I will not suffer any papers committed to my charge to be examined by any other person or persons than such as, by this Convention or a future Legislature of the State, may be authorized to examine the same."

Adjourned to eight o'clock.

GLOUCESTER.—Mr. Olcott.

Sampson Dyckman, attending, was called in and sworn as the Messenger of this Convention, by the form of the oath for that purpose agreed to and entered in the Minutes yesterday.

Resolved, That the Militia of the Counties of Charlotte, Cumberland, and Gloucester, in this State, be formed into two separate Brigades, anything in the resolution of the Provincial Congress of this Colony, on the 22d day of August last past to the contrary notwithstanding.

That the Militia of the County of Charlotte compose one Brigade, and the Militia of the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland the other Brigade.

And Resolved, That Jacob Bayley, Esq., of the Township of Newbury, in Gloucester County, be appointed Brigadier-General of the Militia of the Counties of Gloucester and Cumberland. That Simon Stevens, Esq., of the Township of Springfield, in the County of Cumberland, be appointed Major of Brigade of the said Brigade; and that Commissions issue for those gentlemen immediately.

Resolved, That Lieutenant-Colonel James Hamman be the Lieutenant-Colonel of the Militia of Westchester County, draughted or to be draughted into actual service under Colonel Thomas Thomas.

On two Returns delivered in and read, though very imperfect and not worth preserving, on motion of Colonel De Witt, who explained the said Returns, Ordered, That Abraham Smedes, who has been duly elected First Lieutenant in Captain Matthew Janse's Company of Shawangunk Precinct, in Colonel Jonathan Hasbrouck's Regiment of the Militia of Ulster County, receive a Commission for that office.

And Ordered, That Cornelius Dubois, who has been an officer of Horse, had been duly elected Second Lieutenant in Captain John De Witt's Company from Ulster County, in service as a part of the Continental Army, in General Scott's Brigade, to continue an officer of Foot while in that service, have a Second Lieutenant's Commission issued to him.

The said Commissions were issued accordingly, and delivered to Colonel De Witt.

The Report of the Committee for issuing a second emission of Bills of Credit in this Colony was read; and being again in part read by paragraphs, debates arose thereon, and it was recommitted to the former Committee, and Mr. Duer, to report again with all convenient speed.

Mr. Morris moved, and was seconded by Mr. Duer, that a Committee be appointed to take into consideration and report a plan for instituting and framing a new form of Government. The same was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. Adgate moved, and was seconded by Mr. Moore, in the words following, viz: "I move that the Committee to be appointed by this Convention to report a form of Government, be directed first to prepare and report a Bill of Rights, ascertaining and declaring the essential rights and privileges of the good people of this State as the foundation for such form of Government."

Debates arose thereon. Mr. Morris moved for the previous question, which was carried in the negative.

Mr. Duer moved that the words "be directed first to prepare and" be obliterated, and the words "do report the same time" there inserted; which being debated, was carried in the affirmative by a great majority.

The question being then put on Mr. Adgate's motion, as thus amended, it was unanimously carried in the affirmative and agreed to.

The following gentlemen were then named by different Members to be of that Committee, viz: Mr. Jay, Mr. Hobart, Mr. Wm. Smith, Mr. Duer, Mr. Morris, Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Colonel Broome.

General Scott having been named, Mr. Robt. Harper moved that he be appointed one of that Committee.

Mr. Morris opposed, and assigned for reason the resolution of the late Congress, on the 15th day of June last, and that next Tuesday is fixed to consider whether Mr. Scott is entitled to a seat.

Debates arose, and the question being put on the said motion, it was carried in the affirmative, in manner following, viz:

For the Affirmative.
8 New-York.
6 Albany.
3 Tryon.
4 Ulster.
21 votes.

For the Negative.
5 Dutchess.
4 Westchester.
4 Suffolk.
2 Cumberland.
1 Gloucester.
4 Queen's.
20 votes.

Ordered, That Mr. Scott be one of that Committee.

Livingston*, Colonel Broome, General Scott, Mr. Abraham Yates, Mr. Wisner, Sen., Mr. Samuel Townsend, Colonel De Witt, and Mr. Robert Yates, be a Committee to take into consideration and report a plan for instituting and framing a form of Government.

GEORGE TOWNSEND, Chairman.

To Captain Jonathan Lawrence.

P. S. We beg that you will take the sense of the Congress what shall be done with the County records, in order to secure them.

By RICHARD VISCOUNT HOWE, of the Kingdom of IRELAND, and WILLIAM HOWE, Esquire, General of his Majesty's Forces in AMERICA, the King's Commissioners for restoring peace to his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in NORTH-AMERICA, &c., &c. Declaration.

Whereas, by an act passed in the last session of Parliament to prohibit all trade and intercourse with the Colonies of New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, the three lower Counties on Delaaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, South-Carolina, and Georgia, and for other purposes therein mentioned, it is enacted, that "it shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons appointed and authorized by his Majesty to grant a pardon or pardons to any number or description of persons, by proclamation in his Majesty's name, to declare any Colony or Province, Colonies or Provinces, or any County, Town, Port, District, or place, in any Colony or Province, to be at the peace of his Majesty; and" that "from and after the issuing any such Proclamation in any of the aforesaid Colonies or Provinces, or if his Majesty shall be graciously pleased to signify the same by his royal Proclamation, then, from and after the issuing such Proclamation," the said "act, with respect to such Colony or Province, Colonies or Provinces, County, Town, Port, District, or place, shall cease, determine, and be utterly void."

And whereas the King, desirous to deliver all his subjects from the calamities of war and other oppressions, which they now undergo, and to restore the said Colonies to his protection and peace, as soon as the constitutional authority therein may be replaced, hath been graciously pleased by letters patent under the great seal, dated the sixth day of May, in the sixteenth year of his Majesty's reign, to nominate and appoint us, Richard Viscount Howe, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and William Howe, Esquire, General of his Forces in North-America, and each of us, jointly and severally, to be his Majesty's Commissioner and Commissioners for granting his free and general pardons to all those who, in the tumult and disorder of the times, may have deviated from their just allegiance, and who are willing, by a speedy return to their duty, to reap the Declaration of Richard Viscount Howe and William Howe, attested by William Tryon, certified as a true copy and subscribed Thomas Willett, Sheriff; which was also read and filed.

Resolved, That the said Thomas Willett, late Sheriff of Queen's County, be taken into custody, and brought immediately before this Convention, to answer for his conduct in having certified, subscribed, and published the late Declaration of Richard Viscount Howe and William Howe, attested by William Tryon, late Governour of New-York, contrary to the resolutions of Congress and the Convention of the Representatives of this State in such cases lately made and provided.

And Ordered, That General Scott be requested to direct that the above Resolution be duly executed.

The Committee appointed to consider of and report on the Letter from the Committee of Kingston, relative to the Scotch Prisoners from the Royal Army placed at Kingston, brought in their Report.

The same being read, it was postponed until further inquiry can be made and information obtained.

A Letter from Colonel Ritzema to Mr. McKesson,* one of the Secretaries, dated this day, was read. He therein mentions that his Regiment is without a Major; that a Major is a useful officer; that Captain Billings is at present doing Major duty; and that Colonel Ritzema requests that a Major may be appointed.

Ordered, That the said Letter be referred to the Committee appointed to inquire what Officers, who served last campaign, remain unprovided for.

Ordered, That Colonel Hoffman and Mr. Abm. Yates be discharged, at their request, from the Committee appointed to inquire and report the names of the Officers who served last campaign and are not provided for; and that Colonel Lott and Mr. Bleecker be of that Committee, instead of the Members hereby discharged.

Ordered, That Colonel Hoffman and Mr. Tredwell have leave of absence.

A Letter from Corns. C. Roosevelt, Clerk to Colonel Curtinius, was read and filed. He thereby acknowledges the receipt of twenty-six Muskets from Thads. Noble.

A Certificate,† signed by William Allen, William Elsworth, benefits of the royal favour; and also for declaring in his Majesty's name, any Colony, Province, County, Town, Port, District, or place, to be at the peace of his Majesty:

We do therefore hereby declare, that due consideration shall be had to the meritorious services of all persons who shall aid and assist in restoring the publick tranquillity in the said Colonies, or in any part or parts thereof; that pardons shall be granted, dutiful representations received, and every suitable encouragement given, for promoting such measures as shall be conducive to the establishment of legal Government and peace, in pursuance of his Majesty's most gracious purposes aforesaid.

Given at Staten-Island the fourteenth day of July, 1776.

* New-York, August 1, 1776.

DEAR SIR: I have long waited, with the utmost impatience, for the determination of the Convention of our State, for the filling up the vacant Majority in my Regiment, and can hardly conceive why it has so long been delayed. The office is of so much importance that a Regiment can't exist without its being filled, for which reason the eldest Captain in the Regiment (Billings) has been appointed, in general orders, to act as Major to the Regiment till further orders, and will, in all probability, soon be appointed to that office, for no other reason but his being the eldest Captain. This gentleman is no ways equal to that station, nor do I think entitled to it, as there are several elder Captains than himself of the old establishment. Let me, therefore, beg of you, sir, to urge this matter with the Committee who has the regulation of the arrangement of the military officers in hand, that a Major be immediately appointed to the Regiment, and his commission be sent to me. Captain Goforth told me he would not accept of it. If I am not mistaken, I think Captain Griffin comes next in turn. However, I don't pretend to dictate, but only to refresh your memory. All I want is, that the Majority be well filled: it is matter of indifference to me who is the person.

Your good offices herein will much oblige your humble servant,

RUDS. RITZEMA.

To John McKesson, Esq., at the Convention of the State of New-York, Hartem.

P. S. Lieutenant Miller's commission is still in my hands. The Ensigny in Captain Horton's Company vacant, as also in Denton's.

† This is to certify, that the muskets which Mr. Noble contracted for, to deliver in complete order, like unto King's muskets, is deficient at least ten shillings to be equal to the contract, as we have examined the said muskets attentively, and do upon honour declare that they are worth no more than fifty-four shillings.

WILLIAM ALLEN,

WILLIAM ELSWORTH,

GUILLIAM VARICK,

worth, Guilliam Varick, and Michael Ganter, Gunsmiths, enclosed in said Letter, was also read and filed. They thereby certify that the Muskets which Mr. Noble contracted to deliver in complete order, like unto King's Muskets, are deficient at least 10s. each of being equal to the contract. They have examined the said Muskets attentively, and do upon honour declare, that they are worth no more than 54s. each.

The Convention being informed that said Noble had been put to great expense in bringing the said Muskets by land, on account of the ships-of-war in Hudson's River, by which means the Muskets were also injured in their appearance,

Resolved, therefore, That Mr. Noble be allowed 10s. on each Musket for his extraordinary expenses in bringing them down by land, and for the injury they have received thereby, and that he be paid 54s. for each Musket, agreeable to the valuation of the said William Allen and others.

Ordered, That Peter Van Brugh Livingston, Esq., pay to Thads. Noble the sum of £53 4s., in full for twenty-six Muskets by him made on contract with the Congress of this State made in April last, and in full for the allowance made to him by this Convention for extraordinary expenses in bringing down the said Muskets by land, and take his receipt for the same.

Mr. Robert Harper and Gouverneur Morris reported that they have examined Peter Sim as to his skill and knowledge in the art of extracting Salt from sea water, and think him well skilled in that art; and that in their opinion the application of the said Sim and his copartners in every respect comes within the resolutions of this Convention for encouraging the manufacturing of Salt.

Resolved, That the said Alexander Robertson, Marinus Willet, and Peter Sim, and their copartners, shall have the sum of £500 on loan, on their joint and several bond or obligation, conditioned for the payment thereof to the Treasurer, according to the said Resolutions.

Ordered, That the Secretaries do prepare such Bond; * and that on the receipt thereof by the Treasurer, duly executed by the said Alexander Robertson, Marinus Willet, and Peter Sim, and their copartners, and conditioned for the payment of £500, he do advance to them that sum, taking a receipt for the same.

On motion of Mr. Duer,

Resolved, unanimously, That the Colonels of the respective Regiments in the County of Charlotte do make return to this Convention, or to a future Executive power of this State, on or before the first day of September next, of the number of men in their respective Regiments, the state of their arms, and the number of the levies which have been draughted from each Battalion; and that Colonel Williams be directed to send copies of this order to the respective Colonels.

John Van Cortlandt, Esq., reported that he had waited on Richard Morris, Esq., to inform him of the unanimous vote of this Convention to appoint him Judge of the Court of Admiralty in this State; that Mr. Morris declines to

* Know all men by these presents, That we, _____, are held and firmly bound unto Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq., President of the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York, in the sum of one thousand pounds, lawful money of the said State; for the payment whereof, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals, dated the _____ day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six.

Whereas the above bounden _____ hath received on loan from the honourable the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York, for the term of two years from the thirtieth day of July last, the sum of five hundred pounds, lawful money aforesaid, as an encouragement to erect works within this State, for extracting salt from sea water, agreeable to certain resolutions of the said Convention made and passed on the thirtieth day of July:

Now, therefore, the conditions of the above obligation are such, that if the above bounden _____ shall and do, on or before the _____ day of _____ next, erect and complete works within this State for the extracting of salt out of sea water, at such place or places as the County Committee of the County where such works are to be erected shall deem most proper, and at least fifteen miles distant from the sea-coast from any other works of the like kind, and also that if the said _____, his heirs, executors, or administrators, shall and do, well and truly, pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said Nathaniel Woodhull, his executors, administrators, or assigns, for the use of the Representatives or future Legislature of this State, the said sum of five hundred pounds, lawful money of New-York, or twelve hundred and fifty bushels of good white merchantable salt, manufactured by the said _____ as aforesaid, on or before the thirtieth day of July which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, then the above obligation to be void; but on failure of either of the above conditions, to be and remain in full force and virtue.

accept that office, and will wait on this Convention to thank them for the honourable testimony they have given him of their esteem; that he assigns for the reason of his declining the office his intention to decline all publick business, and devote his time to settle his affairs and arrange them for the benefit of his children; and that he had requested Mr. Cortlandt in his behalf to return his sincere thanks to this Convention, and to assure them that he will always be ready to support his country with his life and fortune.

Messrs. Wm. Smith and Rutgers, who were appointed yesterday for the purpose, reported that Thads. Noble, of King's District, in the County of Albany, agrees to contract with such persons as this Convention shall direct, to make one hundred good Muskets, as near as he can in imitation of the arms called King's Muskets, with steel ramrods, to be delivered at the price of £3 10s. each, within six months from the time of such contract. A Letter from the Committee of the City of New-York, dated the 1st instant, and signed by John Berrien, Esquire, their Chairman, was read and filed. They thereby inform that they are reduced to great difficulties by the frequent sales of Bohea Tea at higher prices than that limited by the Congress; that the growing evil is so great that it requires speedy redress.

Ordered, That the said Letter be committed to Colonel Remsen, Mr. Harper, and Mr. Abeel, to take the same into consideration and report thereon.

A Letter from John Berrien, Henry Wilmot, Fras. Bassett, and eight others of the Committee of the City of New-York,* dated the 30th day of July last, was read and filed. They thereby inform that the Police of the City is neglected, the Magistrates absent, their time entirely engrossed by matters which ought to be determined by Magistrates, and requesting the Convention to provide relief in the premises.

* NEW-YORK, July 30, 1776.

We, the subscribers, members of the General Committee for this City and County, beg leave to lay before you the particular situation and difficulties we have for some time past and do now labour under. Not one Magistrate being in the city, occasions every complaint, both criminal as well as of civil nature, to be brought before the Committee. The business for which the Committee was appointed would alone take up their whole attention at any time; notwithstanding which, we have cheerfully undertaken, and, to the best of our power and abilities, faithfully executed every business that has been brought before us, though this burden has fallen upon only a few, sometimes ten, twelve, and never more than sixteen or eighteen members, who have given their constant attendance to the publick service. The time the Committee was elected for will expire the 8th day of next month, and we conceive the publick or the Ordered, That Colonel Remsen, Colonel Brasher, and Mr. Roosevelt, be a Committee to take the said Letter into consideration, and to examine the Charter of the City of New-York, and report what may be necessary and right to be done in the premises.

And Ordered, That a Letter be wrote to the said Committee, informing them of the steps this Convention have taken relative to the said Letter, and requesting them to exert themselves with that zeal they have heretofore shown in keeping the peace and good order of the City.

Colonel Remsen informed the Convention that the Books of Account of the Receiver-General of Quit Rents, which have been paid in this State, remain in the City of New-York, that they can be obtained and lodged in any such place of safety as the Convention may think proper.

Resolved; That the Chairman of the General Committee of the City of New-York, or, in his absence, the Deputy Chairman, take with him such guard of armed men as he may deem sufficient, together with Mr. James Moran, and proceed to the late Custom House in the said City, and there seize and take into his custody all the Books of the late Receiver-General of New-York which in any wise relate to the Quit Rents of this State, and transmit the same by the first conveyance or opportunity, safely locked up or secured in a proper box or chest for that purpose, to the Secretaries of this Convention at Harlem.

And Ordered, further, That Mr. James Moran do faithfully show unto the said Chairman, or Deputy Chairman, all such Books and Papers as he may know to relate to or concern the Quit Rents of this State of New-York, or any moneys heretofore received on account thereof.

Resolved, unanimously, That all Quit Rents formerly due and payable to the King of Great Britain within this State, are now due and owing unto this Convention, or such future Government as may be hereafter established in this State.

The Agent of the Commissary-General of American Army applied for leave to export Salt to Connecticut to preserve Provisions for the Army.

Ordered, That the Commissary-General be, and he hereby is, permitted to export two thousand four hundred bushels of Salt to Connecticut.

Resolved, unanimously, That the twenty-seventh day of August instant be kept throughout this State as a day of Fasting, Humiliation, and Prayer to Almighty God, for the imploring of His Divine assistance in the organization and establishment of a form of Government for the security and perpetuation of the Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties of Mankind, and to supplicate his further protection in the war which now rages throughout America.

Ordered. That the foregoing Resolution be published in all the publick Newspapers throughout this State.

Resolved, unanimously, That three Sermons suitable to the occasion be preached on that day before this Convention; and that the Rev. Mr. Schoonmaker of Harlem, the Rev. Mr. Provost* of the County of Albany, and the Rev. Dr.

Convention will not desire us, such a few individuals, to sacrifice our whole time to the publick service, and at this sickly season our constitutions also, when so many of our fellow-citizens, men of large property, are enjoying all the advantages of a rural life much in the same manner as if this Continent was in a state of peace. We therefore wish the Convention would devise any measure that would in any ways ease us of our present difficulties; for be assured we are, with all due esteem and respect, gentlemen, your most obedient, and very humble servants,

SAML. JOHNSON,

To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New-York.

*CAMP MANOR OF LIVINGSTON, August 11, 1776.

SIR: I lately received the resolve of the honourable Convention, in which I am requested to preach before them on the 27th of this month. As I am convinced of the justice of the cause they are engaged in, and duly sensible of the honour intended me by their appointment, if I followed my own inclination I should very readily comply with their request. But so many things occur which would render it highly inconvenient for me to officiate upon this occasion, that I must rely upon their goodness to excuse me. I can't presume to take up your time with so inconsiderable a subject, therefore shall mention my reasons for desiring this indulgence to James Duane, Esq., and Colonel Hoffman, two worthy members of the Convention, and flatter myself they will prove satisfactory to that respectable assembly.

I am, sir, your most humble servant,

SAML. PROVOOST.

To Brigadier-General Woodhull, President of the Convention of the State of New-York.

Rodgers of the City of New-York, be requested to officiate on this occasion.

Ordered, That Mr. Bancker and Colonel Brasher wait on the Rev. Mr. Schoonmaker and some of his Consistory, to request the use of the Church at Harlem on this occasion.

The Worshipful Richard Morris, Esq., waited on this Convention, and was introduced. He declines accepting the office of Judge of the Admiralty in the most polite manner; assured the Convention that he most heartily joined with his countrymen, and was ready to support them with his life and fortune; but from the situation of his family and property, the remainder of his life was necessary for attention to his own affairs, and that therefore he declined the office.

Die Veneris, 4 ho. P. M., August 2, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

* To the Honourable the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK in Convention assembled:

The memorial of Daniel Shaw, commander of the private sloop-of-war called the Harlequin, in behalf of himself and the owners of the said sloop, humbly sheweth: That your memorialists have, at a great expense, purchased and fitted out the said sloop for the purpose of cruising against and annoying the enemies of the United States of America; that the said sloop is now ready to proceed to sea in every respect, excepting the want of powder, but that your memorialists are unable to furnish themselves with that article, notwithstanding they have diligently exerted themselves for that purpose; and they are apprehensive their intentions will be defeated, unless they shortly procure a supply; that your memorialists are, therefore, under a necessity of applying to your Honours, and do not doubt attention will be paid to their petition, as the Convention were pleased to recommend and encourage the fitting out of privateers to cruise against the enemies of America. Your petitioners, therefore, pray your Honours to furnish them with twelve hundred weight of powder, out of the publick stock, for the purpose aforesaid. And your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray, &c.

For the security whereof, the said Thaddeus Noble and Matthew Adgate, Esq., have executed their joint and several bond to Peter Van Brugh Livingston, Esq., Treasurer.

the proceedings of the cause of our removal. We conceive their delay much to our disadvantage. Permit us, therefore, again to call your attention to our unhappy situation, separate from our respective business, wives, and families, supporting ourselves at an expense which must eventually injure ourselves and families; suspected to be inimical to our country, which opinion we hope in the course of time to remove from our unfriendly brethren, by our future deportment and conduct. Notwithstanding the inference that might have heretofore been drawn to our disadvantage, from the freedom with which we have either approved or condemned publick measures, we make no doubt of convincing every real friend to America that we are sincerely so; for the observance of which we are ready to give security. We therefore rely that you will do us the justice to grant us speedy relief, in ordering us to return to our respective homes, there to pursue our business unmolested, by which you'll oblige, gentlemen, your obedient, humble servants,

"ABM. C. CUYLER, BENJ. HILTON,
"JOHN DUNCAN, JNO. MONIER."
"STEP. DE LANCEY,

Mr. Morris moved, and was seconded by Mr. Duer, that "a peremptory order issue to the Committee of Albany to return their proceedings against the said Abm. Cuyler and others, without delay."

Debates arose on the said motion, and the question being put thereon, it was carried in the negative, in manner following, viz:

For the Affirmative.	For the Negative.
2 Charlotte.	5 Dutchess.
3 Orange.	3 Tryon.
4 Queen's.	6 Albany.
4 Suffolk.	2 Cumberland.
4 Westchester.	4 Ulster.

	23 votes.

Therefore the said motion was rejected.

On motion of Colonel Remsen, seconded by Colonel Lott,

Ordered, That a Letter be wrote to the Committee of Albany, enclosing a copy of the former Order of this Convention, and of the said Letter from the Committee, and desiring to know the reason of their delay.

Ordered, That Colonel Remsen and Major Abeel be a Committee for that purpose.

A Letter from Silvester Salisbury, Esq., Captain of the Troop of Horse in Ulster County, dated the first instant, was read and filed. He therein mentions that Colonel Johs. Snyder, in consequence of the late resolution of this Convention for draughting one-fourth part of the Militia of Ulster County, had directed that the said Troop of Horse (whereof he is Captain) should be draughted; that the Troopers are ready to serve as Horsemen, but refuse to serve on foot, and he requests directions in the premises.

The Convention took the same into consideration; and thereupon,

Resolved, That the Troopers in the several Troops of Horse in the Militia of this State, imbodyed by, and under the authority of the said State, who have provided themselves with proper horses and accoutrements as Troopers, be not compelled to serve as foot soldiers.

Ordered, That Colonel De Witt transmit a copy of this Resolution to Captain Salsbury.

The Committee to whom was referred the regulation of the Treasury, delivered their Report, which was read.

Ordered, That the consideration of that Report be postponed till Wednesday next.

standing our utmost exertions, some infamous rascals must have given them information that the New-England troops went off on Saturday last, and not a sufficient number coming in to guard the shore. They landed at one Bailey's, on Sunday night, and went back half a mile, and drove off one pair of oxen, two cows, one calf, one heifer, and eleven sheep; no doubt had the assistance of some Tories on shore. We have since got some assistance from General Clinton's Brigade, and several companies came in, and more hourly expected, that we are in hopes soon to have such an arrangement as will effectually cut off all kind of communication. Hope there may be soon some discreet, smart officer appointed to take the command, and a proper Commissary, that the business may be conducted with spirit and regularity.

"We must confess, gentlemen, that as yet things have not been so well regulated as we should have been glad to have seen; but the many difficulties and disadvantages we had to encounter must only apologize. We consider our appointment as merely pro tempore; and cautious of assuming too much authority to ourselves, lest it might give disgust to some of the military corps; and having such an extensive shore, and frequent movements, were obliged to deal out provisions in different places; and not being able to give any man assurance that he should continue any considerable time in office, has made it difficult to get proper persons to act in different departments. Add to this, having to deal with new, raw troops, every few days, by reason of their frequent changes—and, sorry to say, many of them very refractory—that on the whole, our station has not been the most desirable. However, are willing to serve in any department that may be for the good of our country. Remain, gentlemen, your very humble servants,

"Committee-Chamber, New-York, August 3, 1776.

"SIR: This Committee have lately received information of a motion now depending before your honourable House respecting the rights of this City and County to say who shall represent them in the General Convention of this State; a motion which has greatly alarmed their fears, and which they conceive is big with absurdity and ruin (should it be drawn into precedent) to the future freedom and happiness of this State; nor could they have believed at this early dawn of establishing a free community and settling its constitution, any member of your honourable Convention could have so soon lost sight of the natural rights of men, and of that power by which alone he is entitled to a seat in your honourable House. The Committee lament the forlorn and deserted situation of this place by its inhabitants, or they would have pleaded with you by petition, and instructed their own members on this threatened violation of their undoubted rights; but as that cannot be done, they should think themselves inexcusable should they rest in silence without using the only means in their power to prevent the introduction of a principle so dangerous and unjust—a principle which has been combated (though unsuccessfully) by all the worthy members of a tyrannick State, with whom we are now at war, viz: to pray that your honourable House would be pleased to order the motion erased from your Journals, and buried in eternal oblivion. The Committee beg you will lay these their sentiments and prayer before the honourable Convention, requesting that the most favourable construction may be given both to the mode and matter of this address, as flowing from hearts zealously attached to the happiness of the State.

"I am, by order, and on behalf of the Committee, very respectfully, your obedient, humble servant,

"JOHN BERRIEN, Chairman."

August 3, 1776.

FOR CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

FOR CUMBERLAND.—Colonel Marsh, Mr. Stephens.

GLOUCESTER.—Mr. Olcott.

A Letter from Colonel Snyder, of Kingston, in Ulster County, dated August 1, 1776, on the subject of the Militia, and whether the Troop of Horse ought to be draughted with the Militia of Foot, the Company of Troop refusing to be draughted, which gives great uneasiness, and probably will cause a mutiny :

Ordered, That Colonel De Witt, Major Parks, Mr. Little, Colonel Drake, and Mr. Morris, be a Committee to take into consideration the several resolutions which respect the Militia, and report on the subject with all possible speed.

A Certificate of Dr. Malachi Treat,* dated yesterday, was read and filed. He thereby certifies, that he has carefully examined Mr. Henry White, both in physick and surgery, and has the pleasure to inform all whom it may concern, that he is well acquainted with the principles and practice of both, and qualified for discharging his duty in either.

Resolved, That Mr. Henry White be, and is hereby, appointed Surgeon to Colonel Isaac Nicoll's Regiment of Militia now called into the Continental service for a limited time.

Mr. Morris reported that Mr. William Smith and himself have examined Dr. Samuel Bard, and find him skilled in the process of extracting Salt from sea water ; that Dr. Samuel Bard will give his Bond for the money to be lent to him, or will give other security if the Convention shall think proper.

Resolved, That Dr. Samuel Bard must give security for the money which shall be lent him by this Convention, and that the Treasurer of this State, on receiving the Bond of Dr. Samuel Bard, with such security as this Convention shall approve of, conditioned for the payment of £500, do advance to him that sum, taking his receipt for the same.

The said Committee further report, that they have also examined Captain William Goforth, and find him skilled in the process of extracting Salt from sea water,* and in the method of erecting a work for that purpose ; that Aaron Oarson, Jonathan Piercy, John Houston, and Richard Platt, are to be his copartners, and are ready to become bound with him for the money which may be lent to them agreeable to the Resolutions of this Convention of the 29th day of June last for encouraging the erecting of Salt Works.

Resolved, That the joint and several Bond of the said William Goforth and his copartners will be sufficient security for the sum of £500, and that the Treasurer of this State, on receiving the joint and several Bond of William Goforth, Aaron Oarson, Jonathan Piercy, John Houston, and Richard Platt, conditioned for the sum of £500, do advance to them that sum, taking their receipt for the same.

Mr. Robert R. Livingston (according to order) reported the draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, which was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit :

"A. M., August 6, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention to make their apology to your Excellency for not sooner expressing their approbation of the appointment which you have made to the command on Hudson's River. It gives them great pleasure to find that your Excellency hath chosen for this important post a gentleman whose good sense and tried resolution do honour to the choice, which, united with his intimate knowledge of the country, cannot fail of rendering him useful to the publick. They have, however, some reason to fear that either from delay or misapprehension, General Clinton hath not that evidence of his authority which he ought to have, or else that he doth not conceive of it in its full latitude. The Convention would therefore esteem it a particular favour, if, sir, you would transmit to him his appointment, with the resolution which subjects the levies on both sides of the river to his command.

"By the removal of General Clinton from the fortifications in the Highlands, the command of one of these forts hath devolved on Major Schuyler, a very young officer, and new to the service. Your Excellency will best be able to determine whether the fort is of such a nature as to be intrusted with this young gentleman alone, or whether it would be proper to send thither a more experienced officer.

"The Convention beg leave to inform your Excellency, that till Commissaries are appointed, the Convention are deprived of two of their members, who are directed to supply this post till your Excellency shall send proper officers to supply their place, which they flatter themselves will be done as early as possible.

"Upon a suggestion that the telescope belonging to King's College would be of use in discovering the arrangements and operations of the enemy, the Convention have made an order for delivering it to your Excellency, of which I am also directed to enclose you a copy, and hope that it may in some measure contribute to the furthering your designs. The Convention have further directed me to inform your Excellency, that their own members and persons employed by them in the publick service have frequent occasion to pass and repass where guards are placed, are often impeded ; they do therefore submit it to your Excellency's consideration, whether it would not be proper to give orders that those persons who shall appear to be members of the Convention, and those who shall have permission signed by the President, be suffered to pass without interruption. At the same time, that no imposition may happen, I take leave to enclose the copy of a resolution restricting the issuing of all such permissions, except to those who are actually engaged in the publick service ; and lest mistakes should arise with respect to members, it is intended that each one shall have a certificate thereof signed by the President.

"I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, your Excellency's most obedient, humble servant."

Ordered, That a copy of this Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted.

Thomas Willett, being brought here by a guard, was ordered in and examined.

NEW-YORK, August 6, 1776.

†To the Honourable House of Convention of the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK:

The memorial of Abel Noble and Peter Townsend, proprietors of Stirling Iron Works, Anchor Works, &c., by William Hawxhurst, their agent, humbly sheweth: That your memorialists have made a contract for making anchors, steel, and broad-bar, and large square iron, to a considerable amount, for the Continental service, which were to be made with all possible expedition; that your memorialists have already constructed a new work for wroughting the said anchors, and have made a considerable progress therein; but unfortunately for your memorialists, the men-of-war's arrival up the North River have occasioned the country to raise the Militia, whereby the workmen and labourers are taken from the said works; that your memorialists had, just before the arrival of said men-of-war, lodged at Case's store, at Haverstrao Landing, fifty-eight barrels of pork, one hundred bushels of peas, five hogsheds of tobacco, and sundry other necessities for the use of the people employed at the said works; of which said provisions, &c., the Militia have taken forty barrels of pork, seventy-five bushels of peas, and three hogsheds of tobacco; by means of all which, and the loss of time already sustained, your memorialists are unable to perform their contract this season, unless your Honours shall give them relief by discharging the workmen and labourers from the said Militia, and supplying them with the like quantity of pork, peas, and tobacco, as have been taken from them as aforesaid, and also with ten or twelve sledgemen; which your memorialists humbly pray your Honours will do as speedily as possible.

Ordered, That Colonel Peter R. Livingston, Colonel R. R. Livingston, and Mr. Wisner, Sen., be a Committee to report what and how many Artificers shall be exempted from being draughted into the Militia from the different manufactories in this State, and that they report on or before Saturday next.

A Letter from *Richard Speaight, dated the first day of August, instant, was read. He therein sets forth that he is at Goshen, where he has been sent a prisoner-of-war by the Committee of the City of New-York, as a person disaffected to the American cause; that he is ready to accept of employment as a Chemist or Surgeon to a Regiment in the Army, and therefore requests a discharge.

Ordered, That the said Letter lie on the table.

Resolved, That the several members of the Committee for carrying into execution the Resolutions of the Congress of this State, on the 5th day of June last, with respect to dangerous and disaffected persons and those of equivocal characters, be absolved, and they are hereby absolved from their oath of office to carry those Resolutions into execution, and from all further duty required of them by those Resolutions.

And Ordered, That the President do absolve all the Members of this Convention and the Secretaries from their oath of secrecy as to the matters contained in those Resolutions. And that he further absolve all the Members of this Convention and the Secretaries from the oath of secrecy by them respectively taken, and everything thereon charged, so that the same from henceforth be null and void.

Which was done accordingly.

Resolved, That henceforth, until further order of this Convention, all matters charged on the Members as matters of secrecy, be charged to them to be kept secret upon their honour respectively.

Isaac Roosevelt, Esq., to whom was committed the care and management of getting Plates engraved† for issuing the Bills of Credit of this State, framing the devices of those Plates, getting the said Bills of Credit printed and signed by the respective signers, and delivered to the Treasurer, made report of his proceedings in the premises, in writing, which is in the words following, to wit:

“Mr. PRESIDENT: In pursuance of the resolutions of the 5th March and 8th May, 1776, of the then Provincial Congress for the emission of a Paper currency, to amount of

* GOSHEN, August 1, 1776.

HONOURED FRIENDS—GENTLEMEN: Know, that through malice and enmity after seven months' imprisonment, and just opened shop in town, (York), and getting into a good living trade, I was, through misinformation, sent to this place, (by the Committee,) a prisoner on parole, from my family and business, and, without doubt, unless soon relieved, the whole of my substance (which is but little) must be spent, and my wife and two children suffer for want of bread as well as myself, as I have no allowance made me here to live upon, nor had I any to bring me up, which cost me upwards of five pounds, and am now at great expense, that soon will sink all I have got. Whatever accusation can be laid against me, I am willing to clear myself before your honourable body. I must own I have never signed the Association. For why? Because it was never presented to me, neither do I know the contents.

To be short, gentlemen: So far I am a friend to America; (let any person say what they will, out of prejudice to me, as I have a great many enemies, especially my late partner, whom I lay all my troubles to, on account of his advising me to go to England;) that I am willing to assist the Army in my business, which I flatter myself, as many things are much wanting in the Army, I would be of service in preparing many chemical medicines that are now not to be got. I would even enter in the service as a Doctor to any one of the Regiments where a vacancy might offer, as well as prepare medicines for the rest of the Army, as I believe my abilities are well known in the chemical business.

If the honourable Congress will consider me in the above particulars, and grant me relief, which may be the saving of a wife and two small children from distress, the thanks and prayers will ever be for your welfare, and all assistance wanting will be given by your Honours' most obedient servant,

RICHARD SPEAIGHT.

To the Hon. Provincial Congress of the Province of New-York.

NEW-YORK, July 14, 1776. }

Ordered, That John McKesson, as Secretary of the Convention of the said State, receive from Isaac Roosevelt, Esq., all the Plates, Borders, and Engravings made for printing the emission of Money or Bills of Credit issued by order of the late Congress of this Colony, and that the said John McKesson get those Plates, Borders, and Engravings conveyed to the White-Plains by the best conveyance he can readily obtain.

HENRY REMSEN, GOVERNEUR MORRIS,
LEWIS GRAHAM, LEONARD GANSEVOORT.

£55,000, I now report that I have executed the said resolution in manner following, to wit:

2,350.....	Bills of 10 Dollars each, is.....	23,500	Dollars.
2,350.....	do.. 5.....do.....	11,750	do.
2,350.....	do.. 3.....do.....	7,050	do.

30,000.....	do.. 1-8.....do.....	3,750	do.

138,250 Dollars,

at eight Shillings, £55,300.

“That the said overplus of £300 arises from the last-mentioned denomination of one-eighth of a dollar, which in the above recited resolution, of the 5th of March, was stipulated to be twenty-four thousand Bills. That I could not conveniently comply with the resolution in that respect, as the plates were all set for striking off the lower denominations together on one sheet, and the arrival of the British fleet and army renders it necessary to finish the striking them off speedily, it did therefore not admit of taking the printing press down to make an alteration. And as that denomination is very useful in small change, I judged it would meet with the approbation of this Convention. I have therefore paid the said Bills into the Treasury of this Convention, amounting to the said sum of £55,300, as per receipt.”

Resolved, That this Convention does fully approve of the conduct of Isaac Roosevelt, Esq., and the signers of the late emission of the Bills of Credit of this Colony or State, in having issued £300 more than was ordered to be issued by the resolution of the late Provincial Congress, of the 8th day of March and the 5th day of May last past; that the same shall pass current as the other money of this State, and be of equal credit, and that the said sum of £300 be considered as a part of the sum mentioned in the bill for a further emission of Bills of Credit of this State now before this Convention, and that provision be therein made for the cancelling thereof by this State by issuing £300 less than the sum mentioned in the said bill now under consideration.

Mr. Isaac Roosevelt also produced the Receipt of Gerard Bancker, Deputy Treasurer, on behalf of Peter V. Brugh Livingston, Esq., the Treasurer of this State, for the said sum of £55,300, which was read, and is hereunto annexed:

“Received at different times, from Mr. Isaac Roosevelt, sundry parcels of money, amounting to £55,300, which was emitted by orders of Convention of the State of New-York, and which Mr. Roosevelt had printed and signed by order of said Convention. Received for P. V. B. Livingston, Treasurer.
GERARD BANCKER.

“Harlem, August 3, 1776.”

Robert R. Livingston, Esq., according to order, reported a draft of a Letter to the Delegates of this State at Congress on the subject of having resolved that the City of New-York be deserted if necessary, and on different arrangements of Militia and Rangers ordered to be raised for actual service; which was read, amended, and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

“Harlem, August 7, 1776, A. M.

“GENTLEMEN: As the defence of this State is intimately connected with the safety of America, this Convention have not only exerted their utmost strength, but cheerfully agreed to sacrifice local attachments and a great share of their property to the attainment of these desirable ends. This will fully appear by the paper No. 1, and the other enclosures. We regret an unfortunate mistake which prevented your receiving them much earlier, since we cannot but flatter ourselves that a communication of them to the Congress would at the same time have afforded pleasure to that honourable body, and called forth every aid which they could render to the cause of liberty and a sister State in our critical situation.

“We can with pleasure assure you, that by far the greater part of the levies ordered by the Congress to be raised from our Militia are completed and at their several stations; that almost the whole of those draughted in consequence of the enclosed resolution will, by the time this reaches you, be at those posts which it is thought necessary to occupy, lest the enemy should cut off the communication between the Army at New-York and the country. The whole number of draughts from the Militia of this State, exclusive of the Continental Battalion raised therein, will amount, as we conceive, when completed, to about nine thousand men. The stations the last levies will occupy on our frontiers in the Highlands and on Long-Island prevent their adding to the strength of the Army at New-York, much as it needs their assistance.

“It gives us great pain to inform you that the aid received from our sister States is very inadequate to our expectation, none of them having yet completed the levies directed by Congress; which leaves us reason to fear that instead of using every means that human wisdom dictates for insuring success, we shall, (with inferior numbers,) on the doubtful issue of a single battle, hazard the glorious cause for which we have hitherto struggled.

“A considerable detachment from the Flying-Camp might supply their defect, and afford us a speedy succour, without the least danger to the Middle Colonies, since it is now evident that the blow is aimed at New-York, and may perhaps be struck while you are deliberating on this measure. The season of the year, and the immediate demand for troops, obliged us to give very considerable bounties; we flatter ourselves, therefore, that our burdens will not be increased by any delay to take into the pay of the Continent all but those ordered to be raised for the defence of the city of Albany. Such as are to be employed on the frontiers are doubtless of general utility, and rendered necessary by the extreme weakness of the Northern Army. Should the Congress think otherwise, we propose to retain them at our own expense, since we are determined to neglect no measure, (however burdensome,) if within our reach, which we conceive necessary for the safety of America.

“You will see, from one of the enclosures, that a Secret Committee were appointed for obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River. In the execution of this design they must necessarily run into some expense, as the forts in the Highlands were not properly furnished with cannon, boats, fire-ships, booms, &c. This has hitherto been a Continental object, and under the immediate direction of Congress; we hope, therefore, our endeavours to render their work effectual will meet the approbation of that honourable body, and be considered as a Continental charge. Your prudence will suggest the use to which this letter and the enclosures ought to be applied, to which we submit it; and are, &c.

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted to the Delegates of this State at Congress, with copies of all the Resolutions and Orders therein mentioned.

Major Abeel, from the Committee appointed to report on the Letter of the General Committee of the City of New-York, relative to Prisoners apprehended in Bergen woods, and now in Jail, brought in their Report. Which Report was read.

Thereupon, Resolved, That the General Committee of the City of New-York do order the persons mentioned in their Letter of the 2d instant* to have been taken up by order of his Excellency General Washington, to be detained in the Jail of the said city until the further order of this Convention, and that the said Committee order a reasonable daily subsistence to such of them as are in indigent circumstances; and also to all such persons as may hereafter be there confined for the safety of this State, and who are unable to support themselves.

And Resolved, That this Convention will provide for the

* COMMITTEE CHAMBER, NEW-YORK, August 2, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Agreeable to your resolution of the 16th instant, we herewith transmit you the names of sundry persons taken up in Bergen woods, near Bull's Ferry, by order of the General, and brought before this Committee as disaffected persons to these States. On examination, each of them declared they considered themselves bound in allegiance to George the Third, King of Great Britain, and were not pleased with the independence of this country, though they offered to swear they would not take arms for or against these States. Some of them, we are informed, are in indigent circumstances, and have large families. We conceived ourselves under the necessity of committing them to jail as prisoners of the State, and doubt not, as they were members of this State, you will speedily give such orders respecting them, and make such provision as you shall think their circumstances require.

I am, gentlemen, by order and in behalf of the Committee, your obedient, humble servant,
JOHN BERRIEN, Chairman.

TORIES—James Holden, James Holden, Jun., Robert Crannell, James Potter, Edward Drury, David Purdy—this person's pettiawger was sent on board the Phoenix since she went up the North River: with what cargo unknown.

payment of such subsistence, when the accounts thereof are presented properly authenticated.

The Committee to whom was referred the consideration of the state of the Troopers in the Militia, reported the following Resolutions, which were unanimously resolved and agreed to :

Whereas the service of Troopers does materially differ from that of others in the Militia, whereby it may frequently happen that Horse may not be necessary for the defence of the State at the same time with Foot, and, on the contrary, Foot may not be necessary at the same time with Horse; or when both are necessary, yet not in equal proportions :

Therefore, Resolved, unanimously, That the establishment of the Troopers shall be considered as totally different from that of the other Militia in this State, so that any general order for draughting the Militia shall apply only to the Foot soldiers, and every general order for the Troops of Horse shall apply only to them.

Whereas the defence of this State may require the immediate service of the several Troops of Horse in the Counties of Ulster, Orange, Dutchess, and Westchester :

Therefore, Resolved, unanimously, That General Clinton be, and he hereby is empowered to order out the whole or any part or detachment of the said Troops, or either of them, for such time or times as he may think necessary, until the last day of December next, unless otherwise ordered by this Convention or future Executive power of this State; and that provision shall be made for their pay and subsistence.

Ordered, That the former of the above two Resolutions be printed in the publick Newspapers, and that the latter of the said Resolutions be served on General Clinton, and on the several Brigadier-Generals of the Counties therein mentioned, with directions to communicate the same to the several Colonels commanding the said Troops.

Resolved, That the consideration of the propriety of General Scott's being admitted to a seat in this Convention be further postponed till Friday next.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Sackett, Mr. Landon, Mr. Robert Livingston.

ORANGE.—Mr. Little.

QUEEN'S.—Colonel Blackwell, Major Lawrence.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, Mr. Tompkins, Mr. Haviland.

A Letter from John Berrien and Henry Wilmot, Esquires, dated and received yesterday, was read and filed. They therein mention that they had, by application to the Rev. Mr. Inglis, obtained the Telescope belonging to the College for the use of his Excellency General Washington, and delivered it to his Aid-de-Camp, whom the General had sent to receive it; that Mr. Inglis readily consented to the delivery of it, and the General had been anxious to obtain it. That they had procured all the Books and Papers belonging to the Receiver-General's office, and sent them, under a guard, by Lieutenant Thomas Lawrence.

Ordered, That the Secretaries take the care and charge of all the Books and Papers taken from the Receiver-General's office until further order.

State of NEW-YORK vs. EDWARD WILLETT:

Edward Willett, Sen., being brought in and examined, says, that he (the examinant) delivered to Edward Willett a letter for the Sheriff of Queen's County, but does not know whether it was from Governour Tryon; that he got said letter at Jamaica, from Nathaniel Mills; thinks Mills said he got it from Livingston or Depeyster, but does not know exactly; that Mills said he had received that letter the same morning he had delivered it to the examinant, but declared he did not know the contents; that he never conversed with the Sheriff since he received the said letter.

The Examination of the said Edward Willett, Sen., by him subscribed, is on file.

Edward Willett, Jr., brother of Thomas Willett, examined, says, that he did deliver to his brother (Sheriff Willett) a letter from Governour Tryon, enclosing a Proclamation from Lord Howe and General Howe; that Mr. Edward Willett, of Flushing, gave said letter to the examinant; that he did not ask Edward Willett where he got it, nor did said Edward tell him; that he hath never read said letter; that he heard his brother say it was from Governour Tryon, and saw the Proclamation contained in the said letter; that he does not know whether his brother intended to publish the said letter upon the receipt thereof; that no conversation passed between them relating to the said Proclamation; that he hath had no conversation upon the Declaration of Independence with his said brother; that the Declaration of Independence was read off at the head of the Companies in Queen's County, nearly about the time the said letter was received; that he had heard of the Declaration of Independence frequently before the said publication thereof.

The Examination of the said Edward Willett, Jun., by him subscribed, is on file.

State of New-York }
vs. } Examined before the Convention, &c., August 8, Thomas Hicks, Esq. } 1776.

Believes he saw a letter from Governour Tryon, enclosing a Declaration of Lord Howe and General Howe, which was sent to Sheriff Willett; does not remember that the Sheriff asked him how far he would or would not be safe in publishing that Declaration. That examinant, upon conversing with the said Sheriff, did at first consider the publishing of the said Declaration as trifling; but upon adverting to a resolution of the Convention, did tell him "that examinant did not know how far the said publication might, under that resolution, be considered as adhering to the enemy, and consequently treason, wherefore examinant was of opinion that the publishing said Declaration was dangerous." That said Sheriff declared to examinant that he was determined to publish the same, for that he would do his duty let the consequences be what they would, or something to that effect; which declaration was made, as examinant thinks, posterior to the delivery of his opinion as aforesaid, but is not certain. Does not remember that the Sheriff gave as a reason for publishing said Declaration that the Congress had published it themselves, although he may have given the same as a reason; and does not think, from the general tenor of the conversation, that the Sheriff meant to ask his advice or to be guided by it, but that it was a mere matter of chat or news between them. That examinant does not believe he should have had any conversation with the said Sheriff upon the subject, had he not asked to see the said Declaration, being curious to know what terms were offered, and having heard from Doctor Johnson that the Sheriff had received it. Examinant may have told the Sheriff during the course of the conversation, that as the Congress had published it there could be no harm for him to do it, but does not recollect that he did. Does not recollect whether he had any conversation with the Sheriff upon the subject of the Declaration of Independence: they possibly might have had.

THOS. HICKS.

Resolved, That Thomas Hicks, Esq., Edward Willett, and Edward Willett the younger, be discharged, the evidence which had been given against them not appearing sufficient for their detention.

Resolved, That Messrs. Samuel Riker, Joseph Robinson, and William Furman, or any two of them, be, and are hereby, authorized and required to call before them Nathaniel Mills, of Jamaica, and examine him from whom and when and where he received a letter or packet directed to the Sheriff of Queen's County, and which he lately delivered to Edward Willett. That they, or any two of them, do likewise call before them and examine all such other persons as they may think necessary to discover by what means or communication that letter was brought from the enemy. That they be, and are hereby, authorized to command to their assistance from time to time any number of the Troopers or Militia which they may think necessary, and to send for, search for, and secure persons and papers; and, if they shall think proper, to send them to this Convention; and that they report their proceedings in the premises to this Convention with all convenient speed.

Resolved, That the Committee appointed yesterday to report Regulations for establishing a Fund in this State, be, and is hereby, dissolved.

Whereas there might probably be a want of Cash in the Treasury of this State before more can be obtained otherwise than by loan:

Resolved, That Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Bancker, and Mr. Beekman be a Committee to borrow and procure on loan for this State, any sum not exceeding in the whole the sum of £10,000, to be repaid in a short time, without interest; for payment whereof [this Convention] shall be liable, and will fully indemnify the said Committee and each of them.

A Letter from his Excellency General Washington, dated this day, giving the intelligence received by two deserters from the Solebay man-of-war, was read, and is hereinafter inserted, viz:

"New-York, August 8, 1776.

"SIR: By this I mean to communicate to your honourable body the substance of the intelligence I received yesterday from two deserters that came from the Solebay man-of-war the evening before. They inform that they were in the engagement at Sullivan's Island, and give nearly the same account that was transmitted by General Lee, which you would see published by Congress. They add that they left South-Carolina about three weeks ago, with General Clinton and his whole army, who are now arrived and landed on Staten-Island. They also say that part of Lord Howe's fleet, with Hessian and Highland troops on board, have got in, and that the remainder, with a considerable body, is hourly expected, which those that have come in parted from in a gale of wind off the banks of Newfoundland.

"As the accounts given by those men are direct and circumstantial, and their authenticity corroborated by many other things that have occurred, it is not to be doubted but the number of the enemy's army will greatly exceed ours. Their force, which was generally expected would be considerable of itself, the unexpected augmentation of General Clinton's army, makes it more so. On the other hand, ours does not come up to the intended establishment. Under those circumstances, and as we may expect the period just at hand when they will make their vigorous push, I submit it to the consideration of your honourable Body whether it may not be necessary for your exertions to be employed in calling in the most expeditious manner such reinforcements as you can obtain to the aid of this Army.

"I have the honour to be, sir, your most obedient servant,
"GO. WASHINGTON."

A Letter of this date from his Excellency General Washington, relative to the Militia called forth from the Counties of Dutchess, Ulster, Westchester, and Orange, was read, and hereafter follows, viz:

"New-York, August 8, 1776.

"SIR: I have been favoured with your letter of the 6th instant, and am happy to find the nomination I made of General Clinton, in consequence of your request to appoint an officer to the command of the levies on both sides of Hudson's River, has met the approbation of your honourable body. His acquaintance with the country, abilities, and zeal for the cause, were the motives that induced me to make choice of him. However, I am led to conclude from that part of your letter which desires me to transmit him his appointment, with the resolution subjecting the levies on both sides of the river to his command, that your honourable body entertain ideas of the matter somewhat different from what I do or ever did.

"When I was honoured with your letter of the 16th ult., with the resolves of Convention upon this subject, the state of the Army under my command would not allow me to send a General Officer in the Continental service to command the levies you then proposed to raise, supposing I had been authorized to do it; but considering myself without power in this instance—the levies altogether of a Provincial nature, to be raised by you, and subject to your direction—I esteemed the nomination of a General Officer over them intrusted to my choice, a matter of favour and of compliment, and as such I gratefully felt it. I am persuaded I expressed myself in this manner to the gentlemen who were pleased to attend me on the occasion, and that they had the same ideas. Under the influence of this opinion, all I expected was, that an appointment would be made in conformity to my nomination, if there was no objection to the gentleman I proposed; conceiving then, as I do now, if he was approved by Convention he was their officer, and deriving his appointment and authority from them. In this light, I presume, General Clinton must be viewed, and his power over the levies you alluded to flow from you. Lest accident may have mislaid the letter I wrote you on the subject, I have enclosed an extract of it, so far as it had related to it: 'It is not in my power to send an experienced officer at this time to the post you mention. I trust that Colonel Clinton will be equal to the command of both the Highland fortifications. They are under his direction at present.'

"In respect to the two Commissaries, I thought the matter had been fixed; but as it is not, I have requested Mr. Trumbull, who has the charge of this, to wait upon and agree with the Convention on proper persons to conduct the business in such a way that their purchases and his may not clash; to him, therefore, I beg leave to refer you upon this subject.

"I am extremely obliged by the order for the telescope. I have obtained it, and will try to employ it for the valuable purposes you designated it.

"I shall pay proper attention to your members, and persons employed in their service, and give it in general orders that they be permitted to pass our guards without interruption.

"Before I conclude, I cannot but express my fears that the enemy's Army, so largely augmented, should possess themselves of the whole stock on Long-Island. When the further reinforcement arrives, which they hourly expect, they may do it without a possibility on our part of preventing them. I wish the Convention may not see cause to regret that they were not removed.

"I have the honour to be, with great respect, sir, your most obedient servant,
GO. WASHINGTON."

The Convention having taken General Washington's Letter into consideration,

Resolved, unanimously, That Brigadier-General Clinton be, and he hereby is, appointed to the command of all the levies raised and to be raised in the Counties of Ulster, Orange, and Westchester, agreeable to the Resolution of this Convention, of the day of July last.

Resolved, That General Clinton be informed of this appointment, and directed immediately to send express to the Counties of Ulster, Dutchess, Orange, and Westchester, and order them to hasten their levies, and to march them down to the fort now erected on the north side of King's Bridge, leaving two hundred men, under the command of a brave and alert officer, to take possession of and throw up works at the pass of Anthony's Nose.

Resolved, That General Clinton be requested to order the Troops of Horse belonging to the Counties of Ulster, Orange, and Westchester, immediately to march to such posts as he may think proper that they should occupy, in order to watch the motions of the enemy's ships-of-war, now in Hudson's River.

A draft of a Letter to General Clinton, to accompany the above Resolutions, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Convention, &c.

"SIR: I have the pleasure to inform you, that with the approbation of General Washington, you are appointed to the command of the levies last raised by order of the Convention of this State, which the Convention hope will be agreeable to you.

"The accounts received of General Washington are of a very alarming nature, and require our utmost exertions; you are, therefore, to send express to Dutchess, Ulster, Orange, and Westchester Counties, and order the new levies to march with the utmost expedition to the post erected on the north side of King's Bridge, since it is of the last importance to prevent the enemy occupying that post, and cutting off the communication between the Army in town, and the country. You will observe that the Convention direct two hundred men to be left to guard the pass on Anthony's Nose; you cannot be ignorant of its importance. They therefore doubt not that you will take care to order works to be thrown up, and supplied, if possible, with a couple of cannon, which we suppose may be obtained from Kingston. The guarding the coasts against any attempts from the shipping, is submitted to your discretion, in which the Convention repose the utmost confidence.

"I would just add, that it is the intention of the Convention that you should march yourself with those levies that are nearest at hand, and leave orders for the remainder to follow you as soon as they can be collected.

"I am, respectfully, &c.

"To Brigadier Clinton."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted, with a certified copy of the Resolutions relating to Brigadier-General Clinton, and the Militia put under his command, therein enclosed.

Resolved, That Colonel Josiah Smith be, and he hereby is, ordered immediately to march all his new levies to the western end of Nassau-Island, and within two miles of Brigadier-General Greene's encampment; and that he obey such orders as he may receive from time to time from Brigadier-General Greene.

Ordered, That General Woodhull forward the last preceding Resolution to Colonel Josiah Smith, by express; or that he direct the Captain of the Troop of Queen's County to forward it by one of his Troopers, with a letter of directions to Colonel Smith.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, to cover copies of the Resolutions for calling the Militia to the fortification beyond King's Bridge, and Col. Smith's Regiment to General Greene's Brigade, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention of the State of New-York to enclose to your Excellency sundry resolutions which they have entered into, in consequence of part of your letter of this date. The Convention have further measures in contemplation for the security of this State, which they conceive of the utmost importance to the general cause of America. So soon as they are determined on, I shall give your Excellency immediate notice; and at the same time answer your two letters of this date in a more particular manner than the hurry of business will at present admit of.

"I have the honour to be, most respectfully, &c.

"To his Excellency General Washington."

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and, together with copies of the Resolutions above-mentioned, transmitted to the General immediately.

A Letter from Captain Abraham Le Dieu,* of Westches-

*TARRYTOWN, August 8, 1776.

SIR: I would beg leave to represent to the honourable Convention for the State of New-York the disagreeable situation of part of the Regiment I belong to is in, for want of the complement of men to fill up the Regiment under Colonel Thomas. The Militia Companies, near this place in particular, are under the necessity of turning out to guard the shore against any inroads of the enemy, now in Hudson's River. The men under my command, as Captain of a Militia Company, think it very hard that they must turn out and do duty for Continental pay only, when those that are raised by a resolve of your Convention are entitled to a bounty, with Continental pay, &c.

As I, nor the officers under me, never have had any offers or orders to raise a Company to join Colonel Thomas's Regiment, think it my duty to give this information; and that I, and the men under me, think it hard, for the above-mentioned reasons, not to be put upon an equal footing with the Militia in the Second Regiment.

I think I could raise a Company in a short time, if I had orders for ter County, offering to raise a Company of Volunteers, as a part of Colonel Thomas's Regiment, was read and considered.

Thereupon, Resolved, That Captain Abraham Le Dieu be, and is hereby, authorized to raise one Company of Volunteers to serve in the Regiment of Militia of Westchester County, called into service and commanded by Colonel Thomas; and that so many of the said Company as do now belong to the Militia of Westchester County be considered as part of the number ordered to be raised by draughts from the respective Regiments of the said Militia to which they do belong.

And Ordered, That Lieutenant-Colonel Hamman and the Major of the said Regiment do determine on the Subalterns who shall be called into service in that Company, having regard to the rank of the Officers of the Regiment to which they belong, agreeable to the resolutions of this Convention for calling out part of that Regiment into actual service.

And Ordered, further, That the said Captain Le Dieu apply to Colonel Thomas for a proportion of bounty money for his men, and show him this copy of our Resolution; and that Captain Le Dieu join Colonel Thomas's Regiment with his said Company as soon as possible.

Friday Morning, August 9, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The Examination of Jacob Halsted,* of Orange County, Farmer, taken before A. H. Hay, Esq., the 7th August, that purpose; and, should the Convention be of opinion that it would be for the good of the State to order a Company raised to join the Regiment now in service, would beg the liberty of offering myself as Captain thereof, and that the subaltern officers under me may be appointed by Colonel Hamman and self. I should be very glad of an answer by the bearer; and am, sir, your humble servant, ABRAHAM LE DIEU.

To Brigadier-General Woodhull, at Harlem.

* The Examination of JACOB HALSTEED, of ORANGE County, Farmer.

The examinant saith: That he lived lately on the west bank of Hudson's River, near the Donderberg, on the south moiety of a farm bought by himself and Calcb Seaman, of James Lilly, until his house was burnt, in the manner hereinafter mentioned. That on the seventeenth of July last, a sloop passed his house to the Donderberg, and he went to drive off his cattle into the woods, and did not return till the sloop had gone down the river, when he learned from the said Seaman that a barge had been ashore, and carried off one of the examinant's calves, which he believes to be true, because on going to the place where he understood they landed, he found several musket cartridges, and ever since has not been able to discover the calf. That the next day he observed one of the ships-of-war (the smallest of the two) and a schooner anchor in the river, nearly opposite to his house; that two boats came off from the ship-of-war, and landed a little above his house, upon which he retired to the distance of about three hundred yards to the side of the mountain, out of sight of his house; that he heard a knocking at his house, and directions to the men who had the care of the barges to come along, for there was nobody there, upon which the examinant fired upon the barges; that the company then ran from the house to the barges, some up to their waists in the water, and rowed off till the schooner came more in shore, and then three barges came on shore, appearing to be fuller of men, to the southward of the house about two hundred yards, where he observed them shoot several hogs; that some of the company went to his house, and soon after the examinant discovered his house on fire; upon which he retired to take care of his children at Stephen Parr's, a mile off, leaving the crews on shore at his departure. That he has since missed nine of his hogs; that he had removed some of his effects before the burning of his house, but he has lost, besides the house, which was totally consumed, as well as he can recollect, a cuphoard that cost three pounds; a case, with bottles, that cost twelve shillings; an old one, with two bottles in, and some deeds, bonds, and writings in it; six common sitting straw-bottomed chairs, a churn, two pails, a flax hatchel that cost ten shillings, two half-worn saddles, two or three pounds of flax, two or three pounds of wool, an iron pot, five bushels of Indian corn, three bushels of salt, a linen and a woollen spinning-wheel, with a quantity of lumber, such as barrels, and some stockings and cloths. That the house was a framed one, of about thirty 1776, wherein he gives a particular account of the burning of his house near the Donderberg, by some of the crew belonging to the ships-of-war now in Hudson's River.

Ordered, To be filed, and lie on the table.

The Petition of James Cargill,* Saltpetre maker, praying to be exempted from military duty. Referred to the Committee appointed to consider and report what Manufacturers ought to be exempted from military duty.

The Report of the Committee appointed to take into consideration and report on the Letters from Cornelius C. Roosevelt and Captain Hamilton, was read.

Whereupon the Convention came to the following Resolutions:

Resolved, unanimously, That the Company of Artillery formerly raised by Captain Hamilton, under the authority of this State, be, according to a resolution of the late Convention, of the 17th day of June last, considered as a part of the number ordered to be raised by the Continental Congress from the Militia of this State, and therefore that the said Company be, and hereby is, incorporated into General Scott's Brigade.

Resolved, unanimously, That Cornelius C. Roosevelt be allowed a reasonable compensation for the Beef and Pork which he has furnished to Captain Hamilton's Company of Artillery since the 27th day of June last, beyond the contract by him made with this Convention, and that such compensation be adjusted by the Auditor-General of this State, and that the said Cornelius C. Roosevelt do no longer supply the said Company with Provisions.

Ordered, That General Scott, Captain Hamilton, and Cornelius C. Roosevelt, be, each of them, furnished with a copy thereof.

Ordered, That Mr. Ogden, the Keeper of the Jail of Westchester County, furnish Rinier Van Housen and Henry Dawkins, now in his custody, with Provisions for their subsistence, and that he be allowed 14*d.* per day for each of them till further order.

Sundry Resolutions, relative to persons who have or may hereafter join or assist the Army or Navy of Great Britain, were moved by Mr. Duer, and read.

Ordered, That the same be taken into consideration to-morrow morning.

Mr. Robert R. Livingston, according to order, reported the draft of a Letter to General Washington, which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: We received your Excellency's favours of yesterday, and have, agreeable to your request, made out General Clinton's appointment.

"As your Excellency seemed to think the Militia necessary, and had accordingly called them out, both from this and the New-England States, we, upon finding that they served with great reluctance at this busy season of the year, and were constantly quitting their posts to return to their farms, raised troops at great expense, in order to supply their place, conceiving that they would be considered in the same point of view, and entitled (agreeable to the resolutions of Congress with respect to the Militia called out in time of actual invasion) to Continental pay and subsistence. If in feet long and twenty wide, with four sash windows, a few of which were broken. That he thinks he can't get such another house for less than a hundred and fifty pounds; and the value of the rest of his loss he estimates at twenty pounds more. That the examinant has no estate but that farm, a few household goods saved by concealment, and outstanding debts of about twenty pounds. That he has one blind eye, occasioned by an indisposition in his head, with which he is still affected; sees badly with the other; is forty-one years old, and has nine children, one of whom is a soldier in Captain Blauvelt's Company, of General Scott's Brigade. That he and his family would now be out of doors, if they were not taken in by their friends.

JACOB HALSTED.

Sworn before me this 7th day of August, 1776. A. HAWKES HAY.

This is to certify, that the bearer, Jacob Halsted, is the person who had his house burnt by Captain Wallis, and from the character he bears, credit may be given to his deposition, and that he has always been friendly to the American cause.

GILBT. COOPER, Colonel.

*The Petition of James Cargill humbly sheweth: That your petitioner finds the tending of military duty greatly breaks in on his time of manufacturing saltpetre, which he is beginning in Orange County, and therefore would humbly entreat this honourable body to clear him of all such duty, that he may properly attend the above business without losing so much time; and your petitioner shall ever pray. JAMES CARGILL.

this we have been mistaken, we only lament the error so far as it may have given your Excellency some trouble, since no pecuniary consideration shall make us relax those measures that are necessary to add strength to the great cause in which we are now engaged. We shall, therefore, retain the levies in our pay, subjecting them, however, implicitly to your Excellency's command, till you shall think them unnecessary. In the mean while, the duty we owe our constituents, obliges us to request that your Excellency will be pleased to hint the utility of this measure to the Congress, in which case we dare safely rely upon their justice for reimbursing our expenses, except as to the bounty, for which, considerable as it is, we expect no compensation. In order to avoid the confusion that will arise from the appointment of officers who may afterwards be removed, if our levies should be placed on the Continental establishment, we shall appoint, as Commissaries, the persons Colonel Trumbull nominated, especially as their characters are unexceptionable; and we beg that he will take the direction of them till we are informed by Congress of the light in which they are to be considered.

"We consider the order mentioned in your letter as an additional proof of that attention to the members of this Convention which your Excellency has before so frequently manifested, and which they conceive themselves bound gratefully to acknowledge. We see in the same point of view the communication of that interesting intelligence received from the deserters.

"It is our great misfortune that at this important crisis this State is unable to make those exertions which the cause of America requires. From the disaffection of some amongst us; from the want of arms; from the exposed situation of Long-Island and our frontiers; from the possession of one County by the enemy, and the probability of our being soon called upon to reinforce the Northern Army, we are unable to add much strength to the troops under your Excellency's command, being, by the several reasons above-mentioned, deprived of the assistance of nine Counties out of fourteen which compose this State. Notwithstanding all these difficulties, we are determined to combat every obstacle and to strain every nerve in defence of the rights and liberties of America, which we conceive to be most materially interested in the safety of this State. By our resolution for ordering the several draughts made in the Counties of Suffolk, Queen's, King's, Westchester, Dutchess, Ulster, and Orange, to the environs of New-York, we hope in about six days to add near three thousand men to your Army. We lament exceedingly that we should have occasion to complain of the languid efforts which the neighbouring States have made for our assistance. From the zeal they professed for the publick cause, from the vicinity of some of them to this invaded country, and from the dangerous situation in which Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Jersey must be in, should the enemy succeed in their designs against this State, we expect the most strenuous and expeditious exertions. How great our concern at finding so considerable deficiency in the establishment for this Army, your Excellency may easily judge from the feelings of a patriotick bosom on the importance of the cause and the dangers to which it is by this means exposed. We flatter ourselves, however, that this supineness will not be of any duration, and that the Continental Congress will devise means of affording the most expeditious and effectual assistance to preserve a State, the loss of which, from its geographical situation and the political character of too many of its inhabitants, would be almost fatal to the cause of American liberty.

"We have the honour to be, with great esteem and regard, your Excellency's most obedient servants.

"By order."

The Convention resumed the consideration of the Resolutions which were debated this morning, and adjourned over, and the same being agreed to, are in the words following, to wit:

Resolved, That one-fifth part of the Militia of the County of Albany be immediately draughted, and marched with the utmost expedition to the encampment to the northward of King's Bridge, to continue in service one month after their arrival at the said encampment, unless sooner discharged, and that the officers commanding this reinforcement be appointed by the Brigadier-General or Commander-in-Chief of the Militia of that Brigade, who is desired to pay all proper attention to the rank of the respective officers.

Resolved, That one-half of the Militia of King's and Queen's Counties be immediately ordered to march and put themselves under the command of the officer commanding the Continental Troops on Nassau-Island, to be continued in service until the 1st day of September next, unless sooner discharged by order of this Convention.

Resolved, That the above levies be formed into Companies, to consist of one Captain, two Lieutenants, three Sergeants, three Corporals, one Drummer, one Fifer, and fifty Privates; and that the Captains and Subalterns be appointed by the Field-Officers of each Regiment of the Militia from which the quotas are to be raised, out of the Militia officers, having, in such appointments, regard to their rank and the dates of their commissions, if a sufficient number of such are willing to serve; if not, that they be at liberty to appoint such others as they may think properly qualified, and that the non-commissioned officers be appointed by the Captains of each Company under whom they are to serve.

Resolved, That those Troops to be raised in the County of Albany shall be under the command of one Colonel, one Lieutenant-Colonel, and one Major, and have one Adjutant, one Quartermaster, and one Surgeon. The Field-Officers of the levies to be raised in the County of Albany to be appointed by the Brigadier-General and the County Committee of the said County. The Troops or levies to be raised in King's and Queen's Counties to be formed into one Regiment, under the command of one Colonel, one Lieutenant-Colonel and one Major, and have one Adjutant and one Quartermaster. The Field-Officers of those to be raised in the Counties of King's and Queen's to be appointed by this Convention, and the Adjutant and Quartermaster of each Regiment to be appointed by the Colonel of such Regiment.

Resolved, That each man be furnished with a good Musket or Firelock, Bayonet or Tomahawk, a Blanket and Knapsack, and every six men with a Pot or Camp-Kettle. And to the intent that the levies so raised may not be unfurnished with Arms, the Committees in the different Townships and Districts in the said Counties, and the Colonels of the Regiments, are hereby empowered to furnish all such as have no Arms, by taking them from those who are not draughted, and such other persons in the Districts as have Arms, the same being valued by the Committees of each District, the amount of such valuation hereafter to be paid to the proprietors of said Arms by this Convention, or the Arms restored in the same order to their former proprietors, and that one penny per mile be allowed during their march for subsistence money, and one day's pay for every twenty miles between home and rendezvous, going and coming.

Resolved, That the officers and men who compose this Regiment shall receive Continental pay and rations during the time they are in service, agreeable to their several ranks.

Resolved, That the Resolutions of this Convention relative to calling out every fifth man from the Militia of the County of Albany, be submitted to General Washington, and if he shall think them necessary, be sent to the Brigadier-General of the County of Albany by express.

Resolved, That General Morris be desired to order out the whole Brigade, with five days' provisions, to take possession of such parts of the Sound and Hudson's River as he thinks most exposed to the enemy; and that the said Militia continue in service, and under Continental pay and subsistence, for ten days, unless sooner discharged by this Convention; that each man who shall not have arms, bring with him a shovel, spade, or pickaxe, or a scythe, straightened, and fixed on a pole.

Resolved, That General Clinton be empowered to call in such part of his forces as he may think necessary to reinforce the post to the northward of King's Bridge.

Resolved, That General Morris be ordered immediately to apprehend and secure the persons ordered to be apprehended by this Convention yesterday, and that he be furnished with a list of these persons' names.

Resolved, That the Commanding Officer of the Militia in the Counties of Orange, Dutchess, and Ulster, be immediately ordered to lead their whole Militia in readiness to march, with five days' provisions, on the earliest notice; and that when they march, they leave a sufficient guard to prevent insurrections of slaves, and to guard the prisoners in the respective Counties.

Resolved, unanimously, That whenever the whole Militia of any County in this State shall be ordered to march, that they bring with them all the disarmed and disaffected male inhabitants from sixteen to fifty-five years of age, who shall serve as fatigue-men to the respective Regiments.

Resolved, That whenever the whole or any part of the Militia of this State shall be ordered out on actual service by this Convention or any future Legislature of the State, and any Colonel, or other commanding officer of a Regiment, or any Captain, or other commanding officer of a Company, shall neglect or refuse to comply with such orders, the Brigadier-General of the Brigade to which such officer shall belong, shall immediately suspend him from his office, and with all convenient speed order a General Court-Martial for his trial; and he being thereof duly convicted before such Court by the oath or affirmation of two or more credible witnesses, shall be cashiered and rendered incapable of thereafter holding any military office within this State.

Resolved, That when any man who shall have been draughted in pursuance of the orders of this Convention, shall absent himself and neglect to appear, after being duly notified, the Field-Officer of the Regiment to which such offender shall belong, shall, upon due proof of the same, by the oath or affirmation of two or more credible witnesses, raise from the estate of the offender, by distress and sale, so much money as shall be sufficient to hire a man to serve in his stead, and apply the same to that purpose, provided the same shall not exceed the sum of £30, and provided, also, that nothing in this resolution shall be construed to excuse the said absentees from serving with the other draughts from the Militia.

Resolved, That if any Militia officer in the service of this State shall, during the present invasion, resign his commission, after having received orders to proceed upon duty from this Convention or his superior officer, without the permission of the Convention of this State, or shall not repair with all possible despatch to such place or places as he or they may be ordered by the Convention of this State or by his superior officer, shall, upon good proof before a General Court-Martial, be rendered incapable of hereafter holding any military employment under this State; and that the name of such officer shall be held up in all the publick newspapers as a deserter of his country's cause.

Ordered, That the foregoing Resolves relative to the neglect of duty or resignation of Officers of the Militia, be published in the newspapers.

Resolved, That William Paulding, Esq., be, and he hereby is, appointed Commissary of the Militia raised and to be raised in this State to the northward of King's Bridge, while in service on the east side of Hudson's River, under the command of Brigadier-General Clinton. That he supply them with rations, agreeable to the Continental establishment, and that he make provision for continuing that supply; that he advise with Colonel Trumbull, the Commissary-General, on the mode of purchasing provisions and keeping his accounts, so that he may be enabled to keep his accounts in the same method with the Continental accounts of provisions, and that he take his future directions on this subject from Colonel Trumbull till further orders; and also that for this purpose he be, and hereby is, authorized to purchase, on the account of this State, any such provisions as may be necessary; for payment whereof, this Convention will provide means.

Thereupon, a draft of a Letter to Mr. Paulding was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: General Clinton has been appointed to command the levies lately raised and draughted, or to be draughted, from the Militia to the northward of King's Bridge, and is ordered, with the greatest part of his troops, to the fortifications a little to the northward of King's Bridge. You will see by the copy of the enclosed resolution, that you are appointed Commissary for those troops while in service on the east side of Hudson's River, under General Clinton's command, until further orders, and that you are to take your further directions on this head from Colonel Trumbull, the Commissary-General. We desire your immediate attendance to this business, and doubt not but you will exert your utmost endeavours to perform the same in the best manner.

"I am, sir, your very humble servant. By order.

"To William Paulding, Esq."

Ordered, That the same be (together with Mr. Paulding's appointment) copied, signed by the President, and transmitted.

Resolved, That Colonel Cortlandt and Captain Platt be empowered to act as Commissaries in supplying the Troops under the command of General Clinton with Provisions till Mr. Paulding, who is appointed Commissary, shall join those forces.

Resolved, That the first above-mentioned gentleman be empowered to purchase, on account of this State, six hundred barrels of Flour, and as many pine Boards as they can procure, not exceeding ten thousand—the Flour and Boards to be delivered as near to King's Bridge as possible by water carriage.

Resolved, That the same gentlemen be empowered to impress Wagons, Carts, &c., in order to enable them to carry into execution these Resolutions, paying a reasonable price for the same.

Resolved, That the above gentlemen transport, as quick as possible, fifteen hundred pounds weight of the Powder at Mr. Livingston's powder-mills, belonging to this State, to General Clinton's encampment at King's Bridge. For which purpose,

Resolved, That the order from General Washington, in favour of this Convention, on John Livingston, for fifteen hundred pounds weight of Powder, be endorsed by the President, ordering the said Powder to be delivered to Colonel Van Cortlandt and Captain Z. Platt, or their order.

An attack upon the City of New-York being daily expected, in which case the stores belonging to this State in the custody of Colonel Curtenius and Mr. Norwood will be in danger of being destroyed:

Therefore, Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius be, and he is hereby, directed to dispose of the Lead belonging to this State, and now in his possession, in the following manner, to wit: That he send thereof to Stamford, in Connecticut, twenty tons; to General Clinton's encampment, near King's Bridge, ten tons; and the residue thereof to Orange-Town, in Orange County; and that Colonel Curtenius send to General Clinton's encampment as many Bullet-Moulds and Ladles as Mr. Duer shall please to direct; and that Colonel Curtenius use the utmost despatch in executing this order.

And Ordered, That Mr. Norwood, the Commissary, cause to be conveyed to General Clinton's encampment, on the north side of King's Bridge, five hundred Pouches with Belts, sixty thousand Cartridges, of different sizes, filled with Powder and Ball, and five hundred Flints.

Whereas this Convention has received information that the inhabitants of King's County have determined not to oppose the enemy:

Resolved, unanimously, That a Committee be appointed to repair forthwith to the said County, and inquire concerning the authenticity of such report; and in case they find it well founded, that they be empowered to disarm and secure the disaffected inhabitants, to remove or destroy the stock of grain, and if they shall judge it necessary, to lay the whole County waste; and for the execution of these purposes they be directed to apply to General Greene, or the commander of the Continental Troops in that County, for such assistance as they shall want.

And Ordered, That Mr. Duer, Colonel Remsen, Mr. Hobart, and Colonel De Witt, be the Committee.

Resolved, That A. H. Hay, Esq., be appointed Commissary for the Militia raised and to be raised in this State to the northward of King's Bridge, while in service, on the west side of Hudson's River, below the Highlands, under the command of General Clinton; that he supply them with rations, agreeable to the Continental establishment; that he advise with Colonel Trumbull, the Commissary-General, on the mode of purchasing provisions and keeping his accounts, so that he may be enabled to keep his accounts in the same method with the Continental accounts of provisions, and that he take his future directions on this subject from Colonel Trumbull until further orders; and for this purpose Colonel Hay is hereby authorized to purchase on account of this State such provisions as he shall find necessary for the support of the said Militia while in service as aforesaid, for payment whereof this Convention will provide means.

Resolved, That from the information received by General Clinton of the business in which the Secret Committee are engaged, it will be improper to call Mr. Jay and Mr. Yates from that Committee.

Resolved, That Mr. Robert R. Livingston have leave of absence, in order to attend on that Committee.

Resolved and Ordered, That Colonel Jeromus Remsen, of Queen's County, Lieutenant-Colonel Nicholas Covenhoven, of King's County, and Major Richard Thorne, of Queen's County, be, and hereby are, appointed Field-Officers of the Militia ordered to be draughted from King's and Queen's Counties, and put under the command of the officer commanding the Continental Troops on Nassau-Island, pursuant to the Resolutions of the Convention of this State on the 10th instant.

Doctor John Morgan, Director-General of the Hospital, attending, was admitted. He informed the Convention that General Washington had directed him to have all the sick removed to proper places out of such parts of the City as are closely built and inhabited; that a list of houses had been handed to him for the purpose by private persons, but that as he is a stranger, and does not know what particular houses might be proper to be exempted, and therefore requests the directions of this Convention in the premises:

Resolved, That his Excellency General Washington be, and he is hereby, empowered to apply the following houses, to wit: Mr. Apthorpe's; Oliver Delancy's and Robert Bayard's, at Bloomingdale; William Bayard's, at Greenwich; Mr. Watts's, near Kepp's Bay; Robert Murray's, on Incklam Bergh; Mr. William McAdam's, and the houses and buildings occupied by Mr. Watson, near the old Glass-House; Nicholas Stuyvesant's; Peter Stuyvesant's; Mr. Elliot's; Mr. Horsemanden's, commonly called Frog Hall; Widow Leake's, near Kepp's Bay; for the use of the General Hospital of the American Army.

Ordered, That the General Committee of the City of New-York do, on application by Dr. John Morgan, Director-General of the Hospital of the Continental Army, appoint a proper Committee of their body to ascertain and designate to him such houses on Nassau-Island, to be by him used as a General Hospital, as he may from time to time have occasion of for that purpose.

A Petition or Memorial of Captain Jacobus Roos was read.* He therein complains that his late appointment to be one of the Captains of the detachments of Militia in Ulster County was superseded. The copy of that appointment, therein contained, was also read; and General Clinton, now present, gave some information to the Convention on that subject.

Resolved and Ordered, That Captain Jacobus Roos have leave to raise a Company for immediate service; that he may choose any two Lieutenants who have commissions in Colonel J. Hasbrouck's Regiment, of the Militia of Ulster County, and are desirous to go into service; that from time to time, as soon as he shall have enlisted two or more men, he send them to join the Troops at Peekskill, until further orders; that if he shall enlist and bring into the service a full Company, he shall be entitled to the like pay and the same rank in the Regiment as if he had raised a Company when he was first appointed.

* To the Honourable the Convention of the State of NEW-YORK, now convened in the Town of HARLEM.

GENTLEMEN: I am extremely sorry matters are so conducted in raising the new levies in Colonel Jonathan Hasbrouck's Regiment, in Ulster County, (in which Regiment I have the honour to command a Company,) that I am obliged and bound by the principles of honour to represent the state thereof to this honourable Convention, and pray they may take the same into consideration, and grant me such relief in the premises as to them shall seem meet; which is as follows, viz: That on the evening of the 24th of July, I received notice to appear, on the morning of the next day, at ten o'clock, at the house of Colonel Hasbrouck. I then asked the messenger whether I should notify my subalterns to attend also; to which I was answered, no. Agreeable to the aforesaid notice, I did appear at the time and place already mentioned. On my appearance there I found it was for the purpose of arranging the officers to command the new levies aforementioned, and that neither Captain Rea nor Captain Tearpenning were there present, who were both superior to me in command in the Regiment; and have, since that time, had such information as will amount to full proof that neither of the aforesaid gentlemen had any notice thereof. I being next in rank in the Regiment to these gentlemen, I was appointed by Colonel Hasbrouck, Major Jansen, and Major Dubois, (which will more fully appear to this honourable House by the enclosed copy of a certificate from the aforesaid gentlemen,) to be a Captain, to command one of the companies. On my return home I found great uneasiness prevailing among my subalterns, as also among sundry other officers belonging to the Regiment; complaining loudly that they were unfairly dealt with, not being notified of the arrangement aforesaid, and sundry persons being appointed over them; particularly Lieutenants who never had any commission, either civil or military. However, I, from a due sense of the importance of the matter, immediately proceeded to raising the men, but found such difficulties as could not possibly be surmounted without absolutely proceeding in a draught; which appeared to be wholly owing to the appointment of Lieutenants who had never been their choice. All this happened on the 2d instant, August. Immediately on this, there was an express despatched from Lieutenant-Colonel Jansen to Brigadier-General Clinton, then at Fort Montgomery, informing him of the bad success we had in raising men; to which the General answered that it was out of his power to remedy the matter; also, that if the Field-Officers had committed an error, they only must rectify it, in the best manner they could. The express who went to General Clinton met with Colonel Hasbrouck, at Fort Montgomery, who then wrote a letter to Major Jansen, informing him that he (Colonel Hasbrouck) was informed the principal objection the men had to turning out as volunteers was, their objection to me being appointed a Captain; which I believe to be an absolute falsehood. The only reason, (as before mentioned,) by all that I could learn among the men, was, that their own officers had no chance; which they thought was their indubitable right, agreeable to the resolves of the State of New-

A Letter from General Washington, dated the 11th instant, relative to Troops called out, was read, and is as follows, to wit:

"New-York, August 11, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: In answer to your favour of the 9th, with which I have been honoured, I beg leave to inform you that I neither wish or expect anything more than that the levies raised by you will be in Continental pay from the time they were called into service; that troops employed in a general cause should be supported at the general expense, is so evidently just, that I cannot see any objection to it. It is true, when the proceedings of your honourable body for raising those levies were first communicated to me, and it was mentioned by the Committee who brought them, that it was expected they would be paid by the States, I did not conceive myself authorized to take into service so large a number of men, and therefore could not say the States would pay them. But the situation of our affairs being much changed and requiring their service, I cannot but consider them as much entitled to Continental pay as any troops in this Army. In this light I am persuaded Congress will view them. It is so obvious and so equitable, that no application from me can be necessary. The bounty, I imagine, as you yourselves do, will be the expense of the State, for which indemnification will not be made by the publick. My letter of the 8th was not meant to comprehend this subject, it was particularly designed to explain my ideas of the authority from whence General Clinton's powers were derived.

"I have requested Mr. Trumbull to take the direction of the Commissaries, and to see that the levies are properly supplied with provisions. I am extremely concerned that the quotas of men to be furnished by the neighbouring States have proved so deficient. The busy season and harvest, to which it has been ascribed, being now over in a great degree, I flatter myself, from the zeal they have heretofore manifested, they will afford every possible assistance. They are well apprized of the importance of this State in the present contest, and the necessity of maintaining it against the attempts of the enemy.

"In respect to the Militia of Albany County, as you are pleased in your proceedings of the 10th instant to submit the propriety of calling them out to my determination, I would advise that they should not, unless the necessity for bringing them here should be extremely great. They otherwise should remain in their County, to afford succour to the frontier parts of the Government, if it should be necessary.

"I have enclosed a copy of Lieutenant McMichael's report transmitted me by General Schuyler, from whence it will York. In this letter from Colonel Hasbrouck to Major Jansen, he desired the said Major Jansen should call the five Companies in that quarter together, and consult the officers of said Companies, and raise the men in the best manner they could. On which Major Jansen called the Companies together, accordingly, on the 6th of August, and made an offer to all the Captains of said Companies who choose to turn out, and try their success in raising men, promising at the same time the Captain who should raise the most volunteers should be the officer who should have the command; to which measure I was opposed, as being, in my opinion, contrary to the resolves of the Convention of the State of New-York, and my appointment in consequence thereof; therefore would not submit the matter. However, my remonstrance in this particular did not succeed, being answered by Major Jansen that he was not bound by the resolves of the State, and acted as he thought proper in the affair. On this, about twenty-six men turned out under Captain John Graham, three of which number formerly turned out under me. After which some of the aforesaid companies were obliged to draught the men, and as yet I do not know whether the whole is completed.

Now, gentlemen, you'll easily perceive, by the above narrative, how inconsistent the conduct of my Field-Officers hath been with your resolves. I humbly conceive that if the whole of the men could not be obtained as volunteers, but that a part must be draughted, with equal propriety the whole might, to be put under me; but there was no necessity for this, more than in the other case, as I had enlisted ten men, and had a number more promised to enlist, and am full of the opinion that the grand obstacle was owing to the appointment of Lieutenants, as before recited. To make you, gentlemen, clear in this matter, you must understand that the Colonel's son is one of them whom he hath long been anxious about getting into commission; another is a brother-in-law to Major Dubois, and Major Jansen's cousin, and the third is a cousin to Col. Hasbrouck.

Gentlemen, in this matter I view my reputation and honour as sensibly touched, therefore pray that in your great wisdom you'll be favourably pleased to grant me such relief in the premises as to you shall seem meet. And thereon I shall, as in duty bound, forever pray.

SHAWANGONK PRECINCT, August 7, 1776.

JACOBUS ROOS.

This is to certify, to whom it may come, that Captain Jacobus Roos, Lieutenant Johannis Jansen, and Lieutenant Johannis Bruyn, are appointed as officers, agreeable to a resolve of Provincial Congress, dated July the 16th, 1776. In witness whereof, we, the Field-Officers of Colonel Hasbrouck's Regiment, have hereunto set our hands.

JONATHAN HASBROUCK, Colonel.
JOHANNIS JANSSEN, Major.
LEWIS DUBOIS, Major.

At NEWBURGH, this 25th day of July, 1776.

appear, if the intelligence contained in it be true, that their aid may be required there.

"I have desired General Greene, on the application of the Committee sent to King's County, to afford them any assistance he conveniently can for executing the business they are upon.

"Before I conclude I would observe, the letter of the 9th, which I acknowledged to have received, is without any signature; I presume it has been omitted through the hurry of business.

"I have the honour to be, with great respect, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,
Go. WASHINGTON."

The Intelligence of Lieutenant McMichael was read, and is as follows:

Intelligence brought from Oswego by Lieut. McMICHAE.

"Was informed at Oswego that three Regiments of Ministerial troops had arrived at Oswego Lake, at which place they were joined by a number of Tories and Indians, under the command of Colonel Johnson, and was to embark immediately on board two armed vessels, batteaus, and canoes, and proceed to Oswego, at which place they were to be joined by Colonel Butler, with all the Indians under his command, and likewise by Colonel Caldwell, with what Regulars could be spared from Niagara. They intend repairing Oswego fort as quick as possible, in order that they might hold a treaty with the Indians, and be able to defend themselves against any attack; immediately after the treaty, they are to march with all their forces against Fort Stanwix and the German Flatts, at the latter of which places they intend to fortify at Johnstown, and to secure all the provisions they can. Was likewise informed that the main army, under the command of General Burgoyne, was marching to Crown-Point and Ticonderoga, to besiege those places. Was further informed that an Indian man, named Thomas Davis, was sent from Niagara by Colonel Butler (as a spy) to the German Flatts, and he is to inform said Butler of the particulars that pass at the German Flatts during the treaty. This intelligence came from a person that resides at Oswego that was a Sergeant in the Regulars last war, and likewise from a party of Indians which I conversed with, that had left Colonel Johnston four days before, and had come as spies.

"EDWARD McMICHAE."

A Letter from his Excellency General Washington, dated the 12th instant, relative to his having apprehended dangerous and disaffected persons, was received and read, and is as follows, viz:

"Head-Quarters, New-York, August 12, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: As the time is certainly near at hand, and may be hourly expected, which is to decide the fate of this City and the issue of this campaign, I thought it highly improper that persons of suspected character should remain in places where their opportunities of doing mischief were much greater than in the enemy's camp; I therefore have caused a number of them to be apprehended and removed to some distance, there to remain until this crisis is passed. Having formerly mentioned this subject to your honourable body, I would not again trouble them in a business which former connections, obligations, and interests, must make very unpleasant, and which, I apprehend, must have been in danger of failing in the execution, unless done with all possible secrecy and despatch. I postponed this most disagreeable duty till the last moment; but the claims of the Army upon me, an application from a number of well-affected inhabitants concurring with my own opinion, oblige me to enter upon it while time and circumstances would admit. I have ordered a very strict attention to be paid to the necessities of the gentlemen apprehended, and to their comfortable accommodation in every respect, both here and at the places of their destination. I have also wrote to the Committee of Queen's County that this step is not to be construed as making their property liable to any injury or appropriation, unless they should receive directions from your honourable body, to whom I have referred them on this subject, being resolved, in all cases where the most absolute necessity does not require it, to confine myself wholly to that line which will exclude every idea of interfering with the authority of the State. Some of those gentlemen have expressed doubts and raised difficulties from engagements they lay under to your honourable body, or some Committees. They do not appear to me to deserve much attention, as they cannot with any propriety be charged with a breach of any part under their present circumstances; but I beg leave to submit to your consideration the propriety of removing the pretence.

"I am, gentlemen, with great respect and regard, your most obedient and very humble servant,

"Go. WASHINGTON.

"To the Convention of the State of New-York."

The Convention, having taken the said Letter into consideration, came to the following determination, that is to say:

Whereas certain Members of the Convention, by authority from the same, did take the parole of sundry persons, inhabitants of this State; and whereas his Excellency General Washington hath since found it necessary to cause some of the said persons to be made prisoners:

Therefore, Resolved, unanimously, That the said several Paroles be, and they hereby are, declared totally void as to any obligations thereby laid upon those who have been, since the giving of the said Parole, made prisoners as aforesaid.

Ordered, That a certified copy of the preceding Resolution be enclosed to his Excellency General Washington.

A Letter from Brigadier-General Scott to the Convention, dated this day, was read and filed. He therein submits to their determination whether it might not be the most politic, considering Willett Taylor's connection with a large family of well-attached warm Whigs, to accept of such security as he offers, to wit: his voluntary oath that he will not, directly or indirectly, injure the American cause, or communicate any intelligence to the enemy; and a security in a heavy penalty from himself and John Bogert.

Thereupon, Resolved, That General Scott be empowered, with the permission of his Excellency General Washington, to dispose of Willett Taylor, Esq., within this State.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, was read and approved, and is in the words following, viz:

"Tuesday, A. M., August 13, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention to return their thanks to your Excellency for the attention you have paid to the removal of suspicious and dangerous persons from the environs of the City of New-York. Deeply sensible, with your Excellency, of the importance and necessity of this measure, the Convention had entered into a resolution for that purpose previous to their arrival at this place; but the difficulty of preparing proper lists, the danger of giving the alarm to some by the apprehension of others, and the dilatoriness of proceedings inseparable from a large body, together with the great urgency of our other publick affairs, delayed the completion of this business until your Excellency had taken it under your immediate cognizance.

"The delicate state of the present juncture did, in the opinion of this Convention, from the nature of the case, fully vest your Excellency with all the civil power necessary for the immediate safety of the Army under your command, and consequently of the American cause; and considering the great divisions which have prevailed among the inhabitants of the State of New-York, by sparing this House that disagreeable task, you have conferred upon them a considerable obligation.

"The Convention, sir, are at a loss to conceive on what foundation those gentlemen who had given their paroles to a Committee of this House could assume the opinion that any danger would, after their caption, result from it, since evidently the parole is by that effectually destroyed; but as doubts may remain in their minds, a resolution is enclosed to your Excellency, which, when you shall have made it known to them, must certainly obliterate all their scruples.

"I am further directed to inform your Excellency that the intelligence with which you have honoured them from the Northern Department fully convinces them of the propriety of preserving as much force as possible in the upper Counties, at the same time we hope that the assistance given to us by the neighbouring States will be sufficient to defeat the designs of our foes in this quarter.

"General Clinton will give your Excellency full information with respect to the troops under his command, seven hundred of which are now at the fort to the northward of King's Bridge, and more of them would have been there if the essential service of depriving the enemy of water did not demand considerable detachments along the banks of Hudson's River.

"The Convention are very happy that your Excellency hath attributed to its proper cause the omission of a signature to the letter which we had the honour of writing to you on the 9th instant. The fault lay with the Secretaries, who, in a great hurry of business, neglected the presenting of it to the President, for which we must pray your Excellency's excuse.

"I am further directed to enclose you the copy of a letter from General Scott, with relation to one of the prisoners who hath lately been taken by your order, and the copy of our resolution upon that subject.

"I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servant.

"By order.

"To his Excellency General Washington, &c."

Ordered, That a copy of the said Letter be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted.

A Letter from Colonel Blauvelt,* of the south side of the Mountains, in Orange County, mentioning the exposed situation of that part of the County, and requesting aid, was received and read.

Thereupon General George Clinton informed the Convention, in substance, that there are at King's Bridge, and from thence to Croton River, fourteen Companies, consisting of about seven hundred men, officers included, besides some of the Westchester Militia; that he has been informed and believes that the men-of-war are scarce of water, having no more than a supply for ten days; that it is therefore necessary to keep a vigilant and numerous guard, so as to prevent their obtaining a supply of fresh water; that he has left about three hundred men, besides a few of the new Continental troops raised in this State, on and along the shores near Tappan, three hundred to guard the Eastern-Shore, and near two hundred at Peckskill, but the last mostly unarmed; that he expects his Brigade will consist of about seventeen hundred men; that he finds he can expect but few men from Westchester County; that he has ordered in the Troops of Horse from Kingston and Blooming-Grove, and directed Colonel Cooper to order one of those Troops to King's Bridge as soon as they arrive at Tappan. General Clinton also requested to be informed how his Brigade will be supplied with ammunition, tents, and provisions. General Clinton was then informed of the resolution of this Convention, of the 10th instant, appointing Commissaries, &c., and ammunition shall be sent to him.

Ordered, That Mr. Outwater inform Colonel Blauvelt of the measures taken by General Clinton for the security of Orange County.

Major Lawrence informed the Convention that the Letter from Governour Tryon to Willett, the Sheriff of Queen's County, was conveyed through the hands of Colonel Martin, and that the inhabitants of Queen's are satisfied that Colonel Martin, and his son Dr. Martin, should be apprehended.

*ORANGETOWN, August 10, 1776.

SIR: Some days since I received a copy of the resolutions of your House for drawing out a fourth part of the Militia of the Counties of Westchester, Dutchess, Ulster, and Orange, for the defence of this country. Whereupon, I immediately gave orders to the Captains of this Battalion to call their Companies together, and endeavour to get their proportion, which was immediately complied with; and though the officers have made repeated trials, they have not been able to furnish their quota. The men, it seems, would not be unwilling to enlist, if they knew that they would have to guard their own shore, until an attack should be made somewhere else in this State, and then to march to the assistance of the place attacked. It may not be amiss to inform you that I have but about one hundred privates left in my Battalion, and am obliged to guard the shore for about seven miles, to prevent those from on board the British shore-war from landing in this place, which duty keeps about the one-half of my Battalion in constant motion. Indeed, they have not time to take the necessary care of their farms. One of the Companies that was raised in the northern part of this County has been a day or two among us; but it is now ordered to King's Bridge. Should we be obliged to raise our quota, and have them taken away, we shall not only find it difficult to get grain in the ground, but shall also be too weak to prevent the enemy from landing. This much I have thought it my duty to say, that the honourable Convention might know the situation; and if it is fully considered, I think no one will be surprised to find our men backward in enlisting, as no one who has the feelings of a man would choose to leave his parents, his wife, and his children, exposed to the fury of a cruel enemy. But if, after all that has been said, the Convention should be of opinion that I must raise or draw out the quarter part of my Battalion, I shall readily obey orders, let the consequence be what it will. Only beg that I may be informed how to proceed, where volunteers do not offer; for I am at a loss what construction to put upon some paragraphs in the resolution.

I am, sir, your very humble servant,

JOHANNIS D. BLAUVELT, Colonel.

To Brigadier-General Woodhull, President of the honourable Convention of the State of New-York.

Richard Norwood, Commissary of Arms, &c., for this State, made returns of the stores in his custody, which was read.

Therefore, Ordered, That Mr. Richard Norwood, Commissary, deliver so many of the Arms fit for use now in his store, or which he first may obtain, to Captain James Stewart, as will be sufficient to arm the men enlisted in his Company.

The Convention were informed that one Burga is brought here a prisoner from Long-Island.

Ordered, That Mr. Landon and Judge Graham be a Committee to take his examination, and report the same.

Resolved, That the President of this Convention, with so many of the Members as may be able to assemble immediately, be, and they hereby are, empowered, in case of urgent necessity, to cause the Treasury and publick Papers of this State to be removed to such place of safety as they may think proper.

Die Martis, 5 ho. P. M., August 13, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Also, excepting those of one-sixteenth of a dollar, which shall be in form following:

And that on the face of the Bills of the last-mentioned denomination of the one-sixteenth of a dollar, be impressed the Arms of the City of New-York; and underneath, the words "'Tis death to counterfeit," together with such other devices as Isaac Roosevelt, Esq., hereby appointed for that purpose, shall direct.

That all the said Bills shall be numbered by and signed by any two of them, the said signers, respectively, to be delivered by them to the said Isaac Roosevelt, and to be by him delivered to the Treasurer of this State as soon as finished.

Resolved, That the said Isaac Roosevelt be, and he is hereby, directed and requested, upon the delivery of the said Bills to him by the Printer of the same, to cause to be administered to him, by the President of this Convention, the following Oath:

"I, A B, do solemnly swear, by the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, that from the time that the letters were set and fit to be put in the press for printing the Bills of Credit now by me delivered to you, until the Bills were printed and the letters afterwards distributed into the boxes, I went at no time out of the room in which the said letters were, without locking them up so that they could not be come at without violence or a false key, or other art unknown to me; and therefore to the best of my knowledge no copies were printed off but in my presence, and that all the blotters and other papers whatsoever impressed by the said letters whilst set for printing the said Bills, to the best of my knowledge were here delivered to you, together with the stamps; and in all things relating to this affair I have demeaned myself honestly and faithfully to the best of my knowledge and understanding. So help me God."

Resolved, That such person as the said Isaac Roosevelt shall agree with to alter and engrave the said plates shall take the following oath:

"I, A B, do solemnly swear, by the Almighty God, that I have not engraved or altered more plates than I delivered to Isaac Roosevelt, as directed by this Convention of New-York, of the like kind, or in imitation of the same, neither have I kept a copy or copies, draft or drafts of the said plates, neither will I engrave more of the like kind, without the order of the Convention of the Representatives of this State."

And shall deliver them to the said Isaac Roosevelt, who shall deliver them unto Samuel Lowden, Printer, or such other Printer as shall be directed by this Convention, and take his receipt for the same; and when the said Samuel Lowden, or such other Printer as shall be employed, has completed and finished the printing the quantity and sorts of Bills hereby directed to be struck, he shall redeliver the said stamps to the said I. Roosevelt, which shall be sealed with the several seals of the said Isaac Roosevelt and the President of the Convention of this State, and deposited in the office of the Secretary of this Convention, until the further order of this or some future Convention or Legislature of this State; the receipt of the said Isaac Roosevelt to the said Samuel Lowden, or such other Printer, shall be a sufficient voucher for such delivery.

Resolved, That the publick faith of this State be pledged for the redemption of the said Bills of Credit, and that this Convention, or some future Legislature of this State, will make effectual provision for that purpose.

Resolved, That if any of the inhabitants of this State shall, after the 1st day of November next, within or without this State, or any person whatsoever shall, within this State, after the said 1st of November, forge or counterfeit any of the Bills of Credit issued by the Continental Congress, by the Assembly or Convention of any of the United States, or alter the sum expressed in any of the said Bills of Credit, or shall offer or cause to be offered in payment any such counterfeit, forged, or altered Bill of Credit, knowing the same to be counterfeit, forged, or altered, and shall be thereof convicted by a petit jury, after a presentment by a grand

Mr. Wisner, appointed to inquire into the state and quantity of Military stores in the City belonging to this State, and of a proper place of safety to which they may be sent, made his Report.

Ordered, To remain till further inquiry may be made.

Mr. Landon, according to order, reported the examination of Burga,* taken by Judge Graham and himself, wherein the examinant states that Captain Samuel Hallet, of Queen's County, his son Joseph Hallet, John Greenock, Jun., Samuel Ryder, and a negro of Captain Hallet, went, on the 9th, from the mill of Mr. Vandeveere to Barren-Island, in Jamaica Bay, and from thence to the British, on Staten-Island, where they yet remain, was read and filed.

Whereas certain Members of this Convention, by authority from the same, did take the parole of sundry persons, inhabitants of this State; and whereas his Excellency General Washington hath since found it necessary to cause some of the said persons to be made prisoners:

Resolved, therefore, unanimously, That the said several paroles be, and they hereby are, declared totally void, as to any obligations thereby laid upon those who have been since the giving the said paroles made prisoners as aforesaid.

A Letter from Colonel Jeromus Remsen, Jun., of Queen's

* Isaac Bragau, of Queen's County, being examined, says, that on Friday, the 9th instant, Captain Samuel Hubbel asked the examinant to go with him to Jamaica Bay a-clamming; that the day following, early in the morning, the examinant, together with Joseph Hallet, the son of Captain Hallet, John Greenock, Jun., Samuel Ryder, and a negro man belonging to Captain Hallet, went from the mill of Mrs. Vanderere to Barn-Island, in Jamaica Bay, where they arrived about twelve o'clock. About half an hour after, Captain Hallet called to a man fishing in a canoe, and desired him to take the examinant and Samuel Ryder to shore, and told the examinant that now was his time (Captain Hallet's meaning) to push; by which expression the examinant thought he meant to go to the fleet at Staten-Island, as Captain Hallet told the examinant the day before he would go there if he had an opportunity, and as he and the other three persons went out at the Gut, and have not since returned; but that Captain Hallet did not tell the examinant where he was going at that time; and that all the baggage Captain Hallet had with him was one loaf of bread, half pound butter, and a small piece of smoked beef.

Ordered, That a Commission issue to the said William Lawrence, as Captain, and that it be tested the 9th instant.

A Letter from Messrs. William Furrman, Joseph Robinson, and Samuel Riker, dated 10th instant, was read and filed.† They thereby inform that in pursuance of the order of this Convention of the 8th instant, to examine Nathaniel Mills, of Jamaica, and any other persons whom they should think necessary, respecting a Letter which passed through the hands of Mills to the late Sheriff of Queen's County, they had traced the said Letter down to Elizabeth Hicks, a young lady of Rockaway, as appears by the Examination therein enclosed; that the said Elizabeth Hicks refused to give her affirmation to what she had declared, or even to sign her name to her Examination.

The Examination of Nathaniel Mills, Caleb Mills, and Joshua Mills, and the notes of the Declaration of the said Elizabeth Hicks, were read and filed.‡

Ordered, That Messrs. William Furman, Joseph Robinson, and Samuel Riker, the Committee who examined Elizabeth Hicks, of Rockaway, respecting the Letter or paper which she acknowledged to have received and delivered to Joshua Mills on a first day, be, and hereby are, authorized and requested to cause the said Elizabeth Hicks to be apprehended and kept in safe custody until she discover on oath (or affirmation, if she is one of the people called Quakers) from whom she received the said paper, or subscribe a declaration on her oath or affirmation that she does not know or has not any reason to suspect of whom she received the same; and if the said Elizabeth Hicks shall refuse to make such discovery or to make and subscribe such declaration on oath or affirmation as aforesaid, that she be

SIR: By the enclosed you will see that Lieutenant William Lawrence is chosen Captain, in the room of Jonathan Lawrence, Esq., now Brigade Major, and also that he is recommended by the Committee of Newtown to the honourable Convention of the State of New-York for a commission; and as a Captain is much wanted in that Company at this time, I hope, for the good of the American cause, he will be speedily furnished with a commission. I am, sir, your very humble servant,

JEROMS. REMSEN, Jun., Colonel.

† JAMAICA, August 10, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We being appointed by your honourable House to examine Nathaniel Mills, of Jamaica, and any other person or persons which we should think necessary, respecting a letter which passed through the hands of Mills, directed to the Sheriff of Queen's County, which order we have executed to the best of our ability, and traced it down to Elizabeth Hicks, a young lady of Rockaway, as will appear by the several enclosed examinations. As our inquiry of course must stop there, we thought proper to require her affirmation on what she had declared, which she refused to comply with, or even sign her name to her examination. We are, gentlemen, with respect, your very humble servants,

WM. FURMAN,
JOSEPH ROBINSON,
SAML. RIKER.

To the Honourable the Representatives of the State of New-York.

‡ State of New-York } Examination taken, JAMAICA, August 9, 1776.
vs. NATHANIEL MILLS.

Examinant says he received of his son, Caleb Mills, a packet of letters, directed to Thomas Willett, Esq., Sheriff of Queen's County, and that he knew nothing of the contents thereof, and that he never conversed with confined in the Jail of Queen's County, there to remain until she make discovery or such declaration as aforesaid.

Whereas the manufacture of Saltpetre is highly worthy of publick encouragement, not only as it is an article immediately necessary for the defence and preservation of everything we hold dear, and may be hereafter of considerable importance to our commerce, but likewise as it is at all times the soundest policy and essential to the safety of a State never to be dependant upon foreign supplies, which are ever precarious, for the means of defence and self-preservation; and as the expiration of the time limited for the publick encouragement of the manufacture of that article in this State is so near at hand that no one is likely to be induced thereby to set up new works for that purpose:

Therefore, Resolved, That the Committee formerly appointed for encouraging the manufacture of Saltpetre in this State, and purchasing the same, and the members thereof, severally, be, and they hereby are, empowered and authorized to purchase, on account of this Convention, all well-refined Saltpetre made in this State that shall be offered to them for sale before the 1st day of July next, at the rate of six shillings per pound.

And that the said Committees and the members thereof, severally, be empowered to send, from time to time, the Saltpetre so purchased, by the most expeditious and safe conveyance, at the publick expense, to any manufacturer or manufacturers of Gunpowder in this State, his or their agent or agents, taking a receipt of the person to whom it shall be so sent for the quantity delivered; which receipt shall be a sufficient voucher to the Auditor-General of this State for passing and allowing their accounts.

And that such sum or sums of money be advanced to the said Committees from time to time as the Convention or Legislature of this State for the time being shall think necessary to enable them to execute the above Resolutions.

And that Henry Wisner, Henry Wisner, Jun., Henry Schenck, Peter R. Livingston, and Samuel Haviland, Esqs., be added to the Committees already appointed for encouraging the manufacture of Saltpetre, and purchasing the same in the Counties to which they respectively belong.

A Letter from Richard Peters, Esquire, Secretary to the Continental Board of War, dated at Philadelphia, the 6th instant, requesting a list of all the Prisoners of War now in this State, and also requesting a list of the Officers and Troops raised in this State, the dates of their commissions and times for which their men were enlisted, was read, and referred to Judge Graham and Mr. Tredwell.

Comfort Sands, Esq., the Auditor-General, communicated an Account of Mr. *Abraham Livingston of the number of Rations which, as Commissary, he had furnished to the Troops in the State of New-York; at the foot of which Account, there are a number of charges which he, the Auditor-General, does not think himself authorized to allow, without the direction of Congress, and praying that he may have some direction accordingly; which, being read, was the said Sheriff anything about the same; that he can't tell by what means the letter came amongst us. NATHANIEL MILLS.

State of New-York } Examination taken, JAMAICA, August 9, 1776.
vs. CALEB MILLS.

Examinant says he received the above letter of Joshua Mills, son of Amos Mills, of Hempstead, on Sunday, the 21st day of July last, and the same day delivered it to his father, not knowing anything of the contents of said letter, or from whence it came. CALEB MILLS.

State of New-York } Examination taken, HEMPSTEAD, August 9, 1776.
agt. JOSHUA MILLS, Jun.

The examinant saith that he received the letter above mentioned of Elizabeth Hicks on the highway; that he did not know the contents, and that it was only delivered to him with a request to forward it to the Sheriff. JOSHUA MILLS.

State of New-York } Examination taken, HEMPSTEAD, August 9, 1776.
agt. ELIZABETH HICKS.

The examinant says that a stranger gave a paper to her last first day a fortnight; whether there was anything wrote on the outside she does not know; that it was given to her with a request to give it to Nathaniel Mills; and further saith that she had not the least knowledge of the person that delivered it, from whence it came, nor by whom sent, nor nothing more relating to said paper.

* Mr. Abraham Livingston has lately delivered in an account of the number of Rations which he, as Commissary, furnished to the Troops in the State of New-York. At the foot of the account there are a number referred to a Committee, consisting of Colonel Broome and Mr. Bancker.

A Letter from Captain Alexander Hamilton, of the Artillery Company, informing that the First Lieutenant in his Company is vacant by the resignation of Lieutenant Johnson, and recommends a promotion of the inferior officers, was received and read, and is in the words following, that is to say:

“GENTLEMEN: It is necessary I should inform you that there is at present a vacancy in my Company, arising from the promotion of Lieutenant Johnson to a Captaincy in one of the row-galleys, (which command, however, he has since resigned for a very particular reason.) As Artillery officers are scarce, in proportion to the call for them, and as myself and my remaining officers sustain an extraordinary weight of duty on account of the present vacancy, I shall esteem it a favour if you will be pleased as soon as possible to make up my deficiency by a new appointment. It would be productive of much inconvenience should not the inferior officers succeed in course; and from this consideration, I doubt not you will think it proper to advance Mr. Gilliland and Mr. Bean, and fill up the Third Lieutenantcy with some other person. I would beg the liberty warmly to recommend to your attention Thomas Thompson, now First Sergeant in my Company, a man highly deserving of notice and preferment. He has discharged his duty in his present station with uncommon felicity, assiduity, and expertness. He is a very good disciplinarian, possesses the advantage of having seen a good deal of service in Germany, has a tolerable share of common sense, and is well calculated not to disgrace the rank of an officer and gentleman; in a word, I verily believe he will make an excellent Lieutenant, and his advancement will be a great encouragement and benefit to my Company in particular, and will be an animating example to all men of merit to whose knowledge it comes.

“Myself and my officers will be much obliged to the honourable Convention to favour us with our commissions with all convenient speed, as they may be highly requisite under some circumstances that may possibly hereafter arise.

“I am, with the utmost respect, gentlemen, your most obedient and most humble servant,
A. HAMILTON,
“Captain of New-York Artillery.

“To the Hon. the Convention of the State of New-York.
“August 12, 1776.”

Ordered, That Colonel Livingston call on Captain Hamilton and inquire into this matter, and report to this House.

A Letter from the Auditor-General,* requesting to know whether the publick are to pay Mr. Pettit (the Doorkeeper’s) board and diet, was read.

Resolved, That the charge brought against this Convention in Thomas Pettit’s account for his Board be disallowed, and that the Auditor-General be informed thereof.

SIR: Mr. Pettit, the Doorkeeper of the State, in his account brought in to me to audit, has charged for his board since he came from New-York, which I have not as yet allowed. Will you please to direct me whether I am to make an allowance for his board, and if so, how much.

To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New-York.

The Report of the Committee for exempting certain Manufacturers from military duty was read, amended, and agreed to, and is in the words following, that is to say:

As every possible encouragement ought to be given to such Manufacturers as are necessary to enable us to carry on our military operations with effect,

Therefore, Resolved, That the following persons be exempt from military duty in this State while actually employed in the several Manufactories hereafter mentioned, to wit: one Founder, two Keepers, one Stock-Jobber, one Moulder, two Fillers, one Ore-Burner, one Ore-Breaker, four Miners, and four master Colliers, at each Furnace for melting iron-ore into pigs and castings; two men at each fire, and two attendants to supply the same with coal, at every forge for making of bar-iron; two Firemen and one Coal-carrier to each fire at the several Steel Manufactories; ten Anchor-Makers, four Carriers, and one Bellows-Man to each bellows, at the Anchor-Forge in the County of Orange; the Master Workman and six Labourers at each Salt Works set up in this State by contract with this Convention; the Master Workman and two Attendants at each Paper Mill,* and the Master Workman or Overseer of each Powder-Mill, together with three Labourers to every twenty Mortars used in such Mills, and so in proportion when they exceed or fall short of that number. Provided, always, That the several proprietors of the above-mentioned works do give in a list of the names of all the persons at their respective works entitled to the benefit of this exemption, to the commanding officer of the district in which they reside, who shall keep a register thereof; and that no person be entitled to the benefit of such exemption until his name be so registered. Provided, also, That nothing in the above resolutions contained be construed to exempt any person from military duty, when, in case of alarm or invasion, the whole military force of the County in which they reside shall be called out into actual service.

Ordered, That the same be published in the newspapers.

A Letter from John Schenck, Secretary, to the Committee of Poughkeepsie, dated the 9th instant, enclosing sundry Accounts for Arms purchased and hired by said Committee for the use of the State, were read, and committed to Mr. Schenck, Mr. Bleecker, and Mr. Tredwell.

A Letter from Robert Boyd, Chairman of Ulster Committee, to the Deputies of Ulster County, was read. They have chosen a new Treasurer for said Committee. Their former Treasurer, Colonel Hardenbergh, refuses to deliver up the cash in his custody. Committed to Mr. Contine, Mr. Adgate, and Mr. Eacker.

A Letter from Colonel Remsen to Mr. John McKesson,†

*A Memorial humbly recommended to the consideration of the Honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK, held at HARLEM, August, 1776.

Your Memorialists humbly propose that an immediate order of this honourable Convention be issued to prevent the paper-makers from being compelled or permitted to go upon military service, since, in the present infant state of that necessary manufactory, the check it would receive in either of these cases would, in all human probability, entirely suppress the manufactory, which has been for many months past, and is at present, the only means of supply of paper to every department and business in the State, which, without it, would be laid in the most distressing and extensive difficulties, which will be obvious to every one upon the least consideration. The Continental Congress, sensible of this, have lately passed an order respecting the paper-makers of Pennsylvania, similar to this now requisite in this State, where it is hoped the same reasons will have a similar effect.

If this matter should be thought deserving the notice of this honourable House, it is humbly requested that they would, as speedily as possible, issue their orders, since the least delay may irretrievably ruin some paper manufactories which have supplied the Continental stores with great quantities of stores absolutely necessary for publick service, have supplied several other necessary businesses, and are now, by being compelled into military service, upon the very point of dissolution.

The inaccuracies in this hasty expression of our sentiments will be excused it is hoped, by, gentlemen, your most humble servants,
JOHN HOLT, Printer.

GENTLEMEN: I have been informed that you have, in Westchester County, about one thousand barrels pork, which you had purchased and stored for the use of the State of New-York, to lie by till occasion should call for the use of it. Large numbers of men are now coming into this city and its neighbourhood, in defence of the liberties of our country. I have been disappointed of some pork which I expected, and have sent into Massachusetts-Bay for about three thousand barrels from thence, which are now on their way, but not arrived, and I have not now on hand so much as I could wish. Some of yours is in such situation that it may soon be had. I must therefore request the favour of you to give Mr. Daniel Gray, the bearer, an order on the persons who are possessed of your pork, for the whole or such part thereof as you shall judge proper, that he may take immediate and effectual care to get it to this city and its neighbourhood. His receipts shall be your vouchers against me for it, and I will pay the cash for the pork on demand, or replace it when my pork arrives, or return the same if we have not occasion to use it; or settle the whole matter in such way and manner as shall be most agreeable to you. I hope you'll not deny my request, in the present situation—it is of importance to the general service.

I am, gentlemen, with respect and esteem, your most humble servant,

JOS. TRUMBULL.

To the Honourable Congress of the State of New-York.

esteem sufficient to prevent him from taking an unfriendly part against the United States of America.

“I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

“GO. WASHINGTON.”

Ordered, That the same be taken into consideration tomorrow morning, at which time Mr. Taylor is requested to attend.

And it is also Ordered, That Mr. Tredwell notify the witnesses also to attend.

A Letter from Rd. Bengier, of the 27th July, was read and committed to Colonel Broome.

A Letter from Henry Wilmot,* of the 14th instant, enclosing the examination of John Sloane and Thomas Clarke, committed by General Putnam, and requesting directions relative to them, was read, and referred to Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Abel, and Colonel Livingston.

Colonel Livingston, who was directed to inquire into the facts stated by Captain Alexander Hamilton's Letter, read yesterday, reported that the facts stated by Captain Hamilton are correct.

Thereupon, Resolved, That whereas Thomas Thompson, late a Sergeant in Captain Hamilton's Company of Artillery, has been represented to this Convention as a person who has discharged his duty in his office as aforesaid with uncommon fidelity, assiduity, and expertness:

Therefore, Resolved, That the said Thomas Thompson be promoted to the rank of a Lieutenant in the said Company, and that this Convention will exert themselves in promoting from time to time such privates and non-commissioned officers in the service of this State as shall distinguish themselves by their sobriety, valour, and subordination to their officers.

Ordered, That this Resolution be published in the newspapers of this State.

On motion of Mr. Duer,

Ordered, That copies of the last Resolution be transmitted to the Officers commanding the New-York Regiments, to be by them communicated to their Regiments.

Ordered, That Mr. Morris be added to the Committee with Colonel Broome, on the Letter from R. Bengier, read yesterday.

A Letter from Jacob Cuyler and Leonard Gansevoort,

*NEW-YORK, August 14, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Enclosed you have the examination taken after the commitment of John Sloane and Thomas Clarke. They were first examined by General Putnam, on which I was sent for; and, with his approbation, they were committed to jail, which the Committee approved of, and now wait for your further directions, or to send them to the Convention, as the General thinks something further with them ought to be done immediately.

The Committee received from Rye an account that information had been given the Committee there, that Benjamin Clapp had purchased a box of tea at New-York, and that the vender would not take any other but hard money for the same; that, on Clapp's examination before them, he declared he did not know the person from whom it was purchased; that John Hitchcock, a carman, had sent it to him. Hitchcock was sent for by this Committee, but he would give no answer to any proper question put to him, and only said, if he had done wrong, he must suffer for it. Without taking notice of the great contempt he showed to the Committee, they were unanimously of opinion, that he was a person whose going at large might be of dangerous consequences to this State, and therefore ordered him to jail. The Committee would be glad to receive some instructions from the Convention, as it clearly appears to them he has violated the resolves of the Congress, both with respect to the price and money he paid for it, and that he has done it to screen a person of much more consequence to the publick than a carman.

George King, a lad, apprentice to McLean, the shoemaker, was committed for breaking open and robbing the house that Benjamin Davies lived in of £5 10s. Abraham Jones, another apprentice, was concerned with him, but he has not yet been taken.

If this mode of application to the Convention, to obtain their answer as soon as possible, is most agreeable to the Representatives of this City and County, what other instructions the General Committee may from time to time want, shall be applied for in this way, by, gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant,

HENRY WILMOT.

To the Representatives of New-York.

John Sloane says he worked at Hobuck for Mr. Bayard. He stopped work after Mr. Bayard went away, for fear he should not get paid; that he afterwards went in the ferry-boat, had some encouragement given him from Mr. Murray to work in his salt works at the back of Long-Island, and got a boat to go there; was on his way, off Red-Hook, betwixt Gibbet-Island and Long-Island, when taken. One Thomas Clarke was with him. Sloane says he did not know where Mr. Murray's salt works stood, but was going to Red-Hook to inquire. It is better than two months since applied to to work with Mr. Murray.

Thomas Clarke says he left Hobuck to go to Long-Island, with an intention to go to Mr. Murray's salt works, but was taken off Red-Hook, near eleven o'clock at night; was in a boat, which he believes belongs to Mr. Bayard. The reason of his going away was, he was afraid of being taken by Captain Johnson on a suspicion of carrying some persons on board the men-of-war; confesses he carried Captain Benson to Staten-Island some time ago; it was before the fleet arrived.

Esqs., Commissioners sent to the Northern Army, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Albany, August 9, 1776.

"SIR: On Sunday, the 27th July, about ten o'clock, A. M., we received your letter covering two resolutions and a letter to Major-General Gates, and at about two, P. M., we set out for Ticonderoga, in obedience to your requisition, from whence we returned last night, and now, by express, transmit you the enclosed papers. The General has been so very particular with respect to some matters, that it would be trespassing on your patience to repeat them. The letter from the General, and the papers therein referred to, will give a full and explicit idea of the state of our Army in that quarter and their operations. You will find among the papers a list of the vessels now lying at Crown-Point with one month's provisions on board, and they propose by the middle of next week to proceed down Lake Champlain to some narrow pass in the Lake, to annoy the enemy, should they come out; and also another list of those on the stocks and intended to be built, from which you will be enabled to judge whether any and what dependance can be made on that part of our defence.

"It appears to us that the enemy will not be able to get a fleet superior in number to ours, nor officers better skilled to command them than Brigadier-General Arnold and Commodore Wynkoop; we conceive, therefore, that the command of the Lakes cannot be taken from us this year, and that the greatest dependance can be made upon that defence.

"We are extremely happy to inform you that the unhappy differences which have subsisted between the New-England and Southern troops are more or less subsided, and that there seems to be more harmony and concord between them than there has been from report; but we are apt to think that it has been greatly exaggerated by persons who perhaps would wish it to be so.

"You will observe in the map the full extent of the old French lines which are now repairing; and we do assure you, that from their appearance and the character of the Pennsylvania and Jersey troops that are stationed there, we have the greatest expectations that, should the enemy attempt to force them, they will receive as bloody a repulse as that of General Abercrombie in the last war.

"The fortifications on the heights of Mount Independence are exceedingly well calculated, in our opinion; but as we cannot be persuaded that the enemy will ever come up so high to land as to come within the reach of cannon-shot from that battery, we conceive it unnecessary to expatiate on its utility. Besides the redoubts marked out upon the map, there are to be three others erected—one upon an eminence to the northeast corner of the old French lines, and two between that and the redoubt marked "old redoubt," being the second from the fort. These redoubts, together with those marked out upon the plan or map, will, we conceive, be sufficient to oppose the landing of the enemy at the place the most advantageous to them, and, indeed, the only one where it will be possible for them ever to effect it.

"That we might inform ourselves of everything that was carried on above, we took our tour by the way of Lake George, and returned by the way of Skenesborough; hence we have received all the intelligence that was to be obtained at those posts and upon the communication, and it is with great satisfaction we inform you that everything flows through a proper channel, and the whole well organized. There is nothing so much wanted as medicine and artillery: the want of the former is so great, that it is shocking to behold the number of sick that die daily for the mere want of that article; but as we suppose that Dr. Samuel Stringer has been with you, and has given you a state of the hospital at Fort George, we shall say no more on that subject.

"We enclose you a copy of the examination of two French officers, who were examined by Major-General Gates and sent down to this place, as also the examination of one Lieutenant Whitcomb, of our Army, who has been out on a scouting party. From them you will collect all the intelligence with respect to the movements of the enemy that is in our power to communicate.

"Major Bigelow, who went out with the flag from General Gates to St. John's, is not yet returned; what detains him we know not; he has now been out twenty-two days.

"We hear from the German-Flats that General Schuyler and Mr. Douw have not yet finished the treaty with the Indians, and that there are between sixteen hundred and seventeen hundred Indians there, and it is expected that they will finish by Monday; that the Indians show very friendly dispositions, and extremely lament perfidy of individuals who have been so base as to take up the hatchet against their American brethren.

"General Gates requested of us to forward his despatches by our express, and to beg the Convention to forward them, without a moment's loss of time, to Congress.

"We are, sir, with the greatest respect, your most obedient and most humble servants,

"JACOB CUYLER,

"LEONARD GANSEVOORT.

"To Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq., President of the Convention of the State of New-York.

"P. S. General Waterbury has about twelve hundred men with him at Skenesborough, and were daily coming in there from every quarter from the eastward."

Ordered, That the said Letter and Papers therein enclosed be referred to the consideration of a Committee, to consist of Mr. Duer, Mr. Tredwell, and Mr. Marsh.

Die Veneris, 9 ho. A. M., August 16, 1776.

Present: Abm. Yates, Jun., Esq., President pro tem.

NEW-YORK.—Colonel Broome, Mr. Beekman, Captain Denning, Mr. Bancker, Mr. Dunscomb, Colonel Lott.

ALBANY.—Mr. Abraham Yates, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Bleecker.

SUFFOLK.—Mr. W. Smith, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Hobart.

ULSTER.—Colonel De Witt, Mr. Contine.

QUEEN'S.—Colonel Blackwell, Mr. J. Townsend, Mr. W. Smith.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. H. Schenck, Mr. Sackett, Mr. Landon.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, General Morris, Mr. Haviland, Judge Graham.

ORANGE.—Mr. Wisner, Mr. Jos. Smith.

TRYON.—Mr. Harper, Mr. Newkirk.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

CUMBERLAND.—Colonel Marsh, Mr. Stephens.

Captain Denning informed the Convention that William Tundran, the Pilot, had informed him that the navigation of the East River may be very easily obstructed between the Battery and Nutten-Island; that Tundran further informed him that the depth of water at a particular place which he could point out, did not exceed five fathoms, and that the navigation could be obstructed in four hours after proper vessels are prepared for that purpose.

Ordered, That Captain Denning wait on his Excellency General Washington and give him the above information, and that William Tundran is one of our best pilots. And that Captain Denning further inform his Excellency that it will be agreeable to the wishes of this Convention that the navigation of the East River should be there obstructed, if he shall think it advantageous for the defence of this State.

The Convention were informed that a number of Cannon are yet lying beyond the King's Bridge, and so exposed that they may be taken by the enemy, should an attempt of that kind be made; at the same time, that they are necessary for the defence of the Works at General Clinton's Encampment.

Resolved, That General Clinton be requested with all possible despatch to remove all the Cannon fit for use, which lie near the road to New-Rochelle, to his Encampment, and that this Convention will defray the contingent charges.

Resolved, That General Clinton be requested to employ as many Carpenters as possible, to make Carriages for such Guns as he thinks necessary for the defence of the Works to the northward of King's Bridge.

A Certificate of William Miller, Deputy Chairman of the General Committee of Westchester County, was read and filed.* He thereby certifies that Zephaniah Miller is appointed a Lieutenant to Captain Micha Townsend, upon his First Lieutenant Samuel Townsend having been promoted to a Captaincy; which said appointment had received the universal approbation of the General Committee for the County of Westchester.

*This is to certify that Zephaniah Miller is appointed a Lieutenant to Captain Micah Townsend, upon his First Lieutenant Samuel Townsend being promoted to a Captaincy, which said appointment has received the universal approbation of the General Committee for the County of Westchester.

By order of Committee: WM. MILLER, Deputy Chairman.
To the Honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York.

Ordered, That a Commission be issued for the said Z. Miller, as Lieutenant of Captain Micha Townsend's Company.

Two Letters from David Matthews, Esq., one to General Woodhull, the other to his wife, with a Mittimus enclosed; also a Letter from the Committee of Litchfield, and another from Moses Seymour, were respectively read, and referred to Mr. Morris and Mr. Hobart.

Two Letters from the Secret Committee at Poughkeepsie, by Captain Henry Benson, were read, and are in the words following, to wit:

"Poughkeepsie, August 13, 1776.

"SIR: Among other measures devised for the defence of Hudson's River, we have purchased and are fitting out two sloops, each of them more than a match for a tender. We have given Captain Benson the command of one, Captain Caswell of the other. It will be impracticable to get a sufficient number of men for them here, or, in our opinion, elsewhere, unless permission be given to the Captains to enlist them from among the new levies. We have written to General Washington on the subject, and hope this expedient will meet with the approbation of the Convention.

"The State of Connecticut has sent us twenty cannon—ten twelves and ten six-pounders—with fifty rounds of shot to each cannon.

"Business grows upon our hands, and if Messrs. Yates, Jay, and Livingston, are recalled, a quorum will not be left, and consequently nothing further can be done. We beg the direction of the Congress on this point, for we have not the least reason to expect that the state of our affairs here will admit of our return to the Convention by the 26th instant.

"We are, sir, your humble servants.

"By order of the Secret Committee:

"ROBT. YATES, Chairman.

"To Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq., President of the Convention of the State of New-York."

"Poughkeepsie, August 14, 1776.

"SIR: We find it necessary to direct Captain Benson to endeavour to purchase at New-York a number of articles for the armed vessels now fitting out here, which we cannot procure at this place, and beg that all possible assistance may be given him. As the Convention now sit at Harlem, and the moneys advanced to us will not be more than adequate to the expenses already incurred, we do not think it advisable to give Captain Benson any money to carry with him, but request the favour of your honourable House to supply him with as much money as may be necessary for the purpose above mentioned. As we may be shortly under the necessity of requesting further supplies, we hope care has been taken to put the treasury in such a condition as that no delays in a matter so important may be occasioned.

"We have applied to General Washington for an order on John B. Livingston for as much powder as may be necessary for both vessels, and we think it would not be improper that the General should be properly informed of the state of your Magazines, and thereby be led to perceive the propriety of our applying for Continental powder.

"We are your most humble servants.

"By order of the Committee:

"ROBT. YATES, Chairman."

Ordered, That the said Letters be referred to Mr. Duer and Colonel De Witt.

Mr. Duer, from the Committee to whom was referred the Letters from the Secret Committee at Poughkeepsie, having reported thereon, the Convention agreed to a recital, in the words following, namely:

Whereas the Secret Committee, appointed by this Convention to devise means for annoying the enemy's ships, and obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River, having, by their letter received this day, informed the Convention of their fitting out two armed vessels at Poughkeepsie, and giving the command of one of them to Captain Henry Benson, who they have sent down to New-York to procure and purchase sundry articles necessarily required in fitting out said vessels, and requesting the Convention to supply Captain Benson with money for that purpose:

Ordered, That Peter V. B. Livingston, Esq., as Treasurer of this Convention, advance to Captain Henry Benson the sum of £500, for the purpose aforesaid, and take his receipt for the same.

Resolved, That Captain Eccum be, and he is hereby, directed to deliver the Continental Salt* now on board of his Vessel, at Fire-Island Inlet, to the Commissary-General or his order.

Ordered, That a copy of the foregoing Resolution be served on Captain Eccum, and that one other copy thereof, with a copy of Captain Denning's Letter to this Convention, be immediately sent by Captain Eccum to Joseph Trumbull, Esq., the Commissary-General.

Resolved, unanimously, That Mr. Thomas Grant be requested to furnish this Convention with an inventory of the Medicine which he has lately received by Captain Eccum, with the price of each article, in order that this Convention may have the preference of purchasing such articles as they think necessary for the use of the inhabitants of this State.†

*SIR: The bearer of this is Captain Exceen, of the brig Friendship, loaded by me in April last, by direction of a Committee of Continental Congress, with wheat and flour for Lisbon. He is returned with his brig to Fire-Island Inlet with a load of salt. He had orders to apply to the Convention of whatever State he arrived at, on his return to this Continent. He now waits your directions.

Your most humble servant,

WM. DENNING.

Friday morning.

He left Lisbon seven weeks and four days ago this day. Captain Exceen says his cargo consists of one hundred and ninety-seven mays of salt on board, on account of the Continental Congress; that he had medicines on board, (three or four hogsheds) belonging to Thomas Grant, shipped by Long, about or between £300 or £400 sterling.

To Abm. Yates, Jun., Esq.

†NEWARK MOUNTAIN, August 19, 1776.

HONOURABLE GENTLEMEN: On Saturday last, being in the city, though very lame, and an inflammation to my wound succeeding my travel, and necessity required my being home that evening, was obliged hastily to answer your resolve of the 16th, or leave it undone, on such paper and in such order I should otherwise be ashamed of, for which I craved your indulgence; the substance of which I shall repeat, though I have no copy, neither can I be certain if I mentioned what I was determined on at writing, to have the privilege of exportation as if the whole had been military stores, as part of it with much propriety falls under that denomination. This is a material article for me to insist upon, as otherwise my vessel may be unemployed.

If the Convention or either of the gentlemen of that body have an inclination to employ the brig Friendship, (a swift sailer,) wholly or in part, I shall be glad to know their proposals soon.

You shall be welcome to take all the medicines, and drugs for medicines in particular, and the few other articles contained in the invoice, such as pepper, paper, raisins, and currants. If you think proper, all the rest must go together. Copy of invoice herewith send you. Amount, with charges at foot, about £340 sterling, of which the medicines is the better half. I shall be fully content to take the generous price the Congress published should be given for military stores. As an example of which, £30 currency was given for powder, cost in Europe £4 sterling, or thereabouts. I mean to have £30 for every £4 sterling at foot of invoice, or in that proportion for what you take. When I receive your answer in the affirmative, I will send you the original invoice. I suppose them to be well laid in, as they were bought for ready money.

That no time may be lost, you may send order to Captain Alexander Exceen, now at Long-Island, for the delivery of them to your order.

I am, with great respect, honourable gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant,

THOS. GRANT.

A draft of a Letter to the Committee of Ulster County, in answer to theirs of the 4th instant, was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Harlem, August 16, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 4th instant, directed to the Members of Ulster County, has been laid before this Convention, in answer to part of which the enclosed resolutions have been passed, and are now sent for your direction.

"The Convention has further directed me to acquaint you that no fees have been ordered by the Convention for the Treasurers appointed by the County Committees, and, as far as hath come to our knowledge, no fees have been demanded by the Treasurers in the other Counties. It is therefore hoped that the Treasurer of Ulster County will not be singular in demanding fees for the payment of so small a sum.

"The intention of the Convention on passing the Resolutions for raising the Rangers was that they should be mustered by each commissioned officer of the Company, and each of the said officers to return a muster-roll of the Company to which he belongs, on his oath of office, and under the penalty in the said resolutions mentioned.

"I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant.

"By order.

"To the Chairman and Members of Committee of Ulster."

Die Sabbati, 9 ho. A. M., August 17, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President pro tem.

NEW-YORK.—Mr. Bancker, Colonel Scott, Captain Denning, Mr. Dunscomb, Mr. Beekman.

ALBANY.—Mr. A. Yates, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Bleecker.

SUFFOLK.—Mr. William Smith, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Hobart.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Schenck, Mr. Sackett, Mr. Platt.

ORANGE.—Mr. Wisner, Mr. Jo. Smith.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, General Morris.

QUEEN'S.—Colonel Blackwell, Mr. James Townsend, Mr. William Smith, Colonel Lawrence.

TRYON.—Mr. Harper, Mr. Newkirk.

ULSTER.—Mr. Contine, Mr. De Witt.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Stephens.

Captain Platt informed the Convention that Colonel Van Cortlandt and himself are much in want of cash to defray charges accrued for the support of the Militia which have been called to service on the banks of Hudson's River, and also to supply Brigadier-General Clinton's Brigade with tents, huts, provisions, and other necessities.

Ordered, That Peter V. B. Livingston, Esq., as Treasurer of the Convention of this State, advance to Colonel Van Cortlandt and Captain Platt the sum of £1,000 on account, for the purposes above-mentioned, taking the receipt of either of those gentlemen for that sum.

General Morris informed the Convention that Mr. David Dan, under his direction, has raised the greater part of a Company, to serve in Colonel Thomas's Regiment, and he, with Mr. Morris, recommended the said David Dan as a very fit person to be appointed Captain of a Company, and requested that a Captain's Commission be issued to the said David Dan, as a Captain in that Regiment.

Ordered, That a Commission be issued to him immediately.

General Morris further informed the Convention that his present Brigade-Major is now employed as an Aid-de-Camp to a General Officer, and is now in actual service, and the General recommended Captain Pell to be the Brigade-Major of the Militia of Westchester County.

Resolved, unanimously, That the said Captain Pell be appointed a Major of Brigade of the Militia of Westchester County, and that a Commission issue to him for that purpose.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the consideration of the Letter from the Committee of Kingston, report, that they are of opinion that it will conduce much to the relief of the inhabitants, as well as to the safety of the prisoners of war now at Kingston, to remove the said prisoners with all possible despatch to Morris-Town, in the County of Morris, New-Jersey; that the Committee of the Township of Kings- ton be directed to cancel the old paroles given by the said prisoners, and to engage them under new paroles to proceed to said place; that blank printed powers be sent to the Committee of Kingston for this purpose, that they may be taken with more accuracy, and that the said Committee be directed to send a guard with the said prisoners to Morris-Town aforesaid, and to enclose to the Chairman of the Committee of Morris-Town aforesaid a certified copy of the paroles given by these prisoners; that the Committee of the Township of Kingston be, and they are hereby, authorized to remove the Tories now in their Jail, or those whom they conceive the most dangerous, to such place of safety as they shall think proper; that a letter be wrote to the Committee of Kingston, enclosing those resolutions.

WM. DUER, Chairman.

Which said Report, being read and changed in the form of Resolutions, was agreed to.

A draft of a Letter to the Committee of Ulster County was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

New-York, Harlem, August 17, 1776. }

"GENTLEMEN: You'll perceive by the enclosed resolutions that the prisoners residing among you are to be sent to Morris County. With regard to the difference of construction to that part of their paroles which respects the latitude intended to be given them therein, the Convention give it as their opinion that the prisoners are entitled to the privilege of passing and repassing within six miles in every direction from your Court-House; which I am directed to request you to communicate to the prisoners, and also to transmit a copy of this letter, with the other papers, to the Committee of Morris County.

"I am, gentlemen, your very humble servant. By order.

"The Chairman and Members of the Committee of Ulster County."

Whereas it is of the utmost consequence to the safety of the City of New-York and the security of the Continental Army now on Long-Island that the communication between that City and Island should not be obstructed by the enemy's ships:

Resolved, That Captain Rutgers and Patrick Dennis be requested and empowered by this Convention to stop up the channel between the Grand Battery and Governour's Island, in case they shall deem the same practicable, and that this Convention will defray all the charges incident to the execution of this design.

Resolved, That General Morris be empowered to purchase a Sloop belonging to Jesse Hunt, at New-Rochelle, and to order the same to be immediately delivered to the above-named gentlemen at New-York, loaded with Stone.

A draft of a Letter to General Washington, to enclose the above Resolution, was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Harlem, August 17, 1776.

"SIR: Mr. Denning hath made the Convention acquainted with your Excellency's sentiments upon obstructing the navigation of the East-River, between the Grand Battery and Governour's Island. We now take the liberty of enclosing the copy of our resolution for that purpose, which, together with the letter, will be handed to your Excellency by the gentlemen of the Committee, to whom, we make no doubt, sir, that you will afford every assistance in your power.

"I have the honour to be, &c."

Ordered, That Captain James Stewart, with such part of his Company as is already enlisted, join Colonel Malcom's Regiment, as a part thereof, until further order; and that Colonel Malcom be requested to exert his usual care and diligence in having that Company properly provided and trained in the military art.

The Petition of several inhabitants of Queen's County, respecting the release of Doctor David Brooks, was read.

Therefore, Resolved, That the said Petition be referred to his Excellency General Washington, in consequence of whose orders the said David Brooks was apprehended.

Ordered, That Major Lawrence and Mr. Js. Townsend wait upon his Excellency with the said Petition.

Ordered, That Reuben Weed be First Lieutenant of Captain Dennis's Company.

An Account of John Dunlap against the Secret Committee and the Committee for trying disaffected persons and those of equivocal characters, &c., as their Doorkeeper, from 19th June to 19th August, was read and examined, in which he states his whole account..... £24 8

And credits by cash of John McKesson.... £2 16 by cash of John McKesson, at another time..... 6 00
by cash received of Abm.
Depeyster..... 4 16

Balance due..... £10 16

Ordered, That the said Account of John Dunlap be delivered to the Auditor-General, to audit the same to this 17th day of August only, and that the said John Dunlap be, and he is hereby, discharged from the service of the said Committee and of this Convention.

Ordered, That Mr. Wm. Smith, Mr. Harper, and Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Sacket, Mr. Stephens, and Mr. Contine, or any five of them, be a Committee of Safety for this State from the adjournment of this Convention on this day until their next meeting; that every member who shall attend have a vote or voice, and that the said Committee be, and are hereby, empowered to take such measures and exercise such powers during that time as shall appear to them necessary for the safety of the State.

The Report of John McDonald,* of the progress he had made in opening the Lead Mine at Nine-Partners, in Dutchess County, and the accounts and papers accompanying the same, were read.

Ordered, That the above Committee of Safety take into consideration the accounts and other papers delivered in by Mr. John McDonald, and that they report on Monday morning.

Mr. Hobart and Mr. Duer, a Committee to consider the case of Lieutenant Bleecker, and others in like circumstances.

Mr. Harper to be furnished with £25, on account of Tryon County, on his receipt, on behalf of Tryon County, the County to be accountable for the same.

Resolved, That Peter Van B. Livingston, Esquire, as Treasurer of this Convention, advance to Wm. Harper, a member of this Convention, for the County of Tryon, the sum of £25; and that the said sum be charged to the said Wm. Harper and the said County, to be repaid to the said Treasurer by the said Wm. Harper, or the said County, when either shall be thereunto required.

*GENTLEMEN: In compliance with the commands of the honourable Provincial Congress, on the 13th June, 1776, I repaired, with all possible diligence, to the Great Nine-Partners, in Dutchess County, and there conducted myself and labourers with all endeavouring to work and open the pits or shafts of the mine. After concluding the repairing and clearing out the rubbish, considered on Mr. Moses Harris's information relative to this mine, which at large is in report drawn by me in March last, under the declaration of Jonathan Landon, Esq., to which may compare this report of its circumstances, as in the manner following:

Beginning at the northeast end of the hill, where have cleared two pits, and discovered in the first a small quantity of lead ore, lying in three different places, about three inches diameter; and in the second pit found ore in four sundry spots, in proportion equally to the first pit, about four foot distant from one appearance to another, their bottoms being examined, and appeared disagreeable to the least prospect. Thirdly, beginning to the southwest, about the middle of said hill, there cleared two pits which appeared equally in quantity and quality agreeable to the situation of the first and last pit cleared at the foresaid northeast end of the hill. The vein of sparr appears three inches broad; and where Mr. Harriss undertook to make an advantageous discovery, have digged eighteen foot length, and about three foot deep; there I found a vein of ore containing two inches broad, at which spent four days, and raised near three or four hundred weight of lead ore; but it appears to be sometimes decreasing and increasing, which being the usual case in the former trials done, I remarked that it is possible to procure a little quantity of ore in east vein or branches in this bounds; therefore, if your Honours incline to prosecute, peradventure in expectation to face into a body, the method is, to open and search the ground where supposed such do most frequently lie. As I have in my former report described at large the dimension and situation of the mine hill, I'll proceed no farther concerning adventuring for the publick purpose, but leave it to your Honours' serious consideration.

Gentlemen, I am your most obedient, humble servant,

JOHN McDONALD, Miner.

GENTLEMEN: Ezra Thomson, Esq., was very punctual looking and providing anything wanted to the mine. He surveyed four times each week, sometimes inspected three times in a day, when occasion offered, and assisted us with his horses, by which attendance spent much of his harvest employment. I am yours, &c.,

JOHN McDONALD, Miner.

GENTLEMEN: In compliance with the desire of the Congress, I super-

Ordered, That the papers belonging to Isaac Ketcham, now in the hands of the Secretary of this Convention be delivered to the said Isaac Ketcham; and that Captain Jeremiah Wool be, and he is hereby, directed to obtain and transmit to this Convention, with all convenient speed, the whole expense which has occurred, by apprehending, securing, and keeping, and maintaining, Israel Youngs, Isaac Youngs, Philip Youngs, Isaac Ketcham, and Henry Dawkins, and the summoning witnesses against them, rendering the said accounts as particular as possible. That Captain Wool therewith transmit an account of the moneys by him taken or received from the said Isaac Ketcham, and what disposition has been made thereof, together with any part of such money as remain in his hands.

A Letter from his Excellency General Washington, recommending the removal of the women and children from New-York, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Head-Quarters, New-York, August 17, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: When I consider that the City of New-York will, in all human probability, very soon be the scene of a bloody conflict, I cannot but view the great number of women and children and infirm persons remaining in it with the most melancholy concern. When the men-of-war passed up the river the shrieks and cries of those poor creatures running every way with their children, was truly distressing, and I fear will have an unhappy effect on the ears and minds of our young and inexperienced soldiery. Can no method be devised for their removal? Many, doubtless, are able to remove themselves, but there are others in a different situation. Some provision for them afterwards would also be a necessary consideration. It would relieve me from great anxiety if your honourable body would immediately deliberate upon it, and form and execute some plan for their removal and relief, in which I will coöperate and assist, to the utmost in my power. In the mean time, I have thought it proper to recommend to persons under the above description to convey themselves without delay to some place of safety, with their most valuable effects.

"I have the honour to be, with much regard, gentlemen, your most obedient and very humble servant.

"GO. WASHINGTON."

The same being read and considered,

Resolved, That the women, children, and infirm persons, in the City of New-York, be immediately removed from the said city, agreeable to General Washington's request of this House, in his Letter of this date.

Resolved, That Colonel Lott, Mr. James Beekman, Mr. Berrian, Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of New-York, and Mr. John Campbell, a member of the intend Mr. John McDonald's proceedings of the mines, and he carefully conducted himself and labourers in working to satisfaction, and that, preceding to the 13th of August, 1776, and kept regular accounts of the same, and has drawn a report of the appearances, the truth of which, as far as I could judge, may be depended on. As to the old Irishman, one Higgins, who, I understand, formerly applied to your Honours several times, with a sample of lead ore, proposing to be from an advantageous prospect discovered by himself, which sample of ore I found, by examination, he got from other persons, and that he had no discovery of his own, therefore do not give the least dependance to what he says relative to mines, &c.; also, he is very disagreeable to the neighbours. I was under the necessity to employ him as a labourer, owing to the scarcity of workmen here.

I also send the account of the labourers' work, which is one hundred and nine days. Also what money I have advanced, which is £7 11s. 6d. I also advanced £2 to Mr. McDonald.

I have taken all the tools and ore, for which I gave my receipt, and shall wait your order for the delivery of them. Mr. McDonald's behaviour was very agreeable to all the neighbours.

Gentlemen, I am, with respect, your very humble servant,

EZRA THOMSON.

I, Ezra Thomson, Esq., at the Great Nine-Partners, Dutchess County, do hereby acknowledge to have received from the honourable Provincial Congress for the Colony of New-York, by the hands of John McDonald, inspector and accountant of the mine, the following inventory of mining tools which hath been used in clearing and repairing the pits or shafts, &c., of the mines here, from the 25th June, 1776, and preceding the 13th of August thereafter, 1776, for which tools I become under the obligation to keep safe in my possession, waiting their further instruction relative to this mine, or until the same is delivered to any having their punctual orders, as witness my hand this day of August, 1776.

EZRA THOMSON.

Viz: 1 iron maul, hammer or sledge, weighing ; 2 apades or shovels; 2 iron picks; 4 iron wedges; 1 broad-faced axe; 1 wimple or auger, of one inch diameter; 1 hand-saw; 10 fathom rope, with one iron hook; 1 windlass wheel, for the use of drawing rubbish from pits or shafts; 2 buckets, eighteen inches deep, with iron hoops and handles, and which are left full of lead-ore, supposed to weigh about three or four hundred weight; and after it is well dressed, supposing to be three hundred weight.

said Committee, be empowered to remove such persons to such place or places in this State as they shall think proper, and that this Convention will pay the expense incurred by such removal and maintenance of such persons as the said Committee shall think in such indigent circumstances as not to be able to remove and subsist themselves.

Resolved, That the General Committee of the City of New-York be earnestly requested to give all possible assistance to the above gentlemen in carrying into execution the above resolutions in the most humane and expeditious manner possible.

Ordered, That Peter Van B. Livingston, Esq., as Treasurer of this Convention, advance to Colonel Lott and Mr. James Beekman, or either of them, the sum of £200, to enable them to carry into execution certain resolves of this Convention, of this day, for removing the women and children and infirm persons out of the City of New-York, and take a receipt to account for the same.

Resolved, unanimously, That the Committee appointed this day for the removal of the women, children, and infirm persons from the City of New-York, do immediately report to this Convention the names of all such indigent and infirm persons whom they think entitled to the charitable exertions of this State, together with the number of each family, the maladies under which they may labour, and the place or places to which they are removed, to the end that this Convention may discharge the duty of faithful guardians of the publick interest and happiness, by relieving the complaints of the infirm and the wants of the indigent in the most humane and economical manner possible.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, communicating the preceding Resolution, was read and approved, and is as follows:

"Harlem, August 17, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed to inform your Excellency that immediately upon the receipt of your favour of this morning, respecting the women and children and infirm persons remaining in the City of New-York, the Convention appointed a Committee for the purpose of removing and providing for such persons. I enclose a copy of the Resolves for that purpose, and hope you will soon be relieved from the anxiety which their continuance in town has occasioned; and have the honour to be, with very great respect, your most obedient, humble servant. By order.

"To General Washington."

A Letter from his Excellency General George Washington, in answer to the Letter respecting the obstructing the navigation of the East River, was received and read, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"New-York, August 18, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: I have been honoured with your letter of the 17th, with the resolution of your honourable body for obstructing the channel betwixt the Grand Battery and Nutten-Island. Having gone into a considerable expense for stopping that of the North River, and such as I am not certain I shall be justified in, and the obstructions there being far from complete, it will not be in my power to engage in the business you propose, or undertake to advance any part of the money which will be necessarily expended in the execution. At the same time give me leave to assure you, gentlemen, that I shall most readily afford you such assistance as may be derived from the labour of the troops here, that can be spared from other service, to facilitate the design, which will be of great importance, if it can be executed. I have been also honoured with your favour and resolution of the same date, and am exceedingly obliged by the ready attention you have paid to my recommendation for the removal of the women and children and infirm persons from this city.

I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, gentlemen, your most humble servant,

GO. WASHINGTON."

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.

Die Lunæ, 9 ho. A. M., August 19, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met: Present: William Smith, Esq., Chairman; Mr. Yates, Mr. Thomas Tredwell, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Harper, Mr. Jos. Smith, Mr. Sackett, Mr. Stephens, Colonel Marsh, Mr. Duer, Mr. Blecker, Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Van Zandt, Mr. Sands.

FIFTH SERIES.—VOL. I.

Captain Woodhull, of the Orange County Troop, appearing in the Committee for a line to General Clinton, signifying their approbation of discharging that Troop:

Thereupon, a draft of a Letter to General Clinton was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: Application has been made to us as a Committee of the Convention, in their adjournment from Saturday last, by Captain Woodhull, of the Orange Troop, with your permission, as he says, to request a dismissal from present service at Hudson's River. If you should be of opinion that they may return home, consistent with the publick safety, you will no doubt give them permission, as it will certainly be a benefit both to them and the State if they can be allowed to give some attention to their farms even for a short time. This matter we, however, submit entirely to your judgment, as you can form the best opinion what men you can relieve from duty, and at what time their services may be dispensed with. We are, &c.

"To General Clinton."

The case of Captain John Wisner, stated, is as follows, to wit:

That he had inlisted about twenty Riflemen in Orange County, and about twenty at Susquehannah; that the men in Orange County, through means of the Committee, have inlisted in the Militia; that he has been ordered by the Field-Officers of the Militia of Orange County, with a Lieutenant, to raise thirty-eight men of the Militia for the present service; that he has inlisted upwards of forty men; that by a letter from H. Wisner, Esq., he has permission to fill up that Company, but that without part of the bounty he cannot supply his men with arms.

Ordered, That Mr. Sacket and Mr. Tredwell be a Committee to report thereon, with all convenient speed.

The Committee took into consideration Accounts and papers of John McDonald, presented on Saturday last; and

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that John McDonald, Miner, should be authorized to prosecute the exploring the Lead Mine in the Great Nine-Partners of Ezra Thomson, Esq., till further orders from this Convention or a future Legislature of this State, on the same condition he was before employed to work in said Mine; and that he report his proceedings monthly to the Convention or Legislature of this State.

The Committee took into consideration the apparent advantage to the safety of this State to have the obstruction^s of the navigation of Hudson's River fully completed.

Resolved, That Mr. Duer be, and is hereby, authorized and requested immediately to consult with his Excellency General Washington on the subject of aiding him to obstruct the navigation of Hudson's River, opposite to Mount Washington, and, if the General shall approve of the measure, that he be authorized to coöperate with his Excellency, and pursue such measures as may be necessary for that purpose; and if Mr. Duer think it necessary, he may despatch S. Dyckman, the Messenger, to any place where he shall think proper.

A Letter from General Morris, dated yesterday, at New-Rochelle, was read.* He signifies his opinion that it would be most prudent to discharge the Militia of his Brigade at present, with orders to hold themselves in readiness to march on the first notice.

Ordered, That Mr. Jos. Smith inquire of his Excellency General Washington whether the discharge of that Brigade at present will interfere with any plan which he has laid, or directions which he may have given, for the defence of that

*NEW-ROCHELLE, August 18, 1776.

SIR: I have the pleasure to inform that, agreeable to direction of Congress, the Militia of the County have turned out with great cheerfulness. As there is no enemy in the Sound, and considering the present season to the farmer, I take the liberty to recommend the dismissing the Militia for the present, ordering the Captains to parade and discipline their men once a week, and that they hold themselves in readiness to march on the shortest notice. I am particularly inclined to the measure, as the five days' provision will be out to-morrow, and no Commissary of Provisions provided. The arms have been examined—the greatest part in good repair, and such as wanted are put in the hands of armourers, so that I am in hopes the major part of the Militia will be tolerably well armed.

A soldier having misbehaved, is confined, and I shall order a Court-Martial for his trial to-morrow. An officer is also charged with misbehaviour, and I shall direct an inquiry into that matter; being determined, while I am honoured with the command, to use my best endeavours to preserve strict discipline. I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

LEWIS MORRIS.

To Abraham Yates, Esq.

Colonel Jacobus Swartwout, attending, was admitted. He brought in the Muster-Rolls of ten Companies of his Regiment now in service near King's Bridge, in General Clinton's Brigade. The said ten Muster-Rolls were annexed together, under seal, in the Convention; and thereupon the said Jacobus Swartwout, Esq., being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists, did depose and swear, that he hath, according to the best of his knowledge, truly mustered the ten Companies, now in service under his command as Colonel; that the said ten Muster-Rolls contain the names and rank of the Officers, non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the said Regiment, as the different Companies appeared at the time of mustering each Company respectively; and that the said Regiment is near King's Bridge, as a part of General Clinton's Brigade. Thereupon, Resolved, That John McKesson and Robert Benson be the Commissioners in this State to dispose of and provide for all Prisoners of War within the same, agreeable

* IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE COUNTY OF }
 WESTCHESTER, August 17, 1776. }

GENTLEMEN: The officers who were confined to Bedford as prisoners of war, upon the Militia of that place being called away, have been sent to this Committee, and this Committee have limited them within the White-Plains. As they came from Bedford indebted for their subsistence there, and must become indebted here also, they are solicitous that the money engaged to them by the Convention be paid, in order to defray their expenses.

We further inform you, that a large number of dangerous and disaffected persons are apprehended and now in jail, and many more will soon be brought to us. We find our jail greatly burdened, and beg that your honourable House will take them under consideration, and direct what must be done with them.

As we are frequently at a loss for the resolutions of Convention to proceed upon, we earnestly desire your honourable House will order your Secretary to furnish us with the same, which will greatly advance the good of the country and our safe conduct. Be pleased to let Mr. Frederick Jay have them, who is one of our Committee.

By order of Committee: Wm. MILLER, Deputy Chairman.
 To his Excellency Brigadier-General Woodhull, at Huerten.

WHITE-PLAINS JAIL, August 18, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Our confinement at present is the cause of our troubling your honourable House with this our imperfect petition. We have conversed with the Deputy Chairman of the General Committee of this our County, who we have desired to wait on you, and will, if called on, deliver our sentiments fuller than we are able to set forth with ink and paper. Gentlemen, as we are convinced we are confined on no other principle than for the safety of the States of America, we rather applaud than blame you for it; we have not been wise enough to associate with you, still we are not unwise enough not to consider that self-preservation is the first law of nature. Still, gentlemen, we flatter ourselves that what we say here (joined to what the person we send will add) will convince your honourable House that our enlargement will in nowise endanger the States of America, which being done to the full satisfaction of your House, we doubt not (trusting in the goodness of the members that comto the Resolutions of the honourable the Continental Congress, of 21st May last, in that case made and provided; and also to dispose of and provide for such other Prisoners within this State as may from time to time be committed to their care; that the said Commissioners do keep a regular account or journal of their transactions and disbursements; and that this Convention will make them, the said Commissioners, a reasonable compensation for their trouble and services in that department.

A Letter from Jonathan G. Tompkins,* dated August 18, 1776, relating to Josiah and Isaac Brown, imprisoned at White-Plains, was received and read.

The Petition of fifteen Prisoners confined in the Jail at White-Plains, presented by Mr. Miller, Deputy Chairman of Westchester County, wherein they represent that they are confined as persons dangerous to the safety of the State, and being desirous of being enlarged, they are willing to bind themselves either to aid in repelling the enemies of the State when necessary, or surrender themselves into the custody of any Jailer, as this or any future Convention or Legislature may direct, was read.

Whereupon Mr. Miller was called in and examined as to the said fifteen Prisoners, and testified in regard to them respectively, as follows, viz: Joshua Purdy has never been friendly to the American cause, is a man of influence, and towards whom lenity would be advisable. Gabriel Purdy has acted unfriendly to the cause of America. Caleb Morgan he does not know, but has heard he is a Tory. Of Wm. Barker, John McCord, John Bailey, Bartw. Haynes, and Joseph Purdy, he knows nothing favourable. Gilbert Horton is a man of no influence. Isaac Browne has been neutral. Josiah Browne says he will join in the defence of the State, and has generally understood that he was a Whig. Edmund Ward he don't know. Samuel Merrit has been active against, and Jonathan Purdy has been publicly inciting others to act against us. And as to Philip Fowler, he is reputed a bad man. Which information being considered, the question was put, "Shall any of the Prisoners be released?" and passed in the negative, in manner following, that is to say:

For the Negative.

4 Ulster.
 2 Charlotte.
 6 Albany.
 8 New-York.
 2 Cumberland.

22 votes.

For the Affirmative.

4 Westchester.
 4 Queen's.
 8 votes.

Suffolk only 2 Members, no vote.

Resolved, That the Committee of Safety of Westchester County be empowered, if they shall think it consistent with the safety, or conducive to the advantage of the State, to release Joshua Purdy, Isaac Browne, and Josiah Browne.

The Credentials of King's County was again taken into consideration and read, and the further consideration thereof deferred till the morning.

pose your body, and that the safety of the State is the only motive of your confining us) but that we may have our enlargements. Our proposal is, first, that we will in nowise resist or oppose the authority of the States of America; secondly, that whenever an attack shall be made on the said States, if we cannot find a resolution sufficient to join our brethren and neighbours in repelling force by force, then and in such case we will repair immediately to the common jail of our County, or to such other place as you in your wisdom shall think proper; and thirdly, for the performance of said propositions we are willing to bind ourselves under the ties of bonds or solemn oaths. So, gentlemen, we rest it here, only referring you to Mr. Miller, and desiring you to take our case into mature consideration; and your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray, &c.

* HEAD-QUARTERS, MAMARONECK, August 18, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I having been informed that a petition has or is likely to be sent to your Board by a number of persons now confined in this County jail as suspected persons, many of which I shall not take upon me to say anything in favour of, but only in two of the Browns, the names of which are Josiah and Isaac Brown, I having had some opportunity of knowing their political sentiments, and am fully of the opinion that they may have their liberty; and I make no doubt that if they have an opportunity, will be able to convince the publick they are not enemies to this State. And I flatter myself that I am such a well-wisher to the United States of America, that I would not speak well of one who did not deserve it. From your very humble servant,

JONATHAN G. TOMPKINS.

To the President of the Convention of the State of New-York.

Die Mercurii, 9 ho. A. M., August 21, 1776.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President pro tem.
NEW-YORK.—Col. Broome, Mr. Dunscomb, Mr. Bancker, Major Van Zandt.

ALBANY.—Mr. Abm. Yates, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Bleecker.

SUFFOLK.—Mr. W. Smith, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Hobart.

WESTCHESTER.—Judge Graham, Mr. Morris, Gen. Morris,
Mr. Haviland.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. Sacket, Mr. Schenck.

ULSTER.—Colonel De Witt, Mr. Contine.

ORANGE.—Dr. Outwater, Mr. Jo. Smith.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. James Townsend.

CUMBERLAND.—Colonel Marsh.

TRYON.—Mr. Newkirk. CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

Mr. Tredwell informed the Convention that Captain John Wisner, of Orange County, appointed to command a Company of the Militia of that County, ordered into actual service, has been, and now is, attending for money to discharge the bounty of his men, in order to enable them to purchase arms.

Ordered, That Peter V. B. Livingston, Esq., as Treasurer, advance to Captain John Wisner £580, to enable him to pay one-half of the bounty to the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of his Company, as part of the Militia of Orange County, raised, or to be raised, agreeable to the Resolutions of this Convention of the day of July last. Captain Wisner to be accountable to this Convention or their order, and to the Colonel of the Regiment to which he belongs, for the disposition of that money.

And whereas the Colonel of the Regiment to which Captain Wisner belongs is at present on duty in General Clinton's Brigade:

Ordered, That Colonel Allison and Colonel Hawthorne, or either of them, be, and are hereby, empowered, authorized, and requested, to muster the men of Captain Wisner's Company previous to their receiving one-half of their bounty.

The Credentials of the Member from King's County were read and considered, and the question put, Whether the said Credentials are sufficient; which was decided unanimously in the negative.

Thereupon, Resolved, Whereas it appears by the Credentials produced from the Committee of King's County to this Convention that the election for Representatives in Convention was not held at the time mentioned in the Resolution of the late Congress for holding such election, nor in conformity to the said Resolutions:

Resolved, therefore, That the said election was unlawful, and all and singular the matters and things thereby transcribed, merely void.

Whereas it is just and necessary that all the inhabitants of this State should be represented in this Convention at this very important crisis, when matters of the greatest moment to the present generation and to all posterity are now immediately in agitation; and whereas by reason of the irregularity of holding the election in King's County, and of sundry defects in the Credentials of the Representatives of the said County chosen, the said Representatives could not be received into this Convention:

Resolved, therefore, That the Committee of the said County be required to hold an election according to the true intent and meaning of the Resolution of the 31st day of May last, on Saturday next, the 24th instant.

Resolved, further, That the Committee of King's County be required, that the Credentials, by them made and delivered to this Convention, bearing date 19th instant, are materially defective, in that it does not appear from the said Credentials whether any or what powers are given to the Representatives therein named, when, in fact, the said Representatives ought to be expressly authorized to assist in forming and establishing a new form of Government, and consequently of agreeing, on the part of their constituents, to the general independency of America.

Ordered, That the foregoing Resolves be immediately transmitted to the Committee of King's County.

The Committee, to whom was referred the papers presented by John McDonald, on the subject of the Lead Mine in Dutchess County, reported; which being considered, was recommitted to the same Committee, with the addition of Mr. Landon.

The Committee to whom the Report on the papers of John McDonald was recommitted, reported the following Resolution, which was agreed to:

Resolved and Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State do advance to John McDonald, Miner, the sum of £6, to enable him to advance to Donald Morrison 12s. a week, for the term of ten weeks, unless the said Donald Morrison shall sooner be able to labour; that the said Donald Morrison do repay the money so lent to him, either in money or labour, to the said McDonald, and the said John McDonald to be accountable to this Convention for the said sum of £6, provided the said Donald Morrison does not de cease before he shall be able by his labour to earn or pay the whole or any part of that money; in which case, the said John McDonald shall be liable to refund so much only of the said money as the said Donald Morrison has or might have earned by his labour.*

Mr. Duer moved a resolution as to the Prisoners in Westchester. After many debates, Mr. Jay moved for the previous question, which was carried.

Thereupon, Resolved, That Mr. Jay, Mr. Morris, and Mr. Duer, be a Committee to report upon the mode of confining, securing, or otherwise disposing of the Prisoners now taken up and confined in the Jail of Westchester by order of this Convention.

On motion of Mr. Duer,

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius, as Commissary of this State, be ordered to pay to Colonel William Malcom, or his order, the sum of £60 5s., being the purchase money of sixteen Muskets and five Bayonets, disbursed by Captain Jonathan Blake for the use of his Company in Colonel Malcom's Battalion; and the said Colonel Malcom do, on the receipt of this money, give a receipt to Colonel Curtenius for sixteen Muskets and five Bayonets, specifying their marks and quality, that the said Guns and Bayonets may hereafter be paid for or returned to the publick store of this State by the said Colonel Malcom.

Whereas it has been represented to this Convention that Colonel Josiah Smith's Regiment, lately ordered to General Greene's encampment on Nassau-Island, are destitute of camp equipage:

Ordered, That Mr. Hubbard and Mr. James Townsend be a Committee to inform the Continental Quartermaster of the state of that Regiment, and to request of him, without delay, to furnish them with proper camp equipage; and in case the said Quartermaster should not be able or willing to afford them the said necessary supplies, that then the said Committee take the most speedy and effectual means for obtaining them, and this Convention will defray the expense thereof, and add it to their Account against the General Congress.

Ordered, That the said Colonel Smith be, and he hereby is, authorized to appoint an Adjutant and Quartermaster to his Regiment, and that he recommend to this Convention a Surgeon for the same.

A Letter, dated the 12th instant, from Abraham C. Cuyler, John Duncan, Stephen De Lancey, John Monier, and Benjamin Hilton,† prisoners sent and confined in Hartford

*I have received of Mr. Bancker £54 6s., the amount expense of cleaning the pits or shafts, &c., of the mine in the Great Nine-Partners, Dutchess County, including this day, August 21, 1776.

JOHN McDONALD.

To John McKesson, Esq., Secretary.

†HARTFORD, August 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: On our arrival here the 19th of June last, we requested our friend Colonel V. Cortlandt to lay our very disagreeable situation before you, and in consequence requesting relief; but learning from him that the proceedings of the Committee of Albany had not been transmitted to Congress, notwithstanding that Board had been wrote to for that purpose, an answer not being received, has caused this delay. We then furnished Mr. Cortlandt with a letter containing our accusation from that Board to his Honour Governour Trumbull, which we beg leave to observe is couched in general terms, without anything specific. Nevertheless finding no relief, we, on the 29th ultimo, renewed our request to you by letter through Colonel Cortlandt, who informs us a further reference to the Committee of Albany is yet thought needful, which causes a further delay to our relief. We could hope this reference might be dispensed with, as our respective cases must be well known, as some members of your House were in the Committee at the time we suffered transportation, unheard and unquestioned; therefore earnestly request your giving us such relief as you judge our disagreeable situation requires. And are, gentlemen, your very humble servants,

ABRM. C. CUYLER, STEPHEN DE LANCEY,
JOHN DUNCAN, JNO. MONIER,
JNO. MONIER FOR BENJN. HILTON.

To the Hon. John Woodhull, Esq., President of the Convention of the State of New-York, at Harlem.

Jail, by order of the Committee of Albany, praying to be released from their disagreeable situation, was read.

Also, a Letter from the said A. C. Cuyler,* of the same date, requesting permission to return home to visit his sick wife, whom he represents as unable to take care of his children and large family, and in the mean time to settle some of his private affairs, was read.

Also, a Letter from Henry Van Schaack, another prisoner, sent to and confined at Hartford, declaring his innocence, and complaining of the injustice of his being transported thither under appearances of guilt, and praying to be suffered to appear before the Convention to be heard, and condemned or acquitted, was read.†

A copy of a Letter from the said Henry Van Schaack, Andrew, and Munro, to the Committee of Albany, referred to in the preceding Letter, was read.‡

* HARTFORD, August 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Should your House not think proper to grant us immediate relief on our application of this day, I beg leave further to trouble you with a request to return home for a few days, to visit a sick wife, who is at present unable to take care of my children and large family, and in the mean time to settle some of my private affairs, which, on my sudden removal, were left unsettled, where I also may have an opportunity of removing that jealousy which is now entertained against me. I flatter myself that when you consider the many inconveniences myself and friends suffer, and that only on a supposition of guilt, of which I am at any time ready to exculpate myself, you'll at least grant this request.

I remain, gentlemen, your very humble servant, A. C. CUYLER.

† HARTFORD, August 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: As you preside over the State of New-York at this critical and very alarming juncture, for the safety and welfare of its inhabitants, it gives me a right to inform you that I have been transported hither unheard, unquestioned, and contrary to the principles of the Bill of Rights published by the honourable the Continental Congress in February, 1776, as well as subsequent resolves by that Board. As the post is at this moment going off, I have no time to state at large the grievances I labour under. I shall, therefore, be brief, and acquaint you that I am conscious to myself that I have neither said or acted in opposition to the measures pursued by the United Councils of the Continent, or those recommended by the Provincial Councils. It therefore appears hard that the most sacred rights I hold in society should be violated. I have been sent hither under every appearance of guilt, without being allowed an opportunity of knowing the crimes for which I have suffered transportation. That I may not be charged with neglecting to apply for a knowledge of my supposed crimes to that power which inflicted the punishment, I take the liberty of enclosing a copy of a letter wrote to the Albany Committee, signed by myself and others in the same situation.

As I have suffered a long confinement, torn from my family and friends, my affairs going to ruin, and obliged to maintain myself at a very great expense in this State, and now under order to go to New-London, what punishments will follow them God knows; but proceedings so vague and loose promise nothing but indefinite punishments. To you, gentlemen, as the guardians of those rights which are held valuable in society, I now appeal for a stop to further punishment, by suffering me to appear before you, there to be condemned or acquitted. As I am known among many of you, gentlemen, I hope this can be granted without any apprehensions of my deviating from my parole. Should there, however, be any doubts, I will readily be at the expense of a guard to conduct me to you.

I remain, with great respect, gentlemen, in haste, your most obedient, humble servant,
HENRY VAN SCHAACK.

To the Honourable the Members of Convention for the State of New-York.

‡ ALBANY TORY JAIL, August 1, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We have just now received your letter of this date, by which we find that, contrary to the most reasonable expectations, we are forced to go off to-morrow morning. The reasons for our expectations are so forcibly pointed out in our former letters, that we shall forbear to recapitulate them now; and only observe, that although we are forced to leave this in the morning, the same severities are still exercised respecting admittance of those who have business with us, so that at this hour we are in no situation to do anything. As this probably will be the last time you will be troubled with letters from us, we hope you'll excuse us for requesting to know whether we are to go with or without a guard from here to Colonel Hoffman's Landing, as we purpose to go by land from here, provided there is no objection. Should there be any, on account of sending a guard with us, and you are disposed to take sufficient security, (we conceive, as we are to maintain ourselves,) the Board will have no objections to our transporting ourselves in the cheapest manner, so that our persons are delivered according to the tenor of your orders. If this be refused, can we have a pass for a couple of men to take our horses down to Redhook?

As we have been confined for a long time, and, for some time past, treated like malefactors, Christian charity obliges us to believe that your Board have received information concerning us of a very criminal nature indeed; and as we are entirely to guess from whence such information proceeded, we now request our crimes may be stated, the accusers' names mentioned, that we may have opportunity, as well in Connecticut as here, to clear our characters of any aspersions that may be before your Board. Should the crimes of which we are supposed to be guilty or stand accused of justify the unremitting severities with which we have been treated in our confinement, we dread the reception we are to meet with in a country where we are strangers and friendless: we mean should we be transported unheard and unquestioned.

We are, &c.,

H. VAN SCHAACK,
JOSEPH ANDERSON,
JOHN MUNRO.
&c.

Ordered, That the three Letters last mentioned lie on the table for the perusal of the Members.

By a Letter from the Committee of Newtown, in Queen's County, it appears that Captain Richard Lawrence, Commander of the Troop of Horse in said Town, has, through infirmity, resigned.

Thereupon, Ordered, That Commissions be immediately sent to Daniel Lawrence as Captain, Samuel Riker as First Lieutenant, Jonathan Lawrence Second Lieutenant, Thomas Betts Cornet, pursuant to the recommendation of said Committee.

A Letter from Adjutant-General Reed, dated yesterday,* enclosing, by direction of General Washington, for the perusal and advice of the Convention, a Letter from Governour Martin to the General, dated on board the Sovereign transport, on the 16th instant, wherein he requests that his wife and children, and all or any of his father-in-law's family, with whom they reside at Rockaway, may be permitted to go on board the fleet, and with great confidence expects a favourable answer, with such passports as General Washington shall judge expedient to enable him to open an immediate intercourse with his family, and to provide them the necessary facilities for going on board, were respectively read.

Thereupon a draft of a Letter to Colonel Reed, in answer to his of yesterday, was read and approved, and is in the words following, viz:

“August 22, 1776.

“SIR: I have laid your letter of 21st instant, enclosing another from the late Governour Martin, before the Convention of this State. The Convention are of opinion that no great detriment can arise to the publick cause in suffering the late Governour Martin's wife and children to go to Staten-Island, and therefore cheerfully concur with his Excellency's inclination to grant this indulgence. With respect to his father-in-law and family, they do not conceive them entitled to the same favour, unless Lord Howe should be disposed to liberate Mr. Bancker, late a Member of this Convention, and at present a prisoner upon his parole at Staten-Island, together with his family and Dr. Martin, a brother-in-law to it, particularly, as the gentleman who has made the application is at present a prisoner of this State, upon his parole at Rockaway. I am, therefore, desired to entreat the favour of you to lay this matter before General Washington, and to entreat the favour of him to propose this exchange to Lord Howe. Should a refusal be given to this exchange, the Convention are of opinion that none of the family should be permitted to depart, as they may be exchanged hereafter for more valuable citizens, whom the fortune of war may deliver into the enemy's power.

“I am, sir, your very obedient servant. Per order.
“To General Reed.”

* HEAD-QUARTERS, NEW-YORK, August 21, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I am directed by his Excellency General Washington to forward the enclosed letter for your perusal and advice. The General is inclined to grant the request it contains, if it shall not appear to you, who, from your situation, must be better able to judge what consequences will follow it, do not advise him against it. The messenger will go on to King's Bridge, and has orders to call on return, and wait for an answer. You will please to return the letter at the same time.

I am, with great respect, gentlemen, your most obedient and very humble servant,
JOS. REED.

The Letter or Report of Abm. W. De Peyster, Esq., relative to the disposition of the Prisoners in Connecticut, was read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Harlem, August 21, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: In obedience to the orders received from the President of the honourable Convention, I waited upon Governour Trumbull, at Lebanon, to take his directions for the disposition of the thirteen prisoners left at Litchfield; when his Honour was pleased to order that Gilbert Forbes and William Forbes should remain in Litchfield Jail, in the custody of Lynde Lord, Esq., the Sheriff of that County; that D. Mathews, Esq., should be removed from thence to Hartford Jail, to the care of Williams, Esq., Sheriff of Hartford County; and that John L. C. Broome, Esq., Nathl. Gyre, Lazarus Gyre, Jonathan Baker, James Mason, Isaac Young, Israel Young, Thomas Coyne, John Clark, and Thomas Vernon, be committed to the County, (say custody of Prosper Whetmore, Esq., Sheriff of the County of New-London;) to be confined in the Jail in the town of Norwich, in the said County. The Governour, at same time, wrote letters of instruction to the Sheriffs, respectively, advising them of the manner in which the prisoners were to be treated. The one to the Sheriff of Hartford County, respecting Mr. Mathews, the Governour informed me contained a permission to let Mr. Mathews walk about the town in the daytime, with some person as his guard, who he was to be at the expense of, and who was every evening to see him safely in his lodgings in Jail, where, I understand, he was to have his quarters.

"As soon as the Governour dismissed me, I set out for Litchfield. When I arrived there I found that the Committee of that town, in my absence, had permitted all the prisoners, who had been put in close confinement, (except Gilbert Forbes;) to go at large about the town, as the keeping them shut up in jail would have endangered their lives. The Sheriff had taken the two Youngs at his own house. Broome had his quarters in the Jailer's apartments, adjoining the Jail. The others were at work in different places, some in harvest, and others at their respective trades, as journeymen. Mr. Mathews, during my absence, I understand, had, agreeable to his promise, strictly confined himself to Captain Seamour's house, in which I had left him. This change in the prisoners' situation from that in which they were when I left Litchfield, made the account I brought them of their removal very unwelcome; and they now, to a man, solicit as much to remain at Litchfield as they had before to be conveyed to some other place. The Mayor was very desirous indeed to remain at Litchfield, and urged as a reason, among many others, for his being left there, that he was not in very affluent circumstances, and he was apprehensive that living at Hartford would be very expensive; that he boarded at Captain Seamour's at a moderate rate; that the expense of travelling was very high; that he did not know how long he would remain a prisoner, and therefore he was desirous to live at as little expense as possible; and as the Convention had been pleased to order that he should maintain himself at his own expense, he thought it not unreasonable that he should have liberty to live where he would be at the least expense; that Captain Seamour would be his security, and undertake to keep him safe in his own house. Broome was equally anxious to remain at Litchfield, and offered the same reasons. At length, at the request of Captain Seamour, and by consent of the Committee of that place, I agreed to leave the above two gentlemen in the custody of Captain Seamour, who engaged to be security for their safe custody, and to see them safe, at their own expense, to the places respectively assigned them by the Governour, in case either the Governour or the Convention, upon their being informed of what I had done, disapproved of their remaining at Litchfield; for which purpose I left in Captain Seamour's hands Mr. Mathews's warrant of commitment, together with the above-mentioned letter to the Sheriff of Hartford, to be delivered by him to the said Sheriff, in case the Mayor should be ordered to Hartford. As the two Youngs were likewise to live at their own expense, the Sheriff of Litchfield, at whose house I found them, thought it not amiss that they be also left, especially as they would be immediately under his eye, and kept by him confined within the walls of his house, unless when he (the Sheriff) thought proper to let them take a little air in the streets, when he would attend to them himself. Upon this, and with approbation of the Committee, I agreed to leave the two Youngs also, upon the same condition as above-mentioned, that they repair to Norwich, under a guard, at their own expense, in case the Governour or Convention insisted on their removal; which the Sheriff promised me to see performed by them. I however directed Sheriff Lord to take bond for them in the penalty of £500, to be executed by them and their brother Joseph, who was expected at Litchfield the next day, with condition that they repair to Norwich, as aforesaid, as soon as advised thereof; that they, in the mean time, demean themselves as good subjects of the States; and, lastly, that they strictly conform themselves to the directions of the said Sheriff as to their behaviour; which bond I prepared before I left Litchfield. As a further security, I caused the Youngs to deposite into the hands of the Sheriff all the money they had with them, which, I was told by the Sheriff, amounted to about £200.

"Soon after this I set out for Norwich, with Nathan Gyre, Lazarus Gyre, James Mason, Jonathan Baker, Thomas Coyne, John Clarke, and Thomas Vernon, under a guard of three men besides an officer; but we had not proceeded more than two miles from the town of Litchfield, before I was under a necessity to leave old Gyre upon the road, so very sick that had I conveyed him a mile farther the jolting of the wagon, over such rough and stony roads as we had to travel, would inevitably have deprived him of what little life he had left. The other six I conveyed safe to Norwich, and delivered into the custody of the Sheriff of the County of New-London.

"In my way down to Norwich I again called on the Governour, and acquainted him with my leaving the Mayor, Broome, and the two Youngs, at Litchfield. He replied, it was very well; for his part, he had no objections, provided the Convention of this State approved of it. He added, that the Jails at Hartford and Norwich were small. Indeed, I found the Jail at Hartford pretty full of prisoners, and Norwich but barely large enough to contain the six I left there.

"Upon my return again through Lebanon, the Governour made out a new warrant for old Gyre to be kept in custody of the Sheriff of Litchfield, which was delivered to the said Sheriff on my arrival there, and he accordingly took charge of him; so very ill, however, that it is more than probable he is now dead.

"Before I left Litchfield the last time, I discharged the Sheriff's demands against the Convention for the support of the prisoners up to August 6th, for which I took his Jailer's receipt. I have only to add, that the Sheriff of New-London begged I would request the Convention of this State to send some money to Norwich for the support of the six prisoners I left with him, as soon as they conveniently could.

"I am, gentlemen, with the utmost respect, your most obedient and very humble servant,

"A. W. DE PEYSTER.

"To the Hon. the Convention of the State of New-York."

Ordered, That the said Report be referred to the same Committee to whom was referred the Letter of David Mathews to his wife, and the Letter of the Committee of Litchfield.

A Letter from Andrew Bostwick,* dated at Goshen, the

*GOSHEN, August 15, 1776.

DEAR SIR: In consequence of my unfortunate situation, I have enclosed a petition to the President of the Convention, praying for that relief which the tumults and convulsions of the times have hitherto prevented me from getting. Suffer me, therefore, my friend, to request your influence with the members, that I may have redress. I request no more than that freedom which will enable me to be serviceable to my creditors, my family, and my country. I doubt not your willingness to assist me, in doing which you'll ever oblige, dear sir, your most unfortunate friend,

Robt. Benson, Esquire, at Harlem.

ANDW. BOSTWICK.

To the Honourable the Representatives of the State of NEW-YORK in Convention assembled: The Petition of ANDREW BOSTWICK, an insolvent debtor, now confined in the Jail of the County of ORANGE, humbly sheweth:

That your petitioner, through sundry losses and disappointments in trade, is rendered incapable of making full payment to his creditors, by which means he has been in actual confinement for near seventeen months; that your petitioner has no desire to be discharged from the payment of his just debts, without making all the satisfaction to his creditors that is in his power; and is apprehensive that a resolve of the honourable Convention, permitting the Sheriff to release him from confinement on such conditions as they shall deem meet and proper, cannot, in the least, injure the creditors, but, on the contrary, will better enable him to settle his affairs with them more to their mutual advantage than he could do while continued in confinement. Your petitioner, therefore, most humbly prays this honourable Convention that they would take his case into their consideration, and grant such speedy relief as the nature and necessity of the case requires. And your petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray, &c.

ANDW. BOSTWICK.

15th instant, enclosing a Petition to the Convention "praying for that relief which the tumults and convulsions of the times had hitherto prevented him from getting," was received, and the Petition read.

Ordered, That it be referred to the Committee appointed for the relief of Prisoners imprisoned for Debt.

The Petition of Abel Noble and Peter Townsend, proprietors of Sterling Iron Works, praying that one hundred and fifty workmen employed at their Works may be exempt from serving in the Militia, was read.

Mr. Outwater, from the Committee appointed to confer with Captain Benson, reported, that Captain Benson says he has made a thorough search for the articles ordered by the Committee of Safety for fitting out the vessels preparing for Hudson's River; that he requested to borrow the articles directed to be bought out of the Continental store at Poughkeepsie; that the sloops will be of no use but in the river, the beams of their decks not being substantial or strong enough to go to sea.

Ordered, That the consideration of said Report be deferred until Mr. John Jay is present.

A draft of a Letter to his Excellency General Washington, relative to a report that the City of New-York was to be burnt if the Troops left it, was read and approved, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"In Convention of the Representatives of the State of }
New-York, Harlem, August 22, 1776. }

"SIR: The Convention of this State have received information from one of the Deputies of the City and County of New-York of a report prevailing amongst the Army, 'that if the fortune of war should oblige our troops to abandon that city, it should be immediately burnt by the retreating soldiery, and that any man is authorized to set it on fire.'

"The Convention will cheerfully submit to the fatal necessity of destroying that valuable city whenever your Excellency shall deem it essential to the safety of this State or the general interest of America. Yet the duty which they owe to their constituents obliges them to take every possible precaution that twenty thousand inhabitants may not be reduced to misery by the wanton act of an individual. They therefore entreat your Excellency to take such measures in preventing the evil tendency of such a report as you shall deem most expedient.

"I have the honour to be your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servant. By order:

"ABM. YATES, President.

"His Excellency General Washington."

Mr. James Townsend and Mr. Hobart delivered a copy of a Letter from Brigadier-General Livingston, of New-Jersey, to his Excellency General Washington, which was read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY: In the utmost haste I must inform you that very providentially I sent a spy last night on Staten-Island, to obtain intelligence of the movements of the enemy, as many things, apparently new, were seen from our lines. He has this moment returned in safety. The substance of his information I must give you in short: He went on Staten-Island about midnight, and got, undiscovered, to the house of the person to whom he was sent, who informed him that the whole force of the enemy, of every kind, was thirty-five thousand men, fifteen thousand of whom were left on the Island, but all the rest embarked; that they expected to attack every hour, he thinks this night at farthest; it was to be on Long-Island and up the North-River; that the fifteen thousand men were to land and attack on Bergen-Point, Elizabethtown-Point, and at Amboy. He has heard the orders read, and heard the Generals talk of it. The wagons are all laid out and ready; that they appear very determined, and will put all to the sword. They are in great want of provisions; pork tolerably good, but flour exceedingly bad. They have eat up all the cattle, and are now killing and barrelling up all the horses they meet with. All the field-pieces are taken on board except two. The information may be depended on. Ten pounds have been given for a cow, and ten dollars for a sheep. That the Tories on the Island are very ill-treated lately, so that the inhabitants, who at first were so pleased, would now be willing to poison them all. They take from them everything they choose, and no one has anything they can call their own.

"I am, with great respect, &c., &c.,

"WILLIAM LIVINGSTON.

"Elizabethtown, August 21, 1776."

Mr. Hobart further informed the Convention that the enemy are landed on Nassau-Island; that the Rifle Regiment are retreated to the lines; that the enemy have landed a party of Light-Horse, and between thirty and forty pieces of Artillery.

Ordered, That Mr. Hobart, Mr. Duer, Mr. Jay, Mr. Morris, General Morris, and Mr. Benjamin Sands, be a Committee to take the said Letter and intelligence into consideration, and report thereon to-morrow morning, and to write to General Washington to know whether he desires General Morris's Brigade to be called out.

Ordered, That the Treasurer remove the Treasury and Papers and Accounts near to the Church in Harlem to-morrow morning.

Ordered, That Mr. Gerard Bancker remove all the Books and Papers of the late General Assembly of this State to Harlem to-morrow morning.

CUMBERLAND.—Mr. Stephens, Colonel Marsh.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. S. Townsend, Mr. James Townsend, Mr. Benjamin Sands.

On motion of Mr. Hobart,

Resolved and Ordered, That the Members of Suffolk and Queen's Counties now present join the other Members from those two Counties, now sitting as a Committee to reconsider the Report of the Committee on the Letter of Brigadier-General Livingston to his Excellency General Washington; and the President and other Members proceed as a Committee of Safety on all business relating to this State, or on which this Convention might proceed, until Members sufficient to form a Convention come in.

The Committee consisting of the Members of Queen's and Suffolk, came into the Convention without delay, and reported, in substance, the following Resolutions; which being read, and unanimously agreed to, are in the words following:

Resolved and Ordered, That Brigadier-General Woodhull, or, in his absence, Lieutenant-Colonel Potter, march without delay one-half of the western Regiment of Militia of Suffolk County, with five days' provisions, into the western part of Queen's County, and that the officers of the Militia in Queen's County immediately order out the whole Militia of that County, together with their Troop of Horse, and that the said officers of Militia and Troop of Horse use all possible diligence to prevent the stock and other provisions in Queen's County from falling into the hands of the enemy, either by removing them out of their way, or if that cannot be effected, by destroying them, until they shall receive more particular directions from this Convention.

And Ordered, further, That the Captain of the Troop of Horse in King's County, with his Troop, join the said Militia, and that the inhabitants of Queen's County, not of the Militia, do assist in executing the above orders whenever they shall have notice from the commanding officer of the Militia that their assistance is necessary.

Ordered, That the Secretaries prepare several copies of these Resolutions, and send them to Brigade-Major Lawrence, in Queen's County, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Potter and General Woodhull, in Suffolk County, by Samuel Dyckman, the Messenger.

The Members of Westchester and Charlotte Counties having come into the Convention while the last resolutions were considering, there were Members sufficient to form a Convention, which prevented the necessity of proceeding as a Committee of Safety, and abrogated their power.

The President informed the Convention that Dr. *Treat has sent a quantity of Medicines and Hospital Stores belonging to the publick to his (the President's) chamber in Harlem.

Thereupon, one of the Members informed the Convention, that four of the Members had directed them to be sent to the President at Harlem, as Dr. Treat thought they were not safe in the City, and a justification of their conduct in this matter. The Convention approves and justifies their conduct in this matter.

A Letter from the Committee at Monmouth County, in the State of New-Jersey, in answer to one addressed to them by this Convention, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"In Committee, Monmouth County, Freehold, August 17, 1776.

"SIR: We have received yours of the 26th ultimo, enclosing the examination of Balthazar De Hart, and have much reason to expect and believe the contents truly stated. It has been, and still continues our misfortune, that many parts of this County are exceedingly infested with Tories of the most inveterate disposition, owing, we suspect, in a great measure, to the malign influence of our late Attorney-General and his execrable junto.

"The township of Shrewsbury, from the bad disposition of a great proportion of its inhabitants, from its vicinity to the shore, and consequent aptitude for dealing and corresponding with the enemy, and all this under the patronage of such a Committee as you may justly suppose a disaffected majority would naturally constitute, must as naturally offer itself as an asylum to refugee Tories from any other quarter, and hence you will easily account for so many disaffected persons from your city having seated themselves there, who by means of a kind of stage or post established between that town and New-York, have, we fear, given the enemy intelligence of all your measures, and may, perhaps, continue to do so, if passes from that Committee are admitted at or near your city.

"We have the pleasure to inform you that, having had a notification of almost every article contained in Mr. De Hart's examination, we had, previous to the receipt of your letter, entered fully into the affair, and taken such steps as we hope will cut off the communication with the enemy, bring some offenders to justice, and perhaps return you some of your late inhabitants. Particularly a guard had been already posted, by order of General Mercer, upon the whole Shrewsbury and Middletown shores, who have orders to seize and detain all craft belonging to said shores, and to apprehend every suspicious person who may be found within their respective districts. There had been also apprehended a number of the inhabitants of Shrewsbury, against whom proofs of disaffection were proffered, some of whom we have bound in heavy bonds, and another, a person of first property in the town, is now under confinement, and we expect will take his trial upon the Treason Act, as soon as our new Legislature shall be established.

"Persons, by order of your Convention, and under appointment of this Committee, have inventoried and appraised a number of estates in that and our other townships, which lately belonged to a set of refugees who, finding the country too hot for them, have fled and joined the Ministerial Army, which wicked and traitorous step, some scores of our inhabitants have taken, though they were chiefly persons of the most abandoned characters and desperate fortunes.

"We have cited the three persons mentioned in your letter to have been at General Howe's camp, and although they went by Colonel Taylor's permission, who granted them a flag, yet, as they had not been qualified, we have put them under oath, but have not been able to make any very important discoveries. Not choosing to trust the business to the Town Committee, for reasons before hinted, we

* New-York, August 19, 1776.

SIR: By order from Messrs. William Denning, Charles De Witt, James Beckman, and John Sloss Hobart, I send to your care all the medicines, sheets, lint, &c., now in my possession belonging to the Congress of the State of New-York, which you will receive by one Demer, a carman.

I am, sir, your very humble servant,

MALACHY TREAT.

To the Hon. Abraham Yates, Jr., Esq.

had also, before the receipt of your favour, constituted a Sub-Committee from our own body, who were authorized to cite every inhabitant of New-York then within the township of Shrewsbury, to appear before them, and show cause why they should not be immediately removed whence they came, agreeable to a late requisition from your State, and an express ordinance of our own, respecting persons deserting the place of their abode, when in danger of being attacked; who have cited them accordingly, and give them till the 24th instant to procure, if practicable, from New-York, such certificates as may satisfy the friends of freedom here.

"A number of armed vessels have frequently been, for days together, at anchor and hovering near the coast, and we doubt not have had frequent intercourse with, and received some supplies from, the disaffected in this County. But they have not as yet been able to effect anything to purpose; and as our guards are now on the spot, and we have given peremptory orders that all the stock be immediately driven from all the beaches and adjacent meadows, we flatter ourselves that the enemy will be disappointed in any future attempt they may make to procure provisions.

"Our maritime situation, at the same time that it has been favourable to the pernicious designs of our inveterate enemies, has subjected the Committee of this County to almost innumerable difficulties from the beginning of these troubles, and we believe we may justly say we have spent more time and undergone more vexation and fatigue than any other Committee in this State, as on every extraordinary occasion our members were to be convened from an extent of seventy or eighty miles. However, blessed be God, we hope we have almost completed a victory over them, and we humbly confide on his Almighty aid for a universal conquest over every other enemy to American freedom.

"We heartily thank you for your friendly communications, and shall, with the utmost cheerfulness, concur with you in every measure for the publick safety.

"And now, that the same all-wise Director and powerful supporter of true civil and religious liberty may bless the Convention of the State of New-York with unanimity, wisdom, and fortitude, in the arduous task assigned them, and that they may speedily obtain the desirable end of all their patriotick exertions, is in sincerity and truth the most ardent wish of their friends, brethren, and humble servants, the Committee of Monmouth County.

"Signed by order: JOHN HOLMES, Chairman.

"To the President of the Convention of the State of New-York."

Ordered, That it be referred to a Committee to consist of Colonel Broome and Colonel De Witt.

A Letter from the Committee of the County of Cumberland was received and read, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"Also, it is hereby acceded to, and fully meant and intended by the good people of this County, that they, notwithstanding this compliance with the requisition of the said handbills above-mentioned, so directed to us for the purposes aforesaid, have fully and absolutely reserved to themselves and their heirs, &c., the full liberty of pursuing their former petition in behalf of the people included and specified therein some years ago, and referred to the Great and General Assembly of the ancient, ever-respectable, and most patriotick Government of the Massachusetts-Bay Province, that the whole district described in said petition may be hereafter remitted to that Province, and reserving to themselves also the right of offering their pleas, arguments and proofs in full, to induce a reunion thereof to that ancient jurisdiction, for those important reasons to be adduced, when, where, and before whom the parties concerned shall be admitted to offer the same. As in duty bound shall ever pray.

"The whole whereof, so as offered to your ever-respectable gentlemen, submitted with due congratulation of all the good people of said County.

Captain Benson having attempted, by order of the Committee for the obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River, to purchase Sails and Rigging for two armed Sloops, which cannot be purchased,

Resolved, That the Committee for stopping the channel in the East River be requested to furnish Captain Henry Benson, on account of this State, with such Rigging and other articles as he may want, and which are now in their possession, taken from the Vessels by them employed in stopping the channel aforesaid.

A Request of Major *Hendrick Van De Linde Verbruyck to Brigadier-General Clinton, requesting a dismissal from the present service, on account of his ill state of health, was read and filed.

General Clinton's Letter to Major Van Bryck,† submitting his application to this Convention, was also read and filed.

Resolved, That this Convention consent to the dismissal of Major Van Bryck from the present service, on account of his ill state of health, agreeable to his request.

Barrent Miller, Esq., came into the Convention and took his seat, as a Deputy for Suffolk County.

The Committee, consisting of the Deputies from Suffolk and Queen's Counties, appointed yesterday evening, to reconsider the Report of the former Committee on the Letter of General Livingston to his Excellency General Washington, brought in their Report. Eight paragraphs thereof, with the recital, being read, amended, and agreed to, paragraph by paragraph, is in the words following, that is to say:

Whereas the enemy's troops have landed on the western shore of Nassau-Island and penetrated into the heart of King's County, and this Convention have received intelligence that they are in extreme want of provisions and refreshments; and whereas it will be extremely difficult, if not impracticable, to prevent them from ravaging and plundering the southern part of the said Island, whereby their present necessities may be greatly relieved: Inasmuch, therefore, as it is the duty of this Convention to prefer the general cause of America to the interest and convenience of individuals:

1st. Resolved, That all the Horses, Horned Cattle, and Sheep, belonging to the south side of the ridge of hills in Queen's County, be forthwith removed, and put into the fields at the east end of Hempstead Plains, there to be and remain, under a sufficient number of keepers, at the discretion of Brigadier-General Woodhull, until he shall judge it necessary to remove them farther eastward; and when he shall think the same necessary, that he do direct them to be drove into such part of Suffolk County as he shall think proper: Provided, notwithstanding, That nothing in this resolve shall extend to prevent each large family from retaining four milch Cows, each middling family three, and each small family two; nor each farmer from retaining one pair of Horses.

2d. Resolved, That it be recommended to the inhabitants of Queen's County, residing to the south of the ridge of hills, immediately to remove all their Grain now in the barns and barracks, to some convenient place, at a distance

* KING'S BRIDGE, August 23, 1776.

To GEORGE CLINTON, Esq., sheweth:

That whereas I was appointed by the state of New-York a Major in Colonel Isaac Nicoll's Regiment, at which time I was not well, and should have declined accepting had I not been persuaded to it. And as I still continue unwell, and think myself not able for the service, hope your Honour will be so good as to get me a dismissal; and by so doing you will greatly oblige your petitioner.

H. V. D. L. VERBRUYCK, Major.

† KING'S BRIDGE, August 24, 1776.

SIR: It would be a high piece of presumption in me to dismiss any gentleman from the service of the State who is intrusted with an office in my Brigade by the Convention, especially one of such importance as that of a Major of a regiment. Your application, therefore, ought to be to that body who gave you your appointment. And I doubt not, upon a representation of the state of your health, which I am convinced is really such as to render you unfit for service, they will readily grant you a dismissal from the same. I could wish it suited you to continue with us, in which case I would endeavour to make your duty as easy as the nature of your office and the times would admit of. At the same time I cannot advise you in a matter of so delicate nature.

I am your most obedient servant,
To Major Verbruyck.

GEO. CLINTON.

from the buildings, that the same, without endangering the buildings, may be burnt, whenever it shall be impracticable to prevent the enemy from getting possession of it.

3d. Resolved, unanimously, That whenever Brigadier-General Woodhull, or the commanding officer for the time being, shall judge that it is the design of the enemy to possess themselves of such Grain, he do send a sufficient number of men to burn and destroy the same; and that the said General or commanding officer at the same time cause all the Horses and Cows which were left with the different families to be driven away or killed; and that all the Mills at the same time be dismantled by taking and carrying away the upper stone.

4th. Resolved, unanimously, That Brigadier-General Woodhull, with the Troops under his command, take post on the high ground running through Nassau-Island, as near the enemy as he may think expedient, for the purpose of opposing their incursions; and that whenever it shall appear probable to him that the enemy will gain possession of those heights, and of the country to the northward and eastward of the same, he retreat, removing or destroying the stock and the grain, and dismantling the Mills, in manner above directed.

5th. Resolved, unanimously, That such of the Militia of General Woodhull's Brigade as are, or shall be, in actual service, shall be entitled to Continental pay and rations agreeable to their respective ranks.

6th. Resolved, unanimously, That Robert Townsend be a Commissary to supply the Brigade with Provisions, till such time as General Washington shall give further orders for that purpose; and that Mr. William Smith and Mr. Samuel Townsend be a Committee to wait on General Washington with a copy of these Resolutions, and submit the expediency and necessity of the same to his consideration and advice.

And whereas it will be extremely difficult, if not impracticable to effect the good purposes of these Resolutions without an additional force to the Militia, ordered out by a Resolve of this morning for calling out a part of General Woodhull's Brigade:

Ordered, That said Committee submit to his Excellency's consideration the propriety of ordering Col. Smith's and Col. Remsen's Regiments of Militia to join the said Brigade.

Ordered, That the said Committee do request General Washington's opinion relative to the propriety of calling forth further detachments of the Militia of this State into action; and if called out, to what place.

Ordered, That a copy of the foregoing Resolutions be immediately transmitted to the Delegates of this State in the General Congress.

A Letter from his Excellency General Washington, contradicting the report that New-York was to be abandoned and burnt, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"New-York, August 23, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: I am favoured with yours of the 22d, acquainting me with a report now circulating 'that if the American Army should be obliged to retreat from this city, any individual may set it on fire.' I can assure you, gentlemen, this report is not founded upon the least authority from me; on the other hand, I am so sensible of the value of such a city, and the consequences of its destruction to many worthy citizens and their families, that nothing but the last necessity, and that such as should justify me to the whole world, would induce me to give orders for that purpose.

"The unwillingness shown by many families to remove, notwithstanding your and my recommendation, may, perhaps, have led some persons to propagate the report with honest and innocent intentions; but as your letter first informed me of it, I cannot pretend to say by whom or for what purpose it has been done. As my views with regard to the removal of the women and children have happily coincided with your sentiments, and a Committee appointed to carry them into execution, I submit it to your judgment whether it would not be proper for the Committee to meet immediately in this city, and give notice of their attendance on this business. There are many who anxiously wish to remove, but have not the means.

"I am, with much respect and regard, gentlemen, your most obedient and very humble servant,

The Committee, consisting of the Members of Queen's and Suffolk Counties, brought in the residue of the Report of the Committee on the Letter of Brigadier-General Livingston, of the 21st instant, to General Washington, which was adjourned over last evening for want of time. The Convention took the same into consideration, and the following paragraphs thereof being read, amended, agreed to, and resolved on, are as follows, to wit:

Whereas by reason of the cruel and unnatural invasion now made upon this State, many of the inhabitants thereof may be compelled to abandon their peaceful habitations, and be exposed to all the miseries of want and the horrors of war; and whereas the same regard to the rights of human nature which leads mankind to brave every danger and endure every distress in the great cause of freedom, teaches them to behold with pity, and with generosity to relieve the distresses of their fellow-creatures; and since it is most (say more) especially the duty of those who are called on to superintend the general welfare of the State, to lighten as far as possible the burden of calamity which oppresses their constituents:

Therefore, Resolved, That the several Committees throughout this State be, and they hereby are, authorized and required to quarter upon the inhabitants of their respective Counties and Districts all such unfortunate persons as may, in consequence of the aforesaid invasion, be driven away from their places of abode, paying all possible regard to the conveniences of such inhabitants, and that they do assess moderate prices to be paid to such inhabitants, for the persons so quartered on them.

Resolved, also, That such persons whom circumstances will admit, do maintain themselves and their families; and that this Convention will provide ways and means to defray the expenses of maintaining the indigent: Provided always, That no person shall be deemed entitled to the publick benevolence for more than ten days, unless he or she shall within that time produce a certificate of indigence from the Chairman of the Committee of the County or District where he or she formerly resided. And also, that no person, by virtue of their removal as aforesaid, shall be construed to gain a residence in the place to which they shall remove.

Resolved, That the several Committees above mentioned do return monthly to this Convention an exact account of such indigent persons as shall appear to be entitled to the publick benevolence, together with the names of the persons on whom they are quartered, and the contracts made for their maintenance, in order that this Convention, or a future Legislature, may make immediate provision for fulfilling such agreements.

Ordered, That the Secretaries prepare a copy of these Resolutions, to be immediately despatched to the Chairman of the Committee of Flushing.

Mr. Gouverneur Morris, from the Committee appointed on the , brought in their Report, which, being read and amended, and unanimously agreed to, is in the words following, that is to say:

Whereas divers persons who had been represented to this Convention as notoriously disaffected to the American cause, and whose going at large ought to be restrained, have, by order of this Convention, been arrested, and now remain confined in the Jails of some of the Counties of this State:

And whereas justice and the publick safety demand that the degrees of restraint should be proportionate to the danger arising from the disaffection, evil disposition, and influence of the said Prisoners:

Resolved, unanimously, That the General Committees of the Counties in which they are so confined, being possessed of more knowledge of the characters and principles of each of the said Prisoners than this Convention can readily acquire, he, and they hereby are, authorized and directed so to dispose of the said Prisoners as that no undue and unnecessary severity be shown them on the one hand, and the safety of the publick against their machinations provided for on the other: Provided, always, That the said Committees shall not have power to tolerate any person or persons who already have been, or may hereafter be, confined in Jail for treasonable practices against the State.

On reading the Petition of Charles Shaw,* the Convention came to the following determination:

*To the Honourable the gentlemen of the Convention of the State of New-York, in Convention assembled: The Memorial of CHARLES SHAW, humbly sheweth:

That your memorialist has, in conjunction with his partner, an insurance made in England to the amount of £2,100 sterling now depending unrecovered, owing to the present unhappy disputes, as he is unable to transmit the necessary proofs; that he is also equally interested with his partner in bills of exchange to the amount of £1,100 sterling, now in litigation before the Court of Chancery in England; that he has also an inheritance in England to the value of £1,200 or upwards; that your memorialist is a native of Great Britain; that he left there numerous connexions; that he is married in this country, and has children, which he sincerely wishes, with their posterity, may remain freemen, and in order thereto, he has with cheerfulness contributed, and never, directly or indirectly, either by act or deed, given aid or comfort to the enemies of America; that he acted as a committee-man for the City and County of New-York, in which capacity he flatters himself he gave satisfaction to his constituents—he is confident he acted honestly; that he loves this country, and wishes to spend his days in it, and hopes to see his offspring happy in it; that he has stood clear even of the suspicion of being unfriendly to it in any instance whatsoever, and flatters himself the above reasons will justify him in the minds of the gentlemen of the Convention, when he prays they will exempt him from appearing with the sword drawn and in the field of action, and therefore begs the honourable gentlemen of the Convention will exempt him from the militia duty that may be exacted from him by the Captain of the district in which he now resides; that your memorialist has hired a small house and eight or ten acres of land in the borough-town of Westchester, where he has placed his family; that he should wish to remain there, but that nevertheless if his being an Englishman should create any fears of the members of the community in which he resides, (confident they have no other,) he is ready to go to such place as the gentlemen of the Convention shall direct, though should prefer Claverack, where his wife has some connexions; and hereby solemnly declares to the gentlemen of the Convention that he loves this country and the freedom of its inhabitants; that he never has, directly or indirectly, by act or deed, taken any step to injure either, and never will, and is ready to ratify this declaration in whatever solemn manner the Convention shall think proper.

CHAS. SHAW.

WESTCHESTER, August 22, 1776.

Whereas Charles Shaw hath, by his Memorial presented to this Convention, averring his attachment to the American cause, shown sufficient cause why he ought not be compelled to actual service in the Militia: Upon consideration of the said Memorial:

Resolved, That the said Charles Shaw be exempted from said service.

General Morris suggested sundry reasons to the Convention for his attendance at Philadelphia.

Ordered, That General Morris attend at Congress at Philadelphia, and return with all possible despatch.

The Convention were informed that the Committee, who were appointed for that purpose, cannot proceed in the removal of the Poor from the City of New-York without a supply of cash.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State advance to James Beekman, Esq., one of the members of the Committee appointed to remove the indigent women and children and infirm persons out of the City of New-York, the sum of £1,000, to enable the said Committee to complete the business for which they were appointed.

A Letter from General Woodhull, dated at Jamaica, 25th August, was read.

Ordered, To be referred to the Committee for drawing Instructions for General Woodhull.

The Committee appointed to wait on General Washington with the Resolutions for calling out the western Suffolk Regiment and Queen's County Militia, to prevent the stock falling in the enemy's hands, do report, that, according to order, they waited on his Excellency, and conferred with him on the subject above-mentioned, and that he seemed well pleased, but said he was afraid it was too late. Your Committee told him the Convention had sent an express to General Woodhull, on Saturday morning, to embody the western Regiment of Suffolk, and all the remaining part of the Militia of Queen's, and march to the high grounds on the western part of said Counties; but as the said Convention was apprehensive that General Woodhull would not have a sufficient force to drive off the stock and repel the ravaging parties of the enemy, thought it most conducive to the publick welfare that the Regiments above-mentioned should be applied for, that he might thereby be enabled more effectually to carry the resolves of the Convention into execution; upon which General Washington appeared well satisfied with the proceedings of the Convention, and said that he should at all times, when he had it in his power, be ready to give them any assistance consistent with the publick good, and that he would immediately give orders that Colonels Smith's and Rensen's Regiments should march into Queen's County, to join General Woodhull; and as to calling out any more of the Militia, he asked what time we thought it would take to have the Militia of Westchester County embodied; we told him we thought at least four or five days; upon which he made no reply. Your Committee do further report, it was the General's opinion, that our Commissary should continue to supply the troops under Brigadier-General Woodhull, and that he consult with the Commissary-General, that they might not interfere with one another in purchasing provisions.

SAML. TOWNSEND,
WILLIAM SMITH.

Ordered, That Colonel Curtenius be, and he hereby is, requested to contract with proper persons for making two thousand Pouches with Belts, without delay, and at the cheapest rate he can procure the same, and that he send five hundred of them, as soon as finished, to General Clinton's encampment, for the use of his Brigade.

A Letter from Gilbert Livingston and Christopher Tappen,* Commissioners for building vessels at Poughkeepsie,

* POUGHKEEPSIE, August 24, 1776.

SIR: Mr. Van Zandt, one of the Commissioners for building ships for the Continental Congress, now carrying on in this place, is unwilling to take the blacksmiths off from their work at the ships, unless he has a warrant from the Continental Congress. As our Convention, before we left it, had resolved to apply to Congress for such warrant, we have long expected it; and if it is come to hand, he it may be sent us by this conveyance, as our stay here will be fruitless, unless we can have the assistance of the smiths at the ship-yard.

We find, by a resolve of your honourable House, that the 26th current is appointed for the day on which a Committee of the House is to report a form of Government for this State, and that three of our Committee are members of the same; and as Mr. Paulling has lately been appointed to a post which requires his presence at a distance from us, we wish your dated the 24th instant, wishing to be permitted to take their seats in Convention before the Committee report a form of Government, and suggest, as their opinion, that it would be well to secure a State to govern, before they discussed a form to govern it by, was read, and committed to Mr. R. R. Livingston and Mr. L'Hommedieu.

Ordered, That Mr. L'Hommedieu be added to the Committee to draw Instructions to General Woodhull.

Resolved, That the Rev. Mr. Joseph Treat continue his services as Chaplain to Colonel Lasher's and Colonel Malcom's Battalions, in Brigadier-General Scott's Brigade, and that the Rev. Mr. John Eliot be Chaplain to Colonel Samuel Drake's and Colonel Humphrey's Regiments—Mr. Treat's pay to commence from the time of calling the said Brigade into service, and Mr. Eliot's pay from the 7th instant.

Ordered, That General Scott be, and he is hereby, authorized to receive, out of the store of this State, such Cots and half Cots now in store as he may find necessary for the use of the Surgeons for dressing the wounded of his Brigade, or as he may find otherwise necessary for the use of the sick, General Scott giving a receipt for the same; and that General Scott make such disposition of those Cots in his Brigade as he may think proper.*

Ordered, That fifty blank Commissions be sent to the Committee of the County of Albany.

Ordered, That Mr. Adgate, Mr. Blecker, and Mr. Duer, be a Committee to nominate a suitable character for Major of a Regiment of the Militia in the County of Albany.

Ordered, That the nomination of the Officers for the Albany Rangers be committed to the same Committee.

It was moved that three hundred stand of Arms be forwarded for the use of the Militia of Gloucester. Being considered, it was referred to Mr. Duer, Mr. Hobart, and the others of the Committee appointed to hear their Government application.

A Letter from John Sleght, Chairman of Kingston, was received and read, stating that the women surround the Committee Chamber, and say if they cannot have tea their husbands and sons shall fight no more, was received, and referred to the Members attending from Ulster County.

Whereas the Convention have reason to suspect that a correspondence is carried on between the enemy's Army, now on Nassau-Island, and the family of Colonel Josiah Martin, at Rockaway, on said Island; and whereas it is the duty of this Convention diligently to watch over and suppress every intercourse which may endanger the publick good or safety:

Therefore, Resolved, That Brigadier-General Woodhull be, and he is hereby, requested and authorized to cause the house of the said Colonel Josiah Martin immediately to be searched for papers, by a discreet and spirited officer, who shall engage, upon his word of honour, to General Woodhull, not to divulge any matters which may be contained in letters of a private nature, and to transmit to the Convention of this State every paper which may concern the publick weal.

And whereas Dr. Samuel Martin, son of the said Colonel Martin, is at present a prisoner upon his parole at Rockaway, on Nassau-Island; and whereas, on account of the vicinity of the enemy's Army in which the said Dr. Martin has frequent and intimate connection, it would be inconsistent honourable House would give us leave to take our seats in Convention, (though we are convinced the works carrying on here are of the utmost importance to this State,) as it gives us great pain to think, that notwithstanding the sense of the House appeared to be, at the time we left it, first to endeavour to secure a State to govern, before we established a form to govern it by, yet that a day is fixed to take up this important business, when a part of its body is absent by the command of the House.

We are, sir, with great respect, your very humble servants,
CHRISTOPHER TAPPEN,
GILBERT LIVINGSTON.
To Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq., President of the Convention of the State of New-York.

* NEW-YORK, August 26, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I am under the necessity of applying to you, that I may have the privilege of drawing some cots for the use of the sick of my Regiment, as I find there is a number in store belonging to this State which cannot be delivered without your particular order; therefore, must request the favour that the necessary order may be sent, as the sick suffer much for the want of them, and they are not to be had elsewhere at present, &c. I am, gentlemen, your humble servant, with good policy to suffer the said Samuel Martin to remain any longer on his parole at said place:

SAMUEL DRAKE, Colonel.

To the Provincial Congress.

Therefore, Resolved, That the said Brigadier-General Woodhull be, and he is hereby, requested and authorized to cause the said Dr. Samuel Martin immediately to be apprehended and conveyed to this Convention, in order that he may be sent to reside in some more secure and distant place.

Whereas considerable expenses have accrued to this State in suppressing the designs of evil-minded and disaffected persons against the liberties of America; and whereas the publick economy requires that such expenses should be ascertained in the most exact manner, in order that such means may be devised for reimbursing the same as justice and sound policy may hereafter dictate:

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention do keep a distinct and accurate account of all sums of money which already have been, and may hereafter be, disbursed by order of the Convention for the purpose of apprehending, securing, and subsisting disaffected persons, and of quelling insurrections within this State.

A draft of a Letter to General Woodhull, in answer to his received yesterday, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"August 26, 1776.

"SIR: Yours of yesterday is just come to hand; in answer to which, we would inform you that Robert Townsend, the son of Samuel Townsend, Esq., is appointed Commissary for the troops under your command, of which we beg you would give him the earliest notice; and that we have made application to General Washington for the Regiments under the command of Colonels Smith and Remsen to join you. He assured our Committee that he would issue out orders immediately for that purpose, and we expect that they are upon the spot by this time.

"You have enclosed some resolutions and orders for your more particular direction. Confiding in your known prudence and zeal in the common cause, and wishing you the protection and blessing of Heaven, we are, with respect, your very humble servants.

"To Brigadier-General Woodhull.

"P. S. General Washington desires that Mr. Townsend may consult with the Commissary-General, that they may not interfere in their purchases."

The Committee appointed to draw Instructions to General Woodhull reported a draft which was agreed to, and are in the words following, that is to say:

"You are hereby ordered, with the troops under your command, to take post on the heights, near the western boundaries of Queen's County, or in such other place or places in the Counties of Queen's, King's, or Suffolk, as you shall think most convenient for preventing the incursions and depredations of the enemy. And you are hereby empowered and directed to order out the whole or any further part of the Militia, and other inhabitants of said Counties, when and where you shall think them necessary, to protect the inhabitants, removing or destroying the stock and other provisions, and for the other purposes mentioned in the resolutions herewith sent you. You are also to do all in your power to prevent all intercourse with the enemy, by securing and sending to this Convention all such persons as shall be any way aiding or assisting them, or opposing any measures which have been, or shall hereafter be, directed by this Convention; and to search the houses of such persons for papers, as you shall suspect to have had intelligence from the enemy; and you are also at liberty to mount on horseback any number of the Militia that you may think necessary."

"GENTLEMEN: I am now at Jamaica, with less than one hundred men, having brought all the cattle from the westward and southward of the hills, and have sent them off with the Troops of Horse, with orders to take all the rest eastward of this place to the eastward of Hempstead Plains, and to put them into the fields, and set a guard over them. The enemy, I am informed, are intrenching from the heights, near Howard's, southward.

"I have now received yours, with several resolutions, which I wish it was in my power to put in execution, but unless Colonels Smith and Remsen (mentioned in yours) join me with their Regiments, or some other assistance, immediately, I shall not be able, for the people are all moving east, and I cannot get any assistance from them.

"I shall continue here as long as I can, in hopes of a reinforcement, but if none comes soon I shall retreat, and drive the stock before me into the woods. Colonels Smith and Remsen, I think, cannot join me. Unless you can send me some other assistance, I fear I shall soon be obliged to quit this place. I hope soon to hear from you.

"I am, gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant,

"NATHL. WOODHULL.

"To the Hon. the Convention of the State of New-York."

Major Lockwood informed the Committee that the enemy's ships are at White-Stone.

Thereupon, Resolved and Ordered, That Mr. Hobart and Mr. *R. R. On motion of Mr. Duer, Resolved, unanimously, That Colonel Drake,* or the next commanding officer of the Westchester Militia, do immediately call out as many of the Militia, with five days' provisions, as he shall think sufficient to watch the motions of the enemy's ships now in the Sound, and to prevent all communication with the disaffected inhabitants in said County; and that he send notice, from time to time, to the Convention of every remarkable occurrence; and for that purpose, that he is hereby empowered to press Horses when he shall think it necessary.

Ordered, That the Secretary enclose a copy thereof in a Letter to Colonel Drake.

Ordered, That Mr. Newkirk take that Letter and show it to the Commanding Officer at Horn's Hook.

"GENTLEMEN: Yesterday in the morning appeared at the east end of Fisher's Island two of the enemy's armed frigates and a brig, and this morning they passed by this harbour, standing to the westward. I thought it best to give you this intelligence by express, that you may keep a good look-out, and take what measures your prudence will suggest,

* NEW-ROCHELLE, August 27, 1776.

SIR: I have but just time to inform you that two men-of-war are now anchored between Hart and City Islands; they have but just come to an anchor. I thought best first to rally as many of the Militia as possible; there is one more that is gone past Frog's Point. In a hurry, from yours,

JOSEPH DRAKE.

To Brigadier-General Morris.

and must leave to you whether or not to forward this from town to town by express, if no direct opportunity offers; this may much depend on what is already known of their being in the Sound, and by observing their motions.

"I am, gentlemen, with esteem and regard, your obedient humble servant,

ERASTUS WOLCOTT.

"To the Committee at Saybrook."

Mr. L'Hommedieu moved, and was seconded, that his Excellency General Washington be acquainted that the Committee of Southold, at the east end of Nassau-Island, have mounted four cannon* as field-pieces, viz: three six-pounders and one three-pounder, to prevent depredations of the enemy along the Sound, and to enable the inhabitants to make a stand at certain passes; and that his Excellency be requested to send a sufficiency of powder, ball, and cartridge-paper, for the said cannon, to the care of Colonel Livingston; and that Colonel Teirce be directed to except such number of men from the common militia duty as will be sufficient to manage said cannon, they keeping a number of horses ready to remove the said cannon to such places as shall be necessary.

Ordered, That a copy of the Letter from Erastus Wolcott, dated New-London, August 24, 1776, be immediately transmitted by express to Brigadier-General Woodhull, and that he be requested to cause all the Stock on the sea-coast of Long-Island, which are most exposed to the enemy's depredations, to be drove with all possible despatch so far into the interior part of the country as to be out of danger from the enemy.

Ordered, That Mr. Duer, Mr. R. R. Livingston, Mr. W. Smith, Mr. Hobart, Mr. James Townsend, Mr. Dearing, and Mr. Tredwell, or any five of them, be a Committee of Safety until the next adjournment, or until there shall be members sufficient to form a Convention, and that all members who attend be members and have votes.

Ordered, That the Committee appointed to report a form of Government postpone their Report until Wednesday next.

Tuesday Afternoon, August 27, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met.

Present: Mr. Dearing, Chairman. Mr. Duer, Major Parks, Mr. Harper, Mr. Yates, Mr. Bancker, Mr. Adgate, Col. Hoffman, Major Lockwood, Mr. Mills, Mr. L'Hommedieu, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Gelston, Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Miller.

Mr. Abraham Van Rants, of Brunswick, from whence he is just arrived in a boat, with his family, says that he understood that last night fifteen hundred men surrounded the house of Mr. Duryee, (who lives about a mile to the southward of his house;) that they took his arms, horses, and wagon; that two Captains (say Companies) of the Militia in the neighbourhood of Bedford were disarmed and perhaps taken prisoners.

Mr. Berrien, Chairman of the New-York Committee, and Mr. Campbell, applied for more money to enable them to remove the Women, &c.; and also for money to be sent to the places where they are sent, to wit: New-Windsor, Mamaroneck, New-Rochel, Rye, —

It being suggested that it would be proper to have a guard over the Records this night, Ordered, That Captain Sampson Dyckman be requested to attend the Convention immediately.

*IN COMMITTEE, SOUTHOLD, August 19, 1776.

These certify that the Committee of Southold have expended £24 17s. 4d. in mounting four cannon as field-pieces, for the protection of the east end of Long-Island.

By order:

ROBERT HEMPSTED, Chairman.

Resolved, That the Records and Papers belonging to the Convention of this State, as also the Chest belonging to the Receiver-General's Office, be immediately conveyed to General Clinton's encampment at or near King's Bridge.

And Ordered, That one of the Secretaries do see them safely conveyed to the said encampment, and remain with them till further orders.

Ordered, That Mr. Isaac Willet be, and hereby is, authorized and empowered to procure and impress as many Boats as he possibly can, and proceed with them up the Sound to General Clinton, and put them under his direction; and this Committee does hereby engage that the Convention of this State will bear and defray any expense or damage that may accrue thereby.

Ordered, That Colonel Hoffman and Mr. L'Hommedieu call on Captain Shaw and request him to spare as many men as he can, to assist in taking the Boats up to General Clinton.

Ordered, That Captain Benson procure a guard of twenty men of his Company to guard the Store, and to watch if any of the enemy's Boats should attempt to land at Harlem, and that he post a proper guard at the house of Mr. Bogart, wherein the Records of the Convention of the said State are kept.

Whereas the Committee of Safety have reason to suspect that Nicholas Covenhoven, Esq., has given intelligence to the enemy of the Resolutions of this Convention:

Resolved, That Captain Benson be, and he is hereby, authorized immediately to apprehend the said Nicholas Covenhoven, and him safely convey to the Convention of this State, in order that he may be examined on such matters as to them shall appear necessary.

Resolved, That Colonel Pierre Van Cortlandt be, and he is hereby requested and authorized to examine all papers in the custody of Nicholas Covenhoven, Esq., and to transmit to the Convention of this State all such papers as may in anywise concern the publick weal.

A Letter from General Woodhull was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Westward of Queen's County, August 27, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: Enclosed I send you a copy of a letter from Colonel Potter, dated the 26th instant, who left me yesterday at eleven o'clock, after bringing about one hundred men to me at Jamaica. Major Smith has, I expect, all the rest that was to come from Suffolk County. There has about forty of the Militia joined me from the Regiment in Queen's County, and about fifty of the Troop belonging to King and Queen's County, which is near all I expect. I have got all the cattle southward of the hills, in King's County, drove to the eastward of the cross-road between the two Counties, and have placed guards and sentries from the north side to the south side of the Island, in order to prevent the cattle going back, and to prevent the communication of the Tories with the enemy. I am within about six miles of the enemy's camp; their Light-Horse has been within about two miles, and unless I have more men, our stay here will answer no purpose. We shall soon want to be supplied with provision if we tarry here.

"I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

"NATH'L WOODHULL.

"To the Hon. Convention of the State of New-York."

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

The Convention were informed that Mr. Z. Mills stands in need of a further supply of cash, to enable him to remove the Military Stores of the State, agreeable to a late order of this Convention.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention advance to Zebediah Mills, Esq., the further sum of ten Dollars, to enable him to complete the order of this Convention for removing the Military Stores belonging to this Convention from the City of New-York to Westchester County, and take his receipt, to be accountable for the same.

The Proceedings of the Committee of Safety on yesterday were read to the Convention, approved of, and confirmed.

Robert Harper returned from Flushing, and produced a receipt* from John Talman, Esq., Chairman of Flushing, for £200, for supporting the poor and indigent persons sent thither from the City of New-York.

Ordered, To be filed.

General Woodhull's Letter received yesterday afternoon by the Committee of Safety, was again read and taken into consideration.

Major Lawrence gave the following intelligence: that Dr. Riker told him that a number of scattering troops had posted themselves on the ridge of hills between New-Town and Jamaica; that they had been in many of the houses, had taken victuals and drink, but had not plundered, as he understood.

Ordered, That Major Lawrence wait on General Washington, with a copy of General Woodhull's Letter, and inform him that Colonels Smith and Remsen's Regiments may be sent to join General Woodhull, by the way of Flushing, and by what means.

A draft of a Letter to General Washington, to be sent by Major Lawrence, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

"Wednesday Morning, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: I am commanded by the Convention to enclose to your Excellency the copy of a letter they received last evening from General Woodhull. The Convention are of opinion that the enemy may be prevented from getting the stock and grain on Long-Island, if the Regiments under the command of Colonels Smith and Remsen be sent to join General Woodhull. That this junction may be effected, and how, Major Lawrence (who is a member of this Convention, and the bearer hereof) will inform your Excellency.

"I have the honour to be, with great respect, your Excellency's most obedient, humble servant. By order.

"To His Excellency General Washington."

Ordered, That Mr. Van Wyck do repair immediately to Flushing, to gain intelligence of the situation of the enemy, and what places are now occupied by General Woodhull; that he do, with all possible expedition, despatch a boat to the Convention with the information he can collect, at the same time pointing out the most suitable place for the reinforcement to join General Woodhull to land, and that he be empowered to impress boats, men, and horses, for carrying this order into execution.

Ordered, That Mr. Van Wyck and Major Lawrence have leave to employ Sa. Dyckman, the express, for a few hours.

Whereas the Convention has received information that John Rogers, a servant of Brigadier-General Morris, has manifested a disposition extremely inimical to the rights and liberties of America, and that there is room to suspect that he will take the first opportunity to join the enemy:

Ordered, therefore, That Captain Benson, of Harlem, be requested and directed to apprehend the said John Rogers, or cause him to be apprehended and brought before this Convention.

The Committee to consider the Letter from Robert Yates and Gilbert Livingston,* members of the Committee to obstruct Hudson's River, dated at the instant, reported a draft of a Letter to the Delegates of this State at Congress, which was read and approved of, and is in the words following, that is to say:

*FLUSHING, August 26, 1776.

Received from Robert Harper the sum of £200, ordered by the honourable Convention of the State of New-York to defray the expenses of such poor families as have been sent here from New-York by order of the said Convention.

JOHN TALMAN.

"Harlem, August 28, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: The Convention of this State consider the fortification of Hudson's River and the obstructing of its passage in the Highlands, of the last importance, and have reason to believe that the Congress view it in the same light. They have appointed a Committee to superintend that work, who inform them that they are greatly delayed for the want of smiths, unless they may be permitted to employ those that are now engaged in building the Continental frigate at Poughkeepsie, which therefore they desire you immediately to request of them. The Convention hope that you will succeed in your application, since the finishing of the ships is of far inferior importance to the security of the river; and even were it otherwise in itself, then it must doubtless be so now, when the former will, in all probability, depend upon the latter. They beg that you will urge this matter as soon as possible, since you need not be informed that delay will work the same effect as a refusal.

"I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant. By order.

"To the Delegates of the State of New-York, at Congress."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted.

Ordered, That Mr. L'Homedieu, Colonel De Witt, and Mr. Wisner, be a Committee further to consider and report on the said Letter from the said Committee at Poughkeepsie.

Ordered, That Captain Rutgers and Mr. Landon be, and they are hereby, requested and authorized to direct and manage the transportation of Colonel Smith's and Colonel Remsen's Regiments in the best and most convenient manner, to join Brigadier-General Woodhull; and for that purpose that they be hereby authorized to impress Boats and Craft of any kind which they shall think proper.

Ordered, That Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Wisner, and Mr. John Moore, be a Committee to consider and report whether any and what further means can be devised for supplying the Troops raised in this State with Clothing and Blankets.

A Letter from General Woodhull, dated this day, was received and read, and is as follows, that is to say:

"Jamaica, August 28, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: I wrote two letters to you yesterday, one by express and another by Mr. Harper, and also sent my Brigade-Major to you to let you know my situation; and I expected an answer to some of them last night, but my express informed me he was detained till last night for an answer. I have now received yours of the 26th, which is only a copy of the last, without a single word of an answer to my letters, or the message of my Brigade-Major.

"I must again let you know my situation. I have about seventy men, and about twenty of the Troop, which is all the force I have or can expect, and I am daily growing less in number. The people are so alarmed in Suffolk, that they will not, any more of them, march; and as to Colonels Smith's and Remsen's Regiments, they cannot join me, for the communication is cut off between us.

"I have sent about eleven hundred cattle to the great fields of the plains yesterday. About three hundred more are gone off this morning to the same place, and have ordered a guard of an officer and seven privates. They can get no water in those fields. My men and horses are worn out with fatigue. The cattle are not all gone off towards Hempstead. I ordered them yesterday, but they were not able to take them along. I brought yesterday about three hundred from New-Town. I think the cattle are in as much danger on the north as on the south side, and have ordered the inhabitants

*POUGHKEEPSIE, August 26, 1776.

SIR: Captain Hazelwood, who came up to us by request of Convention, has fitted a fire-vessel, as we conceive, in a masterly manner, and given such instructions to some persons we have here employed, with respect to mixing fire combustible, &c., that we think we can now carry on our works without further assistance. He has, in general, been very assiduous, and of very much use to us. We are unhappy at this time not to have a quorum of our Committee present; therefore must beg leave to submit to your honourable House the consideration of any reward this gentleman may have reason to expect from this State for his extraordinary expense and trouble in this business.

We are, with respect, your very humble servants,

CHRIS'R TAPPEN,

To Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President of the Convention of the State of New-York.

to remove them. If you cannot send me an immediate reinforcement, I am afraid I shall have no men with me by to-morrow night, for they consider themselves in an enemy's country; and if I can have no reinforcement, I beg you will send very particular directions what I shall do with the stock: whether I shall kill them or leave them, for I shall not be able to get them all together, and tend them, if the men I have will all stay with me. I beg you would immediately send at least two members, as a Committee, that I may have their advice, for unless you do, I must quit, for I hope the Convention does not expect me to make brick without straw.

"I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

"NATHL. WOODHULL."

Ordered, That Mr. Hobart and Mr. James Townsend, as a Committee of this Convention, be, and hereby are, directed to repair to General Woodhull with such instructions as the Convention shall think proper to give, and to assist him with their advice.

And Ordered, That General Woodhull and the said Committee be, and hereby are, instructed that they cause all such Stock and all such Grain in Queen's County and the western part of Suffolk County as may be in danger of falling into the enemy's hands, and cannot be removed to places of safety, to be destroyed.

Ordered, That the said Committee be, and they hereby are, empowered to impress horses, boats, and persons to convey themselves to General Woodhull with the utmost despatch.

And Resolved, That the Convention will defray the expenses of the said Committee in the premises.

A Letter from D. Mathews, received by Mr. De Peyster, was read, and is as follows:

"Litchfield, August 12, 1776.

"SIR: I did myself the honour of addressing you by letter when I was brought to the White-Plains, and have since taken the liberty of writing to Mr. Morris relative to my treatment, the answer to both which letters I now enclose you, it being a commitment issued by Mr. Trumbull. If this is to be my treatment, the Lord deliver me. I have been a Crown officer upwards of twenty years, and was Chief Magistrate of the city of New-York, and a subject of the King of Great Britain when I was taken, (independence not being then declared,) and I am thought to believe that my rank was equal to any prisoner taken by the King's troops during this unhappy contest, and I believe you will not find such a commitment issued against any one of them that sustained the character of a gentleman. I had some hopes that the acquaintance you had in the family would at least have obtained here the treatment of a gentleman, but it seems I have nothing to expect but what is due to the worst of felons, and had it not been for the kind interposition of Mr. De Peyster, (for whom I shall ever entertain the highest esteem,) I should in all probability have been in the land of spirits ere this.

"It amazes me to think that the State of New-York should send me to be dealt with as Mr. Trumbull should think proper. I was in hopes after independence was declared, that nothing savouring of the extension of that ancient statute, so justly complained of, would have found the least footing in America. I conceive I was as much entitled to bail in the State of New-York as Mr. Sayre lately was in London, for I believe his crime, and the witnesses to prove them were much alike. I offered any security; even some of the warmest Whigs would have been bail for my appearance whenever demanded. But it seems prison was the word, and every commitment sticks close to it.

"I assure you, sir, if I could have entertained the least idea of receiving the treatment I have received, I should have embraced the opportunity of giving that kind of bail which is commonly called leg-bail, which I had frequent opportunities of doing after I was seized; but as I never could reconcile it to myself either to leave my family or join the King's Army, and knowing at the same time that my departure would give my enemies every advantage they wished for, I rejected every proposal of that kind, in full expectation that I should be done by as those gentlemen would wish to be done by were they so unfortunate as to be taken prisoners; but it seems I expected too much. I have only now to make myself as contented as possible, for it would seem that I am fixed here for life, as I am only to be delivered by due course of law.

"I should not have troubled you, sir, with another letter, had I not been requested to inform you of my treatment; and as this will be the last I shall presume to trouble you with, I shall ask one favour, which is, that if I am not suffered to go to my family, I may be permitted to reside at Hartford, on giving security (for my word of honour, it seems, is of no validity in my own State,) to remain there, as I have some friends there who would accommodate me with the comforts of life, and I might there have an opportunity of seeing Mrs. Mathews. If this is thought unreasonable I shall say no more about it, and shall still remain one of those who wish that America may never lose her liberties, nor her sons meet with oppression.

"Am, sir, your very humble, obedient servant,

"D. MATHEWS.

"General Woodhull."

The copies of his Commitment, a Letter to Mrs. Mathews, and a Letter from Moses Seymour, Sheriff of Litchfield County, therein enclosed, were also read.*

Thereupon a draft of a Letter to the said David Mathews was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

*To the Keeper of the common Jail in HARTFORD, in the County of HARTFORD, greeting:

Whereas David Mathews, Esq., of the City, County, and State of New-York, is sent into this Government by the Provincial Convention of the Representatives of the State of New-York, being accused in that State of treasonable practices against the States of America, with request that he may be safely kept and confined in this State until he may be brought to trial for said crime, which, from the particular circumstances of said State of New-York, cannot at present be done:

These are, therefore, in the name of the Governour and Company of the State of Connecticut, to command and require you to receive the said David Mathews, Esq., of the hands of Abraham De Peyster, Esq., of said State of New-York, within said prison, and him safely to keep until delivered in due course of law. Hereof you may not fail.

Dated in Lebanon, the 1st day of August, A. D. 1776.

JONTH. TRUMBULL, Governour.

LITCHFIELD, August 12, 1776.

DEAR SALLY: I received yours by Mr. Chapman, who was so kind as to come and see me, and I never was more rejoiced to see a friend, he being the only person I have seen since my arrival here that I had seen before. I shall always esteem him for his great goodness. He stayed with me the greatest part of the day, although the Committee here wanted to have sent him away immediately; and if I had not told them I would leave their town instantly, if I was denied the pleasure of conversing with a friend, they would have taken him away. He has given me an invitation to his house, at Stratford, and I have wrote to the Congress for leave to reside there, but don't expect they will comply with it, as they don't seem inclined to deal by me as I would wish to deal with all men. I was extremely glad to hear that you and children were well, and that Mr. Chapman had seen you.

When I first came to this place I was very much dissatisfied, and wrote to the Congress that they had fixed me in a place where I never could hear from my family, and that I was also deceived in my expectations; for I was told by some of the Congress that, on my arrival here, I was to be indulged with my liberty as far as the town extended. The letter was addressed to Gouverneur Morris. On their receipt of that letter they were pleased to deliver me over to the Governour of this Colony, to whom they sent Mr. De Peyster for orders what was to be done with me.

On Mr. De Peyster's arrival here from the Governour, and showing me the enclosed commitment, I found that I had no favour to expect from the Congress. I therefore prevailed on him to let me remain here, until he could go back to the Governour and get his consent for that purpose, and this day he returned with the Governour's leave for me to remain here. Mr. De Peyster has behaved to me like a gentleman and a Christian, and I beg if ever you meet with him you will show him every civility, and recommend him to all my friends. He has done more than I could have expected. May God reward him!

Ever since my arrival here I have been at the house of Captain Moses Seymour, who, together with his wife, have behaved in the most genteel, kind manner, and have done everything in their power to make my time as agreeable as possible. They have nothing of the Yankee about them. He is a fine, merry fellow, and she is a warm Protestant, and if it was not that the thoughts of home were continually in my mind, I might be happy with my good landlord and his family, to whom I wish you could send some tea, if it were possible, as there is none to be bought here.

I have sent you the enclosed commitment, in order that you may forward it by the first opportunity, to let some folks see how I am treated, and that the very thing which the Congress complained of as a grievance, which was that of sending persons abroad for trial, is now put in execution by themselves.

Tell my good friend Mr. Bache, I received his letter, by the hands of Mr. Sheldon, who desired to know the contents, which being read to him, he took up his bed and walked, and I never expect to see him again. I only mention this for his diversion, for I am under the same obligations to him, but he little knows how times have altered men here, for if he had wrote in favour of the angel Gabriel, it would have been the same thing. If I should be so happy as to get to Stratford, I shall immediately let you know of it. Give my love to Messrs. Bache, Sherry, and Cortlandt, and their wives. Kiss all the children for me, and be of good cheer, for I hope my deliverance is at hand.

I am, dear Sally, affectionately,

D. MATHEWS.

To Mrs. Mathews, at Flatbush.

The Congress were much afraid I should run away if I had my liberty; but this good man, with whom I lodge, and who never heard of me

"Wednesday Morning, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: The Convention direct me to inform you that they have received yours to the President, and that they have examined also your letter to Mrs. Mathews; that you never was taken up as a British subject, nor to be considered as a prisoner of war. Your rank, therefore, is immaterial; you well know the cause of that treatment which you deem so cruel. You well know that you stand charged with being concerned in a deep conspiracy against the rights and liberties of America; and however innocent you may be, it is the duty of the Convention that you be secured for trial: that you were privy to it, in a great measure, your own examination evinces. The Convention direct me to remind you, that you are not sent to Connecticut for trial, but for security; that they never heard of bail being taken in similar cases; that your fellow-citizens would, most probably, upon your going at large, have been their own avengers; that you shall have a fair and candid trial, when the exigencies of the State will permit, and that they have too great respect for the liberties of mankind to make any unnecessary inroads upon that sacred ground. What opportunities you may have had to escape, and what reasons to stay, the Convention do not know; but they know the charges against you, and their duty to the publick.

"The Convention do further direct me to assure you, sir, that they have not the least objection to inform not only the British Government, (say Governours and Generals,) but all mankind, that they have taken precautions for their own safety, and confined persons accused of treasonable designs and conspiracies; and they do sincerely wish with you, that America may never lose her liberties, nor her sons meet with oppression. By order.

"To D. Mathews, Esq."

Ordered, That the same be engrossed, and signed by the President, and transmitted.

A Letter to Governour Trumbull, on the same subject, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, viz:

"Wednesday Morning, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: The Convention direct me to return your Honour their sincere thanks for the attention you have been pleased to pay to the prisoners we have been under the necessity of sending into your State. We now take the liberty of enclosing to your Honour the copy of an intercepted letter from D. Mathews, Esq., to his wife, from which it appears that he deeply resents the treatment he received from the Convention. It is with the utmost regret that we feel ourselves under the necessity of requesting your Honour to secure that gentleman in such manner as to prevent his escape and all improper correspondence. The troubling you with our prisoners is a matter for which necessity alone can apologize. This State has suffered so much from disaffected persons, that a greater degree of severity towards them would be justifiable, especially as all lenity hath been by them attributed to fear. Notwithstanding such high provocation, we have in no instance invaded the rights of humanity, it might therefore be expected that we should be surprised to see such a designed misrepresentation of our conduct, but nothing of this kind is new. The crime of which Mr.

before, has such an opinion of me that he has wrote to them he will be answerable for me whenever they shall call for me. A prophet has no honour in his own country. It is possible times may change.

LITCHFIELD, August 12, 1776.

SIR: Upon the second arrival of Mr. De Peyster here, Messrs. Mathews and Roome, upon finding that they could not be suffered to be nearer home, were so desirous of remaining prisoners in this town, that I prevailed upon Mr. De Peyster to consent to leave them in my custody, provided our Committee had no objection, and it should not be disapproved of by Governour Trumbull. The Committee's consent was accordingly obtained before Mr. De Peyster left town with the other prisoners, and since his return from Lebanon he tells me the Governour has no objection to their remaining here. For the satisfaction, therefore, of the honourable Convention of your State, I take this opportunity to assure you, sir, that I shall keep the above-mentioned gentlemen safe within certain limits in this town, under my particular direction; and shall either surrender them to the respective places assigned by Governour Trumbull at any time whenever your honourable Convention demand their appearance, either before them, or before any other court, have them forthcoming and ready to be delivered into the custody of such person as shall be sent for them by the said Convention. I hope, sir, what I have done will meet with your approbation and the approbation of the other members of your House, who, I suppose, meant no more by sending the above gentlemen into Connecticut than their being put into safe custody, and at a distance from New-York, the present seat of war.

I am, sir, your humble servant,

MOSES SEYMOUR.

To Nathaniel Woodhull, Esq.

Mathews stands charged, is no less than treason against the rights of America, and yet it seems he considers his confinement as unjust. We are confident, sir, that in committing him to prison, you will avoid every circumstance of unnecessary rigour; but the instance we enclose you of his unfriendly intentions demands that great care should be taken to prevent the character of these States from being unjustly stigmatized by such willful misrepresentations.

"I have the honour to be, sir, &c. By order.

"To Governour Trumbull," &c.

A Letter from Joseph Drake, at New-Rochell, dated this day, was received and read, in the words following, to wit:

"New-Rochell, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: I received the resolve of the Committee of Safety yesterday, enclosed to me by John McKesson, Esq. Pursuant to my directions, I have ordered a party to guard from Rye-Neck to Rodman's Neck, of the Militia of this County. Colonel Graham's Regiment is at present stationed at Frog's Neck. The enemy lay yesterday and all last night by Hart-Island; this morning they removed a little to the southward of Miniford's Island, where they at present lay. They have not been able to plunder much. They got from Mineford's Island four horned cattle and some poultry, which is all we have been able to learn they have plundered. I immediately sent Captain Hunt, with about fifty men, from New-Rochel, who, with the help of a part of Colonel Graham's Regiment, drove off all the cattle from the Island, to the amount of thirty-odd head. I should be glad to be informed if Colonel Graham's Regiment is to remain on Frog-Neck, if that is not improper it will be a very great ease to the County at this season, especially as it will take almost all the Militia to guard the whole. I conceive it will take nigh half of my Regiment to guard from Rodman's Point to the snuff mills. Colonel Budd is to send one hundred men, and to guard from there to Rye-Neck. I find it very difficult for the men to provide five days' provisions at this time of the year; therefore, I thought it proper to appoint Theophilus Barlow Commissary for the time being. I am apprehensive, if ever I should come to an engagement with the enemy, we should be in great want of powder, as we have not above six rounds a man for all the Militia. You may rely on my utmost vigilance to frustrate the intentions of the enemy in all their motions while here.

"From your very humble servant,

JOSEPH DRAKE."

Ordered, To be referred to Mr. Morris and Mr. Jay.

On motion, Resolved, That the Governour of Connecticut be requested to send into Suffolk County one thousand Troops for the protection of the Inhabitants and security of the Stock on Nassau-Island, as the strength of Long-Island is now within his Excellency General Washington's lines, and cannot be had.

A draft of a Letter to several Towns in Connecticut, requesting their assistance in removing the Stock from Long-Island, was read and approved of, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Wednesday Morning, August 28, 1776.

"GENTLEMEN: The Convention of the State of New-York are under the melancholy necessity of again calling upon their sister States for their assistance, in a matter in which not only they, but the whole continent, are interested. The enemy, who have landed upon Long-Island, will, we fear, have it in their power to possess themselves of the whole stock, which amounts to between eighty and one hundred thousand of cattle and as many sheep, as our forces are confined to their lines. These articles will doubtless be of the greatest use to the enemy; for the want of some of them we know they are already distressed. We must therefore request you immediately to afford all the assistance in your power to forward the removal of the stock from the Island, and to provide for them in your State, till some further direction can be given with respect to them, and to lend your aid to each of the inhabitants that may wish to remove. The importance of these objects need not be enlarged upon, nor need arguments be urged to induce you to every necessary exertion. The readiness and publick spirit which the Committees in Connecticut have ever shown in carrying into execution all measures of publick utility, leave us no room to doubt but that they will exert themselves on this occasion, which is of the utmost importance to the general cause of America.

"To the Chairman of Stonington, New-London, Groton, Lyme, Seabrook, Guilford, New-Haven, Stratford, Fairfield, Milford, Norwalk, Stamford, and Horseneck, in the State of Connecticut; who are directed to forward the same."

A draft of a Letter to Governour Trumbull, on the same subject, was read and approved, and is as follows, to wit:

"Harlem, Wednesday morning, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: I enclose you a copy of a letter which the Convention of this State have directed to the several Committees of your State, requesting their assistance in removing the inhabitants and stock from Long-Island. The Convention are sensible that their first application should have been to your Excellency, but necessity has obliged them to dispense with form, which they doubt not you will consider as a sufficient apology. The Convention, therefore, find themselves under a necessity of applying to your Excellency for one thousand men, or any greater force which can be speedily obtained, who, they conceive, may greatly contribute to the security of the Island, and at the same time, in some measure, coöperate with our Army in the lines, or at least greatly weaken the attack of the enemy. The Militia of Long-Island are, for the most part, shut up within the lines, so that nothing can be done for its defence without your assistance.

"I have the honour to be, &c. By order.

"To His Excellency Governour Trumbull, of the State of Connecticut."

Ordered, That Mr. Gelston proceed to Connecticut, with the Letter to Governour Trumbull and the Committees, and that this Convention will bear his expenses.

Wednesday, 5 o'clock, P. M., August 28, 1776.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President.

FOR NEW-YORK.—Mr. Beekman, Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Jay, Mr. Bancker, Major Abeel.

ALBANY.—Mr. A. Yates, Mr. Adgate, Colonel Rensselaer.

SUFFOLK.—Mr. Miller, Mr. Tredwell, Mr. Dearing, Mr. Gelston.

ULSTER.—Col. De Witt, Mr. Wisner, Jun., Major Parks.

QUEEN'S.—Mr. S. Townsend.

DUTCHESS.—Mr. R. R. Livingston.

WESTCHESTER.—Mr. Morris, Col. Van Cortlandt, Major Lockwood, Colonel Drake.

ORANGE.—Mr. Outwater, Mr. Little, Mr. Wisner.

CUMBERLAND.—Colonel Marsh, Mr. Stephens, Mr. Scissions.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Duer.

TRYON.—Mr. Moore, Mr. Harper, Mr. Veder.

Mr. Jay and Mr. Morris reported two Resolutions and the draft of a Letter to Colonel Drake, relative to the Militia, and the appointment of Theodosius Bartow as Commissary pro tem.; were read, and are in the words following, that is to say:

"Thursday morning, August 29, 1776.

"SIR: I am directed by the Convention to inform you that they approve of your conduct relative to the defence of the coast, and refer the whole of that business (in General Morris's absence) to your discretion. They confirm your appointment of Mr. Bartow as Commissary, and have enclosed an order on the Treasurer for one thousand dollars. As to powder, they are much at a loss, but have ordered General Clinton to afford you all the supply which the store of this State will admit of.

"I am, very respectfully, sir, yours, &c. By order.

"To Colonel Joseph Drake."

"Resolved, That Theos. Bartow, Esq., be empowered to act as Commissary, till further order, to the Militia employed to defend the coast of Westchester County, on the Sound; that he have an order on the Treasurer of this Convention for one thousand Dollars, and that he account for the same to this Convention, or the Legislature of this State for the time being.

"Resolved, That General Clinton do furnish Col. Joseph Drake with such a quantity of Cartridges, or Powder and Lead, out of the store of this State, in his possession, as he may think necessary to the defence of the coast of Westchester."

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention advance to Theodosius Bartow, Esq., the sum of one thousand Dollars, to enable him to execute the order of this day appointing him to act as Commissary to the Militia employed to defend the coast of Westchester County, and take his receipt to be accountable for the same.

The Examination of Colonel Covenhoven was read, as follows:

"Harlem, August 28, 1776.

"Left Long-Island on Sunday morning; came last from Welpelmus Stothoof's Island. On the day that the enemy landed, as he was returning from the lines, he was taken by a party of the enemy; they treated him roughly, took from him his sword and cockade, and carried him to Head-Quarters; was politely received by General Howe, who asked him if he would stay home and send his produce, which he promised to do. He understood from the officers that eight thousand men had landed the first day. They sent for him the second time on the same day; ordered him to get fowls, &c.; under pretence of which he went off, got a horse, and went to General Washington; asked him what part he should take; who directed him to go back, and he was to collect information, and send it to General Washington; which he did, and got back without having been missed; they never questioned him further. He afterwards met with some Hessians, who took him with them to get cows, and agreed among themselves to put him to death after he had showed them the cows, as they were forbid to kill any cattle; they spoke this in the Hessian language; showed them a cow, and he left them; most of the stock had been driven off before. He then went to the Flatlands, where he saw many Regulars; saw Governour Tryon, but did not speak to him; Generals Howe, Clinton, and Peckett, were on the Island; the enemy were joined by few people from the Island; saw many people from Staten-Island, not armed. Left it on Sunday, with design to come to Congress; when got to McGowen's was arrested. Does not think it safe Congress should continue here; they talked in the camp of landing above this. The party that carried him to General Howe carried also his sword and cockade, but it was not noticed by the General. Heard at the Flatlands that seventeen sail of transports were going round in order to land at Morisania; the enemy proposed to attack the line the day after they landed, but were repulsed, and seventeen Hessians killed."

Mr. Morris read two Letters, whereby the Convention is informed that Captain Berrien refused to pay any attention to the order of this Convention exempting Mr. Chs. Shaw from military service, or the order which in like manner exempts R. Morris, Esq.

Ordered, That Captain Berrien do attend this Convention immediately, to show the cause of his conduct in the premises.

A Letter from General Washington, received by Major Lawrence, was read, and is as follows:

"Long-Island, August 28, 1776.

"SIR: I was just now honoured with your favour of this date, with General Woodhull's letter, and should esteem myself happy were it in my power to afford the assistance required; but the enemy having landed a considerable part of their force here, and at the same time may have reserved some to attack New-York, it is the opinion not only of myself, but of all my General Officers I have had an opportunity of consulting with, that the men we have are not more than competent to the defence of these lines, and the several posts which must be defended. This reason, and this only, prevents my complying with your request.

"I shall beg leave to mention, in confidence, that a few days ago, upon the enemy's first landing here, I wrote to Governour Trumbull, recommending him to throw over a body of one thousand men on the Island, to annoy the enemy in their rear, if the state of the Colony would admit of it. Whether it will be done, I cannot determine. That Colony having furnished a large proportion of men, I was, and still am doubtful whether it could be done. If it could, I am satisfied it will, from the zeal and readiness they have ever shown to give every possible succour. I am hopeful they will be in a condition to do it, and, if they are, those troops I doubt not will be ready and willing to give General Woodhull any assistance he may want. But cannot the Militia effect what he wished to do? They, I believe, must be depended on in the present instance for relief.

"I have the honour to be, in great haste, sir, your most obedient servant,
GO. WASHINGTON.

"The Hon. Abraham Yates."

Mr. Duer moved the following Resolution, that is to say:

Resolved, That whereas, from the vicinity of the enemy's Ships of War now in the Sound, and the situation of their Army on Nassau-Island, it would be very practicable for a small party of men to surprise this defenceless town, and to remove all its inhabitants; and whereas, from the present invasion of this State, thereby cause the communication between this Convention and their constituents to be cut off:

Therefore, Resolved, That the Convention of this State will forthwith adjourn from hence to Mr. Jay moved that it be postponed until to-morrow.

The previous question being put, (whether it be postponed until to-morrow,) it was carried in the negative, in manner following, to wit:

4 Westchester.	2 Charlotte.	4 Queen's.
	3 Orange.	4 Suffolk.
6 votes.	6 Albany.
	3 Tryon.	34 votes.

Mr. Livingston then moved that they would adjourn, to meet at Fishkill; and the question being put, it was carried in the affirmative, in manner following, to wit:

For the Affirmative.	For the Negative.
6 Albany.	4 Westchester.	Mr. Morris dis-
3 Orange.	4 Suffolk.	senting.
4 Ulster.	4 Queen's.
3 Tryon.	2 Charlotte.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Present. Abm. Yates, Esq., President.

NEW-YORK.—Mr. Bancker, Mr. Harper, Mr. Abeel.

ALBANY.—Mr. Abm. Yates, Mr. Adgate, Colonel Rensselaer.

ULSTER.—Colonel De Witt, Mr. Wisner, Major Parks.

SUFFOLK.—Mr. Smith, Mr. Miller, Mr. L'Hommedieu, Mr. Dearing, Mr. Tredwell.

A Letter from Mr. Van Wyck,* at Flushing, who was sent yesterday from Congress to inquire whether the communication between this and Jamaica is open and safe by the way of Flushing, was received. He mentions that the Troops may pass safely that way, if they can be got there this evening; that the enemy's ships lie between Thorne's Point and Great-Neck. Referred to Mr. Smith, Colonel Hoffman, and Mr. Tredwell.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention advance to Z. Platt, Esq., the further sum of £700, to enable him to execute the order of this Convention, appointing him Commissary for the time being, to provide Provisions for the Troops under the command of Brigadier-General Clinton, and to pay for a quantity of Boards purchased by virtue of said order, and take his receipt for the same.

*FLUSHING, August 28, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I am informed by Thomas Thomas, a member of the Committee, who just came from General Woodhull, that he was at Jamaica, and that he just came from Wight Stone. The ships of war lay between Thorne's Point and Great-Neck; that there can be no danger of bringing up our men to this place, if can get them up this evening. I think it will be proper to send this intelligence off as soon as possible by the same boat, as I cannot get any other.

I am, gentlemen, your most obedient, humble servant,

CORNS. VAN WYCK.

P. S. I am just going to Jamaica to the General.

To Henry Yates, Esq., Member of Convention of the State of New-York.

Mr. Tompkins came into Convention, and informed that Mr. Lounsbury was come into Westchester County with a commission from General Howe to raise Rangers; that a party of Rangers (say Militia) went in pursuit of him, and were under the necessity of killing him, as he would not surrender; another was wounded and four were taken prisoners, all his recruits. The commission from Lord Howe, and other papers found on him, were read and filed.

Committed to Colonel De Witt, Mr. Livingston, and Mr. Tompkins.

On motion, Resolved, unanimously, That Mr. John McDonald, employed as a Miner by this Convention, be directed to proceed upon a further discovery, for the space of twenty days, in exploring the Lead Mines in the Nine Partners, in Dutchess County, then to return and report to this House; and that he be allowed eight shillings per day while so employed; and that he be allowed to employ two men besides himself; and that he be furnished with one-quarter hundred weight of Powder.

Carried unanimously.

The Committee to whom was referred the Letter from Mr. Van Wyck, brought in their Report, as follows:

"Your Committee, to whom was referred the consideration of the letter from Mr. Van Wyck, and several letters from General Woodhull, do report, that there would be danger of a letter falling into the enemy's hands, and therefore they think it best that a member be sent to him to give him an account of our proceedings upon the subject of his letters, and in confidence of the substance of the letter we received from General Washington."

Ordered, That Mr. Samuel Townsend be requested to proceed to Long-Island on the above business.

The Committee, to whom was referred the Papers, &c., received from Mr. Tompkins, found upon Mr. Lounsbury, killed by a party of Militia in Westchester County, report as follows:

"That the prisoners be kept in close custody till they are examined. That the Chairman of the Committee of Westchester County be requested to take the examination of the prisoners, and transmit them to the Convention of this State."

Ordered, That Bloomer Nelson, Samuel Haines, Josiah Disberry, and Jacob Schureman, be committed to the Jail at Kingston, in Ulster County, and there kept in close and secure custody till further orders.

And, Ordered further, That Colonel Joseph Drake be directed to provide a proper Guard, and to see this order executed.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention pay to Jonathan Tompkins, Esq., the sum of twenty Dollars, to be by him delivered to Mr. Flood, as a reward for his spirited conduct in apprehending William Lounsbury, (a notorious enemy to the cause of America,) in Westchester County.

Mr. Harper, agreeable to notice given last night, moved for a reconsideration of the determination of the House last night for removing the Convention to Fishkill.

Debates arose, and the question being put, it was as follows, that is to say:

For reconsidering.	Against it.
4 Suffolk.	6 Albany.
4 Westchester.	2 Charlotte.
4 Queen's.	4 Westchester.
2 Cumberland.	8 New-York.
	3 Tryon.
14 votes.	3 Orange.
	26 votes.

Resolved, That the Convention will meet in the English Church at Fishkill, on Monday next, at nine o'clock; that a Committee of Safety, to consist of Mr. Duer, Colonel Cortlandt, Colonel Van Rensselaer, Mr. Robert Livingston, and Major Schenck, with Mr. Yates, the President, be appointed to act for this State till the Convention meet.

The Convention having been informed by their Secret Committee of the services of Captain Hazlewood, in preparing Fire-Rafts and giving useful information relative to the obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River, think him entitled to the thanks of this House; and, as a compensation for his expenses and trouble,

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this Convention pay to said Captain Hazlewood the sum of £300, out of the Treasury of this State, for his services as aforesaid.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to consider what number of the Militia can be speedily called out for the defence of this State.

Colonel Hoffman, Mr. Wisner, Jun., Colonel De Witt, Colonel Cortlandt, and Mr. Duer, were appointed the said Committee.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the inhabitants of Long-Island to remove as many of their Women, Children, and Slaves, and as much of their Stock and Grain, to the Main, as they can, and that this Convention will pay the expenses of removing the same.

Ordered, That John Rogers, a servant man of General Morris, apprehended by order of this Convention as being notoriously disaffected, be conveyed under a proper guard to the Jail in Westchester County, to be kept in close custody till further orders; and that Captain Benson cause this order to be duly executed.

A Letter from Peter T. Curtenius, with a list of articles such as he contracted for by order of this Convention, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

“Harlem, August 28, 1776.

“GENTLEMEN: I am in advance, on account of the Convention, above £4,000, and have engaged clothing and other articles to the amount of at least as much more. Should be glad this honourable House would be pleased to give an order on the Treasurer for £10,000, that I may be enabled to make good my engagements.

“I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

“PETER T. CURTENIUS.

“P. S. Mr. Roosevelt has about £2,800, which he told me I could have, if the Convention would give me an order on him.

“A list of Articles which I have contracted for, and have in store, viz:

“1500 pair buckskin breeches, 3000 shirts, and 200 dozen German-ton stockings, at Philadelphia; the last article something doubtful whether the whole quantity will be got.

“1000 yards linen, given out to be made in shirts at Hackensack.

“45 pieces osnaburghs at old Mr. Paulling's, about three thousand yards; may do to make shirts.

“600 pair shoes in ditto, and can get about 2000 pair more.

“348 dressed deer-skins at Hackensack; about 500 pair buckskin breeches engaged in different parts of the country, and believe I can get more at Bethlehem.”

Resolved, That Peter T. Curtenius be empowered to borrow the sum of £10,000, and that the Convention of this State pledge the publick faith to the persons of whom he may borrow this sum for the repayment of the same, and that the receipt or receipts of the said Peter T. Curtenius shall be vouchers to the person or persons of whom the whole or any part of this sum may be borrowed, and to the Treasurer of this Convention for payment of the same.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State, and the Secretaries of the Convention, do immediately remove, with the Treasury and Records of this State, to Fishkill, in Dutchess County, and that they there join the Convention at nine o'clock, on Monday next.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.

Harlem, August 29, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met. Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President, Colonel Cortlandt, Colonel Van Renselaer, Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Mr. Duer, Mr. Bleecker.

Colonel Phineas Fanning waited on the Committee with a Letter from Colonel Josiah Smith, Colonel of the Draughts of the Militia of Suffolk, Queen's, and King's Counties, stationed at Brookland, in King's County, informing the Committee that his Regiment is ordered by General Washington to withdraw from Long-Island and wait the further orders of the Convention of this State.

Thereupon, it was Ordered, That Colonel Josiah Smith do, with all possible despatch, march his Regiment to Horn's Hook, there to receive further orders from Mr. Samuel Townsend and Major Lawrence, and that he apply to the Commissary-General for five days' provisions, and to the Quartermaster-General for baggage-wagons, it being of the utmost consequence that this Regiment should march without delay.

And Resolved, That Mr. Samuel Townsend and Major Lawrence be requested and authorized to attend the Regiment commanded by Colonel Smith, in order to supply the said Regiment with provisions, and to devise the most safe and expeditious means of transporting the said Regiment from Long-Island; and that they be authorized and empowered to impress horses, wagons, boats, vessels, &c., for that purpose; for the payment of which, and every other necessary expense, this Committee pledge the publick faith.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State pay to Mr. Samuel Townsend and Major Lawrence the sum of £100, to be by them accounted for to the Convention of this State.

Resolved and Ordered, That the Brigadier-General or Commanding Officers of the Militia in the Counties of Orange, Ulster, Westchester, and Dutchess, do hold their Militia in readiness to march at a moment's warning, with five days' provisions, and as much ammunition as possible; there being the greatest reason to imagine that the whole force of this State may in a few days be wanted to repel the invasion of our merciless and tyrannical enemy.

Ordered, That the Secretaries transmit certified copies of the foregoing Resolution to the Brigadiers of the Counties therein mentioned, with the utmost despatch.

Resolved and Ordered, That Captain Sickles and twelve men keep guard this night at such places as the motions of the enemy can be best watched, and that he make return to this Committee of all such persons who shall refuse to obey.

King's Bridge, August 30, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met. Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., Chairman, Colonel Van Cortlandt, Colonel Renselaer, Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Mr. Duer, Mr. Bleecker.

The Committee were informed that the Continental Troops, with all the Militia, had, by order of General Washington, left Long-Island and come over to the city.

Thereupon a draft of a Letter to General Washington was read, approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

“SIR: In our way to Fishkill, agreeable to an adjournment of the Convention, we are informed that the Army on Long-Island is removed to the City of New-York; and anxiety to know the fact, as well as to be informed whether you think any measures necessary for us to take, induces us to trouble your Excellency at this time for an answer hereto. We have ordered, last night, all the Militia of the Counties of Ulster, Dutchess, Orange, and Westchester, to be ready on a minute's warning, with five days' provisions. We shall wait the return of our messenger at this place; and are, sir, your most obedient and very humble servant. By order.

Ordered, That the same be copied, and transmitted by express.

A Letter from Brigadier-General Clinton, dated at King's Bridge, August 30, 1776, was read, and is in the words following, to wit:

“GENTLEMEN: The Brigade under my command murmur extremely for want of the remaining bounty due to them. It is my opinion that when they are mustered by the Continental Mustermaster, that there will be no deficiency in the Muster-Rolls sworn to by the Colonels of the respective Regiments, and returned to your Convention. I therefore wish most earnestly that the Convention would dispense with that part of the resolution with respect to the levies that relate to the mode of mustering my Brigade, as it is very uncertain when they can be mustered agreeable to the manner therein prescribed. As, from the present situation of our military operations, it is extremely probable that our Army will make the grand stand at the post I occupy, and as it is of the utmost consequence that harmony should prevail amongst the troops, I flatter myself the Convention will have no scruple in complying with my request. I shall desire General Washington to have my Brigade mustered as soon as possible, and shall make a regular return to the Convention of the whole Brigade.

"I am, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

"GEO. CLINTON, Brigadier-General.

"To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New-York."

The said Letter being immediately taken into consideration,

Resolved and Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State pay to General Clinton, or his Order, the sum of £7,000; and that General Clinton account for the same to the Convention or a future Legislature of this State.

Colonel Thomas informed the Committee that he had in his hands the sum of £251 12s., being part of the interest of the Loan-Office money due from the County of Westchester, and prays to know the opinion of the Committee with respect to the disposal of it.

Thereupon, Resolved and Ordered, That the said Colonel Thomas pay the above sum into the hands of the President of this Committee, and that the President give his receipt and pay the same to the Treasurer of this State; and that this order shall be considered by the Supervisors of Westchester County as a voucher for the sum so paid, in as full and ample manner as if the same had been paid to Abraham Lott, Esq., the late Treasurer of this State.

General Clinton informed the Committee that a considerable number of the Cartridges which were lately ordered from Norwood's Store, in New-York, to his encampment, were damaged by the rain in coming up the river to King's Bridge, and prayed to know the sense of the Committee with respect to the disposal of them.

Ordered, That General Clinton be requested to send the damaged Powder contained in the said Cartridges to the Powder-Mills of John R. Livingston, Esq., in Dutchess County, who is desired to remanufacture the same, and that this Committee pledge the publick faith for the defraying the contingent expenses.

Captain Brinton Payne's Examination relative to John Woolly being taken, is as follows, to wit:

"The examinant having observed that a boat went from the house of one Woolly, on Long-Island, to the ships of the enemy, took with him a party of men on the night of the 29th of August instant, and crossed the Sound to the house of the said Woolly; that having paraded his men, as they were going toward the river they were met by John Woolly, who is the owner of the above-mentioned boat, as this examinant has been informed, and another person, whose name he has forgot; that he imagines from their conduct they mistook him for persons belonging to the ships; that he charged him with having been on board; that Woolly owned he had been on board, but alleged that he had been taken by the barge of the enemy's ships; that they refused to give to this examinant any information of the state of the shipping.

"BRINTON PAYNE."

Resolved, That General Clinton be requested to cause further examinations to be taken relative to the capture of John Woolly and his companions; and that he cause the said John Woolly, and the person apprehended with him, to be sent under a sufficient guard to Poughkeepsie Jail, in Dutchess County; and that a copy of this Order, sent by General Clinton, shall be a sufficient mittimus to the Jailer of the said County.

Mr. Ebenezer Hazard, Deputy Postmaster for the New-York Department, waited on the Committee, and requested their opinion on the most proper place of safety and convenience to the publick to which he should remove his office, as an invasion of the City of New-York is hourly expected:

Whereupon, Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee of Safety that Mr. Hazard, Postmaster for the District of New-York, should immediately remove his office to some convenient place near Dobbs's Ferry till further orders from the Postmaster-General.

Whereas the Convention have granted an exemption from military duty to Mr. Charles Shaw; and whereas Richard Morris, Esq., is exempt therefrom by his commission, agreeable to the regulation of the Militia of this State; notwithstanding which, as this Committee are informed, Captain Varian insists on their serving in the Militia, this Committee are of opinion that Captain Varian should, agreeable to the Resolution of the Convention of this State, consider the said Charles Shaw and Richard Morris as exempt from military duty, and that a contrary conduct will be considered as a high contempt of the authority of this State, and punished as such.

At the House of Mr. Odell, in Philipse's Manor, }
August 31, 1776. }

The Committee met. Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., Mr. Robert R. Livingston, Mr. Duer, Colonel Cortlandt, Colonel Renselaer.

A Letter from General Washington, dated yesterday, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"August 30, 1776.

"SIR: Your favour of this date is just come to hand. Circumstanced as this Army was in respect to situation, strength, &c., it was the unanimous advice of a council of General Officers to give up the Long-Island and not, by dividing our force, be unable to resist the enemy in any one point of attack. This reason, added to some others, particularly the fear of having our communication cut off from the main body, (of which there seemed to be no small probability,) and the extreme fatigue our troops were laid under in guarding such extensive lines, without proper shelter from the weather, induced the above resolution.

"It is the most intricate thing in the world, sir, to know in what manner to conduct one's self with respect to the Militia. If you do not begin many days before they are wanted, to raise them, you cannot have them in time; if you do, they get tired and return, besides being under very little order or government whilst in service. However, if the enemy have a design of serving us at this place, as we apprehend they meant to do on Long-Island, it might not be improper to have a body in readiness to prevent or retard a landing of them on the east of Harlem River, if need be.

"In haste, and not a little fatigued, I remain, with great respect and esteem, sir, your most obedient, humble servant,
"GO. WASHINGTON.

"The Hon. Abraham Yates, Esq., President of the Congress of the State of New-York."

The said Letter was immediately taken into consideration, and the Committee came to the following Resolution, to wit:

Whereas, from the operations of the enemy and the intelligence received, there is strong reason to think that their Army intend to make a landing at or near King's Bridge, in order to cut off the communication betwixt New-York Island and the Main:

Resolved, That the inhabitants of New-York Island and those parts of Westchester County which are most exposed to the depredations of the enemy, do forthwith drive their Horned Cattle, Horses, Hogs, and Sheep into the interior part of this State, and that General Washington be requested to make this order publick, and to give all possible assistance in carrying it into execution when he shall think necessary.

A draft of a Letter to General Washington, in answer to his received this day, was read and approved, and is in the words following, to wit:

"August 31, 1776.

"SIR: We had the honour of your Excellency's letter of yesterday, and see the weight of the reasons which induced you to quit the lines on Long-Island. We acknowledge the difficulty of managing the Militia so as to render them useful, which is in some measure owing to their being ill-appointed and unused to camps, and of consequence suffering more than those who have got into a regular way of providing against inconveniences. We are so fully satisfied of the enemy's design to land above New-York, and of the mischiefs that will result therefrom, that we cannot, by any means, advise your Excellency to trust for its prevention to any Militia which we can at this time call out, who, after the great draughts we have already made, cannot be expeditiously collected well, ill armed, and we fear some of them not so well affected as we would wish. We know no country so capable of being defended as that above the bridge. Should the enemy once occupy it, we have reason to dread the consequences. We take the liberty to hint these things to your Excellency, though we are persuaded they have not escaped your observation, in order to convince our constituents and the rest of the Continent engaged in the same cause that we are willing to make any sacrifices which the general interest demands.

"We enclose a resolution for the removal of the cattle from the Island of New-York, which your Excellency will cause to be executed if you think it necessary, as we have no force that we can trust with its execution. We cannot but hope that the Commissary will give every relief to the inhabitants by purchasing from them all the stock that are fit for the use of the Army

"We have directed Colonel Smith to go to Long-Island, in order to destroy the cattle, which will otherwise serve as a supply to the enemy.

"If by calling in the outposts the force of an Army is so much concentrated that any part of them could safely be spared, we are fully persuaded that three thousand Rangers could be very usefully employed on Long-Island, and not only harass the enemy but prevent their foraging parties from ever getting beyond the Cross-Plains, which extend quite across the Island, and by that means save at least two-thirds of it from the enemy. Your Excellency knows how to pardon, on the score of your sincerity for the general welfare, our stepping somewhat out of the regular line, and suggesting such ideas as our knowledge of the country induces us to believe useful. We have the honour to be.

"His Excellency General Washington."

Ordered, That a copy thereof be engrossed, signed by the President, and, together with the foregoing Resolutions relative to the driving the Cattle from New-York Island, be immediately transmitted by express.

Colonel Jeromus Remsen followed the Committee from Harlem, and requested to know the sense of the Committee relative to the disposition of the Regiment of Militia under his command, and lately come from Long-Island.

After mature deliberation, the Committee came to the following Resolutions, to wit:

Whereas Colonel Remsen's Regiment is composed of the inhabitants of King's and Queen's Counties, which said Counties are at present occupied by the enemy; and whereas it is the duty of the Representatives of this State diligently to watch over the safety of their constituents, and to prevent their falling into the hands of a tyrannical enemy, who may compel them to bear arms against their country:

Therefore, Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to such of the said Militia who are attached to the cause of this invaded country, to form themselves into Companies, consisting of one Captain, one Lieutenant, one Ensign, three Sergeants, three Corporals, one Drum, one Fife, and fifty Privates.

Resolved, That these Companies be commanded by the same Colonel, Captains, and Subalterns, under whom they have hitherto served; and in case any Officer or Officers should decline accepting his or their commissions, the same should be tendered to the next commissioned Officers in rank, till the whole Companies are properly officered; and that in case, from the decline of a sufficient number of Officers to accept commissions, there should be any vacancies, the Company where such vacancy may be shall nominate an Officer, to whom the Convention of this State will grant a commission, whenever the said nomination shall be approved of by Brigadier-General Woodhull and Colonel Remsen.

Resolved, That these Troops, when raised, shall be entitled to Continental pay and rations, with a bounty of £4 to each man on passing muster, and that they continue in service till the last day of December next; and that if any men should choose to enlist for the space of three years, or during the war, they shall receive a bounty of twenty dollars per man on passing muster.

Resolved, That each man furnish himself with a good Gun or Musket, Cartouch-Box or Bullet-Pouch, a Blanket or Knapsack, and every six men with a Pot or Camp-Kettle.

Resolved and Ordered, That Colonel Remsen, with his Regiment of Militia, join General Clinton, at King's Bridge, till further order from the Convention or Committee of Safety of this State; and that he be authorized to grant furloughs to such of his Militia of whose attachment to the American cause he is well assured, to visit or remove their families from Long-Island: Provided always, That no man obtaining such furlough be permitted to carry his arms with him.

Resolved and Ordered, That the President pay to Colonel Remsen the sum of £251 12s., in payment of the pay due to his Regiment of Militia, taking his receipt for the same.

Which said sum the President immediately paid to Colonel Remsen, in presence of the Committee.

A Letter from Robert G. Livingston, dated at Newark, August the 27th, 1776, setting forth that Captain Anthony Rutgers refuses to receive from him in payment Continental money, was read and filed.

Ordered, That the said Letter be referred to the Convention.

The Committee proceeded to Croton River.

Croton River, at the house of Jno. Blagge.

The Committee, taking into consideration the necessity of having the earliest intelligence, came to the following Resolution, to wit:

As, in the present alarming situation of affairs, it is necessary that the Convention of this State should have the earliest intelligence from the Northern and Southern Armies:

Be it Resolved, That Mr. Hazard, Postmaster for the New-York Department, be requested to direct the Post, between New-York and Albany, to ride for the present time on the east side of Hudson's River weekly; and that a Letter be written to the Postmaster-General on this subject, informing him of the reasons on which this Resolution is founded.

Colonel Van Cortlandt introduced a Letter from James Teller, which was read.

Thereupon, it was Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that Mr. James Teller is entitled to the rank of Captain; and Ordered, That he join General Clinton's Brigade, with all possible despatch; and that he apply to Colonel Thomas for the first moiety of bounty due to his men, showing him this Resolution.

Fishkill, in Dutchess County, September 2, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., the President.

Colonel Van Cortlandt, Mr. Duer, Colonel Renselaer, Committee members. Mr. Duane, Colonel Livingston, Mr. Cuyler, General Ten Broeck.

Colonel Renselaer informed the Committee that he had received intelligence that the garrisons in Forts Constitution and Montgomery were ill armed, and otherwise in a situation ill calculated to annoy the enemy. The Committee taking the same into consideration, came to the following Resolution:

Resolved, That General Ten Broeck, Mr. Duane, Mr. Cuyler, and Colonel Livingston, be a Committee to visit Forts Constitution and Montgomery, and that they report with all possible despatch the state of the works, the number and health of the soldiers, the condition and number of their arms, the quantity of ammunition, ball, &c., the number of gunners, matrosses, &c., and every other matter which may tend to give to the Convention of this State a full and clear view of these important fortresses.

Resolved, That the said Committee show General Clinton a copy of the above Resolution; and that they request him to give all possible assistance in carrying the same into execution.

Fishkill, P. M., September 2, 1776.

The Committee of Safety met.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President.

Colonel Van Cortlandt, Colonel Renselaer, Mr. Duer, of the Committee; Mr. Stephens, Mr. Sessions, members for Cumberland County; Mr. Moore, Mr. Harper, Mr. Veder, for Tryon County; Mr. Tenbroeck, Mr. Adgate, for Albany County; Colonel Williams, Mr. Webster, for Charlotte County.

A member informed the Committee that a number of indigent infirm persons, who had been sent out of the City of New-York by the Committee for that purpose appointed, have been on board a sloop at Fishkill Landing eight or nine days, and that they complained much of their distressed situation.

Whereupon, it was Resolved and Ordered, That Mr.

Peter Murford, acting Chairman of the Committee of Rumbout Precinct, be requested to attend this Committee at nine o'clock, to-morrow morning.

Ordered, That the Secretaries furnish him with a copy of this order.

Fishkill, Tuesday, A. M., September 3, 1776.

The Committee met.

Present: Abraham Yates, Jun., Esq., President.

Mr. Duer, Colonel Renselaer, Colonel Cortlandt, Mr. Schenck, of the Committee. Mr. Robert Harper, Mr. Contine, Colonel Williams, Mr. Adgate, Mr. Harper, Mr. Webster, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. Sessions, Major Lockwood, Mr. Sacket, Mr. Bancker, Mr. Veder, Mr. Smith, Colonel De Wit.

Mr. Murford, the Deputy Chairman of Rumbout Precinct, pursuant to the order of yesterday, attended. He informed the Committee of Safety that by reason of his absence, the said Committee had not met till yesterday; that they have proceeded to the consideration of devising means to provide for the indigent persons now at Captain Bush's Landing, and lately sent from New-York by order of that Committee, and that some part of the Committee of Rumbout are to meet this afternoon on that service.

Ordered, That Major Schenck give his aid to the said Committee in placing the said Poor, agreeable to their merits, and a maintenance supplied to them.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of this State pay to Peter Montfort, Esquire, Deputy Chairman of the Committee of Rumbout Precinct, on his receipt, the sum of £100, on account, to be applied to the maintenance of the Poor lately sent from the City of New-York to Fishkill Landing, the Committee to be accountable, and render an account of the disposition and expenditure of that money.

A Letter from General Washington was received and read, to wit:

"New-York, September 1, 1776.

"SIR: I was yesterday honoured with your favour of that date, and should have answered it by the return of the person who brought it, had I not been engaged then in a multiplicity of business, which occasioned me to forget it till he was gone.

"In respect to the cattle on this Island, I shall desire the Commissary to purchase as many of them from the inhabitants as he can conveniently, and will afford every assistance the situation of affairs will admit of to have the remainder secured; but as to those on Long-Island, it is impossible for me to take any measures or give any assistance to prevent their falling into the enemy's hands. I am persuaded the number of Rangers you mention, were they to exert themselves, might be of service, and annoy the foraging parties of the enemy not a little; but, sir, I cannot spare any men for that purpose. Though our force is called in from the outposts, and collected upon this Island, yet it will not be more than competent to the defence of the several kinds necessary to be maintained; nor is it perhaps so great by any means as common estimation and report make it.

"I am extremely obliged by your opinion on the defensible state of the grounds above King's Bridge, though they had not escaped my observation. Their importance I am fully sensible of; and, as far as the critical situation of things will allow, their defence shall be attended to, to prevent, if possible, the enemy from possessing them.

"I have the honour to be, very respectfully, sir, your most obedient servant,

GO. WASHINGTON.

"P. S. As the posts at King's Bridge are of such great importance, I think it will be well and extremely necessary to be favoured with your friendly exertions, in affording every aid in your power for their defence. Cannot some more Militia be prevailed on to give their assistance, and in whom you can confide? I will not enlarge, being fully assured you will do all you can."

Ordered, That Major Lockwood proceed immediately to Westchester County, or elsewhere, and endeavour to see Colonel Smith and Colonel Remsen, in order to obtain intelligence from them of the state of their respective Regiments, and that he be empowered to order the said Regiments to repair to General Clinton's encampment, at King's Bridge, in case Colonel Smith finds it impracticable, from the disposition of his troops or other circumstances, to transport them to Long-Island; and that he inform Colonel Smith, in confidence, that means have been devised, and are now actually carrying into execution, to give him assistance in opposing the enemy on Long-Island.

And Resolved, That Major Lockwood be empowered to impress Horses, wherever he may have occasion for the same, to expedite his journey.

Whereas the Committee of Safety have received information that the Regiments of levies commanded by Colonel Smith are either dispersed or have been disbanded without the permission of this State, and that sundry men in Colonel Remsen's Regiment of King's and Queen's County Militia have been suffered to disperse and take their arms with them, contrary to an express order from this Committee:

Therefore, Resolved, unanimously, That General Clinton be requested to inquire into the truth of such intelligence, and that in case he finds the same true, that he be authorized to use the most effectual means of apprehending and detaining as many of the said levies and Militia as possible, even if they produce passes, till further order of the Convention or the Committee of Safety of this State; it being of the utmost consequence to the publick safety that so large a number of armed men should not be added to the enemy's power on Long-Island.

Resolved, unanimously, That it be recommended to the Committees of Westchester, Horse-Neck, Stamford, and Norwalk, diligently to watch all boats passing from the main to Long-Island, and to suffer no soldier belonging to any Regiment in the service of this State to pass over to Long-Island armed, even though he should produce an officer's pass; and that Major Lockwood be requested and authorized to forward copies of this Resolve to the said Committees respectively, by express, if he finds that Colonels Smith's and Remsen's Regiments are either dispersed or disbanded, and have received no orders to rendezvous on Long-Island.

Mr. Gerardus Bancker informed a Member of the Convention that on Saturday last, at the White-Plains, he heard Manning Bull say that Brigadier-General Woodhull was taken prisoner on Long-Island, and that soon after, on the same day, he heard Dr. Robert Graham say the same. In consequence of the said information, suspicion arose in the minds of the Members whether a correspondence is not kept up between some person or persons in Westchester County and the enemy on Long-Island.

Thereupon, a Letter was written to the Committee of Westchester County, in the words following, to wit:

"SIR: This Committee have been informed that Doctor Graham and Manning Bull had very early intelligence of General Woodhull's being taken prisoner on Long-Island. We are apprehensive that a correspondence is kept up between those persons, or some other in your County, and the enemy. You are therefore earnestly requested to make strict inquiry into this matter, by inquiring of whom they had their information, and report your proceedings with all possible despatch. You'll be pleased likewise to transmit to this Committee or the Convention your proceedings in the affair of Lounsbury, as also the commission and other papers found upon him. We are, &c.

"To the Chairman of Committee of Westchester County."

A Letter from Philip Livingston, Esq., one of our Delegates at Continental Congress, was received and read, and is in the words following, to wit:

"Philadelphia, August 30, 1776.

"SIR: Your favour, dated 28th, came to hand by the post, who returned before we had any opportunity to apply to Congress, as you desired. The application was immediately agreed to, and their resolve to employ the blacksmiths (who are now engaged in building the frigates) for the purpose of obstructing the navigation of Hudson's River, is here enclosed. We wish much to hear from you what is done in that affair, and what more is proposed to be done. The advices from New-York respecting the attack of the British troops on our Army on Long-Island are very various and uncertain. We could wish to hear from you as often as time will permit; our anxiety, as you may easily judge, is not small, and particular accounts, as often as possible, would be very agreeable. Many particulars that most chiefly concern us, as Members of your State, and are more interesting now than ever, we are not informed of. We know you are much engaged in affairs of the greatest moment, but perhaps one of your Secretaries may find time to despatch us a few lines every day or two. A considerable number of troops have, since Tuesday, marched from here to Amboy, say about three thousand, and as many more will probably be despatched within one week more. Mr. Lewis and Colonel Floyd beg to assure you that they are as well as the subscriber. Sir, your most obedient servant,

"Mr. Abraham Yates, Jun."

"PHIL. LIVINGSTON.

A Resolution of Congress, enclosed in and of the same date with the foregoing, was also read, and is in the words following, to wit:

That immediately on the surrender, the garrison was put into the custody of the Savages, who plundered them of their baggage, and even stripped them of their clothes :

That Major Sherburne, having landed on Monday, the 20th, at Quinze Chenes, about nine miles from the Cedars, and marched on with his party, consisting then of one hundred men, to within four miles thereof, was there attacked by about five hundred of the enemy: that he maintained his ground about an hour, and then, being constrained to retreat, performed the same in good order, receiving and returning a constant fire for about forty minutes, when the enemy, finding means to post advanced parties in such a manner as to intercept his farther retreat, they also were made prisoners of war :

That they were immediately put into the custody of the Savages, carried to where Major Butterfield and his party were, and stripped of their baggage and wearing apparel :

That two of them were put to death that evening, four or five others at different times afterwards, one of whom was of those who surrendered on capitulation at the Cedars, and was killed on the eighth day after that surrender; that one was first shot, and, while retaining life and sensation, was roasted, as was related by his companion now in possession of the Savages, who himself saw the fact; and that several others, being worn down by famine and cruelty, were left exposed in an island naked, and perishing with cold and hunger :

That while Major Sherburne was in custody of the enemy, Captain Forster required of him and the other officers to sign a cartel, stipulating the exchange of themselves and their men for as many of equal condition of the British troops in our possession; further, that notwithstanding the exchange, neither themselves nor men should ever again bear arms against the British Government; and for the performance of this, four hostages were to be delivered, which they, being under the absolute power of the enemy, did sign :

That on Sunday, the 26th, the prisoners were carried to Quinze Chenes, when it was discovered that General Arnold was approaching, and making dispositions to attack them :

That Captain Forster, having desired Major Sherburne to attend a flag, which he was about to send to General Arnold, for confirmation of the cartel, carried him into the council of Indians, then sitting, who told him that it was a mercy never before shown in their wars, that they had put to death so few of the prisoners; but that he must expect, and so inform General Arnold, that they should certainly kill every man who should thereafter fall into their hands :

That Captain Forster joined in desiring that this bloody message should be delivered to General Arnold; and moreover, that he should be notified, that if he rejected the cartel, and attacked him, every man of the prisoners would be put to instant death :

That General Arnold was extremely averse from entering into any agreement, and was at length induced to do it by no other motive than that of saving the prisoners from cruel and inhuman death, threatened in such terms as left no doubt it was to be perpetrated, and that he did in the end conclude it, after several flags received from Captain Forster, and a relinquishment by him of the unequal article restraining our soldiers from again bearing arms :

That the prisoners, so stipulated to be given up to the enemy, were not in the possession of General Arnold, nor under his direction, but were, at that time, distributed in various parts of the Continent, under the orders of this House :

That four hostages were accordingly delivered to Captain Forster, who were immediately plundered and stripped by the Savages; and on his part were delivered one Major, four Captains, sixteen Subalterns, and three hundred and fifty-five Privates, as specified in a certificate of Captain James Osgood and others, of whom no specification by their names or numbers has yet been transmitted; that he retained twelve Canadians, alleging, in his justification, express orders so to do; and that, living in a military Government, they were to be considered even in a worse light than deserters from his Majesty's armies; these he carried away in irons, but afterwards released: that he permitted the Indians to carry into their countries several other natives of the United States, for purposes unknown:

That, during the time of their captivity, not half food was allowed the prisoners; they were continually insulted, buffeted, and ill treated by the Savages; and when the first parties of them were carried off from the shore to be delivered to General Arnold, balls of mud were fired at them, and at the last parties, musket balls.

The Congress, taking into consideration the foregoing Report, came to the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That all acts contrary to good faith, the laws of nature, or the customs of civilized nations, done by the officers or soldiers of his Britannick Majesty, or by foreigners or Savages taken into his service, are to be considered as done by his orders, unless indemnification be made, in cases which admit indemnification, and in all other cases, unless immediate and effective measures be taken by him, or by his officers, for bringing to condign punishment the authors, abettors, and perpetrators of the act:

That the plundering the baggage of the garrison at the Cedars, stripping them of their clothes, and delivering them into the hands of the Savages, was a breach of the capitulation on the part of the enemy, for which indemnification ought to be demanded:

That the murder of the prisoners-of-war was a gross and inhuman violation of the laws of nature and nations; that condign punishment should be inflicted on the authors, abettors, and perpetrators of the same; and that, for this purpose, it be required that they be delivered into our hands:

That the agreement entered into by General Arnold was a mere sponson on his part, he not being invested with powers for the disposal of prisoners not in his possession, nor under his direction; and that, therefore, it is subject to be ratified or annulled, at the discretion of this House:

That the shameful surrender of the post at the Cedars is chargeable on the Commanding Officer; that such other of the prisoners as were taken there, showed a willingness and desire to fight the enemy; and that Major Sherburne, and the prisoners taken with him, though their disparity of numbers was great, fought the enemy bravely for a considerable time, and surrendered at last, but on absolute necessity; on which consideration, and on which alone, it is resolved, that the said sponson be ratified; and that an equal number of captives from the enemy, of the same rank and condition, be restored to them, as stipulated by the said sponson:

That, previous to the delivery of the prisoners to be returned on our part, the British Commander in Canada be required to deliver into our hands the authors, abettors, and perpetrators of the horrid murder committed on the prisoners, to suffer such punishment as their crime deserves; and also to make indemnification for the plunder at the Cedars, taken contrary to the faith of the capitulation; and that, until such delivery and indemnification be made, the said prisoners be not delivered:

That, if the enemy shall commit any further violences, by putting to death, torturing, or otherwise ill treating the prisoners retained by them, or any of the hostages put into their hands, recourse be had to retaliation, as the sole means of stopping the progress of human butchery; and that, for that purpose, punishments of the same kind and degree be inflicted on an equal number of the captives from them in our possession, till they shall be taught to respect the violated rights of nations:

That a copy of the above Report and Resolutions be transmitted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Forces, to be by him sent to Generals Howe and Burgoyne.

"That the want of hard money has been one other great source of the miscarriages in Canada, rendering the supplies of necessaries difficult and precarious, the establishment of proper magazines absolutely impracticable, and the pay of the Troops of little use to them:

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by overthrowing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. — He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. — He has called together legislative Bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has refused for a long time, after each dissolution, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. — He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. — He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing his assent to Laws for establishing judiciary powers. — He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance. — He has kept among us in times of peace standing Armies without the consent of our Legislature. — He has endeavored to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. — He has aroused and payment of their salaries. — He has created a multitude of new Offices, and sent numerous swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance. — He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing Armies without the Consent of our Legislatures. — He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. — He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: — For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: — For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: — For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: — For depriving us in many cases of the benefits of Trial by Jury: — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences — For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: — For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: — For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. — He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. — He has kept this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands. — He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions We have petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their Legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of conciliation. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

The Committee appointed to devise a plan for encouraging the Hessians and other Foreigners to quit the British service, brought in a Report, which was taken into consideration: Whereupon, Congress came to the following Resolution:

Whereas it has been the wise policy of these States to extend the protection of their laws to all those who should settle among them, of whatever nation or religion they might be, and to admit them to a participation of the benefits of civil and religious freedom; and the benevolence of this practice, as well as its salutary effects, have rendered it worthy of being continued in future times:

And whereas his Britannick Majesty, in order to destroy our freedom and happiness, has commenced against us a cruel and unprovoked war; and unable to engage Britons sufficient to execute his sanguinary measures, has applied for aid to foreign Princes, who are in the habit of selling the blood of their people for money, and from them has procured and transported hither considerable numbers of foreigners: And it is conceived that such foreigners, if apprised of the practice of these States, would choose to accept of lands, liberty, safety, and a communion of good laws, and mild Government, in a country where many of their friends and relations are already happily settled, rather than continue exposed to the toils and dangers of a long and bloody war, waged against a people guilty of no other crime than that of refusing to exchange freedom for slavery; and that they will do this the more especially when they reflect that after they shall have violated every Christian and moral precept, by invading and attempting to destroy those who have never injured them or their country, their only reward, if they escape death and captivity, will be a return to the despotism of their Prince, to be by him again sold to do the drudgery of some other enemy to the rights of mankind:

And whereas the Parliament of Great Britain have thought fit, by a late act, not only to invite our Troops to desert our service, but to direct a compulsion of our people, taken at sea, to serve against their country:

Resolved, therefore, That these States will receive all such foreigners who shall leave the Armies of his Britannick Majesty in America, and shall choose to become members of any of these States; that they shall be protected in the free exercise of their respective religions, and be invested with the rights, privileges and immunities of natives, as established by the laws of these States; and, moreover, that this Congress will provide, for every such person, fifty acres of unappropriated lands in some of these States, to be held by him and his heirs in absolute property.

Resolved, That the foregoing Resolution be committed to the Committee who brought in the Report, and that they be directed to have it translated into German, and to take proper measures to have it communicated to the foreign troops; in the meanwhile that this be kept secret.
